

LOOKS BRIGHT Indications Point to Democratic Success.

George E. Chamberlain spent Sunday in Portland, and left on the evening train for Lebanon and Brownsville, speaking at the latter place in the afternoon and at the former in the evening.

Colonel Butcher, nominee for Congress in the Second District, left this morning for The Dalles, where he opens his campaign. He will make most of the Eastern Oregon towns, returning to this county later in the campaign.

Henry Blackman, nominee for State Treasurer, leaves tomorrow for Eastern Oregon, and will travel by stage through many of the counties. He intends to cover much territory and prosecute the campaign vigorously.

Colonel Raley is attending the Supreme Court at Pendleton today, and will soon return here, to go through the valley with J. K. Weatherford.

Sam White, state chairman, left Sunday night for Pendleton, where, as District Attorney of the Sixth Judicial District, he will argue cases before the Supreme Court. He will return within a few days and remain here during the entire campaign. R. W. Montague, secretary, is in charge of the headquarters during Mr. White's absence.

Fred Johnson of Baker City is at the headquarters for a few days, and will go home this week to take a prominent part in the campaign in Baker County.

C. V. Galloway of McMinnville, who was secretary of the state Democratic convention, last week accepted the nomination for Representative from Yamhill County.

WILL CARRY LANE BY NINE HUNDRED

A. P. Bettersworth, of the Harrisburg Bulletin, who was in town Saturday, gives the following statement regarding the situation in Lane County:

"Lane County is George Chamberlain's old home, and down there everybody likes him. That he will carry the county goes without the saying, and that he will have 1000 majority is beyond doubt. We claim at least that, with the situation improving every day, and more and more people declaring for him for Governor among the Republicans."

"The leading Republicans concede that

BARGAIN DAY IN USED PIANOS AND ORGANS

ALL GUARANTEED—Cut out this List and Bring It With You for You Will Find on the Floor Every Piano That is Advertised if You Call Monday.

Of the three $100 pianos that were damaged in shipment, and which we advertised we would sell for $25, only one is left, which is one of the greatest bargains you ever saw, and will not be available by noon tomorrow.

One large 7-1/2 octave Kimball cabinet grand, little used, 4-1/2 in. exchange for Kimball baby grand, $275. One baby grand $100. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $150. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $125. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $100. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $75. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $50. One 7-1/2 octave Kimball upright, $25.

If you are going to buy a piano, you will find it to your advantage to see the first car Monday morning at the Elvers Piano House, for there certainly will be a rush for this beauty. The piano has a Brazilian walnut case, the design of which is strictly colonial, and the tone is the same—it is just grand. The original purchaser of this piano did not have a large enough room for its retention, and it is being sold at a low price, thus requiring a large room, so we reluctantly exchange for a smaller upright.

To go into detail regarding our great bargains would require too much space, but we will enumerate a few for you to think over: 7-1/2 octave Singer, mahogany, $275; 7-1/2 octave Fischer, little used (taken in exchange for a Kimball), $165; 7-1/2 octave Decker, guaranteed for five years, $120; 7-1/2 octave Hardman, walnut (one of the latest styles), just as good as new, $185; 7-1/2 octave Victoria, walnut, looks like new, $150; 7-1/2 octave Hinze, French walnut, $125. This is a beautiful piano and easily arranged to suit you, and we guarantee it for five years.

We have stocks of second-hand organs from $7 to $25, and new ones from $15 to $200. Do you want a Weber square or grand, new $125. Buy it. We have other squares from $15 upwards. Be sure to call at once if you want your pick. Through you are not quite ready to buy a piano, call and see how easily arrangements can be made for you to secure one.

You are welcome at all times to hear the Angelus, the great piano-player, that gets such wonderful orchestral effects from the many-toned Crown piano. If you have the blues, nothing will cheer you like piano music, which can be heard any time here, so don't fail to call when so affected.

he will have from $80 to $50, and make no attempt to deny it.

"Weatherford for congress also will carry the county by 1000. He is especially strong, and will sweep that region."

"Regarding the Valley in general, there is this to say: Chamberlain will sweep the decks and Furnish will think that he has struck a Kansas cyclone after the votes have been counted. All claims to the contrary made by the opposition are merely to bolster up a losing cause. We who live here know what is the sentiment, and that it is for Chamberlain."

Mr. Bettersworth says that the people of Harrisburg will give Mr. Chamberlain a rousing reception. Arrangements are complete, and in the hands of competent men, who will see that nothing is left undone to make the meeting fit the opera house success. From this time on until June 2, the campaign will be a hummer.

Drummers for Chamberlain.

A well-known traveling man, who has never voted any but the Republican ticket in his life, who has just returned from a trip through Eastern Oregon, says that he found the business people of that section wild for Chamberlain for Governor. He said that a new feature had developed—that the people east of the mountains want a Multnomah man for Governor because they say that all the state appropriations that are given them come through the Multnomah delegation, and they would prefer a Portland man to look after their interests.

POLITICAL DOINGS.

A large and active Chamberlain Club has been organized by Henry Bolton at Kingsley.

Next Saturday evening the residents of East Portland will be entertained at Burkhard Hall, at East Burnside and Grand avenue, with addresses by Judge George H. Williams, the Republican nominee for Mayor, and Senator C. W. Fulton.

The Democratic committee had hoped to have the services of E. S. Wood in the campaign, but it is understood that Mr. Wood cannot arrange his business to return to Oregon from New York until the latter part of May.

Colonel James H. Raley, the Democratic candidate for Attorney-General, who was in Portland Saturday on his way to Pendleton from Southern Oregon, will return at once, and, with J. K. Weatherford of Albany, the Congressional nominee, make a thorough canvass of the western counties of the state. It is the intention of these gentlemen to follow hot on the trail of Messrs. Fulton and Furnish and reply in detail to the assertions now being made by the favorite son of Clatsop.

There is a demand on the Democratic State Committee from all parts of the state for the services of Robert H. Smith of Josephine County. Whatever time Mr. Smith can take away from his own canvass for the Legislature in his own county will be devoted to the state canvass. He is regarded as one of the ablest and most effective campaign orators in the state.

R. H. Mitchell, editor of the Rainier Gazette, was in the city Saturday, and was at Democratic headquarters conferring with Chairman White and the state committee. Mr. Mitchell brought significant and important news, and he claims that the Republican majority in Columbia County will be obliterated.

State Chairman White and Secretary Montague of the Democratic committee are engaged in perfecting the dates for a large number of speakers who have offered their services to the committee. The greater have been liberal in tendering their time, so that it is assured that from this time on there will be a vigorous campaign.

Judge George H. Williams will launch his campaign for the Mayoralty tonight with an address before the Roosevelt Republican Club at the pavilion tent, corner Grand avenue and East Market street. Hon. William M. Colvig of Jacksonville will also speak upon the issues of the day.

Public speeches will be made this week by the several candidates for office on the Republican ticket. Nominees W. J. Furnish, J. H. Ackerman, A. M. Crawford and Senator C. W. Fulton will appear at the following places: Oakland, today; Roseburg, today, Eugene, May 6; Cottage Grove, May 7, 10 a. m.; Harrisburg, May 7, 2:30 p. m.; Junction City, May 7, evening; Lebanon, May 8, 1 p. m.; Brownsville, May 8, evening; Halsey, May 9, 10 a. m.; Albany, May 9, evening; East Portland, May 10; Independence, May 12, 1:30 p. m.; Dallas, May 12, evening.

FAIR SITE Not to Be Selected in A Hurry.

Proposals Opened This Afternoon by Committee.

Fourteen communications have been submitted to Secretary Reed in regard to the Lewis and Clark Fair site. Of these 14, six are addressed as proposals and submit Sellwood, University Park, Ladd's Field, Guild's Lake, City Park and the Abrams and Knox tract as the best possible sites for the 1905 Fair.

W. S. Fildner called on President Corbett this morning in the interests of the Terwilliger tract, and requested Mr. Corbett to set a time when the Board of Directors could receive a committee from the South Portland Improvement Association, who have the interests of the Terwilliger tract in hand.

Park Commissioner T. C. Elliott, and Colonel L. L. Hawkins are working zealously for the fair site to be the City Park. They are ready to furnish a competent engineer who will explain the merits of the City Park to the executive committee.

Yesterday Messrs. Leo Friede, A. H. Devers, I. N. Fieschner and E. Dresser inspected Guild's Lake, Fulton and Abrams and Knox Tract. Mr. Devers says that the board will have a hard time selecting a site, as nearly all the proposed sites are good locations.

The executive committee will meet late this afternoon to open the proposals, but no action will be taken today, as the committee will submit the proposals to a full meeting of the board later.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

M. A. Butler of Baker City, former law partner of Senator Mitchell, is stopping at the Imperial.

John C. Young, a Baker City mining man, is in the city.

J. B. Lureh, the Cottage Grove merchant, is in the city.

W. C. Richards, an attorney from Sumpter, is in Portland to remain several days.

H. G. Guild of Salem is in the city, en route to Prosser, Wash., to engage in the newspaper business. He has been located at Salem for several years, publishing the Weekly Independent.

E. B. Richards and E. V. Conklin of Silverton are registered at Hotel Perkins.

Sam Schmidt of Astoria, proprietor of a large cannery and cold storage plant, is in the city.

J. M. Murphy and E. E. Kirtley of La Grande are attending the State Federation of Labor as delegates.

James Dempsey and son, John C. Dempsey, and Michael Gallagher of Michigan are in the city looking after purchasable timber.

Robert T. Wendling, recently graduated from the Philadelphia Dental College, has returned to Portland to locate.

Mrs. J. J. Henderson and daughter from Antle, Ia., are visiting the former's brother, J. W. Gilbaugh, at Mount Tabor.

Mrs. Theodasia Geer-Downing of Salem is visiting friends in Portland.

Sheriff Huntington of Baker City is in the city on official business.

J. A. Gilbaugh of Amity has returned to Portland to locate, after a two years' absence in Oklahoma.

Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman and family, who were in Chicago on the 21st ult., are now at Sheffield, Ill. In writing of the weather on the above date, the reverend gentleman says it "was hot, hot, hot." Rev. Ackerman's Oregon book has been accepted by a Chicago publisher, and he will spend most of the month of May in revising his manuscript.

W. S. ALLEN ON SHORTHORNS

Among Saturday's visitors to Portland was W. S. Allen of Dundee who was formerly herdsman for President James J. Hill of the Great Northern. Mr. Allen was on his way to Colfax, Wash., to attend the sale of Shorthorn bulls that takes place there May 8-9, by the American Shorthorn Association. Five carloads of registered Shorthorns are to be disposed of that belong to popular strains. These are of Scotch stock and also of standard American families. These sales are due to the energy of Industrial Agent Judson of the O. R. & N. Company, which is seeking to improve and raise the standard of Oregon cattle.

Mr. Allen, who is a thorough cattle man, in speaking of the effect that the bringing in of pure bred bulls would have upon the future stock interests of the state, said:

"There are only one or two representative Shorthorns in the Willamette Valley. It would certainly be of benefit to those who are in the business to have the Shorthorn Association bring in pure bred bulls and distribute them throughout the Willamette Valley. The result would be that where three steers are now being fed in a couple of years it would be necessary only to feed two steers to produce as much beef for the market, which certainly would be an economical move."

BOARD OF TRADE.

Secretary Moore of the Board of Trade has received a letter from Senator Mitchell stating that he will communicate with the department and ascertain why the Portland mills have not had an opportunity to bid on lumber purchased by the United States government.

Many inquiries about Oregon are coming in, and Secretary Moore is busy sending out folders descriptive of Oregon's resources.

Ralston Vollmer, Mayor of Genesee, Ida., writes that he would be pleased to serve as an incorporator of the Columbia River Company.

THE WEATHER.

Light frosts occurred generally this morning in Idaho and in exposed places in Eastern Washington and Eastern Oregon.

Light to moderately heavy rains have fallen in Eastern Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, and the Dakotas. Good rains have also probably fallen in Kansas, but the report from that state is missing.

The weather west of the Rocky Mountains is fair, with moderately mild temperatures, except in the Great Salt Lake basin, where it is unseasonably cool.

The indications are for increasing cloudiness, followed by showers Tuesday in Western Oregon and Western Washington, and fair and slightly warmer weather in the eastern portions of these states and in Idaho.

Restaurants' Hard Luck.

With the advance in the price of meats, and the trouble experienced in getting laundry work done during the past week, restaurant proprietors believe that they have had more than their share of hard luck. Some of the Chinese laundries, which they were forced to patronize, made excessive charges, and it has required more than ordinary figuring for them to meet expenses. Then, to add to their discomfiture, some of their fastidious patrons objected to the occasional use of paper napkins.

MONTAVILLA TEACHERS.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Montavilla district was held Saturday.

An increase of salary was voted for the principal and teachers of the school. The pay of the principal now amounts to $90 a year more than formerly, and the grade teachers receive an additional $45 a year.

The directors elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: N. W. Boland, principal and teacher of the

Considerate Treatment; Low Charges

In our long experience—15 years in Portland—we have found that our patients appreciate considerate treatment more than anything else dentists can give them. We have proceeded upon the theory that the less we hurt a patient the better pleased he will be, and have developed our methods to that end. Now we can extract teeth and devitalize nerves positively without pain.

Our charges are low as they can be made consistent with first-class work, which is the only kind we do. No dental students employed.
