

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye of Oregon is in Topeka, Kan., examining Indian office manuscripts and material relating to the Lewis and Clark expedition, which she will embody in a historical work.

Professor A. B. Cordley of the Oregon Agricultural College is busy devising means for exterminating a certain variety of beetle. This beetle is very small, but has very powerful jaws, with which it injures the limbs of trees. The insect is able to cut its way from the bark to the pith of the tree.

"Physical Culture," lecture on beauty and harmony of mind and body, by Annie Valle Switzer of Chicago, at Alamy Hall, 120 p. m., Wednesday, May 21. Admission free.

Quite a large audience enjoyed the musical show at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last night. There was a continuous three hour and a half of fun. The first part of the program consisted of the regular industrial show-sonnets, jokes, etc. The second part of the program included duets, quartets, baton and club swinging, light-roping walking and tumbling, all of which was perfect.

The official ballot will contain 210 names this year. County Clerk Lot Q. Swetland is preparing the list in alphabetical order.

Watson's Restaurant, open nights to 2 a. m.

President of the Council Fred W. Mulkey will act as the executive officer of the City of Portland during the absence of Mayor H. S. Rowe, who departed last evening on a visit to his aged mother in Wisconsin.

Charles Savage, who was acquitted of the Portland hotel diamond robbery, left Sunday for Denver, Colo., to see his mother, who is reported to be ill.

Finest lunch in city. Portland Club, Fifth and Alder.

The department has received word that George E. Leslie alias George E. Little, arrested here for forgery at Salsun, had been convicted but not sentenced yet.

Si Higgins, an employe of the Chapman Logging Company, was drowned near Oak Point yesterday.

No berries have been shipped from Hood River yet, and probably will not be for a week. The crop is an unusually heavy one, and preparations are being made to harvest it in quick order. Berry picking will last for some time in that section.

Collector of Customs Patterson is in receipt of a circular letter from Acting Secretary O. L. Spaulding regarding the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion law, giving the conditions under which registered Chinese laborers can return to the United States after temporary absence.

George W. McNear Jr., son of the California wheat king, arrived in the city yesterday on a tour of inspection through the wheat belt. He will visit different points in the inland empire and also Puget Sound, and return home by way of Portland.

The girls of Holladay School have organized a basket-ball association. The boys recently held a meeting for the same purpose, but had to disband without accomplishing the organization.

PERSONALS

Mrs. George M. Love, of Jacksonville, is visiting friends in Portland.

Mrs. Anna Kinnison, of Baker City, was in Portland yesterday. She is a prominent member of the Woman's Club in that city.

Judge W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, was a Portland visitor yesterday.

Hon. Benjamin Young, of Astoria, is in the city, having just returned from a trip to Butte, Mont. Mr. Young is one of the regents of the normal school at Monmouth.

A. B. Cordley, of the Oregon Agricultural College, is at the Imperial.

L. B. Reeder, the well-known Pendleton attorney, is in the city.

T. H. Crawford, of Union, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Crawford is the democratic nominee for circuit judge in the Fifth Judicial district, and is the opponent of Judge Robert Eakin.

T. G. Halsey, of Pendleton, is expected to arrive in the city tomorrow. He will take the stump throughout the Willamette valley in the interest of Colonel Rabe.

W. R. Kirkwood, democratic nominee for Representative from Yamhill County, is in the city.

John H. Hall, a prominent politician from Marshfield, is in Portland on business.

Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, is spending a few days in Portland.

J. S. Cooper, the Independence banker, is in the city on business.

S. A. Pattison and R. McKinney, of Condon, are stopping at the Imperial.

Albert Hutchins, connected with the Bell Telephone Company at Seattle, was in the city yesterday visiting his parents. He left in the afternoon for the Sound.

Councilman Earl C. Bronaugh and wife left last night for San Jose, Cal., where Mrs. Bronaugh is called to the bedside of her father, H. G. Huggins, who is seriously ill.

Captain W. B. Scott, a former steamboatman of the Columbia and Willamette, is in the city from Seattle, where he now resides. He is owner of several well known steamers on the Sound, among them being the Greyhound and the City of Everett.

Jessie Waddell, sign painter, 209 Alder street. Both 'phones.

DR. R. B. NORTHRUP OSTEOPATH Treats Successfully All NERVOUS AND CHRONIC DISEASES

EXAMINATION FREE Office: 416 Dekum Building, Third and Washington Sts., Call for literature.

YOUR EYES WATER RALLY At Upchurch Hall on Monday Evening. Citizens' Candidates Cheered as They March on Their Way.

MONMOUTH NORMAL Portrait of Its Founder Being Painted Here.

A life-size portrait of the late T. F. Campbell, founder and first president of the Christiana College, now the Monmouth Normal School, is being painted in this city by Artist Moore. It is to be presented to the school by the Memorial Association just formed by the alumnae of the Christiana College, the Columbia College, the Normal School and the State Normal School, all now being included in the latter establishment.

The portrait now being produced is a 3000 painting. The later portraits will be smaller. This will be unveiled in the chapel during the commencement exercises, which will begin June 18 and continue several days.

THE BAKER. To give the play-going public a chance to prepare for one of the finest productions that has been seen in Portland in some time, the management of the Baker has announced two weeks in advance the presentation of the Banker's Daughter by Bronson Howard, at that theater following Monte Cristo.

BAKER SOUVENIR. On Saturday afternoon the management of the theater announced that they will give to all those who attend a beautiful souvenir of Mr. Ralph Stuart in the various characters he has portrayed.

CORDRAY'S. The plot of Too Rich to Marry, which will follow the Waifs at Cordray's, presents the remarkable situation of two young men whose love affairs do not run smoothly because one is too poor and the other is too rich.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY. The anniversary of the birthday of the late Queen Victoria will be observed next Saturday evening, May 24, by the British Benevolent Society at Trinity parish house, on Fifth street, near Oak.

LOCAL RAILROAD NOTES. Matthew Watkins and William Miller, of the O. R. & N. Company, passed Sunday at Meacham Creek. They succeeded in catching the waters 40 mountain trout. Some of the beauties were a foot long, and hardly one in the catch fell below that measurement.

Aphis On Rosas. Don't let the aphid bugs spoil your early rosebuds. They are easily and quickly destroyed by using our prepared spray. E. J. Bowen, Front and Taylor streets.

YOUR EYES WATER RALLY At Upchurch Hall on Monday Evening. Citizens' Candidates Cheered as They March on Their Way.

MONMOUTH NORMAL Portrait of Its Founder Being Painted Here.

A life-size portrait of the late T. F. Campbell, founder and first president of the Christiana College, now the Monmouth Normal School, is being painted in this city by Artist Moore. It is to be presented to the school by the Memorial Association just formed by the alumnae of the Christiana College, the Columbia College, the Normal School and the State Normal School, all now being included in the latter establishment.

THE BAKER. To give the play-going public a chance to prepare for one of the finest productions that has been seen in Portland in some time, the management of the Baker has announced two weeks in advance the presentation of the Banker's Daughter by Bronson Howard, at that theater following Monte Cristo.

CORDRAY'S. The plot of Too Rich to Marry, which will follow the Waifs at Cordray's, presents the remarkable situation of two young men whose love affairs do not run smoothly because one is too poor and the other is too rich.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY. The anniversary of the birthday of the late Queen Victoria will be observed next Saturday evening, May 24, by the British Benevolent Society at Trinity parish house, on Fifth street, near Oak.

LOCAL RAILROAD NOTES. Matthew Watkins and William Miller, of the O. R. & N. Company, passed Sunday at Meacham Creek. They succeeded in catching the waters 40 mountain trout. Some of the beauties were a foot long, and hardly one in the catch fell below that measurement.

Aphis On Rosas. Don't let the aphid bugs spoil your early rosebuds. They are easily and quickly destroyed by using our prepared spray. E. J. Bowen, Front and Taylor streets.

DR. R. B. NORTHRUP OSTEOPATH Treats Successfully All NERVOUS AND CHRONIC DISEASES

BOARD OF TRADE Crosswalks Condemned—Report Upon the Drydock.

IN THE FAMILY CIRCLE

And as a home-maker, the Weber piano is a magnet that is universally attractive. Parents and child alike subject to its musical influence. The mechanical skill of half a century has attained a perfection in this instrument that is unassured, passing, giving it a tone and quality of sterling worth and merit.

AMUSEMENTS. Marquam Grand Theatre. Calvin Heilig, manager. One full week starting Monday, May 18. Matinee Saturday at 2:15 o'clock. Monday and Tuesday nights, Augustus Thomsen's beautiful southern play, "ALABAMA." "Sweet Lavender," "Charity Ball," "Blue Jeans," to follow.

COURT NOTES. A decree was rendered by Judge Sears yesterday in the foreclosure suit of Harmony Lodge, I. O. O. F., against E. S. Craig et al., involving a mortgage of $54 on lot 3, block 17, North Albina.

THE MARKETS. Much better condition prevailed in the wholesale district on Front street today. Business was quite a bit livelier than yesterday and several changes in quotations attracted the attention of the merchants.

READINGS 50c 216 Alinsky Bldg

GRAIN AND FLOUR. Wheat-Nominal; Walla Walla, 66c; bluestem, 75c; valley, 76c.

MEATS AND PROVISIONS. Fresh Meats-Beef, 58 1/2c; pork, 12 1/2c; mutton, 14 1/2c; lamb, 16 1/2c.

GROCERIES, NUTS, ETC. Sugar-Cuba, 11 1/2c; crushed, 11 1/2c; powdered, 11 1/2c.

OUR PROMPTNESS. Is due to our system of doing work. We for clean press and deliver one suit of your clothing each week and give you a shine ticket good for eight shaves.

OUR PROMPTNESS. Is due to our system of doing work. We for clean press and deliver one suit of your clothing each week and give you a shine ticket good for eight shaves.