PRELIMINARY BOUT A DRAW

Seattle Again Wins From Portland-Large Attendance at Shooting Tournament.

Two good fights were pulled off before the Pastime Club last night. In the preinary Freeman, of Oregon City, clearly outclassed Swanson, but the referee culled the bout a draw. In the main event Hegariy was the winner. He had the advantage of youth, height and reach and made the most of them. Both men weighed in within half a pound of each other, but the Australian was in the best condition. De Coursey put up a very game fight and was up and coming as long as his vitality lasted. Hegarty's swift jabs and strong uppercuts were too much for the Californian and in the ninth round the latter was not in shape to respond when the fatal 10 seconds were called.

De Coursey was not out by actual time, as Referee Day counted a little fast, but It was a humane act on his part, as Hegarty would have won anyway, and the ky little fellow from the south, was aved a lot of punishment. He came up at the count of 10 ready for more of it, but Day had called him out of business. SWANSON AND FREEMAN.

In the preliminary Freeman and Swanson were the attraction. This was not the first time these two lads have mixed and the spectators looked for a hot They were not disappointed as the boys went right after each other from the tap of the gong. Nearly all through the go Freeman was the aggressor but in the eighth round Swanson had him going, but could not put on the trimmings. In the ninth Freeman had all the best of it and Swanson went to his corner very groggy. The tenth and last round was nearly all give and take and no one had the advantage, hence the draw decision.

THE MAIN EVENT. De Coursey was the first to enter the ring, closely followed by Hegarty. The latter immediately assumed Jeffries' crouching attitude which he maintained

There was nothing much doing during | ance divided 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent-the first round but in the second Hegarty | First place tied for by Smith, Guist, cut loose and put De Coursey down with a right punch to the jaw. At the count of eight the Californian was up only to run into more punishment. He gave nearly as much as he received, however. In the third De Coursey went to the canvas again for eight seconds, but this time it was not from a punch. The fourth was Hegarty's round, his opponent going to the floor twice, once for eight and again for nine seconds. Both men were fighting fast.

In the fifth the exchanges, were numerous but De Coursey was wild and in evident distress. He was content to clinch whenever the opportunity offered. He was bleeding freely from the nose, and Martin Denney, his chief second, was a very busy man when the gong announced the finish of the round.

The sixth round was a wrestling match and Jack Day was the "fall guy." In breaking the fighters away he used more exertion than they did themselves. In this round De Coursey took a severe grilling, but peddled back some of the roods. He was again wild in his swings.

There was nothing much doing in the seventh, but in the next round both mixed freely, at one time both went to the floor in a heap. Hegarty was apparently as fresh as when he climbed through the ropes, but the Californian was in bad shape. He was bleeding freely from the nose, and winded, and if it had not been for the excellent judgment of Denney he would not have been able to go any further. As it was he went down twice, taking the count each time,

In the ninth and last round De Coursey came up weak while the Australian, showing not a mark of punishment, was in splendid shape. He went right at his man, and put him to the floor three times in rapid succession. The last time De Coursey went down he did not arise untenth second had been called, and Jack Day awarded the bout to Hegarty. The latter will probably now be matched with Jimmy Britt, the California crack. SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.

The attendance at the opening days' shoot of the 18th afinual tournament of the Sportsmen's Association of the Northwest, held at the Irvington track yesterday, was very large.

The excitement was intense in the eighth' event for the three-men-team trophy, in which two Tacoma teams competed and tied for first place and a Spokane team won second. There were many well known sportsmen present including: Fred. McBroom of Spokane, W. A. Seaver and E. E. Drake of San Francisco, E. C. Garrett from Seattle, Pete Holohar from Wallace, J. E. Enyart from Medford, B. D. Paine of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sheard of Tacoma, Messrs. Stillman and Spence of Pendleton, winners of the 1991 live-bird shoot, and Sheriff-elect Story, R. D. Inman, A. J. Winters and J. E. Cullison of Portland. The Journal yesterday gave the results of the first three events. In the afternoon the shoots resulted as follows:

Portland is still on the down grade. The team lost to Seattle again yesterday, making the 12th straight defeat. Vigneux is having trouble with his men. He has suspended Lou Mahaffey for two weeks for failing to beat Stovall to the bag in the ninth inning of Wednesday's game, and the player, in his soreness, says that he will not play in the nine any more. In yesterday's game Weed played first, Harris was taken out of the field and put on third, while Hupp was sent out into the right garden. The score: SEATTE E

WM. HUME DEAD.

William Hume, the veteran canneryman of the Columbia River, died yesterday at his home at Eagle Cliff, Wash., at the age of 72 years. He leaves a wife and two grown daughters, both residing at home, Misses Lottle and Aura Hume. He has a brother at Astoria, George W. Hume. Mr. Hume was born in Waterville, Me., and when a young man came to California on a fishing and hunting expedition. He went to the Columbia river and built the first cannery there in 1867, and conducted it butil, a few years ago, when he sold his interests to the Columbia River Packers' Association, and has lived since at Eagle Cliff. The funeral will be held at Holman's undertaking pariors this afternoon, with burial in Lone Fir cemetery.
