THE VOTE IN OREGON

Chamberlain Assured of Election Republicans Generally Win.

George Chamberlain will be the next Governor of Oregon. All over the state he has polled an amazing vote, and is prebably the only Democrat to be elected. The normal Republican majority has not been greatly cut except in his case, and the Republican state ticket is almost certainly elected. Perhaps the most significant figures are furnished from Marion County, where Chamberlain turned more than 500 votes. Furnish is badly defeated in Umatilla, and Union has cast a heavy vote against the Republicans. The news from the separate counties follows:

WASCO COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) THE DALLES, Or., June 4.-Following are the complete returns from Wasco County, with the exception of two small Chamberlain 1141, Furnish 1203; Beam 1543, Bonham 930; Dunbar 1473, Sears 967; Moore 1432, Blackman 943; Williamson 1407, Batcher 1955; Geer 1077; Ackerman 1438, Wann 885; Crawford 1389, Raley 782; Whitney 1335, Godfrey 798.

Joint Representatives, Twenty-first sentative District-J. N. Burgess Rep., 1449; R. A. Emmitt, Rep., 1261; N. Whealdon, Rep., 1348; P. B. Doak, Dem., 811; L. E. Morse, Dem,, 1908; Earl Sanders, Dem., 1128.

Joint Representatives, Twenty-eighth District—C. A. Denneman, Rep., 1215; R. J. Ginn, Rep., 136; C. P. Johnson, Rep., 1281; C. G. Hansen, Dem., 859; C. G. Stevenson, Dem., 887; E. P. Weir, Dem., 722.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) GRANTS PASS, June 4.—The fact of a Democratic victory in Josephine County has caused general rejoicing here. Furnish lacked 200 of carrying his vote in this county, while many of the Republican candidate fell far below this.

Hon. J. O. Booth, Democratic candidate for County Judge, who was elected by a majority of 120, stated this morning that the Democrats can practically claim the victory in Jesephine. Chairman Norton spoke the same way. Considering the fact that this county is considered Republican by some 200 votes, the results of Monday's election may be easily taken as entirely satisfactory by the Demo-crats. Their gain here is holding its own with those in other sections of the state.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) OREGON CITY, June 4.-Incomple unofficial returns from all but two our of 37 precincts show a considerable in-crease of the vote of two years ago. Bean, for Supreme Judge, who undoubtedly polled the party strength, has 372 more votes than Furnish, and the present figures show that Furnish is only about 349 votes ahead of Chamberlain. Furnish county Republican ticket is elected by safe pluralities. Brownell, for Senator, has over 500 plurality, and County Judge Ryan has a still larger plurality. Henry Stevens, Republican candidate for Re-corder, probably has 1800 plurality.

POLK COUNTY.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., June 4-The vote of every precinct in the county has been just received here, and it gives the following majorities: Chamberlain 130, Bean, 126, Dunbar 145,

Moore 242, Wann 21, Raley 242, Whitney 89. Tongue 236, Geer 289. Jones for Joint Representative 165, Hawkins for Representative 253, Riggs for Commissioner 296, Ford for Sheriff 22, Laughary for Clerk 569, Dalton for Treasurer 459, Myer for

MARION COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) SALEM, June 4.—Chamberlain carries Marion County by 273, and Colbath, Democrat, is elected Sheriff by about 80. Godfrey and Whitney for State Printer are as yet uncertain. The entire Republican Legislative ticket is elected by large majorities, Frank Davey leading with 1800.

KLAMATH COUNTY.

(Journal Special Bervice.) KLAMATH FALLS, June 4.-Unofficial returns give Furnish 509 and Chamberlain 421. Republicans elect three joint Representatives.

TOLEDO, June 4.- Furnish carries this county by about 100, and Republicans generally are elected by larger majorities

(Journal Special Service.) CANYON CITY, June 4.—Seventeen precincts give Chamberlain 790 and Furnish 793. Pourteen precincts give Butcher 503 and Williamson 701. Only partial returns on the remainder of the state ticket are in, with the Republican majority from 200 to 275. The Democrats elect all the county officers except the County Judge, the Treasurer and one Commis-

DOUGLAS COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) ROSEBURG, June 4.-Election returns ontinue to come in. A. M. Crawford, andidate for Attorney General, will lose the county by 200. The Republicans concede the county to Chamberlain by from 200 to 500. Indications are now that the Republicans will elect the entire county ticket by small majorities.

UMATILLA COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) PENDLETON, June 4.—Chamberlain will carry Umatilla by close to 300. Geer ran 100 behind the Republican state ticket. Democrats and Republicans made about an even division.

UNION COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) LA GRANDE, Or., June 4.-Chamber ain's lead in Union County is 477. Murphy, Democrat, Representative; Bur-leigh, Democrat, Joint Representative, and Pierce, Democrat, Joint Senator, all have good majorities.

MORROW COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) HEPPNER, June 4-Chamberlain has 510 votes to Furnish's 551. Everything else is Republican by good majorities.

POLK COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) DALLAS, June 4.-Chamberlain leads Furnish by 182 votes and Tongue leads Weatherford by 239. The county ticket is about evenly divided.

SHERMAN COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) MORO, June 4.-Furnish has over 200 majority in Sherman. The Republican candidates were generally successful.

TILLAMOOK COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) THAMOOK, June 4.-Furnish carries Thamesh County by 200. The Republican state ticket has won by 275, and Tongue by 320.

LINN COUNTY.

(Journal Special Service.) ALBANY, June 4.-Chamberlain will probably have a plurality of 400. One Republican and two Democrats are elected on the Legislative ticket.

Williamson and Tongue Get Big Majorities.

Multnomah County's vote for Congressman shows a big majority for Williamson. With a few incompleted precincts to hear from this morning, the figures show that Williamson defeated Butcher almost two to one in the county. He polled, so far as totalized, almost 8500 votes, while Butcher received about 4000. The Socialist candidate for Congress polled nearly 1809. These figures do not include two or three small precincts outside the city limits. In the various counties of both Congressional districts, so far as tabulated. he returns are as follow: FIRST DISTRICT.

Crowds of people jammed about, but attempted no violence beyond hooting and jeering. One man had his skull cracked by a police club because he refused to move quickly enough.

Later as the procession got into the heart of the city the crowds became more demonstrative, throwing missiles from windows at the non-union drivers, but more frequently injuring the spectators. The police were compelled to charge repeatedly to clear a parth for the wagons, and as a result there were many bruised people, and one is probably hurt fatally. This is . Adopts Memorial Resolutions on Pennoyer.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland, Or .: Gentlemen-We, your committee appointed at an informal meeting to draft resolutions appropriate to the memory of Sylvester Pennoyer, formerly Mayor of this city, respectfully submit the foi-

F. A. NICHOLS. EARL C. BONAUGH. IN MEMORIAM.

Sylvester Pennoyer was born on the 6th day of July, 1831, in the village of Groton, N. Y. Both of his parents were natives centers of the packers. By the time the of New York, and it is reasonable to becaravan arrived at the center of the city lieve that he inherited the stronm Demit had dwindled to 15, stops being made at ocratic views of government and the constant anxiety for the welfare of the people and the perpetuity of the Republic which characterized his life. His people were in moderate circumstances, and while he was taught the importance of thrift, industry and frugal living, he also received fair educational advantages. He was taught the power of knowleds, and his mind was disciplined to study and achievement. In 1855 he entered the Law Department of Harvard College and in 1855 he came to Oregon. The latter event is an index to his character. There is something significant in a young man raised amid the associations and influenced by the civilization and conservatism of New England at that time, coming from the alluring companionship of college life to a frontier state where patience, courage and industry were essential in gaining the simple necessaries of living. To these qualities he added others. He possessed genial manners, a mind capable of understanding the affairs of men, keen in the solution of community problems and apt in application. He appreciated the resources of a new country, and immediately applied himself with commendable zeal to the duties of a citizen. He taught school and continued his law studies until he was admitted to the bar. He engaged in business and was successful. He employed many men, and was always deeply interested in the questions of wages, hours of employment and all the principles of domestic conomics which affect the happiness and progress of the wage-earning class.

His political career forms one of the most interesting chapters in Oregon history. He was elected Governor in 1886, and re-elected in 1890, and served for eight consecutive years. He was elected Mayor of Portland in 1896, and served from July 1 of that year to July 1, 1898. His official acts, both as Governor of the State and Mayor of the city, were marked by his strong convictions concerning policies of government. He was honest as all believe who knew him. He was persistent and fearless even to the border of eccentricity. He made political enemies among those who differed from his views of public affairs, but no man of liberal culture permitted such enmity to deprive him of the genial companionship of Sylvester Penndyer as a ditizen. His public acts and utterances which shall live longest in the hearts and minds of the people are those which give expresing for a franchise over a portion of the sion to his broad human sympathy for county road east of the city, in the di- those who toll or suffer. His public life cured from all the property-owners on is a part of Oregon history. It is the honorable record of an honest, fearless and capable man influenced only by his conceptions of public policy and the ethics which should govern the acts of a public official in the positions he filled. His life as a citizen was most exemplary. The messenger of Death at times entered his home and his heart was filled with sorrows, but he never lost faith in the rulings of an all-wise Providence. He was a student and his information covered a wide range of subjects. He was companionable, and his pleasing address and courteous manner invited acquaintances. He was at all times a gentleman, and his dignity commanded respect. He was impulsive and readily became the helper of the distressed. His charities were numerous and liberal, but he was distinctively and instinctively a tion of the poor and those who labor. praise. Church Repairs.

Repairs to the Centenary Church, East Ninth and East Pine streets, are being rushed as much as possible under the circumstances. Since the repairs to the structure have been begun, the church's services have been held in the new hall of Multnemah Camp, Woodmen of the World, East Sixth and East Alder streets. The new trusses for supporting the roof of the church have been securely put in, and there is no longer any danger of weakness in that direction. The interior of the auditorium will be changed, the partition between the auditorium and the Sunday school room being taken out. The south end of the gallery will be moved forward about 25 feet, and a number of additional new pews will be put in.

BRIDGE STILL CLOSED.

The work of renewing the decking on the east approach of the Morrison-street bridge goes steadily forward. Street-car traffic on the bridge has been somewhat delayed the past few days on account of the repairs, but transfers have been made at the end of the bridge. When com pleted, the bridge will be in a much bet ter condition than for years. At the pres ent time no team traffic is allowed to cross, the travel being diverted to the Madison and Burnside bridges.
