

TRACY IS STILL OUT OF SIGHT

Sheriff's Posse Takes Up Headquarters at Convict's Cabin on Sawyer Lake.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—Sheriff Cudhee returned to Seattle last night for the purpose of looking up records of "Tattoo-Red" and ex-convict Simmons, who are with Tracy.

The Sheriff was disappointed but not discouraged over the escape of Tracy from the cabin which he surrounded yesterday. The Sheriff returned this afternoon to the cabin in Sawyer Lake, where he has established headquarters and from where picked guards are working. Sheriff Cudhee says his information is very positive that Tracy's wound is serious. The main part of a charge of buckshot took effect between the hip joint and thigh, making a lacerated wound. The stool pigeon was told that when the shot was cut out with a razor, a large amount of puss followed.

Cudhee argues that each step under such circumstances is exceedingly painful to the fugitive and that he could not travel far. Tracy told the stool pigeon that he was not discouraged and his escape was only a matter of courage and fortitude, hence he would get away.

Cudhee therefore believes Tracy is in hiding within an area of not more than two miles distant from the cabin. He says he will capture the outlaw or kill him before he gets beyond the confines of King County. He places no credence in the story of his escaping towards Gold Hill, and says that with his wound it would be impossible.

Following his tactics of the last few days, Cudhee's every move will be kept secret.

The Posse's Report.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
RENNSDALE, July 18.—Some of Sheriff Cudhee's posse reported here today that nothing had been heard from Tracy since he left the Sawyer Lake cabin, eight miles from Covington.

The posse can do nothing but wait until the outlaw shows up again. It is believed that Tracy is trying hard to reach Natches Pass, and that he would have done so ere this had it not been for his wound.

How Tracy Got Away.

(Journal Special Service.)
COVINGTON, Wash., July 18.—It is believed here that Sheriff Cudhee is the victim of his own "stool pigeon" in his efforts to locate Tracy yesterday. The man who was to pilot the Sheriff to the cabin on Sawyer Lake where Tracy and two ex-convicts were resting, probably warned Tracy of the close pursuit of the posse and he declined to go with Cudhee and his men to the cabin, saying he would be killed by Tracy for playing false to him.

Cudhee and his men made their way to the cabin without the guide only to find that the two men said to be with him had escaped several hours before.

The smoldering fire by which the fugitive cooked his meals and a linen bandage with which Tracy had dressed his wound were mute evidence of the cabin's recent occupancy by the criminal. The stool pigeon was very angry that his "game" had again eluded him and he is said to have made some unpleasant remarks about his "stool pigeon."

Had Tracy remained in the cabin there would have been a serious battle. But his usual good luck was with him and he broke away again.

Cudhee held his men in readiness for Tracy's reappearance at some farmhouse but will then start out once more in an endeavor to capture or kill the fugitive.

Reward Should be Paid.

(Journal Special Service.)
SALEM, July 18.—There is considerable sentiment here in favor of Mrs. Mary Waggoner receiving the reward of $1500 offered for the return of either Tracy or Merrill, dead or alive, yet Superintendent Lee of the penitentiary has ignored her claim and will allow her only expenses in bringing Merrill's body to Salem. She refuses the offer and filed a demand for the amount.

Governor Geer will be appealed to in the matter and it is believed that he will order the payment of the reward. Lawyers agree that Mrs. Waggoner is legally entitled to it and the Governor should see that it is paid.

PUT THE FAIR AT A CENTRAL POINT

As an argument in favor of Hawthorne Park as a site for the 1905 Fair, the East Side citizens say that a ferry like the one formerly run from the foot of Stark street can be put on the river at the foot of Salmon street and 10,500 persons a day could be transported across the river, thus relieving the congestion on the bridges. Or a ferry, 50x150 feet in size, having a double deck, could be constructed and 35,000 persons an hour or 300,000 a day could be transported. The landing on the east side of the river would be within seven short blocks of the Fair ground gates. A ferry boat, 50x150 feet in size would give 12,000 square feet of free room for passengers. Allowing two feet to the passenger, accommodations for 6,000 persons can be secured. The ferry boat proposition is made in view of the fact that the bridges might prove too narrow to handle all the people who might desire to go to and from the Fair, and for the purpose of meeting the conditions which might arise by a great number of people.

MURDER CHARGE

Joe Sebeski Charged With Death of Thos. Dooley.

Thomas Dooley, a farmer at Scappoose, died at St. Helens last night, the result of injuries received by the brutal assault of a young man named Joe Sebeski a few days ago at the former's place. Dooley's farm is on the highland, and his fields are now teeming full of wheat, oats, potatoes and similar products. Sebeski has been the herder of a band of cattle which had been taken to the highland for pasture during the flood in the Columbia. The cattle roamed about the country, and frequently found their way to the fields of Mr. Dooley. This condition of affairs was several times remonstrated against, and particularly was there objection raised on the occasion of such a visit by the bovines a few days ago, when their herder attempted to drive them across the fields and through an opening at the other side of the field. Sebeski insisted on continuing the drive, and indeed, he did so, only, however, after demolishing the old man to a considerable extent by the use of a club. Dooley's head was beaten very severely, and other bad wounds were received on his body.

When he had recovered sufficiently to be able to lay his case before the authorities, Mr. Dooley entered complaint, and the matter has occupied the attention of the District Attorney and Justice of the Peace at St. Helens for three days. Sebeski has been held without bond to answer the charge of murder. Dooley's age was 62. He died at the hotel in St. Helens during the course of the hearing before the justice.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

(Journal Special Service.)
ST. HELENS, July 18.—Joe Sebeski will have a preliminary hearing here this evening in the Justice Court on a charge of murder. Two weeks ago Sebeski and Thomas Dooley, aged 62, had an encounter with clubs, the latter receiving serious injuries. Yesterday Sebeski was acquitted of assault in the Justice Court and Dooley died two hours afterward with pneumonia complications. The coroner is holding an inquest on Dooley's body this afternoon.

Rice died gamely, refusing stimulants before going to the scaffold. His neck was not broken and for 12 minutes he slowly struggled to death. His mother and sister, both of Champaign, Illinois, made a pitiful appeal last week for a commutation of his sentence but were refused. The body will be taken to Champaign for interment. Rice came of a good family and was a graduate of the University of Illinois.
