- Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon of Perrydale spent Thursday afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cady at the Summit service station. The Dixon and Cady families were friends and neighbors when all lived in Moscow, Idaho.
- Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stinson and son Roy and daughter Lydia Jean of Medford visited at the home of Mrs. Stinson's sister, Mrs. Fred Copple, Sunday. Roy, one of Medford's paper carriers, seemed very optimistic in the face of a "lay-off." However, the crash in his business was not serious, it being just for the week-end.

Miss Evelyn Applegate, of San Francisco, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. C. C. Chitwood of this city, and Mrs. C. W. Miller of Williams Creek. Miss Applegate drove here from the south in the remarkable time of 12 hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lewis and two sons of this city, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis' sister, Miss Alice Morgan, who is visiting them, spent the week-end at Squaw lake. The two boys expect to remain at the lake a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pulliam and Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Reynolds of Little Applegate took a fishing trip to Glade Fork over the week-end. It is said they were rewarded with fish while in camp, but that they failed to get home with any.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moulton, residents of Star Gulch for a few months, have left the community for the present. During the absence of Moulton, who is engaged in mining on Salmon river, northern California, Mrs. Moulton is remaining in Medford.

Since fire a short time ago deprived them of their home at Ranier, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Val Haskins have returned to southern Oregon to remain indefinitely. At the present they are visiting Mr. Haskins' brother, Bill Haskins, on Big Applegate.

Coming to the Applegate to visit old neighbors of their Colorado home, Mr. and Mrs. Ben O'Kelly arrived Sunday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Weslie Ritchie on upper Applegate. They also visited in Grants Pass and Rogue River, as well as California.

Ten of the Applegate Grangers attended an all day Pomona meeting at Phoenix Saturday. As the local organization's part of the program, Mrs. Frank Knutzen and Mrs. Jack O'Brien sang "The Little Brown Church in the Valley," and "Polly Wolly Doodle."

Henry Fleming, employed in the California fruit industry for a number of years, is spending a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fleming of this city. Previous to his journey here, he had been employed in Phoenix, Ariz., for a short period.

Mr. and Mrs. John Orth of Medford, accompanied by Mr. Orth's sisters, Mrs. James Cotchett of Australia and Mrs. Josephine Pelton of Fort Klamath, visited Sunday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher and Mrs. Maggie Buckley on Applegate.

Tom Brown, the star of "Brown of Culver," will be at the Holly again in "Fast Companions" Tuesday and Wednesday.

Clark Barr was arraigned in Judge Glenn O. Taylors court in Medford early this week on a charge of wantonly killing an animal. Bail was fixed at $1000 and examination set for July 27. Barr is charged with shooting a cow belonging to Fred Dorn of Applegate.

Receiving a message to make a hurried trip to Portland in connection with the lawsuit resulting from an auto accident over a year ago, Miss Golda Boone and sister, Mrs. Martha Mitchell, made the trip by plane one day this week, arriving in one hour and 20 minutes.

Mrs. J. M. Bowles of Long Beach, accompanied by Mrs. Ellis Kincaid of Grants Pass, visited her niece, Mrs. Lance Offenbacher Friday. Mrs. Bowles also is an aunt of Mrs. Kincaid. She returned to Grants Pass and will visit Mrs. Lester Layton and Ira Sparlin on Williams creek.

E. I. Applegate, who is doing botanical work for Stanford university, and a brother, Fred Applegate, both of Klamath Falls, were in Jacksonville Tuesday for a short visit with their sister, Mrs. C. C. Chitwood. The two left Wednesday for Lakeview, Alturas and points in northern Nevada.

Jack Hulse of Big Applegate received a letter recently telling of the death of his father, A. V. Hulse, 88, which occurred at the soldiers' home at Ardmore, Oklahoma, on July 16. Mr. Hulse was a Confederate soldier in the Civil war, and had lived in Oklahoma since the close of the war. He was buried in the Confederate soldiers' cemetery.

"Doc" Robinson, as the well known and beloved pioneer of the days that wuz in Jacksonville, left Wednesday for Portland for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Pearl Snow. Although "Doc" had difficulty in locating his cane in the local drug-store, which years ago he founded, his train also was late, the two no doubt having an affinity, or previous arrangement.

Rev. Ervin DuPrey of the First Day Adventist church at Medford will conduct services at the Beaver creek Sunday school on July 31. A very interesting song service and sermon were given by Rev. M. La Dieu from the same church at Beaver creek last Sunday. He was accompanied here by his daughter, Miss Franceline La Dieu, of the Medford Daily News. This minister will return on the second Sunday in September for a series of meetings.

Guests at the home of Mrs. A. Throckmorton Sunday included Mrs. Eva Bostwick of Medford, Will Bostwick of Valley View and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bostwick of Fairfield, Calif., who had come north on a short vacation. Mrs. Throckmorton also had as an overnight guest recently her grandson, Dale Throckmorton of Eagle Point. Dale, having three nights allotted to him to spend on the Applegate, divided his time among his folks here.

That so far they like the new life in southern California is the word sent back by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pittick of Applegate, who landed at their destination during the latter part of June. The family, who had resided on the Applegate for several years, are making their home at La Mesa, located in the midst of the olive, lemon and orange country. Although Mr. Pittick had been in the southern locality for some time, the remainder of the family is experiencing the thrill of a new adventure.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cantrall of Los Angeles arrived Saturday in this city and are visiting the former's father, James Cantrall. Cantrall, who has not been home in many years, finds added pleasure in talking to old friends, and even recalling his childhood days on the Little Applegate when he "got a spanking." The couple is making an extended visit here and may travel on north later. Tuesday evening they accompanied their parents and Mrs. Elizabeth Cronemiller of this city to the Applegate, where they visited friends.
