FEDERATED TRADES COUNCIL EXCURSION.

Arrangements have been completed for the big excursion of the Federated Trades Council that will be run on Sunday, June 1, between Portland and Salem and return. The first train will leave the depot at 8 A. M. and the second section at 8:30 A. M., sharp. Both trains will stop at the fair grounds for the accommodation of those who do not care to go into Salem. The trains will then run to the Salem depot. Special street-car service will be provided to handle the great crowd between the city and the grounds. At 1:30 P. M. the sports will take place on the race track in front of the grandstand. A place for those who wish to dance has been arranged in the pavilion. After the racing, etc., a baseball contest will take place on the fair ground diamond between a select team from the unions of Portland and those of Salem. Arrangements have also been made for the opening of the insane asylum and the penitentiary between the hours of 2 and 4 P. M. These institutions can accommodate 1000 persons during that time. The State House will be open to the sightseers all day. On the return trip the first train will leave the Salem depot at 5 P. M., followed shortly afterward by the second section. Nothing has been left undone for the pleasure and comfort of the excursionists.

FOR MUNICIPAL JUDGE.

R. W. Thompson, Citizens' candidate for Municipal Judge, is one of the wide-awake young lawyers of Portland. He has always been a Democrat, an active spirit in the circle in which he moves, and a citizen honored for his sturdy manhood. He is aged 35 years, was reared in Portland, and all his life is an open book to this community. In early days he had large business experience in the wholesale houses of the city, but for a decade has practiced the profession of law. At the time of his examination before the Supreme Court he passed the highest in his class.

Two years ago Mr. Thompson made a brilliant run for Municipal Judge by polling the largest vote on his ticket—about 2000 more than the other candidates. He is well known in fraternity circles, being a member of Multnomah Camp, Woodmen Lodge, No. 77; also a member of the Sons of Hermann and Central Verein, and has been a member in good standing in the Turn Verein for a number of years. He is a property owner and taxpayer in this city and is married and has three children. If elected he will make a competent official, having the ability, courage and education to perform all duties pertaining to the office.

For Councilman to represent the Fourth Ward the Citizens nominated one of the most capable men in that ward, W. R. MacKenzie, is widely known in Portland as a man of large business experience, and his integrity has never yet been brought in question. He is a man of affairs, of large executive ability, and

FOR COUNCILMAN FOURTH WARD.

W. R. MacKenzie is widely known in Portland as a man of large business experience, and his integrity has never yet been brought in question. He is a man of affairs, of large executive ability, and

W. R. MACKENZIE.

If elected will do his part in conducting the business interests of Portland as if they were his own. If Portland shall be so fortunate as to elect a City Council all composed of such men as Mr. MacKenzie, a new era will dawn upon the municipality.

Eckenberger Weds.

H. C. Eckenberger, who bears the proud title of the Dean of Portland general railroad agents, and who has for so many years ably represented the interests of the Michigan Central here, was married yesterday at San Francisco. His bride is the widow of George E. Battin, who was once a well-known commission merchant on Front street. Mr. Eckenberger was joined in San Francisco by his bride, who came up to meet him there from Los Angeles. The entire membership of the Portland Railroad Colony will wish Mr. and Mrs. Eckenberger happiness in their new relation.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

The Civic Federation committee, Thomas N. Strong, chairman, is out with a folder, in which the qualifications of the different candidates are discussed, and in some cases their pretensions to office are severely set upon. "Our own Henry" McGinn, candidate for State Senator, is unmercifully scored. His record is game into and his defeat strongly advocated.

Many of the candidates for Representatives are unmercifully roasted, Dan J. Malarky, on the Republican ticket, and others receiving jobs which should make them squirm.

W. A. Storey, Republican candidate for Sheriff, comes in for a serious castigation, and the portion of the pamphlet devoted to him closes with the statement that "his election would be a calamity, and every decent citizen is urged to vote for his opponent."

For Mayor, the Civic Federation expresses no choice. Its pamphlet gives the records of both Williams and Inman, and leaves the voter to take his choice. The general tone of the brochure is impartial, and seems to be dictated by a regard for the civic weal.

A PRIVATE MISSIONARY.

Thomas R. Wilson, an ardent admirer of Hon. Geo. E. Chamberlain, departed for Southern Oregon yesterday to do missionary work for the next Governor.

Mr. Wilson is not being sent by the Democratic committee or anyone else, but is going out on his own accord and will bear his own expenses.

It is just such men as Wilson who are going to elect Mr. Chamberlain. They are working from unselfish motives and purely out of respect and confidence in their standard bearer.

Mr. Wilson will probably return home Saturday but not later than in time to cast his vote.

LOGGER INJURED.

Frank Hatfen was taken to St. Vincent's hospital this morning to be treated for injuries received last night in a logging camp of Armstrong & Clark down the river.

He was controlling a donkey-engine in handling the logs when hurt. He was unable to tell the facts of the accident, but as he was found lying face downward, it is supposed he had seen the log falling and started to run when he was struck. He was badly cut on the body in several places, and one of his legs was nearly broken, his head was also struck by the log, and bruised so that he bled profusely all night.

LOCAL RAILROAD NOTES.

The precursors of the meeting of the Travelers' Protective Association, to be held here in June, are already in evidence. One delegation—the Twentieth Century Club of New Orleans—will reach Portland June 1. Another one is booked from Texas, to arrive here June 2, and both will come in over the Southern Pacific.

President Mohler, of the O. R. & N. Company, together with Superintendent O'Brien, Chief Engineer Kennedy and Master Mechanic Graham, are back from their recent trip of inspection with President Harriman over the Central Pacific in Nevada.

General Passenger Agent Craig is in receipt of a letter from Rev. H. W. Kellogg, the former pastor of the Taylor-Street Methodist Church, who is now in Ohio. Mr. Kellogg was given a number of slides illustrative of Oregon, by Mr. Craig. These he has used to excellent advantage in advertising Oregon in a series of lectures he is giving in the East.

Superintendent Fields and Master Mechanic Younger, of the Southern Pacific, left this morning for a trip of inspection over the main line of the company on the East Side. They will return the latter part of the week.

The O. R. & N. Co.'s excursion to Seaside on Saturday on the T. J. Potter, will be successful. Quite a number of reservations have already been made.

MINES AND MINING.

Manager J. W. McCoy, Paul Benson of Chicago, and George O. Thompson of Boston, stockholders of the Aurora Gold Mining Company who arrived in Baker City a few days ago from the East to inspect the property, have returned home. They stated that they were well pleased with the condition of affairs at the mine. This property has been under constant development for the past year and during that time the company has expended about $25,000 in development work and equipment of the mine. A 10-stamp mill is now pounding ore every day.

The Big Foot mine near Gold Hill was sold on the 15th inst. for $300. It is said to be very rich in free milling gold.

Louis Sommer, a merchant at Baker City, who owns the controlling interest in the Mammoth mine, has received notice from the Charleston Exposition that he had been awarded a bronze medal for his exhibit of Multnomah ore at that fair. The ore exhibited was a 67-pound chunk of ree milling gold quartz going $300 to the ton.

Geo. Friede has returned from a visit to the property owned by the Mount Baker Mining Company. An effort was made last fall to take a stamp mill and mining machinery to the property, but they had to be left on the trail owing to the depth of the snow. Arrangements are now being made to take them the balance of the distance.

SUIT DISMISSED.

On motion of S. C. Spencer, attorney for the plaintiff, the suit of K. E. Parker vs. Claude Thayer, administrator of the estate of W. W. Thayer, deceased, to recover something like $1000, was dismissed. A cash settlement was reached out of court. The sum was for services rendered by Parker as a stenographer in W. W. Thayer's law office.

MAZAMAS OUTING.

All arrangements are now completed for the Mazama trip to Mt. Adams in July. L. L. Hawkins, A. J. Capron and L. J. Hicks have returned from Trout Lake at the base of the mountain, where they went to secure transportation service from White Salmon. They arranged for the party to go in two sections, one leaving Portland July 14 and the second the following day. They go to White Salmon by boat and remainder by wagon. The distance from White Salmon to the lake is 27 miles and from there to the timber line 10 miles.

Excellent camping places have been selected. The permanent camp will be on Trout creek near the lake. One day will be spent in reaching the timber belt and another in making the mountain trip.

The Salmon Pack.

It was estimated by several cannerymen yesterday that the Columbia River salmon pack so far this season is about the same as at this time last year. A considerable amount of the product of last year is still on hand.

The pack this year to date will approximate 17,000 cases. The cold storage plants, for a like period last year, had packed about 3000 cases.

The same prices are changed this year by the combine and independent cannerymen. Quotations are $125 per dozen for one-pound tins, $145 for one-pound flats and $90 cents for half-pound flats.

It is reported that Puget Sound tins are pretty well cleaned up, but flats are left over in considerable quantity.

"THE LEAST OF THESE"

Pathetic Tribute to a Friend of the Poor.

(Journal Special Service.)

LONDON, May 28.—Unusually pathetic are the tributes paid to the late Father Dolling, pastor of St. Saviour's, located in the dullest and poorest district of London, to which he came from fashionable Bourne-mouth. The priest died several days ago.

When the body was moved from his plain quarters to the church, the narrow streets were literally packed with mourning people, none of whom were too poor to do something black, while the little children of the district sent innumerable pitiful bunches of flowers to be laid on the coffin.

This morning the church was crowded with children at the service in honor of their friend.

This afternoon Father Dolling was buried at Woking, and many of the poor whose hearts were won by their self-sacrificing shepherd started early to walk the many miles to Woking to be present at the interment.

CAUGHT HIM, KILLED HIM

(Journal Special Service.)

ROLLA, Mo., May 28.—At Yancy Mills, a small place 15 miles from here, Taylor Graham was shot and killed by W. A. Bradley. It is said that Bradley had been to Rolla and returned home about 5 o'clock in the evening. His wife was not at home, and from her little niece Bradley learned that she had not been there for several hours. He immediately suspected Graham, and getting his Winchester he set out up the valley to a thicket of bushes where he thought they might be. He got within 20 steps of them and shot Graham, who kept on the run. A party was organized to search for Graham, and he was found dead about 200 yards from where he was shot. Bradley returned to Rolla and gave himself up to the Prosecuting Attorney. He was let out on $2000 bonds.

MAY PERISH IN FLAMES

(Journal Special Service.)

CANON CITY, Colo., May 28.—What seems to be a forest fire covering nearly the whole top of Sheep Mountain, between this city and Victor, is in progress and can be seen burning brightly. Huge columns of smoke have been rolling skyward all day and tonight the top of the mountain is one mass of seething flame. There are a few prospectors at work on the mountain and fears are entertained for their safety. A large number of horses and cattle grazed on the mountain and many will undoubtedly be killed by the flames.

Printing the Ballots.

The C. H. Crocker Company has been awarded the contract for the printing of the general election ballots for 1905. The other bids put in were: Union Printing Company, $1712.50; Schwab Bros., Printing & Lithographing Company, $1625. Two years ago the printing cost less than $1000. On other elections the cost has reached $2000. This year there is more composition than in 1900, and the paper used is of better quality.

All Portland knows the Columbia telephone service is the best. If you're from Missouri, we will show you.

CRIMINALS' CLUB

Another Form of Lunacy Crops Out at Yale.

(Journal Special Service.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 28.—Yale's Criminals' club has deliberately disobeyed the prohibition against it, issued several weeks ago by Dean H. P. Wright of the faculty, and is consequently likely to feel the heavy hand of authority.

The club offended particularly in one song which they sang at a late hour on the new campus just before giving a cheer with a rider for "crime." Up to that point they had been noisy, but within bounds. The song, to the air of "The Pope. He Leads a Jolly Life," ran thus:

The burglar leads a jolly life, jolly life. He'll land his billy on your spine; I wish the burglar's life was mine. He'll land his billy on your spine; I wish the burglar's life was mine.

The murderer better please me. He kills so artistically, 'tistically. He knocks you down upon the ground, And makes your blood flow all around.

In another point, the faculty members feel that mockery was carried too far. The club pretended to give honorary degrees for crimes, conferring the following: "B. S." (burglary and stealing), "D. D." (drunk and disorderly), and "S. T." (sneak thief).

Nor do the college authorities feel it wise to permit a club of students to exist, the preamble of whose bond is even for fun, started to be "to promote a knowledge of crime and the psychological basis of crime among its members, and a contempt for the New Haven police department."

Other provisions of a constitution which is said to have been adopted at a banquet, behind barred doors, are:

"No person shall be eligible for membership who is not a college man and who has not been arrested for some offense against the law of the land. Upon a vote of two-thirds of the members already admitted, however, any student may be admitted to honorary membership who has shown unusual boldness in the commission of crime and in escaping the consequences thereof."

Not only the faculty, but the students, are incensed at the actions of the club, some of the members of which are said to be prominent.

HONOR GARRIGAN

(Journal Special Service.)

LOWELL, Mass., May 28.—The first recipient in honor of Rev. Philip Garrigan, D. D., since his consecration as bishop of the new diocese of Sioux City, takes place here tonight. Bishop Garrigan spent his boyhood in Lowell and his first pastorate was in this city. Elaborate arrangements have been completed for the reception and it is expected that fully 2000 prominent Roman Catholics of this and other cities will be in attendance.

RED CLOUD IS DYING

(Journal Special Service.)

PINE RIDGE, S. D., May 28.—Red Cloud is lying in his house here in a feeble state, and his passing brings to mind the important role he has played in the history of the plains.

No Indian of modern times can compare with him in ability, courage and statecraft. Since the days of Tecumseh we have no American Indian destined to fill as high a place in history as this chief, Sitting Bull, of the same people, may be more widely known, but his standing among the Sioux themselves was far below that of this truly great man. He is eighty years old.
