JEALOUS INSANITY

Caused Zoe Pepe to Nearly Murder Her Child.

(Journal Special Service.)

OAKLAND, June 30.—Zoe Pepe, a young mother, who resides in East Oakland, has been committed to an asylum by Judge Ogden. The young woman has become violent because of jealousy. So strongly has the melancholia seized the young woman that she seized her husband's 4-year-old son and beat his head upon the floor until the little lad was well nigh unconscious and so bady frightened that he could hardly walk, and is still suffering from the shock.

Mrs. Pepe, according to the story told the court by her husband, has always been of an extremely jealous nature. She refused to allow him to speak to his relatives, and if she saw him in conversation with a man and did not know what they were talking about would fly into a violent passion.

The husband appeared to be very much cast down because of the misfortune. He said he believed she should be confined for the protection of their child.
