

STUNNING BLOW TO PACKERS

Proposition to Confiscate Goods Shipped in Violation of Law.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
CHICAGO, May 7.—The present programme of the government attorneys in the proceeding against the alleged beef trust contemplates the filing of a bill for an injunction on Friday.

It is learned this morning that it may contain a prayer for the confiscation by the government of all goods shipped in violation of the anti-trust law.

If the prayer should be granted it would be a severe blow to the packers' combination, if such exists.

It would amount to practically nullifying any agreements that may have been made.

BATTLE

Boers Lose Ten Killed, 208 Captured—British Unhurt.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, May 7.—An official dispatch to the war office today reports a successful drive of Boers in the Orange River colony yesterday by the British under Colonel Elliot and Barker.

Ten Boers were killed and 208 captured. The British casualties were none so far as known.

DICTATES PRICES

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—Manuel Rionda of Carnika, McDougal & Co., among the largest sugar brokers in New York, was the first witness this morning before the Senate committee on relations with Cuba, which is making inquiry into the Cuban sugar question.

He said the price of sugar was fixed by the largest producers, Germany being in a position to dictate values. He said the effect of the reduction of duty on Cuban sugar would be to enhance its value to the extent of the reduction, and the cost of it would be exactly the same as before the reduction was made.

Undoubtedly the benefit would go to Cuban planters.

PALMER AT REST.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
CHICAGO, May 7.—The remains of Peter Palmer were laid to rest in Grace-land cemetery today.

Services at the Palmer mansion and grave were brief and simple.

Mayor Harrison and other prominent citizens were active pallbearers.

MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

C. H. McIsaac, who has been out canvassing subscriptions for the Lewis and Clark Fair, reports that he has received a number of small subscriptions aggregating $2,270 to date. Of this sum $100 was subscribed by Mr. Daniels, of the La Grande Creamery, and $100 by Joseph Meyer, the cigar man. This makes the sum total to be $253,282. If it keeps on this way, the stated $500,000 will be raised in short order.

TWO BOYS

Robbed the Postoffice at Orient.

Deputy United States Marshal Probstel brought in Charles and John Kotsman, brothers, both in their teens, from Orient, in this county, this morning. The warrants for their arrest were sworn to by O. C. Nolan, United States Postoffice Inspector.

The younger of the lads, Charles Kotsman, who is about 14, was charged with stealing $23.10 in money from the Government postoffice funds at Orient on May 5.

John Kotsman, who is 17, is charged with having feloniously received and concealed, on May 5, $19.75 of the amount taken by Charles Kotsman.

The two lads were examined before United States Commissioner pleaded guilty to the offenses charged.

Because of the fact that neither boy is of a criminal nature, and because both were repentant, and this being their first offense, the commissioner allowed the boys to go upon their own recognizance.

The younger boy stole the money from a drawer, which was partly open. After spending $3.75 of the money, the lad became conscience-stricken and wanted to return the money. In his trouble he made his older brother his confidant, and turned over the money to him. The commissioner gave the boys some good advice. They promised never to be guilty again.

DEAN'S GOOD WORK.

John M. Dean spoke last night on "Six Reasons for Being a Christian" before a large audience in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association. He said that no reasonable man could live any life but that of a Christian.

As a result of his lectures in Portland, 48 men have decided to become Christians.

Tonight will be the large farewell service when Mr. Dean will deliver his last address. There will be special music by the male quartet. All men are invited.

DALLES-CELILO ROAD.

The directors of the Columbia River Basin Board of Trade will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on the second floor of the Chamber of Commerce.

The order of business will include the organization of a company to purchase the Dalles-Celilo railway and plans for advertising Oregon will be considered.

LYING IN STATE

Guard of Honor Over the Remains of Dead Archbishop.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—There is mourning throughout the Catholic world over the death of Archbishop Corrigan.

When the news was conveyed to the pope, his holiness expressed deep sorrow, remarking that "it has been one of the greatest bitternesses of my long life to see the strongest champions of the militant church claimed by death."

Archbishop Corrigan was very affectionate to us. We esteemed and loved him greatly. He then retired to his private chapel to pray.

The body of the dead archbishop is lying in state in the cathedral, where it will remain until 11:30 o'clock tomorrow. It was escorted thither by a special guard of priests.

The body, clad in the full vestments of his office, was placed on the catafalque, where it was viewed by a long line of mourners.

A guard of honor, consisting of members of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, the Knights of Columbus, Holy Name Society, Catholic Benevolent Association, and other Catholic organizations, is on watch. W. Bourke Cockran and John D. Crimmins are likewise among the honorary guards.

Suitable resolutions have been framed regarding the death of the archbishop. The services over the remains will begin Thursday night in the cathedral with the divine office. At 11:30 Friday morning the archbishop's remains will be interred.

Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, a life-long friend of the deceased archbishop, will preach the funeral sermon. Bishop McQuid of Rochester will be celebrant.

The following archbishops have sent telegrams saying they will be present at the funeral: Archbishop Elder, Cincinnati; Archbishop Feenan, Chicago, who will be represented by Bishop Muldoon; Archbishop Williams, Boston; Archbishop Christie, Oregon.

ENGLAND WILL NOT RECEDE

Boers Must not Have Another Chance to Fight.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, May 7.—Premier Salisbury, speaking of the South African war at a meeting of the Primrose League today, said:

"Deep as our sacrifices have been during the war, our great empire is now more potent and powerful than when the war began. We have suffered, but we have won."

Lord Salisbury said that all claims made by the government at the beginning of the war it was intended should be carried out.

The country could not afford, after such sacrifices of treasure and men, to allow things to slide back into a position where it would be in the power of the enemy, when an opportunity suited, to again renew the issue for which they had fought for the past three years.

Frye Nominated

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—President Roosevelt today sent to the Senate the nomination of Jesse Frye to be United States Attorney for the District of Washington.

GEO. GREEN'S WILL

Nine Sons and Daughters Get $500 Each.

The last will and testament of George H. Green, who died in Portland March 27 last, was filed with the County Court today. The estate consists of lands in Marion County valued at about $500.

The will provides that the property shall be sold and the proceeds, after paying the costs of administration and all bills against the estate, shall be divided among the heirs as follows:

To Henry, John, Philip, Peter, Jacob, Conrad and Joseph, sons of the deceased, $500 each; to Annie C. Roch and May Green, daughters, $500 each. It is provided that, in case the proceeds from the sale exceed $4500, the overplus shall be divided pro rata among the children.

INSANE

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
VIENNA, May 7.—A Pekin cablegram says the Dowager Empress of China has gone insane.

ANOTHER DEAD

(Journal Special Service.)
MORRISTOWN, N. J., May 7.—Representative J. S. Salomon, of the Fourth district of New Jersey, died suddenly of apoplexy last night at his home in Boston. He was 52 years old, and was serving his second term in Congress as a Democrat. A widow, two sons and a daughter survive him.

LOST CERTIFICATE

Lizzie Arbuckle Sues Bank for Its Value, $450.

Lizzie Arbuckle, who lost her certificate of deposit of $450 commenced suit for the recovery of the amount from the Merchants National bank, in Judge George's department, State Circuit Court, this morning. She alleges that on December 12, 1900, she deposited $450 with the Merchants National bank, taking the bank's certificate therefor; that on December 21st the certificate was lost; that she has since made diligent search for the paper but has been unable to find any trace of it; that she never endorsed it, sold or transferred it. The bank seeks to have the plaintiff put up an indemnity bond to protect itself in the event that they pay the amount asked for, and the certificate afterwards turns up.

The plaintiff claims that she demanded the payment of the certificate on December 25, a day prior to the date of issuing the certificate is denied.

HOPEFUL BULLETIN

The Excitement Over Queen's Relapse Has Greatly Subsided.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
PALACE HILL, Eng., May 7.—The "Hoarse whisper" that a relapse had occurred in the Queen's condition this morning.

In it no mention is made of the reported turn for the worse in the Queen's condition at midnight.

The bulletin reads: "Though the Queen's temperature rose slightly yesterday evening she passed a quiet night and woke wholly free from fever."

"Her general condition is satisfactory."

LATEST—5 P. M.
CASTLE HILL, Eng., May 7.—Another encouraging bulletin was issued this afternoon.

The excitement incident to the Queen's recent relapse is almost over.

RIDE ON THE OCEAN

Delegates to Women's Convention Enjoying Themselves.

(Journal Special Service.)
LOS ANGELES, May 7.—This morning four trainloads of delegates to the biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs visited Long Beach, where carriages and tally-hos were waiting to drive them through the city. This afternoon launches conveyed the party on an ocean trip to Catalina channel, where a barbecue was held on the beach. The delegates are the guests of the California Club during the day.

WILEY WILL ESCAPE

Forgery Charges Will Most Likely Fall Through.

After going to a considerable expense in securing the arrest and return here from Spokane of Frank Wiley, the alleged forger, the local police have no hopes of securing a conviction, and it is only a matter of a few days when the prisoner will again be free to go his way. His picture will grace the rogues' gallery, however, as Detective Day took a complete description of the man today, after which he escorted him to the official photographer of the police department.

When Wiley was returned here the police thought they had a sure case against him, but when they commenced to get their evidence together, they found they were up against a snag. Captain Tom Belcher was summoned to the station to identify the prisoner. After a glance he said:

"Yes, that's the fellow, all right, who passed the bad check on me. I won't prosecute him, though."

And so on down the line. If persons are victimized and then refuse to prosecute, the police are tired chasing sharpers all over the country and arresting them.

EXTREME CRUELTY

A case of extreme cruelty came to light this morning almost in front of the police station.

A Chinese vegetable peddler was driving along Second street when one of the horses attached to his wagon fell to the pavement. Bystanders helped the animal to its feet when the discovery was made that, besides being lamed by split and diseased hoofs, the poor beast was barely able to stand, so weak was it. The horse was taken charge of by an officer. While Detective Welner looked up the driver and placed him under arrest.

In the meantime the other horse, which had been left standing, suddenly took a notion that the bare cobble stones as they were preferable to standing on his toes, lay down. The Oregon Humane Society has been notified of the occurrence, and the two horses will probably be killed.

SAMPSON'S FUNERAL

Will Take Place Friday—Mrs. Sampson Is Prostrated.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—Arrangements for the funeral of Admiral Sampson are not yet complete, but interment will probably be made at Arlington.

All honors due a rear-admiral will be accorded the dead officer.

Mrs. Sampson is utterly prostrated by the shock, and now with her, and hope to revive her sufficiently to permit her to attend the funeral.

Friday will probably be selected as the day for the final rites of burial.

Admiral Sampson was born at Palmyra, N. Y., February 9, 1810. Appointed to Annapolis, September 24, 1827. Graduated head of class, 1831. Promoted to Master, 1832. Lieutenant-Commander, July 16, 1835. Lieutenant, August 9, 1834. Captain, March, 1836. Superintendent Naval Academy, Annapolis, President MAINE inquiry, February, 1838. Commodore, 1838. Rear-Admiral, 1839. Commissioner to Cuba, September, 1838. Commander of the North Atlantic fleet, December, 1838. Commander, Boston Navy Yard, October 14, 1839. Lt. D., Harvard University, 1841. Married Margaret P. Burling, 1832. Retired, February 9, 1902. Died, May 6, 1902.

PEASANT REVOLT

Leaders Caught and Flogged to Death—Great Losses.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
VIENNA, May 7.—Advice from St. Petersburg report a peasant revolt in the district of Konstantino.

The rebels have destroyed hundreds of farms and have thrown a million pounds of sugar into the Dnieper.

Troops engaged the insurgents and 78 persons were killed and 200 wounded. Subsequently the leaders of the rebels were arrested and given 300 strokes with a knout.

Thirty-six died from the flogging administered.

MANUFACTURERS.

A meeting of the Manufacturers' Association was held last night, at which the Secretary, C. H. McIsaac, read his report for April, which showed the association to be in a flourishing condition.

A communication was read from the Modern Warehouse Elevator Company, of Colfax, Wash., requesting the organization to capitalize a stock company of $100,000 to handle its products. It was decided that the company values its patent too highly, but if they would come down one-half, the association would see if it could not interest jobbers in this matter.

Communications were also received from Miller Lea, of Rogersville, Tenn., requesting information concerning Portland, as he desires to establish a distillery here; from William H. Scheel, of New York, enclosing pieces of varnish gum; from the Frank Leslie Publishing House, requesting information concerning the Lewis and Clark Exposition; from the Mexican Permanent Exchange Association, submitting the plans and general scope of the Mexican Permanent Exchange in the City of Mexico, and from T. J. Elliott, of Waterloo, N. Y., stating that he would like to establish a chair factory here.

The Oregon State Sunday School Association requested the association to extend an invitation to the International Sunday School Association, to hold its next convention in Portland in 1905.

Mr. McIsaac reported that he had enrolled the association on the membership books of the Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement Association.

The Western Clay Manufacturing Company and the James Printing Company were admitted to membership.

It was decided to become members of the Columbia River Basin Board of Trade.

PIONEER DEAD

D. Denison, a pioneer of 1852, and a resident of Meadowbrook, Clackamas County, who died at St. Vincent's hospital this morning, will be interred in the Ringo cemetery at Clark's tomorrow morning. He only survived an operation for enlargement of the prostate gland eight hours. He was a native of New York, and was 72 years old. The deceased emigrated to California in 1852, and to Oregon in 1879. He was employed on the first stone work on the Oregon City locks, and on the first brickwork on the Oregon State House. Mr. Denison left two sons, Hon. John Denison, of Meadowbrook, and Morris Denison, of St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Denison died about 11 months ago.
