JUBILEE OF THE PASSIONISTS

Fiftieth Celebration of Ascetic Order of Catholics.

(Journal Special Service.)

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 12.—A notable celebration was begun in Pittsburg today, the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment in this country of the Passionist Fathers, one of the ascetic orders of the Catholic Church. The event has attracted noted prelates from all over this country and Canada, among the number being Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia; Archbishop Katzen, of Milwaukee; Mgr. Falconio and others. The celebration consists for the most part of religious exercises of an extremely impressive character.

The Passionists were founded in 1720, and have been renowned from the first for their missionary work and their hospitality. With the exception of the Benedictines, the Passionists are the only monks who maintain guest houses where the needy are received and temporarily cared for without reference to their means or faith. The seat of the order in this country is located at Hoboken, N. J.

WILL STUDY MUSIC

(Journal Special Service.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—Among the passengers bound for Europe today was Miss Lillian Solomon, the 18-year-old daughter of Lillian Russell, the well-known actress. Miss Solomon, who promises to possess all the beauty of her mother, is going to Paris to continue the study of music. Last month she was graduated with high honors from the Institute of the Holy Angels at Fort Lee, N. J. Before quitting the school she embraced Catholicity, and was formally received into the church.

GLASS WORKERS

(Journal Special Service.)

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., July 12.—French and Belgian window glass workers from all over the glassmaking districts of Indiana and Pennsylvania have rounded up here for their annual carnival week. A dancing pavilion, covering several acres, has been constructed, on which all-night dances will be held. Several French plays will be produced during the week, and $500 in prizes will be dwarded.

BIG CANOE MEET

(Journal Special Service.)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 12.—During the coming two weeks the annual meeting and regatta of the Western division of the American Canoe Association will be held at Ballast Island. Already the canoeists have arrived in considerable numbers, 150 being now in camp and 50 more are expected tomorrow. Many of the fast paddlers are in camp training for the races, which promise to be of more than a score of events, including all varieties of sailing and paddling, with the usual upset, hurry-scurry, club four paddling, war canoe, and swimming events. A new prize is a handsome silver loving cup offered by Commodore George W. Gardner, of this city.

The location of the camp this year is particularly well adapted for canoeing purposes, and especially convenient for the Canadians. Among those already in camp are canoeists from Milwaukee, Chicago, Peoria, Pittsburg, Detroit, Dayton, Toledo, Cincinnati, Sandusky, Cleveland, Buffalo, Rochester and Toronto.

PLANNED TO LYNCH HIM

(Journal Special Service.)

PENSACOLA, Fla., July 12.—With one man heavily chained, the crew bordering on mutiny, and officers without sleep for a week, the American schooner Mary Sanford, Captain McDonald, has arrived, 14 days from Bluefields.

June 29 First Mate Nicholson killed Seaman James Reed, and the crew held a lynching court to propose vengeance.

Constant armed vigils only saved the mate's life. Nicholson was turned over to the Federal authorities here.

CLOSE CALL

(Journal Special Service.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 12.—Harry M. Speerman of Fort Wayne, Ind., was bathing almost a quarter of a mile out beside the Steeplechase pier in Atlantic City, when he saw what he thought was the body of a man floating near the surface. He swam to the object, which was slowly sinking, and dived down after it, clutching the supposed body. To his consternation he found he had grasped a lively eight-foot shark by the tail. Then followed a lively race for shore. Two life-savers jumped into a boat and went to Speerman's assistance and reached him just as the shark had grasped his arm. The shark was killed and Speerman taken to shore. He was not seriously injured.

Canada Orangemen.

TORONTO, Ont., July 12.—Orangemen from all over the province celebrated the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne here today. There was a monster procession through the principal streets, followed by an open-air meeting and speeches.

WHAT THE FOURTH COST IN DEAD AND MAIMED

(Journal Special Service.)

CHICAGO, July 12.—Celebration of Independence Day in Chicago was costly in loss of life and resulted in many accidents of a serious nature. Five dead and others reported as dying fill the list of fatalities, while the injured are as legion.

Figures from all the larger and many of the smaller cities of the country show that 21 persons were killed and 2172 injured. The toy pistol and cannon cracker, as usual, are responsible for the greater part of the casualties.

Philadelphia heads the list with 439 injured.

New Orleans, on the contrary, reported not one accident of any kind, and the report was that less than $200 had been spent on fireworks for this year's celebration.

THUNDER MOUNTAIN

J. M. Shissler Says the Camp Speaks for Itself.

(Journal Special Service.)

SPOKANE, July 12.—J. M. Shissler, a mining man and packer of Newsome and Thunder Mountain, Idaho, is here on mining business. Mr. Shissler asserts that Thunder Mountain will prove all that it was expected to be, despite discouraging reports to the contrary. Said Mr. Shissler: "The Sunny Side and the Belle of Thunder Mountain claims are not to be excelled by any claims of the West, Colorado not excepted, and there are others just as good. The formation puzzles many mining experts and one man is said to have reported unfavorably on the Dewey property, which is known to be immensely rich.

"There are immense gold bearing porphyry zones all over the mountain and surrounding territory. The country rock in hardening seems to have forced up the gold bearing material, and the yellow stuff is to be found on the surface in many instances. The expense of getting machinery into the camp is not as great as might be expected. The stamps on the Dewey mine were taken in for about 7 cents per pound, and other stuff can be taken in cheaply. The trouble with the knockers is that a lot of farmers and inexperienced men have gone into the camp expecting to find everything within easy reach. The results are, of course, not satisfactory, and a howl is made which in many instances is listened to. The camp will speak for itself, however, and there will be no cause for complaint in any greater degree than in any camp which experiences a rush."

MARINE NOTES.

The Danish bark Ingeborg and the German ship Wega have been chartered to load wheat at Portland. The Wega arrived at Hioga June 24, and will sail for this port in a few days.

The total tonnage en route to Portland now will reach nearly 130,000, compared with 105,000 net tonnage, headed for Portland last year at this time. The first steamer that will likely be loaded with grain here this year is the Norwegian steamer Mathilde. She is now on her way from Europe to Tacoma with a cargo of railroad iron.

The British ship Trafalgar, an old-timer on the Pacific Coast, has been laid on the berth at Newcastle-on-Tyne for this port. The cargo fleet now bound for this port is larger this year than ever before. Arrivals in August and September will be numerous. The Sierra Estrella is five months out from Liverpool, and the Dimsdale is due from Newcastle. The Cypdomene, on her way here with a cargo of railroad irons for the street-car companies, left Falkland Islands May 6, where she underwent repairs. She should reach Portland about the last of the month.

The lumber schooner John A. was towed down the river yesterday by the Gray Steamship Company's steamer Fulton. The marine engineers' strike made it impossible to secure a regular towboat.

Last Tuesday the French vessel Jean Bart, the last vessel of the 1901 grain fleet to clear from this port, sailed for Portland for another cargo. She is being paid the lowest freight rate ever given a vessel going so far in ballast, the rate being 28s 3d.

The Frank Woolsey Company steamship Lakme left Eureka, California, yestoday, and is expected to reach Portland Sunday with a general cargo of merchandise.

The Oriental steamship Clavering, on the usual run between Tacoma and China and Japan, will take a cargo of flour and machinery to Vladivostok this trip.

The bark Asie was moved from the Couch street dock Thursday by the steamer Undine, to Montgomery dock, to load wheat. The Asie will likely have to be moved several times to complete her cargo, owing to the scarcity of last year's wheat on the docks.

Rogue River reef buoy, a black first-class can, marked "R. R.," reported as having gone adrift on January 24, has been discontinued.

INDIAN WAR FEARED

(Journal Special Service.)

ARDMORE, I. T., July 12.—Grave trouble between cattlemen and Indians in the Choctaw Nation is feared because of the killing during the past week of nearly 400 cattle, supposedly by the Indians. It is asserted that the cattle-owners have violated the law with impunity and aroused the hostility of the Indians.

Subscriptions received for The Journal at any of S. B. Rich's cigar stores.

THE MARKETS.

An advance of about half a cent has been again made in the quotations of Eastern packed meats. Dealers were notified and the new prices went into effect this morning. Lard has also advanced one-half cent a pound. Another advance is in prospect. Local meats remain at the same quotations as yesterday. Receipts of small veal and pork are rather short and prices are very firm. The reason for the shortage in receipts is due to the tying up of all the river steamers. Next week receipts are expected to be more liberal.

The market was entirly cleaned up of eggs early this morning. Prices have again advanced. Cold storage eggs are being brought out and are sold at 21 cents, fresh eggs bringing 22 cents.

Poultry is still scarce, and not a single coop remained in the market this morning. Prices are the same.

Needed the Wagons.

"I am glad to know that you have settled your troubles with the striking teamsters," said the peace promoter to the Chicago meat packer.

"Yes," answered the meat magnate, "it was a good thing. You see, we could send the meat around in letters, but we had to have the use of the wagons to haul the money home."—Baltimore American.

A Bargain.

Mark Antony had just joined his force in battle with Octavius. When the news was carried to Cleopatra, the fair Queen, was heard to murmur:

"Oh, what a lovely bargain."

"A bargain?" inquired one of her generals.

"Yes, indeed," she replied; "it's going to be a case of Mark down."

And the officer was promptly beheaded for laughing.—New York Times.

The Usual Sign.

"I wonder what's the matter with him. He's forever making slurring remarks about Boston, Chicago, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Hoboken—"

"Yes, he wants to give the impression that he's a New Yorker."—Philadelphia Press.
