Portland yesterday lost its seventh straight game. Helena won it. The victors had the game from the start, and if Peoples had not erred as he did, Portland would have been beaten worse and an extra inning would not have been needed. Wiggs and Salisbury both pitched good ball. It is up to Sammy Vigneux to strengthen his team, if his hands are not tied. The score:

NEXT CONVENTION

Supreme Lodge A. O. U. W. Will Meet at St. Paul in 1903.

St. Paul was selected by the Supreme Lodge of the A. O. U. W. yesterday as the place of meeting next year. For drill contests, bands and parades $500 was appropriated, and a prize of $2000 was appropriated to each jurisdiction making a gain of 25 per cent in membership in 1902 where the gain was less than 1000.

The $500 beneficiary certificate proposal to make payable to their estates where the beneficiary is divorced or has no relative entitled to inherit the money, was defeated.

It was decided to make no change in the matter of increasing the list of hazardous occupations. To the National Fraternal Congress the following were elected as delegates: Al Hardwick, Webb McNeil, C. R. Matson, W. H. Miller, D. H. Shields, W. F. Robson, H. C. Sessions.

The following were appointed a committee on resolutions: W. J. Kneeshaw, J. G. Tate, Thomas D. Osborne, A. E. Pierce and A. G. Andrews.

It is proposed to erect a Temple of Fraternity at St. Louis at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in 1904. A resolution was adopted yesterday recommending that all Grand Lodge jurisdictions contribute to this.

It was proposed by Representative Johnson, of Oklahoma, that no grand lodge should send as its representative to the supreme lodge any one who had not attended a subordinate lodge at least 25 times in a year. This was referred to a committee.

EXTRA SESSION WILL BE CALLED

Legislature to Consider Question of State Salaries.

It is the general belief today that Governor Geer will call a special session of the Legislature, to take up the matter of the flat salaries, the Lewis and Clark appropriation and to consider the initiative and referendum.

The drift is in that direction. Some who formerly opposed it, now believe that it should be called.

The Journal asked John Gill and C. W. Nottingham, members-elect of the Legislature, for an expression of their views. Both favor the special session.

MR. GILL'S VIEWS.
Mr. Gill said: "I am inclined now to favor the special session. At first, I was opposed. Looking more thoroughly into it, I believe that the Legislature should meet before the new terms of office begin, and place into effect the flat salary matter. All offices were pledged to it, and are in a sense bound by a contract or previous agreement to submit to the constitutional salary limitation."

"I favor the Legislature taking up also the Lewis and Clark appropriation at the special session."

MR. NOTTINGHAM'S VIEWS.
Mr. Nottingham said: "I favor the special session, for the settlement of the flat salary question, and appropriating money for the Lewis and Clark fair."

FRANKIE SAVAGE GOES FREE

Frankie Savage, colored, held as an accomplice in the Portland hotel diamond robbery case, was discharged from custody this morning by Circuit Judge Frazer on motion of Deputy District Attorney A. C. Spencer.

Attorney Spencer stated that it was impossible to secure the additional testimony needed to insure a conviction. The principal witness for the prosecution is not available, and rather than put the state to unnecessary expense of another trial, the woman was given her liberty.

This presumably ends the $10,000 diamond robbery case, one of the largest larceny suits ever tried in Oregon. Kelly Wiley, who turned state's evidence, admitting that he waited for Charles Savage outside of the hotel until he came out and showed him the stolen jewelry, is serving a term in the penitentiary. Although upon his own confession, he offered his testimony to the state to escape punishment for several burglaries.

After two trials resulting in a disagreement in each instance, the charge against Savage was dismissed.

STEAMER LINE FOR OREGON COAST

Portland ought to establish a line of freight and passenger steamers to ply between this city and points on Coos Bay.

A great amount of trade that ought to be by all right be transacted by Portland jobbers is controlled by San Francisco merchants. We ought to get together and agitate this line for awhile and then get down to business.

I have every reason to believe that with such a line established it would soon be a paying institution, both for the city and for the owners of the line.

Coos Bay ships a large amount of produce to San Francisco that we could use very well in this city. They also buy their supplies from California city. All of this business could be secured for Portland if the line is established and the merchants get a little more lively move on themselves.

Every business man in Portland should put his shoulder to the wheel and push this project along, and they will not have to be continually complaining all the time of Portland losing her trade and other cities securing it.

—W. T. Turner of Turner & Co., commission merchants.
