

CHICAGO TRAFFIC NEARLY PARALYZED

Great Business Houses Are Suffering From the Strike.

Should the Teamsters Go Out as Is Expected the Loss Would Be Enormous—No Violence Reported.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
CHICAGO, July 8.—The tie-up of freight traffic as a result of the strike of freight handlers here continues almost complete, the only road affected that is moving freight with any degree of success being the Illinois Central. Not one case of violence has been reported since the men went out.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL'S SCHEME.

The Illinois Central has converted one of its freight houses into a commissary department, where its 600 handlers, mostly husky young farmers, are being fed and waited upon by fully uniformed Pullman waiters. At night the men occupy berths in Pullman sleepers, which are sidetracked near the freight houses.

MORE MEN SECURED.

Before noon the Chicago & Northwest-ern added the Chicago & Eastern Illinois had succeeded in securing a full complement of men. The strikers say they are not discouraged by the outlook, claiming that within a day or two every union teamster in the city will quit work or refuse to haul freight handled by non-union men. This would make the tie-up more complete than ever, and would cause such a and loss of an enormous amount of money as Chicago has never experienced. The strike leaders, not wishing to lose the sympathy of the public, this morning permitted the removal of perishable goods from the freight houses, thus relieving the fear that there will be a shortage of foodstuffs.

That the great business interests are suffering immensely, there is no doubt. Some of the larger concerns are still seriously considering the proposition to shut up shop until the trouble is ended.

STRIKERS MAY LOSE.

This afternoon the representatives of the strikers and the teamsters union went into conference to consider the strikers' appeal to the teamsters to call a sympathetic strike. It is generally conceded that if the teamsters refuse to go out the freight handlers will lose the fight.

filling nicely, but in Umatilla County much amut is reported.

Hops, corn, and gardens are thrifty, but backward and need bright, sunny weather. The outlook is favorable for a good crop of apples. The condition of prunes remains unchanged, and from a half to a third of a crop is all that is expected. Peaches are doing well and an average crop or better will probably be harvested in Southern Oregon.

ABOUT RAILROADS.

General Freight and Passenger Agent Coman of the Southern Pacific was out on the line of the company today.

Manager Koehler and Superintendent Fields of the Southern Pacific left this morning on a tour of inspection. They will be absent about a week, and will go as far south as Dunsmuir.

Traveling Passenger Agent Roche and Traveling Freight Agent Duffy, both of the Rio Grande system, are now out on one of their regular jaunts through their territory.

Mrs. T. W. Teasdale and her son, Frank Teasdale, came in this morning from St. Paul on the Northern Pacific. Mrs. Teasdale is the wife of the general passenger agent of the Omaha. With Mrs. Teasdale was Mrs. Charles S. Fee and three children, and Mrs. W. G. Johnson, also of St. Paul. Mrs. Fee is the wife of General Passenger Agent Fee of the Northern Pacific, and Mrs. Johnson is the wife of the auditor of disbursements of the Northern Pacific. Mrs. Fee generally visits Portland once a year, but this is Mrs. Teasdale's first visit. The ladies and their children left immediately on the T. J. Potter for Long Beach, to spend a month. Frank Teasdale has just completed his high school course. He expects to visit San Francisco before returning home.

ACTING IN GOOD FAITH

It is a very good evidence that the Great Central Railroad Company is acting in perfect good faith in its projected line from Salt Lake to Coos Bay, to note several things. In the first place, the corporation has not asked for any bonuses, cash subscriptions or stock contributions from any one. Those in charge say it never will do so, for the very excellent reason that it has ample capital of its own.

In making its selection at terminals, it has taken to itself alternate blocks, as is usual, consequently such is the case at Emporia. The company makes the matter of title to itself a conditional one. It asks that no title be given to it in any real estate until its line has been built and in operation to Roseburg. Deeds along its right of way have the same provision. A condition subsequent is that if the line is not in full operation within 18 months, then it shall have no title to tracts along its right of way, which are to revert to the original grantors.

MAY APPOINT HIS OWN SUCCESSOR

Chamberlain Evades Information on District Attorneyship.

Speculation is rife in the matter of what the action of Governor-elect Chamberlain will be regarding his successor in the office he now holds. Mr. Chamberlain is very noncommittal in a popular to the matter, and those in the party to know something of the subject state that every phase of the subject is being carefully considered by the District Attorney.

There are several methods which might be pursued, but which one will be adopted is not very much of a certainty.

There are yet six months to intervene before Mr. Chamberlain will assume the duties of Governor, and he could remain in his present position for that entire time without transgressing any law, but he may not do so. In case Mr. Chamberlain should decide to resign his present office, the matter of the appointment of his successor would be left with Governor Geer, who would probably appoint a Republican to the place, an action that would not be satisfactory to the Democrats.

To place the necessary barrier in the way of such a thing, Mr. Chamberlain may continue in his present official capacity, assume the duties of the governor's office and allow the District Attorney's office to become vacant, when it would be his function to fill the place by the appointment of one of his own choosing.

Nothing definite has been done in this matter, however, further than the discussion of these points related, but the status of the situation is just as stated.

Should Mr. Chamberlain have the appointing of his successor, it is supposed he would give the place to his present chief deputy, John Manning, who is considered by all to be in line for the position.

ST. HELENS.

(Journal Special Service.)
ST. HELENS, July 8.—It is now a reasonably assured fact that Rainier will soon have a Methodist Episcopal church building. Rev. Lew Davies returned from there yesterday, after holding services Sunday, and reported that the outlook was very encouraging. While he was there ex-County Judge Dean Blanchard donated a building lot and subscribed $10 for the proposed edifice. The congregation has $100 on hands for this purpose, and the Church Extension Society will donate $200 more. It is not believed any difficulty will be experienced in raising the balance required.

County School Superintendent L. H. Copeland and Rev. and Mrs. Lew Davies departed today for Gladstone Park, to attend the Willamette Valley Chautauqua, during the entire session.

The late heavy rains have damaged the rank clover hay which was standing in the fields, to some extent. The stalks fell to the ground and has begun to mould to some extent. Late Royal Anne cherries also were damaged to more or less extent.

J. S. Casto, of New Era, Clackamas County, state organizer for the Patrons of Husbandry, passed through here yesterday on his return from Mist, in the lower Nehalem Valley. He organized a grange there Saturday with 30 charter members, and William Pringle was elected master, and Mrs. Nettie Peterson, secretary.

RIVER AND OCEAN.

Advices from New York report that the German bark Alster has been chartered to load wheat at Portland in January, at $2. The Alster is 2325 tons net register, the largest vessel chartered for Portland loading this season. The bark is now discharging a cargo of wheat at Antwerp.

Judge Hanford, of the United States Court at Seattle, has rendered a decision holding the British ship Troop responsible for wages due Michael Blake, a deserter. Blake claims he was "shanghaied" from Philadelphia as a second mate. After going to Corea the ship proceeded to Puget Sound to load lumber for Melbourne. Blake left the vessel at Seattle, and the captain refused to pay him his wages, whereupon the vessel was libeled.

SHE DIDN'T MAKE MUCH

ELDORADO, Kas., July 8.—Jesse Morrison, who was recently convicted for the second time of the murder of Mrs. Olin Castle, her successful rival for the hand of Olin Castle, was today sentenced to 25 years' imprisonment. After the first trial she was sentenced to five years, but took an appeal.

PLUM FOR LARRY

A Relative Appointed Deputy Constable for West Side.

Lawrence M. Sullivan was the "maddest" man in town when he read Mayor Williams' inaugural message, and found later that the new Mayor's suggestions were to be carried out. Sullivan forthwith declared himself as displeased in no moderate terms.

However, Mr. Sullivan is in a somewhat better frame of mind today. When Sheriff Storey announced his appointment of deputy constable for the West Side, A. G. Adkins was named. The latter is related to Sullivan by marriage. It is small compensation, but Larry is better satisfied than if he was awarded nothing at all.

BIG JOB

Serving Papers on the Striking Fuel Teamsters.

Deputy Sheriff Matthews is serving papers on the various members of the Fuel Teamsters' Union today in compliance with the restraining order issued Saturday by Judge Fraser. It is a difficult task, as the men are scattered all over the city. The strike has assumed no new phases today, but both sides report the outlook to be promising.

DRISCOLL GIVES UP

John Driscoll, Citizens' candidate for Sheriff, has dismissed his election contest against W. A. Storey.

Monument Fund.

More money has been added to the proposed Riverview soldiers' monument fund. This time it is $34, making a total of $1066.93 received to date. The money was paid in by the following members of the Second Oregon Regiment:

TURNERS ADJOURN

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
DAVENPORT, Ia., July 8.—The national convention of Turners today decided to hold their next convention at Newark, N. J., in 1904.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

L. J. Meserve, prominent in mercantile and sawmill circles in South Bend, Wash., is in the city today in the interest of a large milling proposition at Francis, of which he has been receiver for some time. He will return to South Bend tonight.

John H. Smith, a prominent attorney of Astoria, is in the city today.

United States Postal Inspector Tom Flavin has returned from a two months' trip to Ireland.

Charles F. Kay, a prominent real estate and insurance man, of Spokane, is in the city on a short business trip. Mr. Kay is a pioneer of Eastern Washington and well known all over the state.

'ROUND TOWN.

Max Praecht, of Ashland, sent a box of fine black cherries to the Permanent Exhibit. Colonel Dosch pronounces them to be some of the best he ever saw.

C. Webb, of Ridgefield, Wash., was in town yesterday looking for 150,000 woodchoppers, as he has a contract of 50,000 cords of wood to fill.

George Cornell returned to Lyle, Wash., today, after having spent the Fourth here. He is building a 24-room hotel there, with hot and cold water, gaslights and other modern improvements, and expects to have it open in about 15 days. He reports the C. R. N. Company as having a big force of men at work there grading.

Mrs. Hagglinton, who, on the afternoon of the Fourth, committed the foolhardy act of jumping from the second story of the Peacher building, at Mississippi and Russell streets, on the East Side, with a four-months-old babe in her arms, and who has since been at the hospital, has in no wise recovered from the insane condition of mind which prompted such a deed.

THE DEATH OF LOVE. So Love is dead, the Love we knew of old! And in the sorrow of our hearts' hushed halls A lute lies broken and a flower falls: Love's house is empty and his hearth is cold. Lone in dim places, where sweet vows were told, In walks grown desolate, by ruined walls, Dreams decay, and on their pedestals Dreams crumble, and th' immortal gods are mold. Music is silent or sleeps; one voice alone, One voice awakes, and like a wand'ring ghost Haunts all the echoing chambers of the Past— The voice of Memory, that stills to stone The soul that hears; the mind that, utterly lost, Before its beautiful presence stands aghast. —Madison Cawein.
