

LAUGHED AT FURNISH
How the Oregonian Gives the News—Unfair Reports a Boomerang.

Every person in Oregon who knows anything of the political situation has been commenting on the way the Oregonian has distorted, suppressed and prevented the news of the day in its desperate effort to elect the candidates whose cause it favors for the time being.

FURNISH MEETING HERE YESTERDAY WAS THREE TIMES AS BIG AS THE CHAMBERLAIN MEETING IS GENERALLY LAUGHED AT. PEOPLE HERE BELIEVE NOW THAT SIMILAR REPORTS PUBLISHED FROM OTHER FURNISH MEETINGS ARE AS PICTITIOUS AS THIS ONE.

PRISONERS ATTEMPT CITY JAIL DELIVERY

Several prisoners, under the leadership of Charles Burton, alias Demitt, made a daring and almost successful attempt to break out of the city jail last evening.

When the attempted jail delivery was discovered Burton and other inmates were at work on a window opening from the large vacant cell into a woodshed on the Oak street side of the jail.

SUNDAY SCHOOL Workers of Oregon in Session Today.

The Visiting Delegates Welcomed by T. S. McDaniel.

The 17th annual convention of the State Sunday School Association opened this morning at the Taylor Street Methodist Church with a large attendance from the Sunday school workers of this city and about 200 from the various other schools of the State.

The officers of the association are: President, A. A. Morse, Portland; vice-presidents, H. L. Lamphier, Moro; Robert Reid, Salem; secretary, Merwin Pugh, Portland; financial secretary and treasurer, A. M. Smith, Portland; primary superintendent, Mrs. C. M. Kiggins, Portland; normal superintendent, Miss Belle Wallace, Pendleton; home department superintendent, Mrs. Samuel Connell, Portland.

The morning session opened by devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. H. S. Templeton and assisted by Rev. W. E. Randall and Rev. J. F. Ghormley. T. S. McDaniel gave the address of welcome in a most hearty manner on behalf of the city of Portland, and especially the 103 Sunday schools, 820 officers and teachers and 15,000 scholars of the city, and lastly because he desired them to be able to notice the change in Portland when they would attend the triennial international Sunday school convention, to be held here in 1905, together with the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

The gift was made as an expression of gratitude for the work done by Mr. Morse, who has lived in Oregon 16 years, and the greater part of this time has been spent in Sunday school work. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of Astoria responded to the address of welcome and presented a benediction and blessing upon the Sunday school workers of Oregon.

The president's address and report was next read. He recommended the continued support of the State field worker and also the publishing of a State paper. The matter of the annual report to the international committee was also brought to attention, as this was neglected the last year. Another important item was regarding the place of holding the county convention. He advocates the holding of this in Portland, as it is a more central place to all, and the majority of workers are here.

Rev. W. E. Randall of the Second Baptist Church, delivered an address on "Seven Suggestions for Satisfactory Service." His theme was taken from the second chapter of II. Timothy. It was delivered in a conversational manner that held the interest of all.

ARMSTRONG The TAILOR 313 WASHINGTON ST.

MUSTERED OUT

The Oregon Naval Reserve is no more. The last meeting of the battalion was held last night in the Armory, when it was mustered out. The men were called to order about 9 o'clock by Quartermaster Knapp, who, in a brief address, urged the members not to leave the service, but to transfer to the infantry companies. This did not meet the sentiments of the members, however, as only 15 were transferred. The others were discharged.

NO FEAR FROM DAMAGE SUIT

In the opinion of individual members of the City Council and City Engineer W. B. Chase the $55,500 damage suit filed in the State Circuit Court the other day against the city by Sarah Elizabeth Knight is a trumped up claim and without foundation. Yesterday Councilmen F. B. Holbrook, Fred T. Merrill, R. L. Glisan, W. T. Branch and City Engineer Chase made a careful inspection of the elevated sidewalk at East Water and East Stark streets, where Sarah Knight says she was injured. They found that instead of the woman's receiving a fall of nearly 11 feet, as stated in her complaint, she actually fell not more than three feet; and it is also denied that the City Engineer or the Common Council were in any way negligent in not warning pedestrians that the sidewalk was in an unsafe condition. It is said that the supports were to all appearances sound.

STREET MATTERS.

The City Auditor was authorized by the Board of Public Works yesterday to advertise for bids for the improvement of the following streets: East Everett street, East Twentieth street, Grover street and Vancouver avenue; and for bids for constructing sewers in Corbett street, East Alder street, East Ash street, East Couch street, Mabel street, Montana avenue, Eugene street and Hamilton avenue. A contract was awarded to George Simons to sprinkle the streets with an electric sprinkler where the gauges of the track is three feet six inches, except over the lines formerly operated by the Portland Traction Company, for $175 a day, during the months of June, July and August.

LADIES GIVE SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church at University Park has undertaken the task of raising the debt remaining on the church parsonage property and has given a number of entertainments and suppers for that purpose. The entertainment and supper given Friday and Saturday evenings have proved a double success, financially and socially.

MR. BARNES LOST

R. Leo Barnes, cashier of the Wells, Fargo & Co. Bank, received a cablegram this morning from relief parties who were in search of his brother, A. K. Barnes, the cashier of the Colonial Bank of London, at St. Pierre, Martinique, stating that he could not be found and the bank was a mass of ruins. His brother made a visit to Portland about six years ago and is known to many of the business men here.

DISAGREED Savages Given Another Trial and Jury.

The jury in the case of State vs. Charles and Frankie Savage, charged with the theft of $10,000 worth of diamonds from Albert Lowenthal at the Portland Hotel November 17 last, being unable to agree, was discharged by Circuit Judge Fraser this morning. The jury retired yesterday forenoon at 11:20 o'clock. Foreman C. A. McCale announced that the jury was unable to agree and that it would be useless for them to deliberate on the case longer. Judge Fraser said that he did not desire to keep the jurors confined any longer and excused them from further attendance at court. The vote stood even up, six for acquittal and six for conviction. Immediately after the jury was dismissed a new trial was commenced against Savage. District Attorneys Manning and Spencer dismissed the information charging Frankie Savage with being a principal in the diamond robbery, and arrested her on a charge of receiving stolen goods.

THE JOURNAL VACATION TRIP

The votes in the contest to determine the most popular self-supporting young woman in the city continue to pour into The Journal office, and the outlook is for a close competition. The contest will close July 15, and the person receiving the largest number of votes up to that date will be given a 10 days' trip at the expense of The Journal to any one of the beach resorts which she may select. The one receiving the second largest number of votes will be given a three days' trip, free of charge, to any one of the same places, and the recipient of the third largest number will be given a trip up the Columbia to The Dalles and return, also free of charge.

A coupon, good for one vote, will appear in each day's issue. Cut this out, write thereon the name of the contestant for whom you wish to vote, and send or bring the same to this office. Any one subscribing for the Journal for one week will, upon payment of the subscription price in advance, receive six coupons, good for six votes. A monthly subscriber will receive 25 coupons, good for a like number of votes, and a three months' subscriber will receive 75 coupons. Miss Ida Calavan, Hallie Garrigus and Lena Story desire to withdraw from the contest, and in accordance with their wishes The Journal will remove their names from the list. New names were received today, and the contest promises to be interesting. The vote today stands as follows:

HERE IS THE SAME SCHEME

Portland Millmen Not the Only Combiners.

(Journal Special Service.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Tonight the Planning Mill Owners' Association of this city meets to formally consolidate their plants. The sole purpose, the promoters say, of consolidating the 20 local planning mills is to cheapen millwork, to meet outside competition. It is denied that the effect of consolidation will be to increase prices over the ruling rates for millwork. Three months ago D. H. Bibb, president of the California Lumber & Milling Company, broached the subject of consolidation to seven of the largest mill-owners and a conference was held. The mills represented were Bolander & Perkins, California Lumber & Door Company, William Crocker & Co., James Young, the Progressive Union Mill, W. H. Herring and Shaughnessy & Martell. It was agreed that Mr. Bibb, as the promoter of the scheme, should receive 5 per cent. of the amount to be paid for plants and good will.

STILL FREE

James Williams, the murderer of "Cookney" George Hicks, is still at large. The body of his unfortunate victim was consigned to the potter's field, at the expense of the county this morning. The city is being carefully searched for the murderer, and the officers hope to arrest him soon.

THE JOURNAL VACATION TRIP

To the most popular self-supporting woman in Portland The Journal will give a ten days trip to the seaside and pay her expenses down and back, and her hotel bill while there. To determine her popularity a vote will be taken and the one receiving the most votes will get the trip. The one getting the next highest number will be given a trip lasting from Saturday to Monday, all free. The one who is third in the list will receive a trip up the lovely Columbia and return. This is a chance for the worthy young women who fill busy places in the city to take a vacation trip. It will be appreciated.

RAILWAY MEN

Held a Love Feast at Eagles Hall Last Night.

The members of the Railroad Men's Political Club held a love feast and smoker at Eagles' Hall last night. The organization has been known as the Railroad men's Re-Union Club, but so many of its members are now in favor of the Citizens' ticket that the name of the club has been changed and nearly every member has become an active worker for the Citizens' ticket.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM.

E. A. Jewell, president of the club, was chairman at the meeting last night, and it proved an enthusiastic one. Judge Hennessy put all in good humor by singing a number of his ever popular songs, after which several of the candidates on the Citizens' ticket made brief addresses, every one of which was well received. Major Kennedy made a strong plea for all present to support the initiative and referendum amendment to the State constitution. G. C. Moser made a strong talk on the objects and views of the Citizens' movement.

SIGNAL FOR APPLAUSE.

R. D. Inman, whose appearance in the hall was a signal for great applause, spoke on organized labor and its good effects, not only so far as workmen were concerned, but the public at large. Dr. Harry Lane made one of his characteristic, vote-getting talks, and other candidates had just a few encouraging words to say in behalf of the popular movement among the people of Multnomah County to elect the Citizens' ticket. The meeting was a great success and its club members left more enthusiastic than ever over the promise of complete success of the general effort to defeat the machine ticket forced on the people by Jack Matthews.
