The Commercial World

REAL ESTATE

The record for the week shows the following:

Real Estate Transfers.

Monday	$ 3,674.12
Tuesday	29,779.80
Wednesday	41,737.50
Thursday	9,482.25
Friday	5,127.00
Saturday	26,012.75
Total	$120,312.42

Building Permits

Monday	$ 2,250.00
Tuesday	2,800.00
Wednesday	9,500.00
Thursday	10,450.00
Friday	4,000.00
Saturday	1,250.00
Total	$30,250.00

There are a few deals going on in real estate, notwithstanding matters are far quieter than they should be or would be under ordinary conditions. The same may be said of building operations. There are not as many permits being issued as there would be under proper conditions.

The two great fires which Portland has suffered from of late, severe as they were, may in the end prove beneficial. The burned district will probably be rebuilt in the future with a more substantial class of buildings, for that is the usual rule in cases of the kind.

An interesting study in figures is often presented when a comparison is made between the placed on record on a certain day and the value of mortgages released on the same day. One day this week the releases only amounted to $1500, and the value of mortgages placed on the record was $26,598.80. Another day the value of mortgages released was more than three times as great as those which were placed on the record, which looks like getting out of debt pretty rapidly. Another instance is where one day this week the value of mortgages released was $12,150, which come pretty near to being an even thing.

In the matter of sales two lots in one addition sold for $2282.80, which was a fair price for the location. One lot, 50 by 100 feet, at Fourteenth and Columbia streets, was sold during the week for $4700. John McDonald and wife have sold to Charles E. Ladd lots 1, 2 and the east half of lots 7 and 8, in block 204, city, for $9000. Four lots were disposed of in Couch's addition for $11,000. These are a few sample sales, which, for a dull week, one good for $2400 had the right kind of a "ring" to it.

Thursday proved the banner day of the week for building permits, and the records indicate $10,450 for the day. The Standard Oil Company has taken out a permit for repairs to its plant at the southeast corner of East First and East Main streets for $7000.

A. T. Meyers will erect a two-story dwelling on East Everett, Alka and Fulton streets to cost $1500.

Octavia O. Ausplund will put up a two-story dwelling on East Main, between East Twelfth and East Thirteenth streets, to cost $2500.

For his two-story flats on Holladay avenue, between Adams and Occident streets, Mr. Warrener has been granted a permit for $4000.

D. H. Harnett will build a story and a half cottage on Mississippi avenue, between Stanton and Sellwood, to cost $2000.

On Borthwick street, between Shaver and Failing, H. Oelsner will build a one-story cottage, to cost $1400.

Logan & Bryan's daily grain letter to Bolton de Ruyter & Co.:

Wheat—Paris, ¼ to 1¼ higher. Primary receipts, 460,000 bushels, against 551,000 bushels last year. Shipments, 340,000 bushels, against 761,000 bushels. Clearances, 766,000 bushels. The market showed some strength early on the continued wet weather, but in the absence of the Liverpool market and with the July liquidation still in, it turned dull and steady. Visible supply on Monday will probably show a fair decrease. The outlook at the moment is much dependent upon the weather both in this country and Europe. Cars, 35.

Corn—Primary receipts, 301,000 bushels, against 248,000 bushels last year. Shipments, 156,000 bushels, against 255,000 bushels. Clearances, 19,000 bushels. The tone of the market continues firm. Surface indications would seem to say that, while the Harris-Gates people have been steadily selling September corn against their July holdings of late, Armour has been steadily accumulating the September corn. It is said there is a good cash business in corn for shipment at a little better than September price. Weather throughout the corn belt continues wet and cold, and complaints, although not alarming, are increasing. Cars, 300.

Oats—There is possibly some halting in the strength of the cash situation, but no material abatement in the same. At the moment the weather is the important factor. The crop needs warm, dry weather, and it needs it at once. Unless it comes at once, the deferred futures will likely sell higher. Estimated cars, 245.

Provisions are quiet and steady. Receipts of hogs, 23,000, against 42,000 last year. General speculative interest is small and in the main the packers have the market. There is a fair demand for ribs. The receipts of hogs, while a little under last year, are probably not as much as had been expected.

THE MARKETS.

The past week has been void of any startling changes in the local markets. Receipts in nearly all lines were rather light, with the exception of fruit.

The grain market as reported by the Portland Flouring Mills Company has been rather quiet, as is usual at this season of the year. No business of any kind was done and no change was made in quotations. An advance in the price of flour was quoted the middle of the week.

Turner & Co. report the poultry market active, all the receipts this week being cleaned up today, the only exception being ducks and geese, which had to be sacrified in order to clean up. Farmers will be the gainers if they keep their geese and ducks out of the market at the present time. A rise of 25c a dozen will be noticed today in the quotations on poultry.

The market cleaned up today on eggs, the majority of the sales this week being made at 19c a dozen.

The local meat situation as outlined by Toft, Hine & Co., is about as usual. Receipts this week have been rather light, but yet there has been enough stock on hand to supply all demands. Quotations are not altered.

Glafke & Co. say that fruits are now arriving rather lively. Large stocks of bananas have weakened that market a trifle, but the surplus stock is about cleaned up. Watermelons have arrived in small quantities and are being quoted at $5.50@6.50 a dozen. A small supply of California grapes and figs have arrived. They are not yet quoted.

According to Henry Everding, the butter market remains normal, with receipts and demand about the same. No changes appear in quotations.

Sinclair & Co. report receipts in the Eastern provision market as being fair. Business, though, is not considered good.

The grocery market, as reported by Wadhams & Co., is quiet in the matter of changes, but business is steady. No changes appear in the list today.
