

PERSONAL NEWS NOTES

Both from Jacksonville and Over the Hill

Expecting to spend the week visiting relatives at Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Crosby and daughter Ann of Big Applegate left for that city Sunday morning. Ann will spend the summer with her grandmother on a ranch near the Rose City, and Mr. and Mrs. Crosby will return to Crater lake, where Mr. Crosby will have employment as caretaker of the camp grounds. Mrs. Crosby, frequent contributor to magazines, will spend her leisure time at the lake in writing. At present she is working on a serial.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz and Mrs. Eva Bostwick of Medford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Throckmorton Sunday.

William Carl of Murphy Grange, well-known farmer politician, attended the state Grange convention at Pendleton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Fairweather of California returned to their home Monday after spending a few days visiting Applegate friends. Sunday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knutzen.

Lance Offenbacher and Lee Port, Jr., were charming hosts to a few friends at a card party at the forest service bunkhouse Friday evening. Three tables of bridge (or was it something else?) were in play until midnight, when refreshments of cake, popcorn and your choice of ice cream were served. A good time was had by all and nobody means perhaps.

Mrs. Everett Miller of Medford visited Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. James O'Brien.

Guests arriving Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne are Mr. Byrne's sister, Mrs. Harold Watson and her husband and son Bernard and her niece, Miss Florence McKee, all of San Jose, Calif. The visitors plan to visit with southern Oregon friends and relatives until after the Fourth. Relatives arriving the following day were Mrs. Emmett O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Foley of Richmond. The Foleys expected to continue to Portland soon.

Mrs. Ernest Holbrook of San Francisco is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Peachey and Bill Howard of Butte Falls visited at the home of Mr. Peachey's sister, Mrs. Lee Port, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulnah Caldwell and son and Bill Hazerman of Alturas arrived at Squaw lake Monday evening and are spending the week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orle Phillips.

Mrs. Clyde Young of Ashland and Miss Ethel Houston of Medford spent the early part of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer.

Friends are extending congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matney who returned Tuesday to the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Matney, following their wedding at Burbank, Calif., Sunday, June 18. The bride was formerly Miss Carmine Anderson of Klamath Falls and during the last year has resided with her parents at Burbank. Friends, molested with the charivari spirit, enjoyed an evening of dancing at the Matney home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Matney will remain at the home of the groom's parents for the present.

Dr. A. A. McBrien of Medford was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor on Big Applegate Sunday. Dr. McBrien, formerly of Grants Pass, is a new surgeon in Medford, having come there recently from California.

Mrs. George Stevens of lower Applegate is spending some time in Washington, where she was called on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Demmer are spending this week in Medford, where Mr. Demmer is working on a car for his brother-in-law, E. R. Pech. They were accompanied Tuesday by Thelma Martin.

A trip to Dutchman's peak was the accomplishment Sunday of Lee Port, Jr., and Maurice Byrne with the assistance of a trusty flivver bug. They motored to Chapel springs and hiked the remaining distance of a mile and one-half. Although they report snow from five to 15 feet deep along the trail, they said they walked around the snow. They estimated snowdrifts of a depth of 50 feet on the mountain peak.

Mrs. Helga Lund, well-known resident of Thompson creek, is carrying her arm in a cast, having severely maashed her elbow some time ago. Mrs. Manley Rexford of lower Applegate also sustained a broken arm in a fall recently.

Junior, 10-year-old son of C. A. Melvin, is recovering from a broken arm.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cady of the Summit service station have just received word of the safe arrival in Madison, Wis., of their son, Prof. L. C. Cady and wife and son Theodore. Prof. Cady will be on leave of absence from the University of Idaho for one year to do graduate work at the University of Michigan and complete the requirements for his doctorate degree. They drove through from Moscow, Idaho, to Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niedermeier and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nee motored to Carberry creek Monday seeking fish and sport. The creek waters were too high for either. The Nees were celebrating their seventh wedding anniversary with the outing.

D. L. Ewing and daughter Betty and Neva Weed are spending the week at the home of Betty's uncle, Harold Crump.

Napping of afternoons seems to be quite the thing among the feminine students of the upper Applegate who are home for the vacation. In fact it has become so firmly established in the day's routine that meeting social obligations of afternoons has become a real effort. However, it has been noticed that a member of the very young set was not napping when she should have been.

Misses Jean Van Dyke and Kathryn Applegate and Mrs. Kathryn Dallaire of Medford are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Fred Offenbacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Murphy and family of Oakland, Calif., visited friends in Jacksonville this week. Mrs. Murphy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller, pioneers of this city.

Frances Wakefield, who underwent an operation on her throat last Sunday, was seriously ill at her sister's home in Medford early this week. Since she is now on the road to recovery her family expects to bring her home soon.

Mrs. Moore will present her daughter, Maxine, and Mrs. Catherine Wendt in a piano and vocal recital at the Baldwin piano shop in Medford next Monday evening.

June 20 Jessie Clark attended a hope chest shower given in honor of Ruth Applegate, whose marriage will be an event of this summer.

The Hartman brothers are constructing a bridge near the head of Evans creek. They will camp there until the bridge is completed.

Monday Mrs. Norvell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Woods of Portland picnicked at Table Rock.

Mrs. Winningham and daughter Valera of Copper were visiting in Jacksonville Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Hunsaker is working in Ashland, where she hopes to be able to attend normal this summer.

Phoenix and Jacksonville Granges will meet in this city Friday, June 23. The purpose of the meeting is to initiate new members, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunsaker and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nee.

Mrs. Fred Pick's brother, Attorney Fred Williams, and his daughter Barbara arrived here from Salem June 13. Mr. Williams has returned to his home but Barbara is spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Church from Glendale, Calif., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chisholm of upper Applegate. They are now visiting Mr. William Biege of this city.

Mrs. E. S. Severance was a guest at a Masonic dinner in Ashland Tuesday.

Wednesday evening the Eastern Star lodge gave the Masons a dinner at the hall in this city.

Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Jones and son Malcolm returned from Salem Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Jones, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. A. Taylor, has returned to her home in Kellogg, Idaho.

GABLE AND HAYES COME TO CRATERIAN SUNDAY IN HIT

Co-starred for the first time in their careers, Clark Gable and Helen Hayes come to the Craterian theater Sunday in "White Sister." This is the motion picture version of the famous F. Marion Crawford romance.

Miss Hayes plays the role of an aristocratic Italian girl who turns down the suitor of her father's choice in favor of a young officer in the Italian air force, played by Gable. When notified of his death at the front, she enters a convent. The story arises to a sensational climax when the lover returns and finds the girl's religious vows an obstacle to their happiness.

Three Generations of Directors Serve Little Applegate School Dist.

The election at the annual school meeting Monday of Claus Kleinhammer as a new director in the Little Applegate school, completes a cycle in three families of three generations of directorships. The other two directors serving at the present time are Glenn Saltmarsh and Harold Crump. Their fathers, A. S. Kleinhammer, Bird Saltmarsh and Frank Crump served before them as directors for a number of years and in the late 70's their grandfathers, Claus Kleinhammer, Joe Saltmarsh and Josiah Crump served together on the Sterling school board. At Monday's meeting Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh was reelected clerk for Little Applegate. Results of the annual election in other schools of the Applegate are as follows: Thompson creek, Mrs. J. R. Hoffman was reelected clerk and Bernard Hogan accepted a new directorship.

Applegate, Mrs. John Pernoll and Jack O'Brien were reelected director and clerk.

Ruch, Gene Mee was reelected clerk and Ralph Gildea and Ray Offenbacher were elected as new directors.

Uniontown, Frank Cameron was reelected clerk and Mrs. Frank Cameron and Sid Hanson were elected new directors.

Beaver creek, Mrs. L. C. Port and Mrs. Eva McKee were reelected clerk and director.

Watkins, Mrs. Bert Harr and Mrs. Ervin Lewis were reelected clerk and director.
