

The FIELD OF SPORT

Sammy Vignoux struck a streak of real hard luck when he reached Spokane, besides losing two straight games, Mahaffey was struck in the head by a batted ball and seriously injured.

Manager Vignoux has wired Teddy Corbett, and expects to get him to play first base until Mahaffey fully recovers.

The Riverside Driving Association held a meeting last night, at which a committee was appointed to arrange for matinee races June 14.

GALESBURG, Ill., May 10.—Several scores of young athletes of Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois are to be seen at their best in the second annual interscholastic meet here this afternoon under the auspices of Knox College.

Some of the large schools represented are those of Burlington, Peoria, Springfield, Davenport and Rock Island. The events include the regular track and field numbers and end with a quarter-mile relay race, in which Monmouth College, St. Alban's Military Academy, Lombard College and Knox College will compete.

Bob Fitzsimmons has secured a new sparring partner in the person of Soldier Tom Wilson.

Wilson is over 6 feet 1 inch in height and when in condition weighs about 195 pounds. He has all the appearance of a crackjack from his physical make-up, and is particularly strong.

Fitz tried Wilson out just before he left New York. He told the soldier to cut loose, but Wilson came before the Cornishman himself had his hands full in fighting the soldier off. Wilson came with a rush, and he pushed his long, steel-like left repeatedly into Fitzsimmons' face.

Buck Montgomery and Rube Ferns will probably fight at Joplin, Mo., June 2.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Probably the finest exhibition of superb roadsters ever seen in America was witnessed this afternoon by the thousands of people who lined Riverside Drive and watched the great annual speedway parade of the Road Drivers' Association.

Driven by some of New York's best-known men, including financiers of national prominence, railroad magnates and heads of great mercantile concerns, were more than 100 high-stepping pacers and trotters, whose individual values could not be expressed in less than four or five figures.

A New York dispatch says: John L. Sullivan, ex-pugilist, entered the City Hall yesterday. He hurried along the corridor toward Mayor Low's office. "I want to see the Mayor. He's no good and a dunda if he don't see John L.," he added as he entered the outer office.

He tried to make his way past Sergeant Kennell to go into Mayor Low's office, but the powerful form of the policeman barred the way.

Sergeant Kennell did not do anything of the kind. Instead he took a body hold on the ex-pugilist and a scuffle ensued. The fighter's hands were pinioned at his side, however, and in a minute he was thrown out into the corridor.

The baseball team of Fidelity Lodge, No. 4, A. O. U. W., will play a game tomorrow at Forest Grove with the Cornelius team. Fidelity has played four games this season, and is as yet undefeated.

Perry Queenan and Rufe Turner will probably be matched to fight at Seattle very shortly.

Mike Donovan has received an offer to box Tom Reilly at Salt Lake City the last of this month, and has sent the club his terms. The last fight there ended in a scandal. After Phil Green's seconds had thrown up the sponge in the 13th round the referee, who was appointed by the club, declared it no contest. This action stirred up such a row that the Chief of Police of Salt Lake came forward and said that if Dan Donovan, who whipped Green, was not given the decision and the low end of the purse there would be no more fights. The club then reversed the decision.

It is understood in Los Angeles that Robert Fitzsimmons will so arrange his plans as to take in Los Angeles while on the Coast. Fitz's action is inspired by a desire to see for himself the conditions in Los Angeles. It is believed that when he looks into the relative merits of Los Angeles and San Francisco the southern city will be his choice.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 10.—As a result of a conference held here today, next winter will probably witness the greatest intercollegiate fencing tourney ever held in America. The conference was attended by representatives of Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Cornell, West Point and Annapolis, and preliminary plans were discussed for the formation of a permanent league.

The Oregon City nine will meet the Monograms at the league grounds tomorrow afternoon and indications point to a spirited struggle.

The game between these teams played last Sunday at Oregon City was not finished, and considerable rivalry exists. The Oregon City team will be accompanied by 200 fans, and the Monogram sympathizers will be on hand to cheer for their favorites. Batteries for Monogram, Fleming and Oiler; for Oregon City, Belt and Matrin.

Tom Coubig and Charlie McKeever will meet at Toronto May 24. The match is a risky one for Coubig, as McKeever will outweigh him 10 pounds or more.

A letter has also been received from the Charles Nelson Lumber Company of San Francisco, inquiring the kind of vessel wanted by the Portland & Alaska Transportation Company, and it has several vessels which could be bought or chartered.

WATERFALL BOUGHT

OREGON CITY, May 10.—The Green estate, covering the proposed power station of the Oregon General Electric Company, at the Upper Clackamas, was sold by the administrator this afternoon to F. S. Morris of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company for $11,000. There was lively competitive bidding.

DEATHS.

Thomas C. Petett, a farmer from Clackamas County, died today at Good Samaritan hospital of tuberculosis, aged 93 years.

John Catlin Hazard, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hazard of 27 Wintaker street, died today.

Samuel Grand Walker, a teamster of this city, died today at his home at 210 Mill street. He had been afflicted with consumption for several years. He will be buried at Love cemetery, on Columbus Slough, near Vancouver, on Monday afternoon.

GENERAL STRIKE IS PREVENTED

Millowners and Labor Leaders Adopt the Journal's Plan of Settlement.

The men employed by the Portland Lumbering & Manufacturing Company's mill reported for work today, the strike having been declared off last night at a meeting attended by mill proprietors and labor leaders in Mayor Row's office.

The labor leaders present were: John A. Bushman, president of the executive board of the Millmen's Union; G. Y. Harry, president of the State Federation of Labor; Harry Gurr, president of the Federated Trades Council; Andrew Madson, president of the Water Front Federation; District Organizer Duke and several other well-known union labor men.

The meeting was called to order, and R. D. Inman, who was also instrumental in bringing the two factions together, was chosen chairman. The original articles of agreement, the direct cause of the strike, were then taken up and carefully considered. Each clause was discussed by representatives of both parties.

and the only objection raised by the millmen was to the wording of the fourth clause, which is as follows: "Other conditions being equal, union men holding cards showing them to be in good standing to be given a preference as against non-union men."

There was a general misunderstanding as to its interpretation, but after masters were fully explained there seemed to be no real cause for alarm by its adoption. After fully considering the subject, however, a new notice of agreement, satisfactory to all concerned, was prepared and signed by all the millmen it is as follows:

"First—All men working in our mills and the mill yards connected therewith are to receive not less than $2 per day for a 10-hour day. "Second—The present schedule of wages now being paid by us shall continue to be paid until the pay day in April, 1902.

WILEY'S STORY OF ROBBERY

Convict Saw Hotel Diamonds in Savage's Hands.

Kelly Wiley, colored, serving sentence in the Oregon penitentiary for the part he played in the diamond robbery from the Portland hotel last November, appeared as a witness for the state this afternoon, in the prosecution of the Savages. Wiley indicates that Charles Savage and his partner, whom he does not know, stole the diamonds. He said he had known Savage a number of years and had gone to school with him.

BRIDGE BEING IMPROVED.

A force of men was at work this morning repairing the supports under the approach to the Morrison-street bridge. It is very serious work, the bridge being propped up with jacks while the repairs are being made.

Planning Mill Strikers Hopeful—Men Leaving.

The labor troubles in the city have narrowed down to the planing mills is still on, the men apparently being firmer in their stand today than six or eight months since the walkout. They are in a jubilant mood over the manner in which the sawmill trouble terminated, and believe that their demands will also be granted.

WOODMEN'S HALL.

Multnomah Camp Dedicated Its New Quarters Last Night.

The new home of Multnomah Camp, Woodmen of the World, was officially dedicated last night by General Organizer George K. Rogers, acting in stead of the head consul, who could not be present.

THE WEATHER.

Light rain has fallen during the last 24 hours in the Oregon, Western Washington and in the Palouse country. Thunderstorms are reported at Baker City, Or., and Lewiston, Ida.

It is much warmer this morning in Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington, Idaho and Utah.

It continues unseasonably cool in the spring wheat region, and light frosts were reported this morning in the Red River valley of the North.

WRIT OPPOSED.

Circuit Judges Cleland and Sears heard in the Circuit Court this morning arguments by C. H. Carey to quash and annul the writ of review secured some days ago by W. L. Brewer in the matter of the California Powder Works' objections to the widening of the Macadam road. It was contended by Attorney Carey, in behalf of the county, that the service of the writ upon the County Judge is void; that it does not appear that the clerk of the County Court was ever served with the writ; that I do not appear that County Commissioners Mack and Showers were served; that Multnomah County is not made a party to the proceedings; that the defendant was not notified of his application for the writ, and that the petition does not show sufficient facts to support the charge that he county has exceeded its jurisdiction.

PORTAGE RAILWAY.

The Columbia Milling Company of Dayton, Wash., writes to Secretary Moore of the Board of Trade, offering its services to further the purchase of The Dalles-Celilo portage railway.

Mr. Cahill, the manager, states: "We learn with pleasure that another effort is being made to put forward the so-called Paul Mohr Railway at the Dalles, and that citizens from all parts of the Inland Empire are indorsing it and becoming identified with the enterprise."

Considerate Treatment, Low Charges

In our long experience—15 years in Portland—we have found that our patients appreciate considerate treatment more than anything else dentists can give them. We have proceeded upon the theory that the less we hurt a patient the better pleased he will be, and have developed our methods to that end. Now we can extract teeth and devitalize nerves positively without pain.

Our charges are low as they can be made consistent with first-class work, which is the only kind we do. No dental students employed.
