Petition for Raise of Wages on Road Work—Notes and Personals.

OREGON CITY, May 9.—A petition is being circulated, addressed to the County Board of Commissioners, asking that the wages of men employed on road work be raised from $1.50 to $2 per day, and that teamsters on road work be advanced from $3 to $4 per day. The City Council has already advanced common laborers on street work from $1.75 to $2 per day, and teamsters from $3.50 to $4 per day.

The Butte Creek Agricultural Association, of Marquam, has decided to hold a two-day annual fair in September. The following new officers were elected: President, J. R. Osterhout, of Marquam; fifth member of the Board of Directors in addition to the above, J. M. Groshong, of Willott.

A telegram received from Seattle this morning brings the information that the 20-year-old son of James M. Heckart, formerly of Oregon City, was killed yesterday evening, the result of being run over by an electric car. The body will be brought here for burial.

Heugate, Deputy United States Mineral Surveyor, of Molalla, who has an extensive government surveying contract in Malheur County, expects to leave about May 15th, to begin work. His assistants will be Graham Hunsaker, Joe Ringo, Victor Dickey, Peter Frey and Mr. Wickman.

Knotts and family will return to Geysers, Baker County, next week, where he is extensively interested in mining. Baseball teams made up from members of the Foresters and Knights of Pythias will play at Willamette Falls Sunday afternoon. Some of the best ball players in the city are members of the two lodges.

Arrangements have been made for a special car to convey members of the A. O. U. V. League of Honor, of Portland, to Oregon City Saturday night, where they will visit Galls City Lodge, A. O. U. V.

OREGON CITY, May 9.—The smallpox problem as an item of expense was a matter of considerable discussion at the meeting of the City Council last night. Until recently, Oregon City has escaped the prevalent epidemic, but at this time there are five cases, necessitating the enforcement of quarantine regulations in three families. The victims in these cases are invariably wage-earners, and the city is compelled to provide for the entire family when a quarantine is ordered. Two of the cases are the main support of a family of eight, and in some instances it will be necessary to employ nurses in addition to supplying medical attendance and food supplies for entire families. Dr. Powell of the committee on health and police gives his professional opinion that the epidemic will continue for some time yet. Some mild cases of single men were sent to the quarantine tent outside of the city, and recovered; but it is out of the question to send families to this tent. There are two cases in the James family in the Schramm building, and a brother of the head of the family, who was recently cared for by the city during an attack, now demands that he be paid $2.50 per day provided he is given the care of nursing the family. In the matter of food supplies, some of the patients are extravagant in their listed regulations for supplies. The matter of building a suitable pest-house was referred to the health committee.

A petition was granted by the Council increasing the wages of street workers from $1.75 to $2 per day. The wages of the teamsters who furnish their own teams, was raised from $3.50 to $4 per day. None of these men are employed steadily through the entire month.

On petition of the Mothers' Club and other women of the city, it was voted to pass a curfew ordinance, requiring that all children under 16 years of age be off the streets after 9 P. M. in the summer months, and after 8 P. M. in the winter months.

The Council appropriated $175 for a firemen's tournament to be held on the Fourth of July.

The matter of the new sewer district in the north section of the city was referred to the street committee for further investigation.

A. W. Cheney accepted the proposition at the finance committee to do the city printing, and take in payment the city's interest in the Wygant property on Main street.

The City Recorder was directed to tel-graph Company that, unless their poles in the city limits are painted according to ordinance, they will be removed.

EUGENE.

EUGENE, May 9.—The Eugene Theater Company was organized here last night and articles of incorporation sent to Salem to be filed with the Secretary of State. This is a $30,000 joint stock company, composed of about 50 leading business men of this city. Bids for plans for a two-story brick building to be 100x80 feet in dimensions are now being advertised for.

The Lane County political canvass began today at Walton, about 30 miles west of Eugene. The candidates will close the campaign in Eugene on Saturday, May 11. E. Seales, an old resident of Lane County, died near Eugene this morning, aged 90 years.

The contract for the erection of a fine two-story brick business block has been let to L. N. Roney, and the work of tearing down the old brick block which now stands on the site, and which was built in 1854, will commence Monday of next week.

Mr. Roney has commenced the erection of a one-story brick building on his lot on West Eighth street, to be occupied by the local office of the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

Quiet Enthusiasm Will Be Barred at Salem.

SALEM, May 9.—Chairman Culver, of the Marion County Republican central committee, has received notice that W. J. Furnish, A. M. Crawford, J. E. Acker, man and C. W. Fulton, who it is understood is to be the orator of the occasion, will be in Salem on the evening of Friday, May 16, to endeavor to instill into the breasts of their friends in this county the courage to persevere in the fight, which every hour shows is going more and more against them.

Having learned by experience that the brand of "quiet enthusiasm" which was on tap here on Mr. Furnish's first visit is productive only of votes for Chamberlain, an attempt is to be made to utilize some other variety, and for this purpose several bands and glee clubs are to be engaged, and a "workingmen's club," composed largely of a number of local political grafters, will try to stir up some vicarious enthusiasm for the candidate for governor and his political allies.

Every resource of Mr. Furnish's friends is to be brought into play to stem the tide which is now setting strongly toward the nominee of the Democratic party, and no expense is to be spared to catch the vote of the floating population.

THE DALLES.

THE DALLES, May 9.—Mrs. Nora Hall has petitioned the County Court to have her brother, John Reddick, aged 11 years, sent to the reform school at Salem. In her petition she states that the lad is a thief, incorrigible and of extreme depravity. The lad's father is dead, and his mother is again married, to R. J. Cummings of Tushet, Wash.

The County Clerk is keeping the registration books open for registration all day, and from 7 to 9 o'clock at night, in order to bring out the full vote of the city. Last year the books showed 108 names, and up to date there are but 70, being over 80 short.

On account of the strike among the operators of the American Woolen Company, considerable depression has been caused in the wool markets of the East, and prices remain comparatively weak, but the London auction sales, which opened last week, show continued strength, and as soon as the strike is settled the market will get better, and there will continue to be a demand for Oregon wool and a gradual improvement of prices. The price is now a notch or two higher than the opening quotations of last year, and are about equal to the prices at the close of the season. Good wool ranges from 9 to 11 cents.

Buyers are already here, looking over the situation this season, and scores of them are expected by next week.

ROSEBURG.

ROSEBURG, May 9.—The May term of County Court convened in this city Wednesday, with Judge M. D. Thompson and Commissioners A. E. Nichols and J. C. Young in attendance.

Wm. Hurd, who was recently arrested upon a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, pleaded guilty in Justice Robinson's court to the charge of assault and battery. Hurd was fined $50 and costs, which was promptly paid.

The County Clerk announces that beginning Saturday, the Clerk's office will be kept open from 7 to 9 o'clock P. M., for the accommodation of those who wish to register.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

GRANTS PASS, May 9.—A crew of 15 surveyors and engineers have begun the survey of the Oregon & Pacific Railroad, which will extend from Grants Pass to Crescent City, Cal., on the coast. The line will run through the fertile Illinois valley of Western Josephine County and through the Waldo mining district, where the extensive and rich copper mines of the Waldo Smelting & Mining Company, the builders of the new road, are located.

WILL KILL INDIAN HORSES.

PENDLETON, May 9.—It is expected that hundreds of horses belonging to the Umatilla Indians on the reservation adjoining this city, will be shot soon because infected with mange that is spreading with alarming rapidity. The animals became infected and no effort was made to eradicate the disease. Soon half the horses on the big reservation were afflicted with the malady. Then Indians by dozens came into the city on horse back leaving their animals hitched for hours at different places around town. By this means the infection has been communicated to farmers' teams, and now vigorous action is to be taken to destroy the diseased animals and thus prevent further spread of mange.

The government is soon to send a specialist in this disease to the reservation, and the Agricultural Department has informed the Indian agent here of his coming, as follows:

"You are advised that upon recommendation, and in view of the action taken by the Department of Agriculture, it is the wish of this office that you lend all possible aid to whoever the inspector may be, in carrying out the wishes of the Agricultural Department, in order that this disease may be blotted out, and wherever you find it necessary you should at once take the necessary steps to kill the infected horses wherever you may find them, and make a proper disposition of them. Of course, you will be expected to use due discretion in this matter, so as to avoid any unnecessary conflict with the Indians interested."

SHOOTER'S EXAMINATION.

ROSEBURG, May 9.—G. J. Heaton, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, died yesterday morning of heart failure, aged 62 years. Deceased was a member of Company C, Second United States Artillery.

A preliminary hearing of Frank Reed, charged with manslaughter, was partially held in Justice Robinson's court yesterday. District Attorney Brown, assisted by Attorney C. S. Jackson, conducted the prosecution, and Attorney Dexter appeared for Mr. Reed. The tendency of the testimony submitted by Drs. Du Gas, Fisher and Miller was to disprove the claim of the defense that the bullet glanced off the ground before striking Owens' head. After hearing the testimony of other witnesses, adjournment was had until this morning at 9 a. m., and is not yet concluded. Reed will doubtless be held for trial.

BOHEMIA SMELTER.

COTTAGE GROVE, May 9.—Two hundred thousand dollars will be employed in the construction of a smelter at some point on the railroad now building between here and the Bohemia gold mines. A company to build it has been incorporated by M. O. Warner, J. A. Barr and E. H. Church, and these gentlemen say the plant will be in operation this fall. Its capacity at first will be only 50 tons per day, but the foundation will be on such a plane that expansion may be made at trifling cost. It was at first proposed to erect this smelter at Portland, if a capacity of 300 tons daily, but the indifference of that city caused the proposition to be abandoned. The smelter will be located, very likely, 15 miles from here at the forks of Sharp and Frank Brass Creeks, on the Burnett farm. It is expected that the railroad will fork at this place, one branch running up Frank Brass and Crampson Creeks to the Jennings' properties, the other 15 miles up Sharp Creek to other mines. Fifty teams and 100 men are now engaged in grading, nearly two miles of which has been completed.

Curl and L. L. Swan and J. M. Martindale, superintendent of the Albany public schools. Several timber cruisers left with the party to pilot and locate them.

SALEM NEWS NOTES.

SALEM, May 9.—W. L. Hunsaker, who made Mary Hunsaker the partner of his joys and sorrows in July, 1900, has come to the conclusion that she is principally productive of sorrow, and just because she has slapped his face and "called him bad names," he asked the Marion County Circuit Court to ease him of his burden.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO ACT.

SALEM, May 9.—Notification was yesterday received by the Secretary of State that the Federal government, in response to the oft-repeated requests of the State Veterinarian, had at last decided to move in the matter of stamping out the mange prevalent among ponies on the Umatilla reservation. For several months the Indian ponies have been in a bad state with the disease and the white settlers being fearful of contagion, have used every means to induce the officials in charge of the ponies to adopt some preventive measure which was however unavailing. The government will now send out an inspector to view the situation and if the reports are found to be correct, he, working with the agent and the state authorities, will destroy all ponies found to be affected by the disease.

WILL IMPROVE SALEM BRIDGE.

The County Courts of Marion and Polk Counties and a committee of the Salem City Council, on Thursday, viewed the bridge over the Willamette here and decided to construct a complete new approach on the Polk County side. The estimated cost, $100,000, will be borne equally by the three bodies, and County Engineer Culver has been ordered to contract for piers at once so that the work may be begun by July 1.

The Marion County Court left last evening for Gates where on Friday it will in conjunction with the Linn County Court, select a site for a 100-foot bridge over the Santiam River.

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATION.

Friday, May 30, Memorial Day, will be fittingly celebrated this year in Salem. During the day a parade will be held in which the Salem Military band, the cadets from the Indian school at Chemawa, the Reform school, the veterans of the civil and the Hispano-American wars and many of the lodges of the city will participate. In the evening a public meeting will be held in either the Opera house or the Armory, at which orations on the services and in commemoration of the dead heroes will be made by prominent citizens. The G. O. R. and the Women's Relief Corps will be in charge of the celebration.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST PILOTS

Continue to Come in—Shipping Delayed.

There are more kicks coming against the pilot service at the bar. The following letter was received this morning:

"S. M. Meard, Esq., President Chamber of Commerce, City—Dear Sir: We regret to have another complaint to make of the pilot service on the bar, but the enclosed statement from the master of the Ventnor will show a repetition of the trouble that the Strathgyle had, and for the same reason—no pilot obtainable at a time when all conditions were favorable, viz., broad daylight, clear weather and smooth bar. We don't know that any blame attaches to the pilots in this instance, as of course the pilot boat cannot be in more than one place at the same time, but if the suggestion often made to the O. R. & N. Co. that they keep a tugboat with pilots on board of her cruising on the bar, had been carried out, the Ventnor would have saved 24 hours' time. Asking you to take such action as you think proper in the matter, we remain, dear sir, yours faithfully,

"Per Wm. D. Wheelright, Mgr."

In addition, Mr. Wheelright inclosed the complaint of Captain Ferry of the Ventnor.

Captain Ferry states that he "arrived off the lights at Columbia River bar at 8:30 p. m. on May 6, the weather being fine and clear, variable winds and bar smooth." He signalled Cape Disappointment for a pilot; no one came, so he again signalled in the morning, when a pilot came at 8:30 o'clock. This caused the captain to lose a full day.

This complaint will be taken up by the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting next Tuesday.

CORDRAY'S.

The rôle of Don Caesar in A King's Rival is better adapted to the dramatic style of John Griffith than any other in which he has appeared in this city, either at this visit or in past years. His cool head and witty tongue carry him through the difficult parts with all the sang froid and careless ease incumbent upon the part. Messrs. Armin and Montague and Miss Funnell fill their parts admirably. It was altogether the best performance yet given here by this company, and will be repeated tonight.

Saturday, Faust will again be given, and beginning Sunday the management announces a week's engagement of The Old Kentucky Home, to be followed by Too Rich to Marry. Every lady attending the matinee tomorrow will be given a marguerite turquoise waist set.

THE MARQUAM.

Tonight Lewis Morrison will present Faust, and his return to this city, where he is so well known, will be a pleasurable event to the many who have admired his interpretation of the crafty Mephisto. Raachel Morrison will appear as Marguerite, and with the complete electrical effects necessary, the production is sure to be excellent. Saturday matinee and night will conclude this engagement. The last symphony concert will be given Monday night. For this occasion Mrs. Walter Reed has been engaged as soloist.

THE BAKER.

Cumberland 51 continues to draw large and enthusiastic audiences at the Baker this week, and rightly it should, as it is bubbling over with interesting situations, startling climaxes, and is a thorough production throughout. There will be a matinee tomorrow.

For the coming week, beginning Sunday, in Missoura will be the bill. This play allows for elaborate settings, not in the way of beauty particularly, but settings true to life. As the name would indicate, the scenes are laid in the State of Missouri, far away from the large cities and towns. There has never been a play written that more thoroughly portrays the life, manners and idiosyncrasies of the people of the Middle Western States.
