

LOCAL and PERSONAL NEWS

In Jacksonville—Scotty Nunn was in Jacksonville Monday on business.

Ill at Home—Mrs. H. Hulbert is quite ill at her home here. Dr. Sweeney has been in attendance.

Go to Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kassafher danced at Eagle Point Christmas eve.

Brother and Wife Visit—Walter Burdell's brother and wife are visiting here for a few days from Bend.

Attend Union Meeting—Ed Bell and Joe Walker attended special union meeting in Medford Sunday.

Home Ill—Mrs. Tom Lawhead, who has been employed at Amy's place, has been home ill for the past week.

Visits Parents—David Winningham of Klamath Falls is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Winningham.

Home for Vacation—Robert Lous, from O. S. C., is spending a few days at home with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lous.

Portland Teacher Visiting—Miss Gene Lytle, Portland teacher, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Lytle.

Have Guests—Mr. and Mrs. George Wendt had as their guests Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Arthur West and children.

Visit from Bend—Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Poff spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cantrall while enroute to Portland.

Leave for Portland—Mr. S. H. Jones and Malcolm left for Portland last week to join Mrs. Jones. They are expected back new years.

Buys Marble Corner—Tom Reed of this city, but lately of Los Angeles, has bought the Marble Corner and will take possession January 1.

Celebrate New Years—New Years eve will be celebrated by a carnival dance at the U. S. hall. Ike Porter and his band will furnish the music.

Christmas Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Olin Knox of Yamhill were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knox and Olin's sister, Mrs. Peter Fick, here.

ALL KINDS OF CANDY AND LIGHT GROCERIES

KIRKPATRICK CONFECTIONERY
We Specialize in a Variety of Cigars and Tobaccos

New Year Greetings

from

JACKSONVILLE ANTIQUE SHOP

Antiques and Second Hand Goods

OPEN EVENINGS

Now on California Street

SEND IN YOUR NEWS

The Jacksonville Miner will welcome any news notes from any of our readers. If you know of some incident you think might be of interest, if you can offer any news of any description, or if you are giving some social function or entertainment let us in on it. We'll appreciate your help and be glad to print it.

Just mail your copy in to The Miner, post office box 138, or drop into The Nugget confectionery, our headquarters, and leave it with Mr. Wilson. Or you may phone your story in by calling 162.

Dine in Gold Hill—Louis Puhl and family and grandmother, Mrs. Colter, dined with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Puhl, at Gold Hill Christmas.

U. of W. Student Here—Virginia Fick is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fick. She will soon return to the University of Washington at Seattle.

Visiting Parents—Florence Severance is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Severance, through the holidays. She will return to O. S. C. Sunday.

Much Rain—With the weather man still galloping down the valley spilling snow and water it looks as though there will be water to lend Medford during the hot, dry summer.

Discharged from Hospital—Bill Hackett was discharged from a Medford hospital Saturday. Although a resident of the Applegate section, Mr. Hackett is staying with Jacksonville friends.

Arrive from Falls—Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ogle and sons John and Junior and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch and children of Klamath Falls arrived in our city Thursday to enjoy a delicious Christmas dinner.

Local Resident Ill—Mr. W. F. Wooltan, local resident, was taken to the Jacksonville sanitarium Monday for treatment. He was quite ill when received but is reported as steadily improving.

Visit Brother and Sister—Mrs. Pauline Bailey and Mrs. Daisy Miller of Portland are visiting their sister and brother, Miss Mary Wetterer and Joe Wetterer. This is their first visit to Jacksonville in 19 years.

Returns from Hospital—R. J. Finney's little boy has returned from the Shriners hospital at Portland where he was operated on and is reported in an improved condition and we all hope for a complete recovery for him.

Catch Three Fish—V. J. Beach and Frank and Jeff Clogston spent Wednesday fishing in Rogue river. The trio returned with three large silversides, each approximately two feet long. Sea food is reported on the menu for Thursday.

Amy's Place extends the season's greetings to its many friends and sincerely thanks them for their liberal patronage. During the coming year Amy will endeavor to maintain the same cordial relations but circumstances make it absolutely necessary to drastically curtail the credit hitherto granted.

Visitors Give Surprise—Miss Mary Wetterer and brother Joseph were agreeably surprised Sunday evening when their sisters, Mrs. Pauline Bailey and Mrs. Daisy Miller of Portland, arrived in our city to be guests of Mary and Joe and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Lytle and daughter Regina.

Group Visits Here—Mrs. Nanna Cantrall and daughter, Miss Cordelia, motored from Klamath Falls Saturday and were guests of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cantrall of Medford, and also her sisters, Mrs. John Orth and Mrs. A. H. Miller of that city, and accompanied

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cantrall and Mrs. L. F. Slaven to our city as guests of Grandma Cantrall and Amy C. Dow.

Former Resident Dies—Paul Ensele, formerly of this city, died at Palo Alto, Cal. He was a war veteran and made his residence at Palo Alto for the past 12 years. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ensele, four brothers and seven sisters. Interment was in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Mother and Daughter Well—Mrs. C. E. Ogle and daughter born December 19 have left the hospital and returned to their home in Medford. Mrs. Ogle will be remembered here as Miss Gladys Mandaville. She was employed at the local county superintendent's office.

Entertains with Luncheon—Miss Florence Severance entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Thursday of this week. Invited guests were Laura and Barbara Drury, Justine and Peggy Miller, Dor-Brommer, Harriet Campbell, Flora Mc-Math, Melva Parrett and Winifred Warner, all of Medford.

Read the Ads—Mention The Miner when you trade with these merchants.

APPLEGATE NEWS WANTED

The Jacksonville Miner is casting about for a correspondent to help it garner news from over the ridge. We want to give complete coverage in the Applegate country in news as well as circulation and your assistance would be appreciated no end.

We'll be mighty glad to send you enough copy paper to cover that bare room if you'll promise to let us have a few items now and then. Our address is post office box 138, Jacksonville, if you're interested.

Men's and Ladies' SHOE REPAIRING

in the Modern Way
A FULL LINE OF SHOE FINDINGS

JOHNSON'S SHOE REPAIR SHOP

FRED L. JOHNSON, Proprietor
We Give S. & H. Green Stamps
135 West Main Medford

O. M. KNOX SERVICE STATION

GASOLINE—OIL—GREASING

On Jacksonville Highway

THE JACKSONVILLE PHARMACY

WISHES YOU A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

WE WISH EVERYONE A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

JACKSONVILLE CASH STORE

Starting January First
Strictly Cash

Dunnington's Garage

ALL KINDS OF AUTOMOTIVE REPAIRING
BATTERY RECHARGING — GAS
OILS—GOODYEAR TIRES

Agency for

FORDSON TRACTORS AND PARTS