The University of California baseball team arrived yesterday, and if the weather is favorable will meet the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club nine in a game on the latter's grounds this afternoon. The visitors, who are quartered at the Imperial, are a fine looking lot of young fellows and their work so far this season shows them to be ball players from "way back."

Multnomah has been devoting much time to practice, and promises to give the Berkeley boys a hard rub. The lineup will be as follows:
U. of C. Position. M. A. A. C.
Hatch.....C.....Stott
Overall.....P.....Whitehouse
Hendricks.....1 B.....Parratt
Hamiln.....2 B.....Litt
Kennedy.....3 B.....Williams
Adams.....S S.....Fenton
Gardner.....R F.....Zan
McKeowan.....C F.....Dobie
Heitmler.....L F.....Wickersham

UNFAIRLY TREATED.

The University of Oregon track team returned from Seattle yesterday, after engaging in a farce field meet with the University of Washington. The boys claim they were unfairly treated, and that they have severed all athletic relations with the Washingtonians. The Oregon captain has this to say of his treatment: "We were certainly justified in our action, and I believe that public sentiment is on our side. Of course, we shall be criticised severely in some quarters, but those who understand the true situation cannot fail to see the unreasonableness and injustice in Washington's arbitrary treatment of our protest. Manager Gaches of Washington had ample time to secure evidence in favor of the Pearsons, if such evidence existed, but I assure you, no fair-minded committee could have acquitted them of the charge. However, we expressed ourselves as willing to abide by any decision of an arbitration committee, and appointed our committee to act. Washington, on the other hand, flatly refused to consider the protest, Manager Gaches giving as his excuse that he did not have evidence on hand to refute the charges. Our protest was substantiated by numerous affidavits from responsible parties, and the evidence was of a very damaging nature. The truth of the matter is that Washington was afraid to stand by the decision of an investigating committee. We offered to do this, but were not given the opportunity. We did not care to enter into a contest with a cowardly lot of sportsmen, so merely started men in the different events in order to insure the payment of our transportation expenses."

PORTLAND-BUTTE.
McCluskey and his giants spent a quiet day around the lobby of the Imperial and Schiller's cigar store, talking "shop" with the local team. They will meet Vigneux and his men on the diamond at 3:30 P. M. today and continue the argument with bat and ball, weather permitting.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.
The Century Athletic Club of Los Angeles is thinking of raising its bid of $30,000 for the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight to $40,000. They do not intend to deal in percentages at all, but will offer a cash purse. Fitzsimmons says that he will most likely train at Skaggs Springs, Lake County. He has visited the resort and is delighted with the surroundings.

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club held last evening, Judge William M. Calkins was elected as a trustee, vice F. A. Nitchev, resigned. The election of a president was postponed until the next regular meeting of the board.

It is probable that Judge Calkins, who has twice been honored with the presidency, will be again elected to that office.

The accounts of the newspaper writers who witnessed the Jack Jeffries-Jack Johnson fight, agree that the black man simply outclassed the champion's brother and systematically wore him down and put him out in the fifth with a stiff right cross to the jaw.

Billy Armstrong and Danny Dean have been matched to go 20 rounds at Rossland, B. C., on May 24.

STILL IN THE LEAD

Miss Westenfelder at the Top of the List.

New Candidate in the Journal Vacation Contest.

There is a freshness and delight to be found in a vacation at the seashore which is incomparable to any other form of pleasure. To hear the murmur of the waves "down by the sounding sea" is to listen to the voice of Nature speaking now as they have spoken through all the ages of time.

Any young woman of Portland who can muster the largest number of votes can have this trip to the seaside free of any expense. Girls, it's worth trying for!

It will be seen that a new contestant has entered the field, but that need not have any effect but to impart an added zest to the competition. The new one is Mrs. Catherine Adams, of Lipman & Wolfe.

Girls, get your friends to help you. This is a free-for-all contest and there will be no favorites. Just a little persistent hustling may win for you the desired trip. Try for it! Here is today's vote:

Miss Barbara Westenfelder	217
Miss Margaret Benedict	126
Miss Etta Winkelmann	104
Mrs. Catherine Adams	69
Miss Maybelle Royal	65
Miss A. Thomas	65
Miss Edna Thompson	61
Miss Lizzie Wilson	38
Miss Alice Stayton	34
Miss Myrtle Cody	23
Miss Minnie Harris	19

The voting coupon will be found every day at the top right-hand corner of The Journal's second page.

EDITOR IS DEAD.
(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
NEW YORK, May 21.—Edward Godkin, the famous editor of the New York Evening Post, died last night at Briham, England.

NEW JUDGE FOR ALASKA

Moore of Pennsylvania to Take Judge Noyes' Position.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of Alfred S. Moore, of Pennsylvania, to be Judge of the District Court of Alaska for division No. 2.

To The Dalles.

The excursion to be given on Sunday by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to The Dalles will be accompanied by a full band of music from Portland, one from McMinnville, and one from Albany. There will be a balloon ascension at The Dalles by Professor Frank Miller and a performance by the Victrola Bros., of Portland. Weather is promised for the rest of the week, so that Sunday is likely to be pleasant.

REFUGEES LEAVING.

ST. LUCIA, May 21.—A hundred refugees have arrived here on the steamer Helga. The new eruption of Pelee which threatened Port de France, caused the exodus. The refugees report that when they left Martinique a panic prevailed and that people were taking refuge aboard the vessels in the harbor.

ANOTHER JOKE ON FIRST STREET

Not Samples, Though, But Some That Were Evidently "Knocked Out" in Spokane.

"It is a significant fact," said a correspondent for an Eastern music trade paper yesterday, "that with the exception of Mr. Bingham, every firm of piano and organ dealers in business in Portland at the time Eilers Piano House commenced here has gone out of existence."

Not a single one of the firms which at that time took such special pains to belittle and decry Eilers Piano House remains here in business today.

This is certainly an uncontrovertible proof of the superiority of the pianos carried by the Eilers Piano House, and a positive demonstration of our ability to furnish retail and wholesale buyers more actual piano value for the money than can any other dealer or agency.

The days of consignment dealers—that is, firms that get their instruments through San Francisco wholesale houses, or through money lenders or middlemen generally—are numbered.

And under Mr. Haldinger's able management of Eilers Piano House of Spokane, since nearly two years ago, history seems to repeat itself there.

Only late last week we learned that the entire stock of Mark F. Jones & Sons of Spokane was being shipped out of the city there. The entire store on Riverside avenue was entirely cleared out of pianos and organs. Jones received their pianos and organs on consignment from an erstwhile prominent Portland firm on First street, which let "its ambition drive it to San Francisco." And now the Jones Spokane pianos turn up in Portland and are evidently being advertised by a First street house as "manufacturers' samples, and odd styles of regular stock!" ODD styles—well—we should guess yes!

Pianos and organs that have been standing around Spokane, vainly waiting for buyers that somehow seem to have gotten into the habit of patronizing Eilers Piano House! "Manufacturers' samples" and "odd styles," indeed! Well, rather.

Now as to prices.

A piano shipped into Spokane from the factory costs an average of $26 freight. And then from Spokane to Portland the freight is something like $14, or a total freight charge of $40, say nothing of cartages and boxing.

It costs Eilers Piano House not to exceed $10 a piano for freight under our patented system of shipping pianos in harness to Portland.

Therefore, if these little dealers could buy their pianos for the same that Eilers Piano House can at wholesale (and they cannot even hope to do this), and if these self-same little dealers were willing to sell at the bare factory cost and freight—then Eilers Piano House could still sell the same kind of pianos for $25 each less, and clear a reasonably decent profit. Then again, you would be getting a brand new, fresh and clean piano, from Eilers Piano House. Instead of one of those Jones Spokane pianos that must have become sadly shoddy moping around up north. And, mind you, the San Francisco, or middleman jobber's profit is not taken into consideration here at all—which probably means another saving to Eilers Piano House patrons of $20 or more. So 'tis plain we are beating them by $40 per piano.

Is it any wonder then that Eilers Piano House is selling so many pianos? Is it to be wondered at that Eilers Piano House sold seven fine pianos at retail yesterday, besides innumerable pianos and organs at wholesale?

Is it any wonder that frantic efforts seem to have been made in Seattle of late to raise cash to take care of an option of a one-half interest in the First-street concern, of Portland, Oregon, as per the Seattle Post-Intelligencer of March 24 and later issues?

Let us, therefore, repeat!

If you are looking for the best pianos, at the lowest possible prices, and on most favorable terms of payment, you will surely make a mistake if you do not patronize Eilers Piano House. Best pianos, lowest prices, easiest payments—these are the underlying elements of Eilers Piano House success. Remember the number, 551 Washington street, Portland, opposite Cordray's Theatre. Other stores at Spokane, Sacramento and San Francisco.

IT'S A CASE

Of our being tired of waiting for the weather to clear up, so PRICES GO TUMBLING. Had May been at all "Summery" there would have been little chance of your getting Spring goods at the prices we are quoting below. We can't wait for the season, goods must be moved, and we are making prices that will have the effect of moving them, and moving them quickly. By looking over these few items you'll easily see where you can save money by buying now while these prices prevail. These are a few picked from the many you'll find in the departments of our store—simply hints. You'll profit by investigating further.

$9.85

Is the figure we have placed on 200 MEN'S $15.00 and $16.00 SUITS. There is no reason for selling them at this SACRIFICE PRICE other than that they are broken sizes. These suits are mostly this season's styles—and are GOOD VALUE at the original marked price. There are not all sizes in every lot—but there is every size in some lot—33 to 42. Also FAT MEN'S and SLIM MEN'S sizes. No such values have ever been offered in Portland.

MARION JOINT CANVASS.
(Journal Special Service.)
SALEM, May 21.—The joint canvass of the Republicans and Democrats of Marion County was started yesterday at Turner. Both the County and Legislative tickets are included in this joint campaign. The initial "performance" was both exciting and interesting. Some pretty good talkers are to be found among the "campaign boys," and things were kept at a white heat. The rules governing the canvass allow each side 50 minutes, with an additional 20 minutes for the closing side. Marion was also attacked, and last night Jefferson. From Jefferson the candidates will proceed to Aumsville, Sublimity, Stayton on Wednesday; Gates and Mehama, Thursday; Macleay and Silverton, Friday; Scott's Mills and Mt. Angel, Saturday; Gervais, Monitor, Woodburn, on Monday; Butteville, Hubbard and Aurora, Tuesday; Champego and St. Paul, Wednesday; Brooks and Howell, Thursday; Salem, Saturday.

IN OLD KENTUCKY

HAILEY WILL STUMP.
Thomas G. Hailey, Prosecuting Attorney of the Sixth Judicial District and a resident of Pendleton, has consented to take the stump for the Democratic State Central Committee, especially representing Colonel James H. Raley, Democratic nominee for Attorney General. Mr. Hailey will be billed for addresses in a number of the valley counties, and will put in the time before election in that work. Mr. Hailey is a forceful speaker and will be an effective campaigner.
