CUSTOM HOUSE RECEIPTS

THE MARKETS

With the exception of the decline in the quotations on coffee yesterday, nothing of note has transpired in the local wholesale markets.

The coffee crop in Brazil has been so large this year that prices were knocked "allly." The new quotations on package coffee appear today.

Receipts of eggs this morning were somewhat larger than yesterday. It is now expected that the back of the combine has been broken and there will be no more advance in quotations until the trust gets the market cornered again.

The California steamer arrived this morning and brought the usual supply of vegetables. The supply of California tomatoes is very short at present, very few of the houses having any in stock.

California cherries are arriving in large quantities and there is a tendency to weaken quotations. A small quantity has arrived from Eastern Oregon.

The receipt of Oregon strawberries has not been very large the past few days, but with a few more days of warm weather the market will be slumped. Quotations today are the same.

Country butter is coming in very liberally, but there is an extra heavy demand for it in California, where it is converted into the process product. Quotations are strong on all kinds of butter.

Southern Pacific Improvements

The Railroad Gazette, in a recent issue, says: "An officer writes in regard to the extension of the Orchard Branch from Montalvo, Cal., to Burbank, that a portion of the route between Chatsworth Park and Burbank was completed some years ago, as was also that portion between Montalvo and Oxnard. Surveys for the remaining distance have been completed and the line is now building. Contracts have been let to Grant Bros., of Los Angeles, and Erickson & Peterson, of San Francisco, to present 37.7 miles have been let out at contract, which leaves 31.5 to be built. There will be three tunnels, respectively 700, 800 and 500 feet long. The maximum grade is 1 per cent compensated, with maximum structure of 6 degrees."

MARINE NOTES

Thomas Murray and Thomas Zyom, 2 men engaged in keeping a sailor boarding house at San Francisco, were taken before Commissioner Hancock Saturday on a charge of soliciting lodgers for their place of business on board a ship, and within 24 hours after their arrival in port. The men are also accused of stealing the baggage of certain sailors.

The British ship Fortovoy has been chartered for new crop loading at Puget Sound at 75c, with the option of Portland or San Francisco at the same rate. The Fortovoy is now bound out and will come across the Pacific in ballast.

The Indravelli, which arrived here Saturday from the Orient, had aboard nearly 5000 tons of merchandise, valued at about $500,000. In the cargo were 6,000,000 grain bags for Portland. For this city there were also 225 sacks of rice, 1000 packages of papermakers' clay and several thousand packages of miscellaneous merchandise. There was a heavy consignment of mutton, curries, etc., for the Eastern states.

The British steamer Cymbeline arrived this morning from Calcutta, India. The Cymbeline carries a cargo of 280 bales of grain sacks, weighing 229,000 pounds. The duty on this consignment is about $40,000.

The Piloma, of the Anchor Towing & Lightering Company, was inspected last Saturday by Inspectors Edwards and Fuller and found in good condition.

The Regulator, which is held up for slight repairs, will be on her regular run from here to The Dalles Wednesday.

The Albany went to Astoria this morning in place of the Bailey Gatzert, which went to The Dalles to bring down delegates to the A. O. U. W. convention.

The Genoa, which left here for The Dalles this morning, carried 125 passengers, the largest list to leave here on any one boat, other than an excursion, for several months. Many of the passengers were laborers who are going to work on the Columbia, Northern.

The Government is going to build a new steambreak for the Columbia River to be used as a tender for Fort Stevens and Stevens and Canby. Bids are now being asked for. The boat is to be 38 feet long, 16 feet beam and 8 feet deep.

D. C. McDonald of Burleson, Cal., writes to President Beach of the Board of Trade about the proposition of putting a small steamer on the route between Portland and this place would be all right. I believe that she could bet all the up freight she could carry. I also think that she could get a good freight coming down, as Humboldt merchants buy a good deal of grain, etc., in Portland.

Engineer Fred A. Ballin returned yesterday from a business trip to Seattle. He reports that the docks are nearly empty at that point, and there is hardly any shipping business. The Alaska business has fallen off enormously and is not half as large as last year. "But," he added, "there have been great improvements in the Seattle docks during the past few years. The city has docks and facilities now for handling a big business. More building is going on there, I think, than in any city of its size in the United States."

The Modoc brought down 300 tons of flour from Oregon City Saturday which will be sent from here by rail to Tacoma, and then reshipped to the Orient. Why it is not sent from Portland direct to its destination on the Indravelli is a puzzle to the shippers here. Some explain the matter by saying that the Northern Pacific wants the benefit of the long haul to the Sound and exerts sufficient influence to get it.

The Geo. W. Elder arrived last night from San Francisco with one of the largest cargoes which has been brought from that point recently. She has 15 carloads of goods for shipment East, in addition to her regular freight for this city.

The Alliance of the Gray Steamship Line, has completed loading her cargo of general merchandise and will leave today for Coos Bay and Eureka. She brought on this trip a large consignment of redwood, doors, windows, sashes, etc., for shipment East.

The schooner Fred J. Wood is en route to this port from Hokodote with a cargo of sulphur. After discharging it she will load lumber for the Orient.

The German bark Schiller has arrived out at Portsmouth after a passage of 10 days. The arrival of the Schiller cleans up the list of January vessels with the exception of the Bardowie. A December craft, the French bark Francais Coppee, is still on the way.

Longshoremen and stevedores are busy today in unloading and loading the vessel in port. The steamer Cymbeline is at Montgomery dock No. 3 discharging a cargo of grain bags from Calcutta. At the Albina dock is the Indrapura discharging a similar cargo, and the Guto is at the North Pacific mills loading

CREDIT MEN AT LOUISVILLE

(Journal Special Service.) LOUISVILLE, June 10.—President E. A. Young of St. Paul called the annual meeting of the National Association of Credit Men to order in Librarian's Hall this morning. There were nearly 600 delegates present representing the vital part of the great mercantile interests of the country. Former Governor W. O. Bradley and Walter Walker welcomed them. The response was by George F. Dietrich of Cincinnati, Treasurer George G. Ford submitted a report of the financial condition of the association. The report of Secretary William A. Frensdorff showed that the membership has been increasing during the past year, the association forming a number of new branches and its growth in the South and West being notable.

MINES AND MINING

A new 10-stamp Hammond mill has been installed at the Burema mine, operated by the Oregon & California Gold Fields, Ltd. All the stamps are in position, and the company expects to start up the mill about June 15th.

Supervisor Sam Gardner a few days ago blocked up a nugget worth more than $300, with a little quartz in it, from his Greenview mine just over the California line. Gardner stumbled onto the nugget when least expecting a find. The specimen resembles a human hand, both in size and shape.

Twenty-three thousand acres in Shoshone County, Idaho, have been certified to as mineral by the mining men and others of the Pierce County mining district, and an application has been presented to the Interior Department by Senator Heitfeld, asking for their withdrawal from settlement or appropriation under the timber and stone law.

R. Van Brunt, who arrived here the first of the week with a partial cleanup of $40,000 from the old China Oak claim at Happy Camp, expects to realize upward of $300,000 from the total cleanup at the close of this season.—Trials Journal.

Justice Court Quiet

The justice court of East Portland has not had a case on its docket for about a month. There are several cases that have been on the calendar for some time but there does not seem to be any disposition on the part of the attorneys in the cases to bring them to trial.
