

CITY BRIEFS

I. Lowengart has filed an attachment suit against E. W. Dunbar, to recover $272. W. F. Murphy, of this city, who is on a business trip in the East, has arrived in New York. Governor-elect Chamberlain and Mayor Williams will address the meeting of the Board of Trade Monday evening. Yesterday was the hottest day of the season. The thermometer climbed from 50 degrees at 5 a. m. to 84 degrees at 4 p. m. Over 1500 people, mostly small boys, visited the free swimming baths yesterday, the fees for suits amounting to $22.50. Captain W. C. Langfitt has returned from a two-weeks' trip to Alaska, where he inspected the United States light-houses. County Judge Lionel R. Webster states that he will not hold court July 22, 24 and 25. He will be away in Southern Oregon on those dates. Eva Wallace has filed suit for divorce against Elmer J. Wallace on the grounds of desertion, commencing in 1900. They were married at Vancouver in 1894. United States Deputy Marshal Roberts brought a man named Tom Norton down from Pendleton last night who is charged with having sold liquor to Indians. If you wish to be correctly entered in the new City Directory, soon to be issued, see to it that all changes are sent to our office without delay. R. L. Polk & Co. For Sale.—The gasoline launch, "Up-to-Date." She's fast, measures 23 feet over all, 4 1/2 feet beam. Carrying capacity, 9 people. Inquire G. I. Gheen, 181 Third St. Government Inspector of Buildings Roberts is expected to arrive in Portland at once from San Francisco. He is to complete the inspection of the new government building here. The case against Tony Arnau and Annie Buck, charged with stealing $325 from M. N. Perdra, was dismissed in the Police Court yesterday, there being no evidence of a direct nature against the accused. Judge J. A. Waymire, of San Francisco, formerly a resident of this city, accompanied by his son arrived in the city yesterday, and today continued on to the Deschutes country on a business and pleasure trip. The Indo-American Woman's League will meet at the home of Mrs. E. S. Frame, 451 Chapman street, Portland Heights, next Monday at 2:30 p. m. All women interested in conditions of children are cordially invited. Mr. George Geary Lyon, of Seattle, died Tuesday very suddenly. Colonel Lyon was widely known as being one of the best newspaper men on the Coast, having been in charge of the Post-Intelligencer at one time and the Times. The track is laid and the wonderful miniature railway will be in operation at Mt. Tabor this evening and tomorrow. Band concert both days. The pleasant ride on the city cars. Leave Third and Yamhill streets every five minutes. Tom R. Wilson left for Flavel last night to accept the position of day clerk at the Hotel Flavel for the season. Mr. Wilson is well known in Portland and the patrons of his hotel can rest assured that they will receive polite and attentive treatment at his hands. The examining room of the appraiser-general's office is pervaded with the odor of a Chinese restaurant at present because of a part of the cargo of the steamer Indrahama being taken there. This part consists of dried eels, fungus, cabbage and other Chinese delicacies. The Grand Avenue United Presbyterian Church will send the following delegates to the National Young Peoples' Union of the Presbyterians which will meet at Tacoma next Tuesday: Rev. J. H. Gibson, D. D., Mrs. J. H. Gibson, Miss May Newman, Mr. Everett Hallowell, Miss Marge McBride and Miss Margarette Gibson. Weather Official Beals received a bunch of wheat, which was picked at random in Umatilla County, after the recent gale. The wheat shows one to five kernels shelled from each head. If this loss covers a wide extent of territory there will be a big decrease in yields, perhaps amounting to 5 or more bushels to the acre. According to D. W. Ralston, a prominent stock grower of Gilliam County, who was in the city yesterday, Portland is greatly in need of packing-houses. If enterprises of this character were established here a steady demand for hogs would be created and the prices would be kept up to Eastern quotations. As it is the prices here fall from 1 to 1 1/2 cents per pound below those paid in the Eastern markets. The government has asked for bids for furnishing 420,000 feet of Oregon pine for use at the naval station at Cavite. Specifications have been received by the Chamber of Commerce here, where interested parties may obtain copies. Proposals are to be opened at Washington on the 9th of next month. Some of the important items in the specifications are: 420,000 feet Oregon pine, 100,000 feet sugar pine; 65,000 feet white oak, 4000 feet hickory, 4000 feet mahogany, 35,000 feet white oak, 10,000 feet spruce, 50,000 feet Port Orford cedar, 200 spruce spars, 1000 white oak staves. Portland Club, Fifth and Alder. Finest lunch in city. Portland Club, Fifth and Alder.

LANDLORD WILLED SMALL FORTUNE Took Care of Farmer Dooley and Got $5000 for His Kindness.

Some newly-developed circumstances in the death of R. Dooley, at St. Helena, last Thursday, are creating something of the sensational order. Dooley was a bachelor, and upon his arrival at the county seat he entered one of the hotels and made arrangements with the landlord for care and keeping. The hotel man undertook to discharge his new duties as nurse, and remained faithful to the work. After a few days spent at the hotel Dooley asked that an attorney be sent to his room. The request was complied with, and a will was executed, by which all of the estate of the old man was bequeathed to the accommodating landlord. The third day after the execution of the document the death of Dooley occurred, and the contents of the will were made known. During this time the landlord was wholly ignorant of what was in store for him, but he continued faithful to his trust, and since the true conditions have been made public the hotel man, while agreeably surprised, maintains his customary manner and accepts the condition of affairs in a mere matter-of-fact way. The estate consists of 160 acres of good farming land, more than one-half of which is in a prime condition of cultivation, several head of stock and all the personal effects of the deceased farmer, including $2000 cash in one of the Portland banks, the whole estate being worth about $5000. There are no relatives, known or unknown, so it is said, who might otherwise have been entitled to the estate, and while some of the less fortunate ones are stating that there will be trouble for the landlord in gaining and holding possession of the property, yet the will is properly drawn, signed and witnessed, there being four signatures to the document as witnesses, and there is no uncertainty as to its genuineness. The cause of the death of Dooley was stated in these columns yesterday, although the coroner's jury returned a verdict that Dooley's death was the result of congestion of the lungs and heart trouble. Bob Sejenaki, with whom the old man had an altercation, has been re-arrested and another preliminary hearing will be had as soon as additional witnesses can be gotten hold of. The hotel keeper's name is T. R. Wallace, and Dooley, at the time the will was made, said he had no heirs, and always intended to leave his property to the person who took care of him in his last sickness. Wallace is a poor man and his late good fortune is gratefully accepted by him.

SHIELDS' PARK Fine Program for Next Week—Two New Acts Tonight.

This is the kind of weather that makes Edward Shields wear a pleasant smile and a new Panama. His popular amusement park, was packed again last night. An abundance of sprinkling early in the evening made the place cool and refreshing, and the program pleased every one. An entire change of program begins tomorrow night. O'Leary & Fay, comedy jugglers, are the top-liners in a novelty act that will be entirely new in Portland, for they only left the Chicago and New York circuits a month ago. In addition to the juggling, which includes flaming batons and original paraphernalia, they introduce songs and amusing jokes. The charming entertainer, Helen Lamar, makes her bi-monthly appearance in a new illustrated recital, "Blair the Regular," a story of the Philippines. The scenes are laid at Malabon, where the Second Oregon fought so desperately. It is a pathetic story written especially for Miss Lamar. Two of the highest priced acts in the business are known as "Silly Kid" acts. Manager Shields presents an act of this character in "Willie Smith," who has played Keiths and all the big circuits. Mile. Elliott makes her first appearance in vocal selections in which she will introduce the Japanese love songs. The polyscope, always one of the best numbers, promises a new reel of pictures funnier and better than ever, and Joseph Thompson has two new illustrated songs on tap. Dalton & Lewis, who made such a pronounced hit the past week, are retained, and will appear in a new dancing sketch. Two new acts will be introduced tonight. New balcony seats have been added.

Webfoot Camp W. O. W.

The largest camp in Oregon, having about 1800 members on its roll, with a constantly increasing membership, will give an excursion to the Columbia on Sunday, July 27. The steamer Harvest Queen and barge Kluckit will leave Ash-street dock at 8 o'clock a. m. promptly, returning about 7:30 p. m. Two or three hours will be spent on one of the most picturesque spots on the Columbia, where luncheon can be enjoyed under shady trees. Games, sports and dancing will be features of the day's enjoyment. The standing of this camp is a sufficient guarantee for the respectability of the excursion. Every effort is being made by the members to keep this excursion up to the usual standard of the order, thereby insuring the success of the day, the pleasure of the participants and the maintenance of good order. Tickets are at prices within the reach of all—Men, 75 cents; ladies, 50c, and children over 15 years, 25 cents, are for sale at F. Woodcock's 221 Third street; Schiller's Cigar Store, Fourth and Washington, and will be on sale at dock. A first-class orchestra has been engaged for dancing. Refreshments at moderate prices can be obtained.

TWO WEDDINGS.

Last Wednesday Benjamin Treakman and May Elizabeth Shofner were married at the residence of Capt. Shofner, of Portland Heights. Dr. Alexander Blackburn officiated in the presence of a company of relatives and special friends. The young couple are well known and popular in the city. They went up into British Columbia for a trip. William H. Stephens and Eva May Inglerock were married at the residence of Dr. Blackburn on Wednesday evening, July 18. They will reside in the city.

NEW MINING COMPANY.

The Mt. Fairly Mining Company have just filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $50,000. The company is to engage in quartz and placer mining in the Mt. St. Helens District. Messrs. Theo. Bergman, Chas. J. Schnabel, Carl Ziegler, Charles Dantram and U. Zeitfuchs are the incorporators.

FAIR SITE Will Not Be Chosen Until Next Thursday. Committees Appointed to Report on the Location.

The question of a site for the 1905 Fair was not determined on last night as was expected. The directors of the Lewis and Clark Fair met but the introduction of the foot of Willamette Heights as a possible site seemed to disturb their thoughts. Finally, after much discussion and passing of opinions, Directors Wessinger, Mills and Dresser were appointed a special committee to solve the problem of transportation to the City Park and report on the advisability of the foot of Willamette Heights as a site by the next meeting, which will be held Thursday evening, July 24, at 7 o'clock. Seven of the directors were out yesterday accompanied by Col. H. E. Dorsch, looking over the ground at the foot of Willamette Heights. It seems to have made a good impression on them, as the ground is level and much revenue can be derived of concessions for gondolas to sail over the lake which is there. However, the directors wish to be thoroughly posted on all possible sites and so have appointed the committee to report on them.

A NEW LINER

(Journal Special Service.) LIVERPOOL, July 19.—The new twin-screw steamship Hanoverian of the Leyland line, sailed for Boston today on her maiden voyage. The new ship is one of the finest of the transatlantic fleet. Her tonnage is about 14,000 tons; length, 601 feet; breadth, 69 1/2 feet, and she has a capacity for nearly 250 first-class passengers. No other class of passengers is carried, and this gives the largest amount of deck space which is possible for an ocean steamship. There are nine water-tight bulkheads of steel, and the ship is built to Lloyd's highest class, having a cellular double bottom and bilge keels.

HEAVY CLOVER YIELD.

Sheriff W. A. Storey, who spent yesterday in the Troutdale country, says he never saw such a heavy growth of clover hay in that section before. The farmers are mowing now, and many of the farms visited show that the crop will yield three tons to the acre. The Sheriff, who formerly owned 56 head of horses, has made trips all over the county in years past buying hay, and is an authority on the subject. The large yield this year is caused partly by the unusual frequency of late rains. The ground is kept moist, and the vegetation has grown wonderfully fast and luxuriously. Grain is looking fine, and the prospects of the farmer all around this year are exceedingly bright. The high wind of last week did considerable damage to fruit trees in localities most exposed.

Beauty of the Columbia.

"Up the Columbia," is the title of a newly-issued brochure describing the beauties of the river trip between this city and The Dalles. It shows all the points of interest along the river by accurate, well colored pictures, taken by A. E. Fitzgerald, J. F. Ford, O. M. Ash, H. M. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Alsworth, W. H. Walker, Ben. J. A. Gifford, L. C. Henriksen, M. Weisler, T. J. Behr and Lily A. White. The book is the work of the White Collar Line.

Mount Tabor this evening and tomorrow; miniature railway; band concert. Cars from Third and Yamhill street every five minutes.

WAS WORKED BY SWINDLERS

J. G. Collins, of Norfolk, Neb., while on his way to New Whatcom, Wash., was swindled out of $50 on the train on the way out of Pendleton, Or., Thursday morning. Two men worked the game. They were both men weighing about 200 pounds each, and one had a black moustache and the other a red one. The means of operating was this: One of the men sat down in the car seat with Collins and managed to get acquainted. He then told him that he had a stock of goods, but could not get it shipped without paying the freight. He showed Collins a check drawn on the Commercial National Bank of Ogden, Utah. It was for $100 and was drawn to the order of A. J. Adams, by one William Brush, and was dated June 1. The man said he would put up the check for security if Mr. Collins would only be so kind as to loan him $50 to get his stock of goods on their way. Mr. Collins was willing, and let his $50 go to the stranger. His confederate played the part of the man who wouldn't let the goods go without paying the freight. After getting the money, the two smooth ones got off the train and skipped.

Collins felt that all might not be right, and told the conductor. He gave him the check, and the latter turned it over to a Deputy United States Marshal who was on board, and in this way the check reached Portland.

AT AN END

Chautauqua Closes Today at Gladstone Park.

Today is the last day of the Chautauqua session at Gladstone Park. The usual time between 8 and 11 o'clock this morning was devoted to classes, after which the Chemawa Indian Training school took charge of the program and showed the real benefits of the school. This afternoon at 1:30 there was the usual band concert, after which the Cellarian quartet of Willamette University rendered some vocal selections. The quartet consists of Blanche Lewis, first soprano; Kathleen Jones, second soprano; Lella Cavanaugh, first alto; Elma Byrnes, second alto. Following the quartet, Col. John Sobieski will deliver another of his popular lectures. The exhibition game of baseball between Chemawa and Oregon City promises to be one of the main features of the day. While the game is going on, there will be the annual stockholders' meeting in the Auditorium, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year. This evening a fine musical and literary program will be rendered, consisting of a band concert, reading by Miss Minnie Hambl of "The Bugle Song" and "The Tunes of the Bells"; "The Daisy Chain," Mrs. Albert Sheldon (soprano), Mrs. Walter Reed (contralto), William Belcher (baritone), Don Zan (bass), Edgar Courson (accompanist).

PREPARING FOR ELKS' CARNIVAL

At the Elks' carnival committee's last meeting the reports of the sub-committees showed that this year's carnival will be a record-breaker. John Lamont, chairman of the illumination committee is having some fantastic designs made in the way of lights. General Summers is arranging a fine parade on Elks' Day, which will be replete with unique features. D. Solis Cohen, chairman of the building and grounds committee was busy yesterday examining designs of arches, buildings and booths and having a diagram of North Seventh street prepared. Chief of Police McLaughlin, Fire Chief Campbell and Sheriff W. A. Storey were appointed a committee on public safety. The next meeting will be held at headquarters on Monday night. General Manager Rowe is very proud of his headquarters, which are situated on the northeast corner of Seventh and Stark streets. Here are to be seen typewriters busy attending to correspondence. The telephone number on either phone is 624, and Manager Rowe desires all Elks wishing information to either call him up by phone or visit him.

THE WEATHER.

Showers and thunderstorms have occurred quite generally during the last 24 hours in the Middle West. The heaviest rainfalls are reported at Denver and Chicago. Temperatures in the North Pacific states are from 5 degrees to 10 degrees above the normal and yesterday afternoon in the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon the temperatures ranged between 52 degrees and 56 degrees. The indications are for continued warm weather Sunday, east of the Cascade Mountains, but in the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon it will be cooler, with partly cloudy, unsettled weather.

NEW UNIONS.

G. Y. Harry, president of the State Federation of Labor, returned last night from The Dalles, where he had the honor of establishing the first labor union ever organized in that city. The Dalles was the largest town on the Coast not having a labor union. During his stay there he organized a Federal Labor and Carpenters' union. Within 30 days Mr. Harry says that these will be followed by six or eight other unions. The organization of painters, sheet-metal workers and blacksmiths is now under way. He reported that all the trades were anxious to organize, and that his meetings were well attended.

Home-seekers' Rates Postponed

Unless all signs fail, the rush of settlers for Oregon this fall will exceed even the extraordinary wave of immigration that prevailed during the home-seekers' rates recently withdrawn. During September and October these will be re-established. They will apply from the Missouri River and St. Paul to the Pacific Coast. The Union Pacific and O. R. & N. Company has made a rate of $22.50 from Omaha to Spokane, and of $25 to the Coast. The latter will apply to all points on the Southern Pacific north of California. The purpose is to follow up the work of the immigration agents of the Harriman line. Other transcontinental lines will unquestionably meet these rates.

G. C. ROWLEY INSANE.

A few days ago G. C. Rowley was arrested for insanity and detained for a time at the city jail. Becoming calmer, Chief McLaughlin allowed the prisoner to depart in the custody of his sister, who promised to care for him. Again yesterday Rowley grew worse and became very violent. He was taken to the County Jail, where his sanity will be inquired into immediately. He will probably be sent to the asylum.

SUIT ON NOTE.

Sophia Donner has filed suit in the State Circuit Court to recover on a $400 promissory note, made by John Watrin to H. M. Ockley. The note is secured by mortgage on two lots in Sunnyvale.

FEDERATED TRADES Labor Leaders Deliver Short Addresses at the Council.

The Federated Trades Council meeting was attended last night by Thomas L. Kidd, James Duncan and John B. Tennon, the distinguished labor leaders from the East. They were much interested in the proceedings and took a prominent part in the questions which came up for discussion. The business transacted was in the ordinary routine line. The Albina meat market and the Fulton meat market, the latter on the corner of Third and Yamhill streets, were placed on the unfair list. Mr. Tennon held the attention of the audience for a few minutes by touching upon labor conditions generally throughout the United States. He stated that he found the situation to be splendid, when everything is taken into consideration, but that there are many things to be remedied if labor wishes to continue its progressive policy. Mr. Duncan made a speech in which he strongly advocated the settlement of all disputes between capital and labor by arbitration. He expressed it as his wish that all difficulties in Portland could be amicably settled and that harmony would reign. He paid a tribute to the West, and dwelt upon the many opportunities which awaited the young man here.

MURPHY WILL FILED.

Louis, George, Emory and Cheadle, administrators of the estate of Richard Cheadle, deceased, here filed their bonds of $40,000 with the County Court. The will of Cornelius Murphy, deceased, was admitted to probate today. The estate, consisting of a 180-acre claim in Pacific County, Washington, six miles from South Bend, two lots in Seattle, and one lot in Los Angeles, Cal., and a stock of cigars and store fixtures in this city, is devised to the widow, Johanna Murphy, and sons John, Michael, Timothy, and William, and Annie Murphy, a daughter, all of New York. Archbishop Alexander Christie and John Harris are named as executors.
