

PERSONAL NEWS NOTES
Both from Jacksonville and Over the Hill

Today's best smill: A Tribune headline writer's pencil and card.

Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Block of Phoenix visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jordan on lower Applegate Sunday.

Glenn McDaniel of Yakima is spending several days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDaniel.

Mrs. Lester Layton and son Carl of Grants Pass were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Larsen and son Garret of Butte Falls visited at the home of Mrs. Fred Benedict recently.

Punk Dunnington and Menno Schmidt were looking after spuds on Punk's ranch at Tule Lake over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Souell and daughter of Grants Pass visited friends on Big Applegate during the last week.

I. E. and Neil Foy of Medford spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elmore on Thompson creek.

Mrs. Maggie Buckley has been ill at her home during the last week with intestinal flu. She is improving at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Green of Medford visited at the Frank Knutzen home Sunday. Mr. Green is salesman for the Home Comfort stoves.

Harland Clark, who had been working the past several weeks at the Star ranger guard station, returned Monday morning of this week.

John Cantrall, who had been stationed the past season at Huckleberry mountain ranger station, returned to this city this week to stay with relatives.

Sam Reynolds, former marshal here, was in town this week from his new abode at Buncom, and was seen cruising up and down the city speedway—California street.

W. A. Childers and son Clifton and Louis Straube enjoyed a day's pheasant hunting in the Willow Springs country Saturday. Their efforts were rewarded with several birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mee of Medford spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives on the Applegate. Mr. Mee was engaged in a hunting expedition.

Board members from Applegate schools who attended the school officials' meeting in Medford Thursday included Fred West, Mrs. J. R. Hoffman, Mrs. Floyd McKee, Mrs. Bert Harr and Mrs. Ervin Lewis.

Mrs. A. N. Krause of Applegate and her sister, Miss Enid Funk of Medford have returned from Portland, where they spent a week visiting their father, George Funk.

Mrs. Harlan Cantrall had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrall and two children of Medford and Mrs. Roy Smith and Miss Mary Hurst of Jacksonville.

A. Petard Jr., who has been seriously ill, is well on the road to recovery and will soon reenter school. Dr. J. C. Hays was the attending physician.

Having spent the last six weeks in Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Bell have returned to their farm near Ruch on the Jacksonville highway.

Mrs. George Buckley is recovering from injuries sustained when she fell from a ladder in a barn a few days ago. It is believed that two ribs might have been broken.

About 40 friends and neighbors were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Collings on upper Applegate Saturday evening. Dancing occupied the hours until 2 p. m.

Mrs. Anna Jennings, nurse of Medford, has taken over the Jacksonville sanitarium. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schamock, former operators, stated that Dr. Harold B. Gillis would maintain offices and hours in the institution as in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed entertained with a china pheasant dinner Friday. Following the feast all attended a Medford theater. The following guests were present:

Mrs. L. J. Combest, Wayne, Fred Combest, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schmidt and the hosts.

Jesse Colemand and Esther Rowland, of Little Applegate, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Osborne here Friday night, October 14. Ray Coleman, brother of the groom, officiated. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Medford.

Earl Fehl, county judge candidate, delivered a political speech at the Ruch school house Friday evening. A fair attendance was reported, and although not all agreed with many points of Fehl's talk, the speech was described as "very good."

After attending teachers' institute at Medford Mrs. Ethel Ludwig of the Applegate school, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Austed of Ashland, spent the following week-end in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Austed also spent the earlier part of the week here with her daughter.

Harry Brown sustained minor cuts and bruises when a car in which he was riding with his brothers Hugh and George crashed into a tree on the Carbury road a few days ago. Mr. Brown was thrown through the windshield, although the other two occupants of the car were uninjured. The car was somewhat damaged.

It is thought by many Jacksonville and Applegate people that one Medford daily's wish has been father of several stories of the Gates landslide which seems to be gaining everywhere in the county except where the readers of the paper live and know the true situation.

Mrs. O. C. Dorothy, who had been confined for several weeks to her bed, has been able to get up and about in a limited manner recently, but is still hampered with rheumatic pains. A daughter, Mrs. Geneva Davies, returned Wednesday of this week from Eugene, where her husband is attending forestry school, to care for her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reeves of Little Applegate have moved to Williams creek on the location of the Watt mine, seven miles above Provolt store. Len Earhart of Klamath Falls also has moved to the mine, on which the two men have taken a five-year lease.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brush of Canby, Oregon, and John Elkin of Seattle expected to leave for their home Wednesday, having spent several days visiting Mrs. Brush's sister, Mrs. Fred Offenbacher. Mrs. Runke of Medford also was a guest of Mrs. Offenbacher Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Overbeck, a former Jacksonville and sister of Herbert Hanna, city attorney, now living in San Francisco, sent in her subscription this week for The Miner. Mrs. Overbeck, according to her note, had been born in this city and still considers it her "home town."

Louie Larsen of Grass Valley, Calif., formerly of Ruch, visited at the homes of Charles Ramilton and Miles Cantrall Saturday. Mr. Larsen, who also visited other old friends and acquaintances, was accompanied here by his bride, his marriage having occurred a month ago. Mr. Larsen is operating a service station in his home town in California.

Miss Madge Barshaw, student at the local high school last year, expected to leave Monday for Oklahoma City, Okla., where she will enter high school after holidays. She was to accompany her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, who are returning to their home in Oklahoma after spending some time visiting at the Barshaw home on Applegate.

The greatest reward a country editor receives from running a home town newspaper was demonstrated in the following message, written on a card by Mrs. Laura Wheeler of San Francisco, a Miner subscriber: 'Could you please send me a last edition of The Miner as mine did not come Monday as usual and I can hardly live without it until next week.'

Six visitors from Jacksonville were present at the meeting of the Little Applegate sewing club which convened at the home of Mrs. Frank Cameron Wednesday. They included Mesdames L. Combest, Barney Cody, Harold Reed, Clinton Dunnington, Cliff Dunnington and Mrs. Smith. Twelve ladies enjoyed the afternoon of sewing. Mrs. Dora Saltmarsh will act as hostess at the next meeting in two weeks.
