CLACKAMAS COUNTY ENTHUSED

Democratic Candidates Heard at Molalla and Oregon City.

(Journal Special Service.) OREGON CITY, May 17.—Politically speaking, yesterday was field day and a red-letter one in Clackamas County. George E. Chamberlain and others of the candidates for state officers addressed rousing meetings at Molalla and at Oregon City. The Molalla meeting was an all-day affair and the addresses were made at Oregon City at night.

An old-time picnic was the result of the Molalla citizens' efforts to hold a meeting. Owing to the inclement weather, this was held in the large hall which was with difficulty large enough to entertain the crowd. W. H. Vaughan, the old Democratic war horse of that section, presided, and the citizens had provided the greatest abundance of all kinds of good things to eat. Speeches were made by George E. Chamberlain, Col. James H. Raley, Judge G. A. Hartman of Pendleton, W. A. Wann, James K. Weatherford and others.

Among the Oregon City men of prominence present were J. P. Lovett, of the Democratic State committee, O. D. Eddy, Elmer Dixon, Ed Jack, Dr. R. B. Reattie, County Chairman, and others. AT OREGON CITY.

Considering the fact that Oregon City has long been given over to the Republicans and is the home of their patron saint, George C. Brownell, the meeting at the Falls of the Willamette was of huge proportions. The speeches were made in the Armory, an immense building, and it was comfortably filled. The meeting was presided over by Robert A. Miller, who introduced Oregon's next Governor, George E. Chamberlain, Mr. Chamberlain was never in better trim and for the hour he spoke held his audience in breathless attention.

The speaker charged the Republicans with following in his wake and said they would still be farther in his rear on June 2. He spoke of the great resemblance between the platforms of the two great parties and likened them to the Siamese twins, only he said the invisible link was missing in this case, unless the connecting link be W. F. Furnish.

Mr. Chamberlain charged the Republicans with official extravagance; of the leaks in the treasury which C. W. Fulton defends; of the iniquitous school land law and of the wicked gerrymander of the legislative districts.

OTHERS SPOKE. Mr. Chamberlain was followed by James K. Weatherford, candidate for Congress from this district; David W. Sears, W. A. Wann, Col. James H. Raley and others. The meeting was attended by enthusiasm. Excellent music was furnished by the local band. It was noticed that several persons in the crowd were wearing Furnish buttons, but in most cases they were found to be boys of tender years.

M., and returning, will leave Salem at 5 P. M. The round trip tickets are $1 and may be purchased from B. F. Russell, E. H. Bush, Henry Ryan and Wm. Rasmus; piano solo, "Tarentelle Whirling Dervish," Miss Georgia Lewis; scene, "Leah," Miss Anna Phillips and Professor W. M. Rasmus; quartet, native-born Chinese, "Sold Back," A. G. G. Chace, W. B. Moy and Harry Ding; cake walk, Misses Ball.

After this, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, those present exceeding the attendance at any previous gathering. The general committee consisted of G. E. Strayer, Dr. M. J. Denny and Peter A. Binford; the reception committee was composed of Mrs. Dr. Lenney, Miss Reark, Mrs. Jane Hazard and Mrs. H. O. Richards, ably assisted by the floor committee—Mrs. F. Vanderhoat, Miss Ina McDonald, Miss M. Sperling, Charles J. Hendrickson, Richard Forbes and E. C. Shipley.

Johnson came here from Colorado Springs about 10 days ago. A capitalist of that place grub-staked him. This capitalist had prospected through Southern Oregon during the pioneer days and made a rich find on Jacques Creek, of Jump-Off-Joe district. The find was a rich one but before he had worked it to any extent he was attacked by the Indians and drove away. He went to Salem on the fireman's excursion Sunday and will play the Silverton team there that afternoon.
