

The Theaters

THE MARQUAM.—David Garfield, one of Mr. Willard's most successful plays, will be seen at the Marquam tonight. It will be preceded by The Silent Woman. The theater should be crowded at this performance.

THE BAKER.—Tonight closes the successful week of Hazel Kirke. The attendance has been increasing nightly.

CORDRAY'S.—The Frank Cooley Company is giving its last two performances today. At the matinee, The Butterflies is receiving its last presentation. Tonight, Sol Smith Russell's celebrated play, Peaceful Valley, will be seen for the last time.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

MARQUAM.

Mrs. Fannie Bloomfield Zeigler has never seemed so large a figure as an artist as at present. Her playing is not unfamiliar to the musical public and has always been heard with admiration, because it is full of marked individuality of an independent artistic sense, and of that fascinating quality that is known as temperament. It may not be going too far to say that no pianist this year received such a cordial and spontaneous tribute from her audiences, and, best of all, it is quite deserved. Mrs. Zeigler is wholly womanly. Her work contains no taint of pseudo-masculinity. She has power and forcefulness when occasion calls for those qualities, but she does not seek to dazzle and overwhelm her hearers with a vast volume of tone and glitter of technique. Technic she has—a most admirable equipment—but it is the poetic feeling, the freshness of the sentiment, the spontaneity, and, if the term may be used, the naivete of it all that gives her distinction. She gives a performance that refreshes and stimulates, even in these days of endless piano recitals. She appears for one night only, Monday, May 5.

THE BAKER.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the production of Franklin Fyles' great war play, "Cumberland '61," at Baker Theater, commencing Sunday, May 4. The scenic embellishments will be the most complete yet offered by Mr. Baker, the stage room being sufficient to give a marvelous display of scenic effects.

The Stuart Company will be seen to great advantage. The costumes and trappings for the play will be exactly the same as used by Mr. Augustus Pitou of the Fourteenth Street Theater, New York, under whose management "Cumberland '61" had such a long and successful run a few seasons ago. This will be one of the season's best offerings by the Stuart Company.

It also might be mentioned that this is the first time that this great play has been produced at popular prices by any stock organization in America.

CORDRAY'S

John Griffith, who bears the distinction of being a capable "Mephisto," will be seen at Cordray's Theater tomorrow evening in a superb production of Goethe's "Faust."

Mr. Griffith, who is said to have the physique, pose and voice necessary to carry this character to its limit, has surrounded himself with capable and painstaking people, who support him in a superior manner.

Miss Kathryn Purnell, his leading lady, besides being very pretty, is an artistic actress of very high order. Mr. Arlien, as Valentine, and Fred Montague, as Faust, are both well-known actors.

"Faust" will be given Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Saturday matinee, to be replaced on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights by Mr. Griffith's great comedy success, "A King's Rival."

Mr. Cordray regards this engagement as one of the season's best.

as unusually important, from the fact that it gives his patrons an opportunity of enjoying a standard attraction at popular prices.

REAL BANDIT ON THE STAGE

(Journal Special Service.)
ROME, May 2.—The latest story from Lucca regarding the bandit Mussolino, who is on trial there for murder, is that an American impresario has made a contract with him to make a tour of the United States in the event of his acquittal.

CAN'T COLLIDE

Astonishing Contrivance to Prevent Accidents.

(Journal Special Service.)
CHICAGO, May 2.—In railroad circles much interest is manifested in the result of tests now being made on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road with a new automatic block system. It is claimed for the new system that it can not fail to prevent collisions and other accidents when engineers disregard or fail to see signals. The mechanism is so arranged that whenever an engineer passes into a section that is blocked against him an automatic device sets the air brakes and stops the train. This device is operated by a battery of springs, which are wound up by the vibratory motion of the rails as the engine and train pass over them. Accordingly there is no dependence on electricity, which is not trustworthy in bad weather.

FIVE BUFFALOS SHIPPED EAST

(Journal Special Service.)
LIVINGSTON, Mont., May 2.—Five Buffalo cows and two bulls, all magnificent specimens of the new nearly extinct buffalo tribe, were shipped from this city this morning to the Pittsburg zoo.

The animals were raised in the Flathead valley by Howard Eaton, and they were unloaded from the car here and turned into different pens in the stock yards for rest and feed.

They are being transported East in separate stalls and of sufficient dimensions to allow the animals to lie down. They will go by easy stages and will be taken from the car and fed at convenient points until their arrival at Pittsburg.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Spring fever is epidemic among members of Congress. The hearts of the rural members turn these days to the farm, and even the city member is heard to pronounce it all "vanity and a chasing of the wind" and to threaten to "quit politics for good."

Spring cleaning is on at the White House. As usual the green-carpet will be taken up in the hall and scraw matting at 30 cents a yard, substituted. The Roosevelt's have had a man in to spool up the white paint and shake the rugs.

Not Senator Beveridge's reference to Roosevelt's enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law. More will be heard of that. For the first time in 11 years the Roosevelt's have been brought to book. The Roosevelt campaign will be on lines of anti-trust.

Head Farmer Wilson says he is way behind on his spring plowing. The season has been backward in this section, and he has been very busy mixing up in the beet sugar fight.

They talk about Congress adjourning in June, but it is more likely to be July or August. The real fun has hardly been legislating bounties to J. P. Morgan the Philippines—and Cuban reciprocity—not to mention the Nicaraguan canal.

The ship subsidy bill is up on a top shelf, and there it will stay for quite a while. That $17,000,000 combination trust business did it. Congress can't afford to be legislating bounties to J. P. Morgan & Co. At least not on the verge of congressional campaigns.

Adjutant-General Henry C. Corbin called at the White House and was cordially received by the President. Only six months ago Adjutant-General Corbin called at the White House and cooled his heels in the corridor. Is he a wizard?

THE NEGROS BEGIN THE WAR

(Journal Special Service.)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 2.—A test case involving the franchise provisions of the new state constitution is to be taken to the United States Supreme Court by the negroes of Alabama. It will be based on an affidavit made today by Nelson Bibb, an aged negro, who swore that he had been denied the right to register, although alleging that he had complied with all the qualifications exacted by the constitution.

HORRIBLE HOAX.

Woman Received an Egg, Supposedly From Heaven, and Prepared to Die.

(Journal Special Service.)
SANTA FE, N. M., May 2.—A remarkable story comes from Seven Rivers, Eddy County. Little Frank Dalton recently found an egg in a nest in Peter Corn's chicken house and took it to Mrs. Corn. On the egg was the inscription, "Prepare to Meet Your God," printed in relief letters. Mrs. Corn believed it a message from God and prepared herself to die, after writing to all her relatives.

The following Sunday, there being no church, there was a large gathering at the Corn homestead to view the egg. A dispute arose over the supposed message from on high, and one faction offered $20 for another egg just like the one in Mrs. Corn's possession. Homer Wilder and Lester Allen bet their horses against $20 that they could make an egg just like the one in question. Their bet was taken up; they went to the Wilder homestead and made an egg exactly like that at the Corns. Wilder took it to the ranch of Oscar Sassin, who ordered Wilder and Allen from his premises. As they would not go, Sassin threw a rock at Allen, was arrested for assault and fined $5 and costs.

Wilder afterward acknowledged that he had manufactured the egg which had given Mrs. Corn such a scare.

IMPORTANT.

"I thought you said this was a life or death case?" growled the sleepy druggist who had been awakened at 3 a. m. by a man who wanted a 2-cent stamp. "So it is," declared the man, "so it is. I've got to mail this letter to my wife at once that she may get it in time to postpone her return home long enough for me to have a new mirror put in the parlor and the hall repapered. Some of the boys spent the evening with me tonight." —Judge.

NEW BISHOP Mass of Catholic Prelates in Springfield Today.

(Journal Special Service.)
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 2.—A host of Catholic prelates and clergy are in Springfield to attend the consecration of Rev. Dr. P. J. Garrigan as bishop of the new Catholic see of Sioux City. Dr. Garrigan was ordained for the diocese of Springfield, and for that reason his consecration is to take place here. His installation is expected to follow at Sioux City within a week or two. Few dignitaries of the Catholic Church in America enjoy a wider popularity than the bishop-elect, who has been the vicar of the Catholic University at Washington since its organization in 1888. He was previously pastor of the Catholic Church at Worcester, Mass., and Bishop Conant, now rector of the university, was his curate. Dr. Garrigan was born in Ireland, but came to this country with his parents at an early age.

GREAT FETE (Journal Special Service.) MARSEILLES, May 2.—Marseilles counts among its inhabitants 110,000 Italians, and their enthusiasm has been aroused to the highest pitch in anticipation of the opening tomorrow of the Franco-Italian fete, for which preparations have been completed on a grand scale. Tomorrow has been appropriately chosen as the opening date, as it is the anniversary of the founding of the Italian Mutual Aid Societies on the French Mediterranean coast. The Italian Minister, Luzzati, will be present, and the famous tenor, Fernago, will sing. The celebration is expected to accomplish much in the way of strengthening the links of friendship between Italy and France.

GEORGIA BOURBONS. (Journal Special Service.) GAINESVILLE, Ga., May 2.—In compliance with the call of Chairman Henley, the Democratic executive committee of the Ninth Congressional district is in session here today to arrange for the coming primary. It is not known what day will be selected for the Congressional primary. As Colonel Carter Tate has no opposition, it will in all probability come on June 5, the same as that for the selection of a Governor and other state officials.

RAILROAD DEAL. (Journal Special Service.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 2.—The stockholders of the Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf Railroad, the control of which is shortly to go into the hands of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company, are to decide today on a proposition of the directors to purchase the Choctaw Northern Railroad and then resell it to the Rock Island.

GREAT STOCK SALE WORCESTER, Mass., May 2.—At Hillside farm today a sale was commenced of the famous herd of Jersey cattle belonging to William J. Hogg. The herd comprises 60 head of the most highly bred stock in the country, including the famous bull, Hillside Patriarch.

BARTENDERS' ASSOCIATION LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Arrangements are practically completed for the convention of the National Bartenders' Association, which is to be held in Louisville week after next. Advises indicate large delegations from Boston, New York, Cincinnati, Chicago, New Orleans and other cities. Among the principal speakers will be the national president, Joseph R. Michaels of Syracuse, N. Y., and the national secretary, Jerry L. Sullivan of Cincinnati. The social side of the meeting will include a banquet and numerous other features.

CHANGE OF TIME (Journal Special Service.) KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—The Burlington system has arranged to put into effect tomorrow a complete change of schedule between this city and Billings, Mont. The night train will leave Kansas City two hours later, at 6:30 p. m., allowing afternoon connections to be made from the East that formerly were missed. The same train will leave Lincoln at 1 a. m., instead of 11 p. m., and will arrive at Billings at 3:45 p. m., making connections with a Northern Pacific through train to the West. The change results in a cut of two hours in the time between Kansas City and Billings.

OLD PRINCETON. (Journal Special Service.) PRINCETON, N. J., May 2.—The exercises in connection with the 89th annual commencement of the Princeton Theological Seminary will begin tomorrow morning, when the graduating class will assemble in Miller Chapel to listen to the annual sermon by the Rev. Dr. John Fox, secretary of the American Bible Society. The graduation exercises are to be held Tuesday. The address is to be delivered by Maurice H. Stratton of New Jersey.

KEENE ONLY AILING. (Scripture-McRae News Association.) NEW YORK, May 2.—James R. Keene's private secretary says there is no truth in the report that Keene is alarmingly ill. Keene is suffering slightly from rheumatism, but is able to go out every day for exercise. Have you tried Peacock hard wheat flour?

NO WHISKY. Dewey's Men Drank Nothing During the Fight.

(Journal Special Service.) CANTON, O., May 2.—Boys in a Sunday school class at the First Presbyterian church taught by Mrs. Carrie Rerapool, did not like some of the doctrine in a temperance lesson because, they said, Dewey and his men at Manila had taken liquor while in the fight. Mrs. Rerapool wrote Admiral Dewey, and received a reply, which says: "Dear Madam: I am very glad to have an opportunity of correcting the impression which you say prevails among your Sunday school scholars that the men on my feet were given liquor every twenty minutes during the battle of Manila Bay. As a matter of fact, every participant, from myself down, fought the battle of Manila Bay on coffee alone. The United States laws forbid the taking of liquor aboard ship, except for medicinal uses, and we had no liquor that we could have given the men even had it been desired to do so. Very truly yours, "GEORGE DEWEY."

INSIDE FACTS. One Who Served the British Gives Out Secrets. (Journal Special Service.) NEW YORK, May 2.—Inside facts relative to the British remount commission, which has been the subject of inquiry from the government, have been given out here. It is alleged that the facts are from Sergeant James T. Carmody, who was lately honorably discharged from the commission. Among other things, Sergeant Carmody is quoted as saying: "There are now four military posts in the United States—that at Lathrop, which is the headquarters; one at Billings, Mont., which is the camp for buying horses; one at Fort Worth, Tex., for buying mules, and one at Fort Chamette, a tremendous establishment, where all the horses and mules are gathered for shipment on transports, which the admiralty charters. "These military depots in Louisiana and Missouri are conducted in precisely the same way; the men in them are under the same discipline as in like remount establishments in England, South Africa and Canada—save that the King's officers on duty in this country do not wear uniforms." An agreement which Sergeant Carmody says he signed when he entered the service includes this article: "I agree to serve anywhere in North America as may be directed by the officer commanding and in any capacity which involves such duties as are usually expected on the part of commissioned officers of Her Majesty's army." There is another article agreeing not to divulge any information which may have come to his attention.

WOOLEN MILL OPENS. Sellwood was in gala attire last evening, the event being the formal opening of the Portland Woollen Mills located at that place. Firemen's hall was crowded to the doors with the large number of visitors who came to celebrate the most important event that has happened in industrial Portland for a number of years. The celebration at the hall was in charge of the Sellwood Sub-Board of Trade and President D. M. Dugan was the presiding officer of the evening, making a number of little speeches to welcome the board's guests. The speech of President W. F. Olin, of the Woollen Mills, was the address of the evening. Mr. Olin said in substance: "The work of manufacturing cloth from the time the wool leaves the sheep's back to the product is so varied in its nature that it is by the Portland Woollen Mills Peacock flour for sale at all grocers."
