SNOW SLIDE AT BLUE RIVER

Works of Treasure Mine Under 60 Feet of Snow.

(Journal Special Service.)

EUGENE, May 7.—Information of a tremendous snowslide in the Blue River mining district Saturday has reached Eugene. At noon on that day a huge mass of snow and debris started from near the top of Gold Hill and came thundering down the side of the mountain, carrying everything with it. The mouth of the longest tunnel in the Treasure mine, in which an immensely rich strike was made recently, lay directly in the path of the avalanche, and the blacksmith shop, a gasoline engine and other machinery and tools were carried to the bottom of the canyon. The mouth of the tunnel is covered with over 60 feet of snow and debris, and it will take many days of hard work and hundreds of dollars to clear it away and repair the damage. Had the slide occurred at any other hour than at noontime, when the men were all eating their midday meal, the whole crew of 20 or 30 men would have been killed outright or smothered to death in the tunnel. C. H. Park, the owner of the mine, is now in the East, and he has been notified by telegraph of the occurrence.

NEWS OF EUGENE

Statement That Eurnish Made Chamberlain Votes—Other Notes.

(Journal Special Service.)

EUGENE, Or., May 7.—The Eugene Board of Trade has just completed printing 8000 illustrated and descriptive pamphlets for distribution to homeseekers in the East. The pamphlet has about 50 pages, has numerous half-tone cuts of buildings in Eugene and scenes in the country, and the descriptive part is well written.

The report of the committee of ladies who had in charge the recent May carnival given for the benefit of the Fourth Regiment Band shows the net receipts for the three nights were over $300, which amount will be applied to the band's debt for their instruments.

W. J. Furnish spoke in the courthouse here last night to a good audience. Mr. Furnish, C. W. Fulton, J. H. Ackerman, A. M. Crawford and J. R. Whitney arrived from Roseburg yesterday afternoon, and were met at the depot by a delegation of prominent Republicans. The candidates were escorted on foot to a hotel, where an informal reception was tendered them.

Mr. Furnish's speech at the courthouse in the evening was brief, and many of his admirers were disappointed, expecting to hear a good address. Since Mr. Furnish has come to town, Mr. Chamberlain's majority in Lane has been materially increased.

SALEM PROSPEROUS

(Journal Special Service.)

SALEM, May 7.—The monthly report of the City Recorder of the City of Salem shows that the finances of this city are in probably better condition than those of any other town in the Willamette valley. All the city warrants are called to date and there is additional cash on hand to meet the requirements for the current month. Not only is this the case, but the total receipts of the City Treasury for the past year have already been nearly equaled in 1902. During 1901 there was collected the sum of $9867, and this year the receipts of the office already reach the goodly sum of $9720, and it is considered by the Recorder that they will by the close of the year reach $15,000. Five thousand dollars of the amount already received this year is from the forfeiture of the Anson bond recently the subject of the city's successful suit before the courts.

MARSHAL RESIGNED

(Journal Special Service.)

ROSEBURG, May 7.—City Marshal Dillard handed in his resignation as City Marshal for Roseburg at the Council meeting, and the same was accepted. D. J. Jarvis was appointed City Marshal of Roseburg to succeed him.

It is understood that Dillard's resignation was brought about by the action of his deputy, who killed a man while attempting to arrest him a few days ago.

COURT NOTES

(Journal Special Service.)

SALEM, May 7.—The Marion County Court convened today and will continue to sit for about a week, as there is much business to be attended to, among which is the matter of appointing numerous judges and clerks of election to fill the places of many who have failed to qualify.

The matters of the Marion-Polk Counties bridge at Salem, and the Marion-Linn bridge over the Santiam at Gates, will also be settled and in the latter connection the court will go to Gates early next week to confer with the County Court of Linn County.

B. R. Freeland, a dentist, yesterday filed suit in the State Circuit Court for $5,000 damages against the City & Suburban Railway Company, for injuries alleged to have been received while attempting to board a car at the intersection of Grand avenue and East Morrison street. He claims the car was started before he had mounted the platform safely.

Albert Lovell was yesterday found guilty of embezzling $60 from L. M. Aubert, a stablekeeper. Lovell sold two mules belonging to Aubert, and pocketed the proceeds. The accused set up the defense that he owned the mules. His attorney, Geo. C. Stout, made a gallant fight in his behalf, and has been allowed 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

VISIT POSTPONED

(Journal Special Service.)

SALEM, May 7.—According to the published itinerary of the Democratic state ticket, it was announced that Candidate Chamberlain and his party would visit Salem on May 13, and great preparations were under way for a fitting reception to the popular gubernatorial candidate. Yesterday, however, County Secretary P. L. Frazier received a personal letter from Mr. Chamberlain at Albany, conveying the news that it would be impossible for him to be at Salem on the date announced, and asking the county central committee to postpone the meeting until May 17, when he will be on hand to try for converts.

PLANNING A RALLY.

(Journal Special Service.)

SALEM, Or., May 7.—The Greater Salem Commercial Club which has been actively working for the industrial and the general public interests of this city for some time past, is actively preparing for a big rally on the evening of May 15 in the City Hall here. The object of the meeting is to familiarize every citizen with the work and objects of the club, to recapitulate what has been done, to lay plans for the future advancement of the city and incidentally to increase the membership of the organization to the 500 mark.

Every effort is being put forward to make the rally the starting point for a new life in civic affairs and no means to secure public interest are being neglected. Bands and orchestras, glee clubs and solo singers will compose the musical part of the programme, and a number of the leading citizens will deliver short addresses among which will be "Civic Responsibility," by Governor Geer; "The Opportune Moment," by Mayor Bishop; "Sanitary Regulation," by Dr. E. A. Pierce, vice-president of the club; "Immigration," by E. Hofer, and "Good Roads," by J. H. Albert.

In addition an effort will be made to secure R. C. Judson, Immigration Agent for the O. R. & N., for an address on "Industrial Organization."

It is expected that this meeting will result in giving a great impetus to the spirit of civic pride and public improvement in the Capital City and will make it the show town of the valley by the opening of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

FAIRVIEW.

Mrs. M. L. Hardingham, Miss Myrtle Cornett and Miss Sadie Orr have returned from their visit at Beaverton.

Large crowds from Troutdale visit the Fairview Athletic Club's gymnasium on visitors' night. Basket-ball is the favorite amusement, but several performances are gone through by members of the club on the horizontal bar, rings, etc. Ernest Hall is president of this club.

Work on the mill of the Fairview Cheese Company is steadily progressing and will soon be completed. This is a very good thing for the farmers around Fairview, as it will save them much travel. The average amount of milk received by the cheese company is over 2000 pounds daily.

OREGON BRIEFS

MONMOUTH.—Normal School May exercises were held here yesterday. All the students were in attendance, and a delightful afternoon was spent.

SALEM.—Master Fish Warden Van Dusen reports collections for licenses for April amounting to $232.50. He deprecates the damming of the Clackamas river by the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company, on the ground that it will prevent the salmon hatched at the Clackamas hatchery escaping to the waters below and eventually to the sea.

EUGENE.—George O. Goodall was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, for treatment for inflammatory rheumatism. He was president of the June graduating class. There will be no summer school at the University of Oregon this year.

LA GRANDE.—The La Grande Commercial Club will use its best efforts to promote interest in the Lewis and Clark Fair at Portland.

ASTORIA.—The salmon run is improving. The fish traps at Baker's Bay, Wash., are doing well.

BAKER CITY.—A stranger, en route from Denver to Walla Walla, overcome from hunger, fell from the train and when found was uninjured but demented. He had no money and was too proud to beg. He will recover his mental equilibrium in a few days, and will proceed to his destination. Julia Brisco, a callow youth, despite parental objection, left for Weiser, Ida., to marry Allen Green, an attache of the Pan-American Circus. She met him here a few weeks ago when he appeared with the juvenile minstrels.

SALEM. — Salem's 1200-candle-power electric street lamps are to be replaced with lamps of 2000 candle capacity. A three-chime siren whistle is to be placed in the electric light company's powerhouse to sound fire alarms. The county records experts will report Saturday.

ALMA.—The lumber camps and mills in this vicinity need more men than it has been possible to obtain so far.

POLITICS

Federal Officeholders Disobeying the President.

The Federal brigade in Oregon must have received a dispensation from Washington allowing them to ignore the President's order prohibiting officers of the government from taking part in political campaigns. With hardly an exception the chiefs representing the different departments of the Federal government are active partisans, working for the election of Banker Furnish. Two years ago the same gang were just as active in their efforts to defeat the Republican ticket and in part succeeded. At the Legislative session they were all lined up against the election of H. W. Corbett as United States Senator and got their daily roast in the Oregonian.

Now it is different. The Oregonian can see no wrong now in what, in its eyes two years ago, was a political crime. For a surety the President's order "don't go," so far as the following Federal officials are concerned:

Zoeth Houser, U. S. Marshal.
Isaac Patterson, Collector of Customs.
John Hall, U. S. Attorney.
A. A. Roberts, Deputy U. S. Marshal.
James Wilson, Deputy U. S. Marshal.
Charles Burkhardt, Assistant Postmaster.
John Minto, Deputy Internal Revenue Collector.

These Federal officials are making themselves offensive partisans. They are putting in the time belonging to the government working politics. President Roosevelt's order is that no Federal official shall participate in political campaigns.

One United States Marshal in Indiana who thought himself a bigger man then the President, was dismissed from the service for disobeying this order. If the President means what he says, he has the opportunity of firing a whole bunch of officias here in Oregon on the same grounds.

Citizens' Ticket.

The mass meeting of Citizens, to be held Thursday (tomorrow) night at the Tabernacle, should be attended by every one interested in the welfare of Portland. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Citizens' managing committee, and the political situation in Multnomah County will be freely discussed by a number of speakers. Among those who will be present to address the meeting will be Hon. Robert D. Inman, Citizens' candidate for Mayor; Dr. Harry Lane, Citizens candidate for State Senator; E. A. Austin and G. C. Moser, Citizens' candidates for the Legislature; Major J. P. Kennedy, Captain C. E. McDonell, Earl C. Bronaugh, J. E. Werlein and others.

The Southern Pacific brass band will furnish music for the occasion and Oregon's sweetest singer, Mrs. Rosa Bloch-Bauer, will favor the meeting with several songs. Ladies are especially invited to attend this meeting.

Political Notes.

Larry Sullivan is "boosting" General Williams for Mayor and talks glibly of what he will do, and what will be done "when my man is elected Mayor." Larry started out on a bold bluff by offering to bet all kinds of money that Williams would be elected, but the alacrity with which his money was covered made him draw down after one or two bets had been placed. Larry has a great ambition to be considered a politician but so far has not made much of a success. The sailor business is more in his line even if he has to divide honors with Mysterious Billy Smith.

Jack Matthews, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, has revised his figures so far as Multnomah County is concerned. When he opened headquarters he gave the machine ticket 4,500 majority. Yesterday he confided to some if his intimates that it might be 2,000. Before the campaign is over he will have to admit that the chances for any majority in his favor are slim and then look out. Jack wants the machine Legislative ticket elected and will sacrifice everything else to secure such a result. He knows that the Citizens' ticket is growing in strength, that it commends itself to the people and, if nothing convinced him of this fact, the fiasco of Monday night, at what was intended to be a great William demonstration but resulted in a miserable failure, was enough. The people have no confidence in Matthews and he knows it.

At the alleged great demonstration on Monday night no attention was given to the candidates on the machine ticket, representing the laboring classes. They were in attendance at the meeting but not one of them called upon to say a word. More than that the speakers who did address the meeting had not one word to say in defense of labor and its rights. They waved the bloody shirt, appealed to the prejudices of those present who were Republicans, to swallow the machine ticket but not one word was uttered in defense of the laboring classes or a word of encouragement given them. The men responsible for the machine ticket have no use for the laboring man or anything that will tend to add dignity to labor.

GREAT COAL STRIKE LIKELY TO BE AVERTED

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)

NEW YORK, May 7.—It is rumored in Wall street today that the anthracite coal operators have agreed to make concessions of from 5 to 7½ per cent increase in wages and that this will be acceptable to the men, thereby averting a strike of 150,000 miners.

The tension at Scranton the past few days has been severe. A strike has seemed imminent, and if it is to be now warded off or averted, the anthracite coal region will be greatly relieved.

If this strike had occurred, it is believed 300,000 men would have been involved before it closed, and much valuable property and, perhaps, loss of life would have been the result.

TACOMA, Wash.—Big Mike Burke, who killed M. J. Griffin a few days ago, was discharged in the Justice Court on the ground of self-defense. He clasped his sister in his arms as the court released him, and both sobbed for joy.

THE MARKETS.

Business was fairly good on Front street today. The markets are void of any changes in quotations and there is a steadiness all around.

Eggs continue in large receipt and the market is rather weak at prices quoted.

The butter market is slightly better, a great amount of the surplus stock being cleaned up and the new product is beginning to go into cold storage. The present price of butter is a cent and a half lower than it ever went last season and the prospects are that there will be no further decline this season.

The receipts in the Chicago meat markets yesterday were normal and there was no decided weakness or firmness shown. Receipts in the local markets, though, continue light. Prices are the same.

There is no change in the grocery situation.

Liberal receipts of poultry in the local markets has livened them up a bit, but, as yet, there is no change of quotations.

ILLEGAL ROAD PETITION.

William D. Thomas and a delegation from his district came to town today to present their grievances to the Board of County Commissioners in the matter of establishing the Gorden Hill road. At a previous meeting of the board this petition was denied on the ground that it was not properly drawn up. It specified two distinct dates for the hearing of the petition, saying "May 9 or 16." The board did not meet today, however, owing to the inability of one of the members to attend court. But Mr. Thomas was told that he would have to get a new petition. He asked if he could cut the names off the old one and paste them on the new one in order to save time, but was told that such a proceeding would be illegal.

RAILROAD NOTES.

General Agent Barker of the Chicago & Northwestern has received the news that Mrs. R. R. Ritchie, the wife of the general agent for the Pacific Coast of the company, died at San Francisco Sunday as the result of a surgical operation.

Excursion Agent Bayard of the Northwestern and Union Pacific brought in 80 homeseekers from points east of Chicago on Monday morning. It is understood that all these will make their homes in Oregon.

President Mohler of the O. R. & N. Co. returned from San Francisco this morning. He attended the Harriman banquet, and is the last official to return.

J. C. Lindsey, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Illinois Central, has gone on a business trip down the Willamette Valley.

TUESDAY CLUB.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the home of Mrs. G. M. Cline this week, with a full attendance. It was the last day of program work for the year. The program consisted of the following papers: "Historical Shrines," by Mrs. Frank Miles; "Cathedrals," by Mrs. Hall, and "Theaters," by Mrs. Ella Steel. Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Cline. The next meeting of the clu bwill be the annual election of officers. The club year now closed has been the most prosperous in the history of the club, especially in the line of study.

ACROSS THE RIVER

WOODMEN DEDICATE HALL.

The new Woodmen building at Milwaukie was dedicated last evening with a big celebration by Ash Camp, Woodmen of the World. The opening address was delivered by Head Banker C. V. Cooper, who spoke of the objects of the order and also of the energy of the members of Ash Camp in building such a grand meeting place.

The Women of Woodcraft had charge of most of the musical and literary program.

The new hall is two stories high, the lodge hall being upstairs and a store building underneath, the cost of the structure being about $1800.

SUNNYSIDE.

Charles Whitemore, postal clerk, has gone to North Yamhill to look after his interests in the Portland Coal & Developing Company's mine at that place. The mine is owned mostly by residents of Sunnyside, and the prospects are that they will all make money out of it. A solid vein of five feet of good coal has been discovered.

Rev. J. J. Staub was reported somewhat improved today from the effects of a recent operation. During his illness the pulpit of the Congregational Church is filled by Rev. Clapp of Forest Grove.

John M. Kemp, brother of the Sunnyside bicycle man, has departed for Hood River, where he will take up a homestead.

Mrs. Mary E. Teats will give a lecture to men only at the Friends' Church, Sunnyside, tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

A large force of men is at work in ballasting the newly laid double track for the City & Suburban Company through Sunnyside.

Mrs. Bertha Van Vlack, residing at East Thirty-eighth and East Alder streets, is reported worse, as the result of a recent attack of paralysis.

Sunnyside Camp, Woodmen of the World, will pay a fraternal visit to Multnomah Camp Friday evening, to help dedicate their new hall, as prescribed by the laws of the order.

Miss Bertha Fay, who was visiting her sister in Sunnyside, has returned to her home in Washougal, Wash.

F. M. Palmer has returned to his home in Chicago after an extended visit in Sunnyside for his health. He feels so much improved that he has decided to dispose of his insurance business in Zanesville and locate in Oregon.

J. Jones, residing at 175 East Seventeenth street, left last evening for the Thunder Mountain country on a prospecting tour.

B. A. Hanna is erecting two new cottages on East Twenty-first and Taylor streets.

The two new cottages being erected by Mrs. Everest on East Yamhill and Thirty-second streets are nearing completion.

Miss Laura Krug is reported ill at her home on East Thirty-seventh and East Taylor streets.

Mrs. C. Carlile underwent a successful operation at St. Vincent Hospital yesterday.

Miss Elsie Harper has just recovered from the effects of blood poisoning in one of her fingers.

J. F. McQuaid and wife of Kenilworth will leave this evening for a two months' visit with friends in Virginia, New York and Boston.

ON THE PENINSULA.

A mothers' meeting will be held at the Peninsula School Thursday afternoon. Superintendent Frank Rigler will deliver an address on the relations between parents and teachers.

The little son of A. Anderson, who was severely injured in a runaway several weeks ago, making it necessary for a doctor to take over 20 stitches in his head, has recovered.

The Nelson family has moved from Wisconsin down to the Columbia Slough, where they have rented some property.

O. F. Pearsons and family have moved from Arbor Lodge to reside in Idaho.

WHY NOT USE IT?

The Board of Trade has received information from a city official that it will require about $10,000 to remodel the Market block so as to put it in first-class condition for use, and the only money now on hand is that held by the water works committee. It seems to rest with this committee as to whether the city could be allowed to borrow from this fund or not, as there is about $100,000 of this money lying idle.

"It would seem that the city could not make better use of it," said a citizen, "than to improve the Market, and, besides making an attractive place for visitors, bring in a large income on the investment, save thousand of dollars to the people and insure fresh produce, making a place where the ladies could go shopping in the morning."
