

A GRAND MEETING

Tonight at Park and Gilsan Streets by Citizens.

The demonstration announced for tonight at Park and Gilsan streets by voters of the Second and Third wards will give all who have doubted the success of the Citizens' movement that has brought a shoal of unpledged candidates in the political field, an opportunity to have a second guess. It will be a meeting of working men, men who have shored through the day and are anxious to give public expression of their faith and confidence in the promises made by those who are candidates on the Citizens' ticket. The voters in this portion of the city are in full sympathy with those in other localities, and will join hands to effectively prevent the installation of a set of political mannikins in office, who, if elected, would be simply pliant tools in the hands of unscrupulous men who want to become the political bosses of Multnomah County.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN PRESENT. The monster outdoor rally in the interest of the Matthews machine ticket fall to catch on. So far as voters were concerned, the dismal failure of Saturday night was again repeated in an effort to entice the people of South Portland last night.

A delightfully cool evening followed an excessively warm day, and, "when the band began to play," many of the women and children sought Terwilliger park for a better recreation and to enjoy the music. Candidate Watkins and Comrade Courtney hustled about the neighborhood in an effort to get some of the men out, and with the half hundred that responded, augmented by several candidates, and their followers, perhaps 100 voters were on the grounds.

Previous to the opening of the meeting there was a concert furnished through the medium of a weakened-toned graphophone, after which Judge Williams was introduced and made his accustomed speech. Every effort was made to punctuate the remarks of the venerable speaker with a showing of applause, but the attempt proved a failure. Most of the applause given was from a crowd of boosters, who had been brought on the ground for such purpose.

The little park had more the appearance of a neighborhood picnic than a political meeting, and the women and children, making up 75 per cent of the crowd, enjoyed the evening's diversion for a time, but soon got tired listening to something they did not understand, and wended their way homeward. Meetings held in the interest of the machine ticket are not popular; the people have no confidence in it, while every demonstration in favor of the Citizens' ticket shows the great interest that it has awakened, and the confidence expressed of its achieving a signal victory next Monday at the polls.

REVENGE

Must Have Prompted Chinaman's Murder.

The opinion is becoming quite general that it was a Chinaman who murdered Toy Sing, whose body was found yesterday afternoon in a North End house. Robbery was not the object, as nothing was disturbed in any way and it is known that deceased had considerable money in his possession. A detective working on the case said this morning: "It was murder by a Chinaman, out for revenge or at the instance of some high-binder tong."

The coroner held an inquest this morning, but very little was developed. The jury found deceased came to his death from injuries inflicted with an ax and pocketknife at the hands of some person or persons unknown.

Office Roberts, who was on the scene first, and a number of Chinese and colored people, also testified. Deceased had been in this country 40 years and had conducted the optium joint where he was killed, two months.

WERLEIN HONORED.

J. E. Werlein, Citizens' candidate for City Treasurer, was the recipient of unshelved honors from an unexpected source Saturday. He received a telephone message from Westport, Or., stating that an A. O. U. W. lodge had just been organized there under the name of Werlein Lodge, No. 108. Mr. Werlein was unaware that he was so popular so far away from Portland, and the report came as an agreeable surprise.

A Very Pretty Souvenir.

A very attractive book of 116 pages, entitled "Oregon," has just been issued from the press of Irwin-Hodson Company, in the interest of the Travelers' Protective Association, the national convention of which will be held in this city from June 3 to 7. The book contains much good matter and illustrations about Oregon and the association, and the work from an artistic standpoint is the equal of any publication ever turned out on the Coast.

G. A. R. MEN

Will Celebrate Memorial Day by Parade and Services.

George Wright and Lincoln-Garfield Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet at 9 o'clock Friday morning to celebrate Memorial day, to decorate the graves of comrades in the cemeteries of the West Side.

The members of Sumner and Ben Butler Posts will meet at the same hour in their hall on the East Side to decorate the graves of comrades in the cemeteries on the East Side.

At 1:30 the member of George Wright and Lincoln-Garfield Posts will assemble at the G. A. R. Hall and at the same hour, the members of Harrington, Hampton and Gilbert Camps of Spanish-American War Veterans will meet at the A. O. U. W. Hall and march to First and Taylor streets. The members of Sumner and Ben Butler Camps will assemble at East Third and Burnside streets at 1:30 o'clock. The East Side procession will form at 2 o'clock at First and Taylor streets, where the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, will act as escort, and the route will be: North to Morrison street, west to Sixth, north to Washington, east to Third, north to Burnside, and east to East Third street, where the members of Sumner and Ben Butler Posts will join.

The procession will then march east to Grand avenue, south to East Stark, and east to Lone Fir Cemetery, where the members of the Woman's Relief Corps and Woman's Auxiliary will be in waiting.

A Grand Army service will be held at First Congregational Church Friday night.

SPRINKLING STREETS.

The Street Sprinkling Department commenced operations yesterday on the principal business thoroughfares. Six sprinklers were sent out by Superintendent Ferguson. Tomorrow several more will be added to the squadron. The work will be continued daily as long as the present dry weather lasts.

THE HOME GUARD.

Great preparations have been made by the degree team of Albina Camp, No. 191, Woodmen of the World, for the drama, The Home Guard, which will be presented by home talent at Gomes Hall on Russell street this evening. Following is the cast of characters: Robert Trueworth, F. T. Paul, Wilder Rowell, W. C. Bolton; Hosea Jenks, W. M. Cook; Hiram Jenks, George O'Farrell; Crimp, Herbert Glouver; General Grant, J. C. Jamison; Lieutenant-Colonel Boxer, Albert Penick; Gaglio Gifford, Estella Hagard; Mrs. Trueworth, Sabina Mosler; Mattie Trueworth, Alice Anderson.

Cutting Affray.

Two young boys named Phillips and Snodgrass got into a heated argument at the merry-go-round, Knott street and Williams avenue, Saturday evening and a free-for-all fight resulted.

Young Phillips drew a large pocket knife and lunged at Snodgrass, inflicting several very painful and deep wounds in his neck. The injured lad was taken to Wats & Mattieu's drug store, on Williams avenue and Russell street, where Dr. Hamilton took several stitches in his throat. His condition at present is not very dangerous.

WON'T BUILD NOW.

Manager Koehler, of the Southern Pacific, affirms the report that orders have been received from San Francisco to cease building the boiler and blacksmith shops of the company at its plant here. He said he did not know what the order meant, nor whether it would be merely a temporary matter or a permanent one.

Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane Appropriations Increased.

How It Pays to Be a Solid Republican State.

The Senate amendment appropriating $250,000 for the Portland Postoffice has been cut down to $200,000, a shave of $50,000. At the same time, the committee accepted the amendment appropriating an additional $200,000 for Seattle, making her appropriation $500,000. Spokane and Tacoma had their appropriations increased from $50,000 to $100,000.

Washington has a habit of occasionally sending to Washington Democratic Senators and members of Congress and electing Populist Governors. She keeps the Republican leaders in Washington in a case of delightful uncertainty. Hence, being coy, she is wooed with gifts.

Oregon, on the other hand, has made a solid Republican record for more than a quarter of a century. This record is a very good one to cut off her appropriations.

In Washington, Oregon is not doubtful. They read the Oregonian back there and rely on that Furnish enthusiasm that 15,000 Republican majority, and then they nonchalantly take the $50,000 and give it to Seattle, with $150,000 more, as extra inducement to get into the Republican column.

JOINT AGENCY OPENS.

L. F. Beyreiss, joint agent of the transcontinental lines, opened his office at room 2, Chamber of Commerce, this morning. The office is instituted to validate returning portion of excursion tickets on account of the Travelers' Protective Association meeting and that of the A. O. U. W., both in Portland, as well as events in the Puget Sound district. Mr. Beyreiss states that the Portland office will be the main one, but that branch offices will be maintained at Tacoma, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

COURT NOTES.

The will of H. A. Smith, deceased, disposing of an estate worth $7600 has been admitted to probate in the County Court. The property is distributed as follows: to Harriet Ann Smith, the widow, $2000, to be realized from an insurance policy; to Benjamin Franklin Smith, a son, $1000. The remainder of the estate is bequeathed in equal shares to Emory Howard Smith, Benjamin F. Smith, William Christian Smith, and Minnie Alice Towle. A. F. Flegel and W. N. Jones are the executors.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TOUR.

(Journal Special Service.) THE DALLES, Or., May 27.—The people of The Dalles gave a magnificent welcome to George E. Chamberlain, W. A. Wann and Henry Blackman last night in the Baldwin Opera-House. The reception was evidence that they will poll enough votes to carry the county, at least for a part of the ticket, Mr. Chamberlain being sure to have a majority. Circuit Judge W. L. Bradshaw presided at the meeting, Messrs Wann, Blackman and some of the local candidates speaking before Mr. Chamberlain, who was given an ovation when he stepped forward to address the audience.

TWO HEPNER MEETINGS.

(Journal Special Service.) HEPNER, Or., May 27.—Heppner turned out en masse to hear George E. Chamberlain, Henry Blackman and W. A. Wann, and there were so many that it was necessary to hold an overflow meeting. At each there was lots of enthusiasm and interest in Mr. Chamberlain's discussion of state issues.

FURNISH ILL AT ATHENA.

(Journal Special Service.) PENDLETON, Or., May 27.—The Furnish reception here last night was fairly enthusiastic and of moderate dimensions. The attendance was not so large as at the meetings held by George Chamberlain, nor were so many at the station to meet him when he came from Athena. At the latter place Mr. Furnish excused himself on account of sickness, and did not appear before the people. Here he read his usual speech.

TO BEAUTIFY PLAZA BLOCK

The Park Commissioners met at the City Hall this forenoon and adopted the suggestion of J. E. Werlein, representing the A. O. U. W. Lodge, and J. S. Beall, of the Travelers' Protective Association, to beautify the plaza block bounded by Salmon, Fourth, Third and Main streets, with floral designs, symbolic of the two orders.

EAST SIDE BRIEFS.

Mrs. J. C. Reed, wife of a former pastor of the Second Baptist Church, died Saturday at her home in Central East Portland. Mrs. Reed has been confined to her home for a long time and recently underwent several surgical operations.

Guiseppi Arata Dead.

Guiseppi Arata, owner of the Arata wholesale liquor houses at 104 Third street and 224 First street, died last night of consumption aged 48 years. He has a brother who was engaged in business with him. The funeral will take place from the residence, No. 29 Tenth street, at 2 P. M. Thursday.

'ROUND TOWN.

Hon. George E. Chamberlain and Hon. W. F. Butcher will address the citizens of Portland at Gomes Hall, Albina, on Wednesday, May 28, at 8 p. m., upon the political issues of this campaign.

A special meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the secretary's office, 248 Washington street. The meeting is for the purpose of acting on the report of the navigation committee and any other business that may come up.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Judge Bellinger, of the United States District and Circuit Courts, will call the trial docket and set cases for trial before the grand jury.

Col. L. L. Hawkins has recently added a valuable attraction to the City Museum, of which he is the gratuitous guardian. It consists of two Siberian reindeer, which he secured from J. L. Kimball, of Alaska, where the heads were mounted.

Internal Revenue Collector Dunne's office will be established in the new Federal building tomorrow. Moving was commenced yesterday from the old quarters in the Worcester block, and by tonight most if not all the books, papers, and other paraphernalia will be in place.

Workmen were engaged this morning in sawing out a three-inch piece of rail on the Burnside street bridge draw. With the advent of warm weather the steel rails expand and there is frequently a great deal of trouble in opening the draw. When the three-inch piece is removed a fish plate is bolted onto the two pieces, and as occasion demands the little pieces of rail taken out are replaced.

POLICE RECORD.

The charge against Casper Hinkle, accused of stealing a bicycle, was dismissed in the police court this afternoon. The assault and battery case against Louis Allen was continued a day. C. J. Barrett was sent to the county jail as an information accusing him of indecent exposure is being prepared. Judge Campbell is puzzled as to what he ought to do in the case of a boy named Paul Temple, who stole a bicycle at Sunday's ball game. The prisoner admits his guilt but does not appear to realize the seriousness of his position. The case went over.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Joseph Barton, general freight and passenger agent of the Sumpter Valley road, is in the city from Baker City today. C. F. Osborne, agent for the Erie Dispatch at Seattle, is in Portland. H. O. Wilson, general agent of the O. R. & N. Co. at Butte, Mont., visited the company's headquarters today. Mr. Wilson is accompanied by his wife. A. E. Boney, traveling freight and passenger agent of the O. R. & N. Co. at Butte, Mont., is among today's transients.

A Raymond and Whitcomb tourist party, 109 in number, came in Sunday from Puget Sound. They are principally from the New England States and New York. They left yesterday for the East over the Northern Pacific and will visit Yellowstone Park while en route.

C. N. Rankin, Police Commissioner, has returned from a week's business trip through Eastern Washington.

Fire was discovered in one of the cottages belonging to Captain J. H. McMillen on Crosby street yesterday morning. A few buckets of water extinguished the blaze. Cause unknown.

Miss Kate Douvge has donated a very fine carved pulpit to St. Mary's Catholic Church in Albina.

Mrs. Hugh Daugherty, residing at East Eighth and East Everett streets, is said to be very ill.

It was a dark night. "Petro," whispered the beautiful girl with sunrise hair, "there is the man who has captured the crimson flush to tinge my cheeks."

"What! biased Petro, reaching for his trusty blade. "Is he your—your lover?" "No! my drugist. He handles the best rouge in town."

And only the whispering night breeze disturbed the stillness.—Chicago News.

ADVENTISTS CONFERENCE.

About 600 people are already camped at the Seventh-Day Adventist meeting grounds on Williams avenue, Upper Albina, and the tents are being rapidly occupied.

It has been decided to divide the North Pacific Conference in two parts, the territory west of the Cascade Mountains in Oregon taking the old name and the newly organized conference in Washington and British Columbia, east of the Cascades will take some other name.

The North Pacific Conference was organized in 1877 at Walla Walla by Elder I. D. Van Horn, and comprised the States of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, with a membership of about 150 members. Since that time it has been necessary to organize three separate conferences in that territory. The membership of the three states now amounts to about 4000.

C. L. Decker, the present president of the North Pacific Conference, has held that position for about five years, the new officers being elected during the present conference, which will continue until Monday, June 2.

Following is the daily program: Ringing bell, 8 a. m.; social worship in pavilion, 9:30; conference business meeting, 10 o'clock; public preaching, 10:30 and 2:30 p. m.; conference business meeting, 5 p. m.; public preaching, 7:45 p. m.; retiring bell, 9:30 p. m. The services will be interspersed by Bible studies.

Drawbridge Question.

There will be a mass meeting of all persons interested in the closing of the draw bridges in the United States courtroom on June 3 at 2:30 p. m. As all arguments in favor or against the closing of the draw bridges at certain hours is to be read before the Secretary of War, any one wishing to be heard will please submit in writing his reasons, pro or con, to Captain W. C. Langfit, United States Engineers.

MOHR ROAD SOLD.

The transfer of the Paul Mohr road on Saturday at Goldendale to the contractors, Winters & Chapman, marks an important step in an enterprise of greatest importance to the interests of the Inland Empire. By the terms of this sale, Winters & Chapman bid in for $30,000.00 the line, which includes all mechanics' liens, but does not include something like $100,000 in other debts, which will not be pressed.

The difference of color between green tea and black tea depends on the fact that the first is obtained from leaves dried as soon as they are gathered, while in the case of the black tea the leaves are allowed to ferment before drying. Black tea, therefore, contains much less tannin than green.

CHURCH NEWS AND VIEWS

The two opposite parties in the Church of England are now divided on the question of morning and evening communion. The sacerdotalists insist on fasting communion and so follow the Roman use in not celebrating after noon, while the evangelicals favor celebrations at the time of the original institution, claiming that the Lord's Supper is manifestly "no breakfast." The new bishop of Durham is a strong supporter of the latter practice. Recently he preached in the morning at the Chapel Royal, St. James' Palace, and in the evening at St. Paul's, Onslow Square, London. After the evening sermon he assisted in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

A pastor in Central Pennsylvania sends out a slip to his parishioners asking them to name any subject or text upon which a sermon would be especially helpful to them, and deposit it in a box prepared for the purpose. He hopes in this way "to be of more service to his congregation, whose confidence in this matter will give him sincere pleasure."

The Canadian census bureau has issued a bulletin giving the results as regards the religious affiliations of the people. The grand total of persons is 5,571,051, of whom 2,228,987 are Roman Catholics. Of the Protestants the most numerous are the Methodists, with 516,822; the Presbyterians, with 342,261, and the Anglicans, with 280,318. The Baptists are fourth with 252,485. All these denominations show a substantial increase in the 17 years since 1881. The Congregationalists with 23,383, have increased only 26 in 17 years, and the Salvation Army has lost 2643 on the 1891 figures of 12,949. Unitarians have gained 157 on a total in 1891 of 17, and Universalists have lost 527 out of their 1891 total of 236.

A Berlin paper is authority for the statement that there are at present 123 converts from Judaism occupying Protestant pulpits. In the United States there are 4500 office-bearers in Christian churches who were born Jews. During the last century there are records of 294,500 Jews being baptized, of whom 72,240 entered Protestant churches, 57,390 the church of Rome and 74,500 the Greek church, mostly in Russia.
