

IS THE EXPOSITION TO BE A PARTISAN?

Col. Boyd of Umatilla County Asks Pertinent Questions.

FENDLETON, Or., May 20.—To the Editor: In the Oregonian of May 18th appears this sentence: "Every vote for Chamberlain is a vote against an open river and the Lewis and Clark Centennial," and again: "What sort of a figure will Oregon cut, going before a Republican Senate for $2,000,000 in aid of the Lewis and Clark Centennial after having gone Democratic?"

There are many good men in the Republican party. These men despise and revolt against the control of a conscienceless political machine. These men do not recognize a political machine as the Republican party, and if the party convention proves recreant to its trust, and nominates a machine boss as a candidate for office and attempts to place him in control of the party, these Republicans, who are the honest, true supporters of Republican principles, esteem it their highest duty to rebuke this course and thus purify the party.

It is well known that in Umatilla County there exists such a political machine, called the "Furnish Machine," that dominates the Republican party of that county; that W. J. Furnish is its boss; that it is the worst machine that ever existed in this State, and it is sought to extend its control to the whole State; that the machine is using every method to accomplish its purpose.

The remarks of the Oregonian are a silly pretense, and cannot appeal to a sensible man. The Oregonian must know this, and knows that it is resorting to subterfuge to deceive the people whose intelligence it thus impaches and uses the Lewis and Clark Exposition as a partisan institution to elect W. J. Furnish.

To this base purpose is the Exposition being put. And that this course is endorsed by Mr. Furnish and his political nurse, Fulton, who is parading him over the State, and even by Judge Williams, the Oregonian reported a meeting held in Portland the other day, at which all these gentlemen were present on the platform, and the chairman of the meeting delivered the opening address, in which he gave utterance to the same sentiment, and urged that a strong reason for electing Mr. Furnish was to keep a Democrat from being Governor during the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and these gentlemen did not even dissent from such a use of what was thought to be a non-partisan institution.

They therefore must endorse the sentiment, and thus they sink the Exposition to the low level of partisan politics. Many Republicans, as well as Democrats, will vote against Mr. Furnish because they want to defeat ring rule in the State, and emancipate their State and party from boss control, worse than anything that has dominated the State, and if those actuated by this purpose and opposed to Mr. Furnish are to be deprived of participation in the Exposition, is not the Exposition doomed? Should it be encouraged at all? It is now up to the management of the Exposition. No protest has been uttered by them. Do they intend to acquiesce in this base use of the Exposition? If so they should not attempt to deceive any one by appealing to the opponents of Mr. Furnish for financial support, and if not, it is incumbent upon them to repudiate the course of the Oregonian and others. They cannot make a success of the Exposition, thus used. How can they expect to obtain any support from the opponents of boss rule when they use the Exposition to fasten it upon the State?

The same reasoning applies to the River and Harbor proposition. Senators in Congress are not fools. They know that if Mr. Furnish is defeated, as there is every indication, it is because of the above reasons, and that the party has been justly rebuked for nominating him, with his record.

Eastbound Rates Advanced.

Saturday saw the finish of the passenger rate meeting at the O. R. & N. Company's offices, attended by representatives of the several transcontinental lines. It was called, it will be remembered, to line up the rates on through business, made necessary by the settling between the Soo Line and the Chicago & St. Paul lines of their differences in the matter of New England rates.

As the result of the meeting an extensive circular has been issued by the O. R. & N. Company, which materially advances the fares on Eastbound business. These became effective yesterday. They apply from Portland and Puget Sound and from Spokane to point in Connecticut, District of Columbia, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Brunswick, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Ontario, Pennsylvania, Quebec, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia.

DES MOINES IS CROWDED

State Encampment of Iowa G. A. R. in Session.

(Journal Special Service.) DES MOINES, Iowa, May 20.—Ten thousand visitors were in Des Moines today when the 25th annual state encampment of the G. A. R. opened. These visitors include the delegates of the Ladies Aid Society, the Sons of Veterans, the Women's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R., all of which organizations are holding their respective annual meetings here at this time. The delegates began arriving late last night, and this morning special trains over all the roads brought in more than 8000 visitors, while all regular trains furnished large delegations. The encampment will be formally opened with a mass meeting in the Auditorium tonight. Governor Cummins and Mayor Hartenbower will deliver the addresses of welcome, and Department Commander George Metzger of Davenport will deliver the address in response. Commander-in-Chief Eli Torrance of Minneapolis will give the address of the evening. John Lindt of Council Bluffs seems likely to be the next department commander.

CRACK SHOTS DO BUSINESS

(Journal Special Service.) FREEHOLD, N. J., May 20.—There was a large attendance of well-known crack shots this morning at the opening of the annual tournament of the New Jersey State Sportsman's Association. Some excellent scores were made in the five target events which comprised the morning's programme. This afternoon the individual state championship, at 50 targets, is being shot off. The tournament continues until Saturday.

MINES AND MINING.

The Caswell brothers and partner, A. O. Huntley, a relative, have sold their famous claim, known to Thunder Mountain pioneers as the Sunnyside, and situated on the east slope of Thunder Mountain hill, to the Belle of Thunder Mountain Company of Pittsburg for $125,000.

The working force at the Bonanza mine has been reduced to 35 men for the time being. All efforts are being centered on the sinking of a new shaft. The company will move the town of Geiser, this spring, closer to the works.

J. K. Ronig has secured a lease on 30 mining claims, situated on Rock creek, Sumpter district, for 18 months for $125,000.

Reports from a reliable source state that Emil Gramenapacher, partner of William Parker, owners of the Winterville placer mines, situated three miles from Geiser and four miles from Winterville, recently took out a nugget which weighed 420. These placer mines have been producing for 25 years. Last summer Mr. Parker took out a milkpan full of nuggets, and it is said that the mine has paid over $20,000 a year, net profit, for a long time.

The big strike in the Golconda calls to mind a similar circumstance in connection with the Bonanza mine, which happened a couple of years ago. The pay chute had been lost and, after much searching, was not found for many months. Afterward, plans were changed and crosscuts run in different directions from the original plans, and the rich ore was struck. Both of these properties are leaders in Eastern Oregon.

The extensive underground work at the Gem mine in the pioneer Sparta district, about 30 miles eastward of Baker City, comprises a total in shafts, tunnels, upraises and stopes of between 6,000 and 7,000 feet. The main shaft is down 200 feet. Work on the vein of three to four feet in width has been well rewarded.

One of the most important happenings in the history of the gold fields of Eastern Oregon occurred the other day when between the second and third levels of the Golconda mine on Cracker Creek, a continuation of the rich ore-chute of 1892, was encountered. This means that the value of the Golconda has jumped in one day from $250,000 to a million dollars.

J. O. Stevenson, of Robinsonville, has been the intrinsic mine in the Greenhorns, for $40,000 from G. W. Weldler and Julius Ordway, of Portland, and J. C. Powers, of Robinsonville. Stevenson is backed by a strong Eastern syndicate and will develop the property to a producing basis. Power drills and air pump will be installed for driving the present lower tunnel, which is now in 300, 1,800 feet further, giving backs of 750 feet.

The Spring Gap group of claims, one and one-half miles south of the celebrated Virtue mine, in the Sumpter district has been sold to R. Aldren of Spokane. The consideration was $30,000. The Spokane men who are operating already in Baker County are going in for mining or the same sort of basis that has made Rossland the great camp it is.

Work will commence soon on a new property four miles northeast of North Powder, says the Powder Valley Echo. The property will be controlled by a foreign syndicate, and promises to be one of the best mines in this section. Ore from the property has been tested with chemicals by an expert mineralogist, and all parties concerned are perfectly satisfied with the results.

Fourteen miles from Cuprum the new Black Lake and Rapid River gold districts are attracting attention.

Near Decatur is the famous Blue Jacked copper mine. It has 2300 feet of underground work. There is a 300-foot shaft, and 200 feet of drifts, crosscuts and upraises, exposing thousands of tons of good copper ore. There have been shipped several thousands of tons of 40 per cent copper ore from this property.

BIG GIFT

(Journal Special Service.) NEW YORK, May 20.—One of the biggest gifts ever given to the Metropolitan Museum comes with the probate of the will of the late Jacob S. Rogers. The museum gets $5,477,722.50.

Vince Market Closes.

The market of Metach & Hussey, at the corner of Fourth and Alder streets, has closed on account of too great a raise in rent. The property belongs to the Burke estate. They succeeded to the market after John Vince failed, and have been paying $150 per month rent. On being notified that they must pay $250 per month, they suspended business. It is not known whether the old buildings there will be torn down and an establishment to correspond with the location will be erected, or whether the parties who have been trying to lease it for a saloon have secured the place.
