The United States steam vessel inspector is already at work in the new government building. He has a suite of rooms in the northeast end on the second floor. The rooms are handsomely furnished and Mr. Fuller expresses himself as perfectly satisfied.

Deputy Food and Dairy Commissioner Cutlip has been out the past week testing milk. He reports that the milk is very good—that all gentlemen are using the pump.

It is expected that the [illegible] bonds for the [illegible] Company will be commenced next week. This company was organized by the Board of Trade for the purpose of purchasing the old Dalles-Celilo Portage railway.

The State House will be open to the sightseers all day. On the return trip the first train will leave the Salem depot at 5 P. M., followed shortly afterwards by the second section. When, however, the books were furnished, the paper was found to be watermarked with the word "Greylock," an inferior grade of paper made by the L. L. Brown mill. When Mr. Hodson's attention was called to the matter, he blandly asserted that, as the paper was made by the L. L. Brown mill, it fulfilled the requirements, although of an inferior grade. This is the way that Mr. Hodson attempted to do business with the public authorities. How will he do if he is placed in authority? He is a good man to vote against.

CAMPAIGN CLOSES

In Grants Pass Today—Honored Dead Heroes.

(Journal Special Service.)

The Josephine County candidates completed their campaign with a grand rally in this city last night. The meeting was largely attended. Music was furnished by the Grants Pass band. H. D. Norton, chairman of the meeting, introduced Robt. G. Smith, nominee for Representative from this county, who made a stirring address. Following him, Col. H. A. Reed addressed the meeting.

The Republicans are holding their final rally in Grants Pass today. They will hold a meeting at the opera house tonight, with W. S. Duniway of Portland as a drawing card.

Nowhere was a more fitting tribute of respect and remembrance paid the nation's dead heroes than that which was accorded them in this city yesterday. The memorial address was delivered by Rev. J. W. McDougal, of the M. E. Church.

Big Excursion to Salem.

The excursion of the Federated Trades Council to Salem tomorrow will be taken advantage of by hundreds of people, for whose entertainment elaborate plans have been made. The two trains will leave Union depot at 8 and 8:30 a. m. They will stop at the fair grounds for the accommodation of those who do not care to visit the city, and will then run to the Salem depot. Street cars will be operated in sufficient numbers between the city and fair grounds to accommodate the large crowds. At 1:30 the sports will commence, taking place on the race track in front of the grand stand. After a number of races, a baseball game will be played. Dancing will be enjoyable in the pavilion. The trains leave Salem on the return at 5 o'clock.

JOHN DRISCOLL'S GOOD RECORD

The workingmen of Portland should be unanimous in their support of John Driscoll, the Citizen candidate for Sheriff. His record as the champion of labor and its interests while a member of the Legislature not only supporting but working for every measure tending to improve the condition of laboring men shows where his sympathies lie. The vestibule bill became a law through the efforts of John Driscoll and Frank Heitkemper, and while not successful in securing the passage of the fellow servant bill it was through no fault of his. His vote was right. It was the vote of Nottingham and others who proved false to their pledges that the bill failed.

A vote for John Driscoll is a vote for an honest, capable man who has served well, and not alone from the workingmen but from all classes. A vote for Storey will be a vote to continue in power a disreputable political gang. Vote for Driscoll and smash the ring.

CHAMBERLAIN COIN

Is Plentiful at The Dalles—Republicans Can't Cover It.

THE DALLES, May 31.—Since last Monday there has been $1500 placed in the Whitehouse saloon by parties here to bet on Chamberlain, even money on general results.

The Republicans today put up $100 forfeit, agreeing to cover the balance by 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

They have been skirmishing around for the balance since, but so far have not been able to raise the money.

This still leaves $500 free to be taken.

As soon as their money is covered there will be plenty more Chamberlain money for the Furnish people to take if they want it.

Everything that can be heard from the outlying districts shows that the complexion of the interior districts is changing daily for Chamberlain, and his supporters are becoming more confident every day.

EUGENE IS SOLID

Chamberlain Will Have a Majority in Lane County.

(Journal Special Service.)

EUGENE, May 31.—The county political canvass ended in Eugene this afternoon when the candidates for Senator and Representatives spoke. The speaking was largely attended, and music was furnished by the Fourth Regiment Band.

The indications are that Lane County, with a Republican majority of over 500, will break about even on the governorship, or perhaps will give Chamberlain a small majority. Senator Kuykendall will probably be defeated by Travis, the Democratic nominee, and Withers, Democratic nominee for Sheriff, is sure of election.

LODGE ELECTIONS

In Oregon City—News Notes of That Town.

(Journal Special Service.)

OREGON CITY, May 31.—Willamette Falls Camp, Woodmen of the World, elected the following new officers last night: Consul commander, R. L. Holman; advisor lieutenant, Thomas F. Ryan; watchman, J. K. Miss Frances Myers, a teacher in the public schools, has returned to her home at Forest Grove to spend the summer vacation.

TRADES COUNCIL

The meeting of the Federated Trades Council was not largely attended last night, and very little business was transacted outside of the ordinary routine work.

Several of the labor organizations represented reported that plans had been perfected for assisting the Amalgamated Woodmakers during their lockout by the mills.

It was decided to take the Walkover shoe off the unfair list, for the reason that very few of the various makers of shoes manufactured bear the union label. It was the sense of the meeting not to discriminate against one firm, which would work to the advantage of another equally unfair.

Committees were appointed to visit the polling places Monday to work in the interest of the initiative and referendum amendment to the state constitution.
