

TRAVELERS OWN THE TOWN

If outward indications go for anything in the way of expressing inward joy, the flags and bunting which decorate the Hotel Portland certainly tell the story. The men who carry the grip may know that they are welcome. When they see the flags put forth in other parts of town, they will feel certain of it.

A large number of delegates arrived here yesterday. A special train carrying about 100 delegates arrived here from Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky, Nebraska and Ohio about 4 p. m. Upon this train were: Sam P. Jones, president of the national association; Neill McCosell, vice-president; Louis T. LaBaume, secretary; J. W. McDonald, chairman of the board of national directors; W. N. McConkin, F. W. Randall, C. W. Saunders, Ben G. Thompson, national directors; J. W. Blaney, chairman of the national railway committee; W. A. Ryan, chairman of the press committee; and George W. Smith, chairman of the employment committee.

At 5 o'clock the Oregon and Washington division joined in a parade about the principal streets, which began at the Portland Hotel and ended at the convention hall at Sixth and Washington at 10 o'clock, where the delegates went into session. At 12:45 the delegates took a steamer ride, embarking at the Alder-street dock and were taken on a visit to one of the principal sawmills.

A dainty luncheon was served to the lady visitors in the Portland Hotel parlors at 1 o'clock. At 2:30 this afternoon the lady guests were given a carriage ride about the city and shown the many points of interest. This evening a band concert will be given to the delegates at the Portland Hotel.

The bill was started rolling last night with a reception at Elks' Hall, in the Marquam building. Acting Mayor Mulvey extended a welcome to the visitors, offering them the freedom of the city, while General Beebe performed a similar office on behalf of the Oregon and Washington division. Colonel Sam P. Jones, the national president, replied on behalf of the organization.

Rev. A. D. Morrison, the national chaplain, made a happy little speech, presiding with his well-known humor, for which he has a penchant.

The program for tomorrow contemplates a trip up the Columbia river to Cascade Locks on the steamer Harvest Queen, which will leave Ash-street dock at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

IN CONVENTION HALL.

At a business meeting in their convention hall at 9:30, Colonel Sam P. Jones, the president, was presented with a gavel by the Oregon and Washington delegations. The gavel is made from mahogany wood from Luzon, P. I., Oregon oak and Oregon curly maple. It was designed by Daniel S. McLean of Portland. The committees were appointed together with the Sergeant-at-Arms. The latter being Mr. Schoemaker.

The Oregon and Washington delegations visited Western sawmill up the river during the day, going by the Oklahama from Alder-street dock. The ladies were given luncheon at the Hotel Portland at 1 p. m., and afterwards a drive through the city.

The ladies were given a cordial invitation to attend any meeting the convention held in the hall, which motion received applause.

A telegram was received from the Pennsylvania organization and regrets that they were not represented.

The Cook-Bernard Company of New York, remembered the delegates of the association with beautiful silver drinking flasks, and to President Jones and National Secretary Louis T. LaBaume, sent elegant gold flasks of the same pattern, and all were sent filled. The first presentation was by Mr. McCosell, and then proceeded to present the gold flasks by Mr. Cleveland.

The convention adjourned until 2:30.

Following is a complete list of delegates to the convention of the Travelers' Protective Association of America:

Y. W. C. A. MEETING.

A meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association held in the Macleay building last night was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, and addressed by Miss Harriet Taylor of Chicago, national secretary. The gathering was large and composed entirely of members and friends of the association.

Miss Taylor spoke of the possibilities of practical association work and gave a number of examples of the work she had seen in other states and expressed herself as having confidence that on the Pacific Coast anything could be done that was attempted in the right way. An argument in favor of this was that with only fifteen months' organization the association has over 90 members.

She recommended the maintenance of boarding houses on the cottage system, for the benefit of the many women who are away from home making their living. Also that educational work be living up, night classes being especially in favor. Through the work of Y. W. C. A. many Eastern factories and stores have built new rest rooms for their employees and girls have given libraries. The idea

MURDER OF THREE WOMEN

Is Charged Against An Evansville Indiana Policeman.

(Journal Special Service.)
EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 2.—The case of former Patrolman Wilbur S. Sherwell, who is charged with the murder of three women was called for trial in the Circuit Court today. The crimes, which were committed last November, were of the "Jack the Ripper" type and aroused widespread horror. The present trial is for the murder of Mrs. Georgia Bailey, whose dead body was found in a ditch in this city November 12, last. On the same day the body of Lena Renner was found in a ditch in another part of town. Fannie Butler is alleged to have been choked to death by Sherwell in a stable May 16, 1919. In the later part of November Sherwell was arrested and charged with the three murders. During his long confinement in jail he has maintained an air of indifference.

SPORTSMEN OF NORTH DAKOTA

(Journal Special Service.)
FARGO, N. D., June 2.—The best amateur shots of the state are taking part in the eighth annual tournament of the North Dakota State Sportsmen's Association, which opened here today under the auspices of the local gun club. The large attendance and the excellent scores made in the opening events give promise of the most successful tournament in the history of the association.

HOME FOR THE VETERANS

Jefferson Davis' Old Home Will be Bought.

(Journal Special Service.)
JACKSON, Miss., June 2.—Today the anniversary of Jefferson Davis' birth, collections were made in every city and town of Mississippi in aid of the fund for the purchase of Davis' Beauvoir house, near Hixson. The place is to be converted into a home for Confederate veterans. More than one-half of the required sum, $10,000, has already been raised and it is believed that today's collections will yield more than enough to carry the project into effect.

NO RAILROAD

Baker City—Seven Devils Railroad Scheme Is Abandoned.

(Journal Special Service.)
BAKER CITY, Ore., June 2.—The long-hoped-for and much-talked-of railroad to the Seven Devils will not be built this year if at all. The information comes from the Atlantic Coast and is perfectly reliable.

EUGENE

(Journal Special Service.)
EUGENE, June 2.—The seventh annual graduating exercises of the Eugene Divinity School were held in the First Christian Church last night. The graduates this year are: In the classical ministerial course, F. E. Billington, Elmer M. Patterson, Victor E. Hosen, Leon D. Green; English ministerial course, Alice M. Smith; school of oratory, Constance M. Handaker. The address before the class was delivered by the Rev. J. T. Eskelman, of Tacoma. The baccalaureate sermon was also delivered by Rev. Mr. Eskelman Sunday morning, and at the conclusion of the sermon Victor E. Hosen and E. R. Moon were ordained into the ministry. Rev. J. S. McCallum directing the ordination service.

LABOR NOTES.

The Amalgamated Woodworkers' hall in Arlof Hall Saturday night was a success in every particular. A very enjoyable time is reported. The receipts of the evening amounted to over $200 clear of all expenses.

The plumbers are making arrangements to go to the beach to remain until the strike is settled. There are about 25 of them and they intend to take outfit, supplies, etc., and camp out.

OREGON CITY.

The G. A. R. and Ladies Leave for Astoria.

OREGON CITY, June 2.—About 50 members of Meade Post, G. A. R. and Relief Corps left today for Astoria to attend the Grand Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and the department convention of the Relief Corps. Both bodies will convene in annual sessions tomorrow morning. Special interest centers in the encampment here from the fact that Oregon City has been department headquarters for the Relief Corps during the past year. Mrs. William Galloway is department president, Mrs. George A. Harding secretary, and Mrs. T. W. Foutz treasurer. In conjunction with the inspection, Mrs. Belle Eastland, of Eugene, the department has officially visited every corps in the jurisdiction. One new corps has been instituted during the year, and about 100 new members have been added. The work has been thorough, and the department is in an unusually healthy condition, there being a much larger balance in the treasury than for several years past. Mrs. Harding, the department secretary, stated that Astoria people have arranged such an extensive program of banquets, excursions, etc., that she is afraid that it will interfere with setting through the work of the convention within the allotted time. It is expected that the department officers of the Relief Corps will be chosen from Portland this time. The G. A. R. delegation from here are unanimously in favor of the election of Professor Pratt, of Portland, as department commander.

QUERER FIND

(Journal Special Service.)
PORT DEPOSIT, Md., June 2.—A peculiar incident occurred here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shade. Mr. Shade got up and prepared his own breakfast of fried eggs, and was very particular about it. When the eggs were cooked he began to eat. Suddenly his teeth came in contact with a hard substance, which was found to be a steel pen. The chicken, no doubt, swallowed it, and during the formation of the egg it had become encased in the shell.

HIT THE TRAIL.

Thunder Mountain Outfit Starts From Baker City.

(Journal Special Service.)
BAKER CITY, June 2.—Twenty-eight of the handsomest draft teams in Baker County have come in from Pine Valley, the property of R. W. Purdum, representing a Boise, Idaho, syndicate of prospectors, who purchased the animals a few days ago in Pine Valley from George L. Whitaker, at a good, fair price. Mr. Purdum says that himself and associates will put the teams and wagons in service between Boise and Thunder Mountain immediately. It is their intention to take advantage of the boom in that mining camp and handle business for themselves and others.

CRUCIFIED HIM

Fiendish Work of Foot-pads in Alabama.

(Journal Special Service.)
BERMINGHAM, Ala., June 2.—A special to The Journal from Huntsville, Ala., says: Tom Harless, a farmer who lives near Berkeley, Ala., and who has been plowing on the Esslinger place, was eating dinner at a spring when he was confronted by two men with pistols. They robbed him of $1 and then backed him against a tree. The loose folds of flesh on each side were pulled out and nailed to the tree and his hands were stretched above his head and treated likewise. In this condition the man remained until dark, when he was rescued by a farm hand.

ECHO OF GOEBEL CASE

(Journal Special Service.)
FRANKFORT, Ky., June 2.—Argument was begun in the Court of Appeals today in the second appeal of James Howard from the Franklin Circuit Court. Howard was convicted of the murder of the principal in the Goebel murder case and is now confined in the state penitentiary.

DID A FAST SPIN

(Journal Special Service.)
ROCK SPRING, Wyo., June 2.—John Johnson, engineer in charge of the hoisting engine at mine No. 1, had a thrilling experience yesterday. The hoisting drum got out of order and after fastening the brake Johnson crawled into the big cylinder. While inside the brake broke and as a string of cars was attached to the cable about half way up the slope, the drum commenced to revolve. The car ran to the face of the slope and every foot of the cable on the drum unwound. Johnson was whirled around and around for several minutes, but by bracing himself inside the cylinder he escaped injury.

25 CENTS ROUND TRIP

The T. P. A. convention brings to Portland jolly chaps—Fellers workin' all the time an' singin' 'twixt their naps. Happy as the day is long an' bright as shinin' gold. Always sellin' heaps o' stuff, but never gettin' sold. Gay as people ridin' up to view Willamette Falls. Where salmon has'nt lost around to hear the mermaid's call. And where the gentle maiden expands her pretty throat Singin' of the praises of the Oregon City boat.

An Excursion for a Quarter.

DEBS SAYS TO SHOOT BACK

Makes an Incendiary Speech in City of Denver.

(Journal Special Service.)
DENVER, Colo., June 2.—Eugene V. Debs spoke in this city in Coliseum Hall at a meeting of more than 3,000 working men. The speech was intended to inaugurate the new trades union socialist political movement.

Of the striking anthracite miners Mr. Debs said: "My advice to those men is to observe the law strictly and if they be shot down while walking on the public highway, which is guaranteed them under the law, then my advice is, shoot back. If the killing program is to be inaugurated, let it affect the millionaire and the mine owner, as well as the miner."

GREAT STRENGTH OF LUNATIC

(Journal Special Service.)
BOULDER, Colo., June 2.—Herman Rose of Beldie, tried to kill a man with a carving knife, was tried in the county court this afternoon on a charge of insanity. He was so violent that his feet had to be shackled and it took three men to hold him. Having but one arm the hand could not be shackled. After the trial four men carried him from the court room. Although a very slight man he seems possessed of superhuman strength. The jury brought in a verdict of dangerous insanity.

RUINS OF A MEXICAN CITY

(Journal Special Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Later details of the earthquake in Guatemala only add to its horrors. Passengers arriving here on the steamer City of Sydney say they understood that 160 dead were taken from the ruins of Quetzaltenango. One man who was there and aided in the work of taking out the bodies says that over 1000 had been taken out when the city had been destroyed. Reports of loss and damage on the coffee plantations are beginning to come in, and they nearly double that of the towns. The estimated damages run into the millions.

Ostrander Succeeds Gage.

E. Ostrander has been appointed soliciting freight agent of the Burlington, vice B. W. Gage, resigned, to become manager of the Oregon Transfer Company. Each of these gentlemen entered upon the discharge of their respective duties yesterday.

April 1 Mr. Ostrander resigned from the chief clerkship of the freight department in the general offices of the Northern Pacific in this city. He is one of the most popular and best liked men in railroad service here. He first went with the Northern Pacific eight or nine years ago. He has served in many capacities and always with credit. He last went with the Northern Pacific about three years ago.

Mr. Gage is well liked in this city. He came to the Burlington about two years ago from a position of similar nature with the Northern Pacific.

PURITY LECTURE.

Mrs. Ada Unruh delivered a lecture at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Sunday afternoon on the subject of "The New Christianity" that was interesting and strong. She spent the last winter in the East lecturing on the purity question, and her discourse yesterday was a plea for purity in its true sense. She spoke first of the chivalry of the past, when men did brave deeds for their lady loves. She then brought forth the idea of the chivalry required at the present time, when women should not be honored because they are weak, but because they represent the purity of the world. Many women have fallen because of their false ideal of their relation toward men, and in the same way many have been tempted before they became tempters.
