THE MARKETS.

Last week was rather quiet in the wholesale district. Changes have been few and far between. Wheat is moving very slowly according to the Portland Flouring Mills Company. Reports from up the valley say that very little spring wheat has been sown on account of the lateness of the season. Fall wheat, however, is looking well. Valley is in good demand, but most of the crop is out of the hands of the grower. The quotations are: Walla Walla, 66c; bluestem, 67½c; Valley, 67c.

Teft, Hine & Co. report that the meat market is normal. Receipts the past week have been rather liberal for all kinds of fresh meats, with the exception of pork. The quotations are slightly changed today.

Sinclair & Co. say the Eastern meat market is in a normal condition, although receipts thus far this year are behind those of last year. Quotations are the same.

Glafke & Co. report the vegetable market in a quiet condition. The steamer Geo. W. Elder arrived from San Francisco Friday evening and the small amount of vegetables brought was soon distributed among the dealers. No changes are made today in quotations.

A few changes will be noticed today in the butter market. All kinds are selling at higher quotations. A large amount of butter is being rushed into cold storage and dealers are vainly trying to keep up prices. Even with the advance in quotations butter is considered very weak.

The egg market is reported by W. T. Turner & Co. as in a satisfactory condition. Receipts the past week have been quite liberal, but the demand has been good. Today's quotations are 16 cents. Poultry continues in fair receipt, but the market keeps about cleaned up. No changes are made in quotations.

An advance was made today in the price of walnuts, say Wadhams & Co. Today they are quoted at 12½@13c. Business has been fairly good the past week, but does not average that of the week previous. Evaporated apples are very scarce, and prices have gone skyward, the quotations today being about 12c for fancy stock. No other changes appear in quotations in the grocery line.

Henry Everding reports the feed business as averaging. No changes appear in quotations.

READY FOR THE TRAVELERS

Tomorrow the convention of the Travelers' Protective Association will begin in Portland, and all arrangements are now fully complete. Tonight a reception will be tendered the visiting members and delegates at the Elks' Hall, in the Marquam building. The exercises will open at 8:30, and the following program will be presented: Address of welcome, Hon. F. W. Mulkey, Acting Mayor; address, General Charles F. Beebe; response, Colonel Sam P. Jones of Kentucky; address, Rev. A. A. Morrison, national chaplain; response, Hon. Jerry Porter.

At 9 a. m. tomorrow the members will join in a parade, starting at the Portland Hotel and ending at the convention hall. At 10 a. m. the gathering will convene. At 12:45 p. m. the delegates will visit one of the sawmills by boat, embarking at the Alder-street dock. At 1 p. m. a luncheon will be served to the visiting ladies at the Portland Hotel. At 2:30 p. m. the ladies will be given a carriage drive about the city, and at 8 p. m. the visitors will be tendered a band concert at the Portland Hotel.

The various Oregon and Washington committeemen of the T. P. A. are requested to call at the room of E. Shelley Morgan, the secretary, in the Macleay building, and get their tickets to the various events. This should be done at once.

The first trainload of T. P. A.'s will arrive between 2 and 3 o'clock today. They are from Missouri, and will consist of 200 and 300.

RAILROAD NOTES.

J. R. Nagel, traveling passenger agent for the Harriman lines at Seattle, is in the city today.

Commercial Agent Trumbull of the Illinois Central is out of the city.

Commercial Agent Gorham of the Rock Island returned last night from Eastern Oregon, after a week's absence.

H. C. Eckenberger, commercial agent of the Michigan Central, returned from San Francisco Friday night accompanied by his bride. He has been kept busy since receiving the congratulations of his friends. Mr. and Mrs. Eckenberger will make their home at the Gilliam House on Eighteenth street, North.

General Superintendent Fields of the Southern Pacific is back from an inspection trip over the Woodburn-Springfield branch and on the main line as far as Dunsmuir and return.

The hall in the Worcester building just outside the office of President Mohler of the O. R. & N. Company was considerably incumbered Saturday with flags, which the company ordered for the purpose of decorating the building in honor of the attendance upon the Travelers' Protective Association, convening here next week.

The new tariff sheets on both east and westbound business, based upon the rate checked up and agreed upon by the members of the Transcontinental Freight Bureau, which was recently in session here, have arrived. They become effective July 1.

Livestock Agent Millis of the O. R. & N. Company has returned from the first wool sale of this season on lines of his company. It was held at Pendleton. Buyers from Boston, San Francisco and this point were represented. The sale came off under what is known as the sealed bid system. The clip was heavy and clean, and nearly 500,000 pounds changed hands.

RIVER AND OCEAN.

Passengers on the steamer Eagle of Vancouver, B. C., who made a trip to Triangle Island, off Cape Scott, report that a large quantity of wreckage had drifted ashore, and included in the discoveries along the beach were the remains of a man. They also found the pilothouse of a large steamer, but were unable to identify it.

The Oceano will return to Portland. She sailed from here for Vladivostok about six weeks ago, and after discharging went to Mororan and coaled. She left there Monday for Portland and will arrive here about June 15. Her local agents are Laidlaw & Co.

The American steamship Washtenaw will load a consignment of 20,000 cases of salmon at Astoria for New York. She will leave San Francisco today for Astoria. The Washtenaw is one of the fleet of colliers that has been driven out of business by the increased use of oil in California.

The Dunbridge, which has been lying at Royal Roads for the past three weeks, was chartered yesterday by Kerr, Gifford & Co. of this city. This leaves the Pacific Northwest without a disengaged grain vessel. It is not decided yet whether it will load at Portland or Puget Sound.

The West Coast Trade, a Tacoma publication, in commenting on the prospects for a change in railroad matters as outlined by Mr. Harriman, has this to say: "In the meantime no particular worriment is felt regarding matters. The Sound is expanding its connections in the Inland Empire upon a scale never heretofore approached, and has no expectations of serious decline, while Portland has maintained its position with regard to the ocean-carrying trade of the Columbia River basin in the past, in the face of more serious rumors than are now being put forth, and those who expect to live to see her sidetracked are likely to enjoy a ripe old age."

GERTRUDE MYREN.

This talented spiritualistic medium is unlike all others. She restores lost affections, locates missing property, and brings joy and gladness to suffering hearts. She has always given satisfaction, and there are thousands who can testify to this fact. Don't lose another day before consulting her. Room 507, Goodnough building.
