REAL ESTATE

The record for Thursday and Saturday (Friday being a legal holiday) shows:

Real Estate Transfers.

Thursday	$17,094 00
Saturday	17,614 00
Total	$34,708 00

Building Permits

Thursday	$13,200 00
Saturday	15,100 00
Total	$28,300 00

The advent of the Fourth of July yesterday had its effect upon the real estate market. The citizens of Portland were too busy yesterday to talk of or consider such subjects as transfers of real estate, or even to figure upon the erection of houses. The explosion of countless firecrackers metaphorically blew away all real estate deals. The fact that yesterday was a legal holiday naturally cut down the showing in the matter of both transfers and building permits.

It should be an evidence of congratulation that quite a number of mortgages were released of record on Thursday. That these were largely for small mortgages, running from $130 upward, shows that laboring people are getting the debt lifted from their homes.

A brief mention of what is doing in the way of building permits is of interest. Two two-story dwellings are being erected by Harriet Hager at the corner of East Davis and East Thirteenth streets, to cost $4000.

S. L. Brown has taken out a permit for repairs at Fourth and Alder streets, for $2000.

R. and F. Solaman will erect two two-story dwellings at Tenth and Market, which will cost $5000.

At First avenue and East Ash Frank Kiesner will build a $1000 two-story dwelling.

Monday night the Building Trades Council decided to at once remove the boycott on building material, so that the line distinguishing so-called "fair" and "unfair" building materially has been totally obliterated. This will have a tendency to make contractors rush the unfinished buildings in their hands through to rapid completion. With this move one impeding cause to progress is entirely removed. If other impediments can also be removed soon, 1902 may yet prove the banner season for building operations in Portland.

The Journal the other day predicted that the recent great fire on the East Side might, in the end, prove a not unmixed blessing. Already steps are being taken toward rebuilding a portion of the burned district. The old Torpedo Hotel site, at the northwest corner of Hawthorne avenue and East Water street, is to be occupied by a fine four-story brick building, to be erected by O'Reilly & Burpee. Its dimensions will be 45x120. It will probably be utilized as a hotel by the former lessee of the Torpedo Hotel, William Eschelberger.

The Standard Oil Company is making ready to repair its losses to its property and proposes to rebuild its warehouses. The Surman building, at East First and Hawthorne avenue, will be rebuilt.

It is said that the East Side Lumber Company has decided not to rebuild.

The burning out of the spans on the east side of the Madison-street bridge will, until that structure is temporarily repaired, as is now being done, tend to impede the operation of building somewhat in the territory which looks to that bridge as its outlet, but in a short time this trouble will be entirely removed.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.

ASTORIA, July 5.—Left up at 3 a. m.—Steamer Alliance. Arrived at 8:30 a. m. and left up at 9:30 a. m.—Steamer Fulton, from San Francisco. Arrived July 4 at 9:40 a. m. and left up at 11:40 a. m.—Steamer Columbia.

THE MARKETS.

The steamer Columbia arrived late last evening from San Francisco, bringing a fair sized cargo of small California fruits and some vegetables.

The grain market, according to the Portland Flouring Mills Company, remains as is usual this time of the year—nothing doing. Reports from up the valley say that the crop of fall wheat on the west side of the river will be much better than last year. No changes appear in the quotations of either grain or flour.

Glafke & Co. report the fruit and vegetable market lively, with receipts of fruit quite large. The market is about cleaned up on strawberries, the few that are arriving not being of extra good quality.

In the poultry market, W. T. Turner & Co. say that the entire supply has been cleaned up and the market is firm at established quotations. Eggs are in fair receipt, but the demand still keeps up. No change appears in the quotations.

The receipts of fresh meats this week in the local market have not been equal to the demand, according to Toft, Hine & Co. Prices are high and now is the time for farmers to ship their product. Geese are not wanted by dealers at any price.

With the exception of the decline in the quotations on Liverpool salt, the fore part of the week, Wadhams & Co. report the grocery market lively, with steady quotations. Business in all the houses has been extra good the past week.

ABOUT RAILROADS.

The new 20-hour trains which the Pennsylvania and New York Central put on recently between New York and Chicago reached Chicago ahead of their schedule time. So readily did they each accomplish the run that an 18-hour run is now talked of between the two great cities.

An extension from a point near Grantsburg in Johnson County, Ill., to Colconda, 15 miles east in Polk County, is projected by the Illinois Central. This is in the portion of Illinois south of the old Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, which is known as "Egypt." Polk County at present has neither railroad nor express office within its bounadries.

A branch line in Churchill County, Nev., is said to be under consideration, and the ground has been gone over with this in view by the Southern Pacific Company. The new cut-off south of Wadsworth brings this district 18 miles nearer to a main line shipping point, and if a branch were built, it would open up two soda springs and a rich farming district as well.

A Cuban "Hamlet."

To be, or not to be (free)!
That is the question—
Whether 'tis better to
Start national house-keeping
On our own account, or
To put our feet under
Uncle Sam's table, where
We can pass him all the sugar
We want, and get bread, meat
And potatoes in return. 'Tis a
Consummation devoutly to
Be wished. To trade, to get
Rid of our sugar and tobacco; perchance
To have free trade—aye, there's the rub!
For let me tell you that if we Don't get free trade and we
Catch one of those Congressmen
Down there; this is the discovered
Country from whose bourn
No traveler returns.

—R. M. Brinkerhoff.
