

CITY BRIEFS

Next Wednesday evening The Royal Highlanders give another of their social dances at Academy Hall.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller has been re-elected as director of the choir of the Mizpah Presbyterian Church for the coming year.

Now is the season of excursions—excursions everywhere, and everybody goes. Word has been passed that the letter carriers of Portland will separate themselves from their mail bags for a day.

June 2 is the date. Don't forget it. You'll go—the other fellow will go—everybody will go, and make it a big success—just as big as the boys deserve.

Thomas McCusker, special officer of the Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement Association, is opposed to tolerating stone bicycle racks on the sidewalks of the city.

The improvement of Fourth street, between Jefferson and Burnside, was resumed yesterday, after several days' interruption on account of the strike.

Schrader, the divine healer, who descended upon Portland a few days ago, is the subject of considerable attention just now from the city authorities.

Watson's Restaurant, open nights to 1 a. m.

Little Domingo Miller, the youngest son of Mrs. Margaret A. Miller, is slowly recovering from a severe operation for appendicitis at St. Vincent's hospital.

Bricklayers' picnic on Sunday, May 25, at Rohrer's Park, Fulton. Take First street car.

The Woodstock band will give one of their popular concerts on Sunday evening from 4 to 6 p. m. Take cars at Third and Yamhill streets.

SOCIAL PORTLAND

Mrs. J. A. Drake has returned from several months in the East, where she visited relatives.

Miss Josephine Harrington, of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. S. R. Harrington.

Mrs. John Dawson has gone to Benicia, Cal., to visit relatives.

Mrs. J. Reinhart has returned from a brief visit in Astoria.

Mrs. T. Baldwin and daughter, Miss Rosemary Baldwin, of The Dalles, are spending a few days with Portland friends.

Mrs. Mabel Williams Plowman has been elected a fraternal delegate to the Washington State Federation of Women's Clubs, which meets next month.

MAY PURCHASE BOTH ROADS

There is a great deal of speculation as to what was the purpose of President Harrison, of the Southern Pacific, in making an inspection of the Astoria & Columbia River road and in spending so much time on the Corvallis & Eastern.

It is believed that Mr. Harrison may have in contemplation the purchase of either one or possibly both of these lines, to serve as links or feeders to his great system.

To be sure these questions came up at the time of Mr. Harrison's visit to Portland, early in the week, but neither himself nor Mr. Hammond, the President of the two roads in question, would admit that they had the transfer of these properties in mind.

The public will necessarily need to wait until the change comes, if it ever does come, for no one but the parties themselves know the truth in the matter.

Don't Wear Glasses

The wrong kind make them worse than they were. For this reason you should have your eyes thoroughly examined by a competent optician if the sight is bad or you have frequent headaches.

Furthermore, when we sell glasses, they are of the latest pattern—the kind that improve your looks and are comfortable in every way.

There is a knack in making the frames fit properly, and unless they do your glasses will always annoy you.

We do not hurry our patients through an examination, but prefer instead to give the necessary attention to every detail.

Our prices are very reasonable and it will pay you to see us.

M. J. WALSH ON STRIKES.

M. J. Walsh, the brilliant young gentleman who has, by his own energy, built up so large a business in gas and electrical channels, wires and supplies, mantels, grates, tins and fireplace trimmings and interior house decorations, at 245 Washington street, next door west of the Merchants National Bank, began life as one of the great army of toilers, and is still a toiler, though not subject to another's beck and call.

"I can appreciate the position of workmen," Mr. Walsh said to The Journal, "because I am one of them. I began at the first step of the ladder, and for what I am I am indebted only to my Creator and myself. No one but myself knows how many years of ceaseless effort I have put forth to acquire what you see before you, nor how indefatigably I labored to become my own employer.

My success has, of course, been exceedingly gratifying, and whenever I see or hear of strikes I am rejoiced that I am independent of the employer who would crush his help. I do believe strikes should not be declared for light and transient reasons, I am yet prone to sympathize with those forced to resort to this method of righting wrongs. Arbitration, to my mind, is the remedy for the affliction. Let employers and employees get together and settle the disputes." And Mr. Walsh's advice is potent at this time.

TO SUCCEED JOE WHEELER

(Journal Special Service.)

PADUCAH, Ky., May 24.—Interest is at fever heat today over the Democratic primary being held in the First Congressional district to nominate a successor to Congressman Wheeler. There are three aspirants in the field, George W. Greenup of Paducah, Ollie James of Marion, and Samuel Crossfield of Mayfield.

A $2,500 wager that Inman would be elected has been made and a wager of $1,000 on Williams, after being posted conspicuously for a short time, was suddenly withdrawn for fear the bluff would be called. It is common report that the Williams and Furnish money posted comes from Republican headquarters, and that Jack Matthews is using the candidate assessments to such end. This may account for the frantic demand coming from the machine headquarters for more "stuff."

Trainmen's Excursion. Tomorrow (Sunday) the Trainmen of Portland will give their annual railroad excursion to The Dalles. Trains will leave the Union depot as follows: First at 8 a. m., second at 8:30, and the others in quick succession.

First and second trains will stop at all prominent points between Portland and The Dalles, and all trains will stop at same points returning. Street cars on both lines will start early. Every detail has been attended to. Music by three brass bands, grand balloon ascension and parachute jump, and various other features of amusement. The great Turkish aeronaut is now on exhibition in Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s show window. Woodard, Clarke & Co. and the excursion committee are giving him special prizes. The weather is very favorable and a large crowd is expected. A pleasant day's outing, and a good time for everybody.

Subscriptions received from The Journal at any of B. B. Rich's cigar stores.

LOOK OUT FOR THE NEW ONES

Another Candidate for the June Vacation.

Oh, this is the time of the year when all of us want to get away from the cares and worries of every-day life and go to the seashore, where we can bask in the smiles of Nature.

Don't you want to go and spend 10 whole days at the beach at no expense whatever to yourself, but with all expenses paid by The Journal. We know you do, and that is just why this contest was inaugurated. And we know the prize will be plucked by YOU if you are only willing to expend a little time and energy in striving to win it.

The young men of this city can show no higher compliment to their young lady friends than to obtain for her a trip like this. Just shower in your votes, young men, for your favorite friend, and you will make her happy.

Hereafter all votes received after 8 a. m. will be included in the count for the following day.

A new contestant in the person of Miss Elizabeth Reifernath of the New York Bakery, has entered the field with 13 votes.

Miss Margaret Benedict ..... 242
Miss Barbara Westenfelder ..... 233
Miss Etta Winkelman ..... 182
Miss Alice Stayton ..... 75
Miss Maybelle Royal ..... 69
Mrs. Catherine Adams ..... 69
Miss A. Thomas ..... 65
Miss Lizzie Wilson ..... 45
Miss Minnie Harris ..... 19
Miss Elizabeth Reifernath ..... 13
The voting coupon will be found every day at the top right-hand corner of The Journal's second page.

Plans for Observing the Fourth of July—Officers Chosen.

The general committee of the Fourth of July celebration met in the Chamber of Commerce building last night and elected the following officers: President, General O. Summers; vice president, I. N. Fleischer; secretary, J. D. Mann; treasurer, Dan McAllen; grand marshal, Captain J. P. Shaw.

As some persons who were appointed on the soliciting committee could not serve, their places were filled in and the committees as they stand are:

All south of Jefferson street—Thomas Duffy and Arthur L. Finley.

Jefferson and Yamhill, west of the river—E. A. Covay, and G. W. Kennedy.

Yamhill to Alder street, from the river west to Fourth—C. T. Belcher, Dan McAllen and Leo Seiler.

Yamhill to Alder, west of Fourth—Louis Rosenblatt, F. M. Cohn and F. A. Heitkemper.

Alder to Stark, from river west to Fourth—F. E. Beach and E. B. Rich.

Alder to Stark, west of Fourth—L. E. Adams and William W. Robinson.

Stark to Burnside, from river to Fourth street—George M. Orton and E. A. MacPherson.

West of Fourth street, between Stark and Gilean, and all north of Gilean—J. D. Mann and N. W. Rountree.

Burnside to Gilean, from river west—Thomas Condon, A. E. Gulst and Emil Springer.

East Portland—P. Zimmerman and H. H. Newhall.

Albina—T. W. Vreeland and J. C. Jameson.

Transportation companies, banks and breweries—Julius L. Meier and Paul Wesinger.

It was decided that the soliciting committee be empowered to add to their membership or fill vacancies therein.

The meeting adjourned until next Monday evening.

ELECTION BETS.

If betting can be regarded as a sane indication of the current of political favor, Chamberlain, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Inman, Citizens' candidate for Mayor of Portland, has decidedly the best of it.

Bets were posted yesterday that Chamberlain would carry Union, Baker, Malheur, Harney and Waiwona counties, $250 or more on each county, in addition the same wager is offered that Chamberlain will carry Marion County, and this bet will be raised up to any reasonable figure.

A $2,500 wager that Inman would be elected has been made and a wager of $1,000 on Williams, after being posted conspicuously for a short time, was suddenly withdrawn for fear the bluff would be called. It is common report that the Williams and Furnish money posted comes from Republican headquarters, and that Jack Matthews is using the candidate assessments to such end. C. GEE WO

THE GREAT CHINESE DOCTOR

Can it be wondered that he is called great, when his wonderful remedies cure and help so many sick and suffering people not only here, but throughout the United States? Many are given up to die, others told that an operation was the only help for them, yet their lives were saved, without the great suffering of an operation. Cured by these powerful Chinese herbs, roots, barks and vegetables, that are entirely unknown to medical science in this country. Through the use of these harmless remedies he treats any and all diseases of men, women and children. His numerous cures know the action of over 500 different remedies that has successfully used in different diseases. He cures: Catarrh, asthma, lung troubles, rheumatism, nervousness, stomach, liver, kidney, female troubles, lost manhood, private diseases, etc.

Charges moderate. Call and see him. Consultation free. Patients out of the city write for blank and circular, inclose stamp. Address The C. Gee Wo Chinese Medicine Company, 131 1/2 Third street, Portland, Or. Mention this paper.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY

PORTLAND, Or., April 14.—To the Public: I wish to state that I have suffered for years with dyspepsia, indigestion and kidney trouble, and some three or four months ago I got much worse, and got so bad that I could not retain any kind of food and drink upon my stomach, and the numerous doctors who I wrote I got until I had given up all hopes, and thought I had only a short time to live. One day one of my friends, hearing I was very sick, came to see me, and seeing how bad I was, and not being able to get any relief, he got me ready and took me up to see Dr. C. Gee Wo, who, after looking at my tongue and feeling my pulse, stated that he could cure me. He gave me some medicine, which I took that day, and was able to keep it on the stomach, and the next day I felt better. I continued taking his medicine, and in four days I felt 100 per cent better, and now, after taking for two months this wonderful Chinese medicine, I know I am cured, and feel better, stronger, healthier than I have for more than 10 years. I can never thank my friends and the doctor enough for saving my life and showing me that there was a pure vegetable remedy which is absolutely free from the poison such as our doctors give nowadays. I gladly recommend Dr. C. Gee Wo and his wonderful Chinese remedies to all who are sick. Any one who is sick who wishes to verify this medicine, will do so by calling on me or sending stamped envelope for reply.
