

PERSONAL NEWS NOTES
Both from Jacksonville and Over the Hill

Mrs. Anna Ruch was among Medford visitors a few evenings ago. ***

Mr. Burt of Ashland was a dinner guest Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Throckmorton. ***

Henry Demmer, who has been mining on Jacksonville hill for some time, went to Eugene Saturday. ***

Frank Cople of Gozelle arrived in the Applegate community recently, and will spend some time with relatives here. ***

Lawrence Sellers of Elk Creek spent the week-end as a guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Hughes, at Ruch. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon of Perrydale visited Mr. and Mrs. Cady at the Summit service station Sunday afternoon. ***

Mrs. Ralph Smith is spending this week in Medford, where she is assisting her husband, who is cooking at the Rex cafe. ***

Visitors at the home of Fred Straube Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newbury and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Glass of Ross Lane. ***

I. D. Turner and Mr. Nichols of Palo Cedro, Cal., motored to the Applegate this week, where they purchased over 50 head of beef steers. ***

Robert McClanahan and Mrs. M. King of Medford were out in the Applegate country rounding up votes for their favorite candidates Sunday. ***

Otto, Henry and John Heckert and Henry Niedermeyer took a fling at buck hunting Wednesday of this week, but returned empty handed. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cantrall, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilson and H. H. Farley journeyed to Yreka Saturday to participate in the celebration there. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Anderson and Mrs. Weslie Ritchey of upper Applegate attended Yreka's jubilee during the week end. H. H. Farley also attended. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furbush of Kellogg, Idaho, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilson while enroute to their new home in Sacramento. ***

Afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Packham, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels, all of Applegate. ***

Mrs. R. N. Atherton of Amarillo, Texas, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Andre and her sister, Mrs. A. V. Wyatt and aunt, Mrs. R. M. Sutton, for the past month. ***

Miss Babe Demmer and her sister, Mrs. Carl Offerman, both of Portland, arrived Tuesday for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Sophia Demmer, and other friends and relatives. ***

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson and Mr. De Thorn and son Melvin, who had been camped on Big Applegate for some time, left Tuesday for California. They expected to stay for a few weeks in Sacramento before continuing to their homes in Los Angeles. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Dixon of Medford were guests of Miss Mollie Ray Sunday. It will be remembered that Mrs. Dixon taught at the Ruch school a number of years ago, having been known then as Helen Waite. ***

Robert Pulliam of Little Applegate received a visit recently from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Pulliam of Olympia, Wash., and his brothers, Robert and Myron, and the later's wife, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Pulliam are from Camas. ***

One item of interest with which a reporter came in contact on the usual rounds is the fact that Charles Hamilton is electioneering for Roosevelt. No doubt Frank will number Ruch on his list when he starts in dishing out prosperity. ***

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilson entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son, V. T. Wilson of Medford, and also their daughter, Mrs. Arthur West of Oak Grove, whose birthday anniversary occurred last week. ***

Herb Owen and Sam Darby of Denver visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos McKee last week. The two men will spend some time around the Applegate, where they are interested in mining. Mr. Brown lived on the Big Applegate over 20 years ago. ***

G. W. Godward, Dave Dorn and Ray Wilson appointed by the city council to form the local budget committee, will function at the next regular council meeting the first Tuesday in November, and will prepare the figures and estimates and recommend tax rate for 1933 at that time. ***

Several friends spent Tuesday evening as guests of Miss Frances Port, who celebrated her twelfth birthday anniversary at that time. Those enjoying the occasion besides the hostess and her parents were Misses Mary Herbert, Jeanette Gore, Gladys Byrne and Leah McKee; Morris Byrne, Clifton Childers, Charles DeArmond and Lee Port Jr. ***

Two teachers in the Beaver creek Sunday school have been replaced. The vacancy left in the boys' and girls' class by Mrs. W. A. Childers, who moved from the community, will be filled by Miss Jeanette Gore. Mrs. Floyd McKee has been chosen as a substitute for Mrs. Fred Straube, who has been unable to continue with the primary class on account of illness. ***

Applegate community is being well represented in the news digest of the day, considering that three news hounds in the name of the two Medford dailies and The Miner are constantly on the track of everybody and his doings. Mrs. Floyd McKee is the new correspondent of the Daily News, that paper having been without a representative in the community for over a year. ***

Jimmy Guin and Theron Applebaker, Jacksonville's bad men, lacked an opportunity to display their dangerous gunmanship while out hunting deer this week, and returned with smoking feet instead of gun barrels. "Deer, heem wan smart critter," spake Guin, as he bit off a huge chunk of terbaccy. "Yah, heem too dam' clever or me an my pardner here ketchum," volunteered Applebaker, as he sunk his teeth into an eskimo pie. ***

The first fall project meeting for the Applegate home extension unit will be held Tuesday, October 18, when Mrs. Mabel Mack will give a clothing demonstration at Applegate school house. The unit, which is preparing to give a Washington Bicentennial program in the near future, is having the first practice this week. Pupils of the Applegate school will be given a part in the program, of which Mrs. John Pernoll is chairman. ***

Three wedding anniversaries and three birthday anniversaries, all occurring in the month of October, were the inspiration for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Offenbacher Friday. Sixteen guests enjoyed an evening of games and cards, with an 8 o'clock supper as the initial feature. The seventh, eighth and ninth wedding anniversaries, respectively, were celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Offenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Brien. Those whose birthdays were honored on the occasion were Mrs. Lance Offenbacher, Gene Mee and Leon Offenbacher. ***

According to a statement issued by Fire Chief Ray Wilson this week, residents should have all flues cleaned and inspected before cold weather sets in for their own protection, as a large percentage of dwelling fires originate from this cause. It was pointed out that the fire company has been busy all summer repairing the fire hall, installing new equipment and preparing for winter conditions. Preston Card, Don Forbes and Harold Reed were accepted as new members of the volunteer fire department at a meeting held this week, Wilson announced. He also added that all children should be instructed to turn in alarms whenever suspicious smoke is observed. Two new smoke masks were ordered this week, to facilitate work in fires similar to the one which partially destroyed the S. E. Dunnington home. ***
