

PERSONAL NEWS NOTES

Both from Jacksonville and Over the Hill

• A six-pound daughter named Dorothy Joan was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Winningham Sunday, July 2, at Jacksonville. "Just a mere baby, just so—long," a devoted uncle commented, reflecting on the relatively insignificant start that humans get in this life. In a short time the little Miss will join her daddy at Hutton guard station and will do her share in fire prevention this summer.

• Car trouble resulted in failure to reach Squaw lake Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bridges of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mismar and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMullen of Glendale. The upstater camped out for the remainder of the night, and returned to their homes the following day. Earl, young son of Mr. and Mrs. McMullen, remained on the Applegate, however, for a visit of indefinite length at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Fred Straube.

• Receiving word that economic conditions in Michigan are speedily improving, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer left a few days ago to make their home in that state. The family resided at Ruch during the winter.

• Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dutton of Sterling entertained about 150 guests at a holiday dancing party at their home Monday evening. W. O. Johnson of Little Applegate also entertained with a dance Saturday evening.

• William Fruit, prominent Ruchite, returned to his home city and vicinity for a few days vacation during the Fourth. Mr. Fruit has been on a prospecting jaunt in the upper regions of the Applegate.

• Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith entertained with a lawn dinner party over the Fourth. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redden, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Franklin and two daughters and Miss June Wallcott of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and family and Miss Carol Slater of Applegate.

• The Little Applegate Embroidery club, very active since its organization several years ago, sponsored a community picnic the Fourth, which was held in the Crump field. About 30 people were in attendance during the day, which was spent in playing cards and pitching horseshoes, following the bountiful feast at noon. In the evening a few of the picnicers repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump to complete their card games.

• Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dunnington and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dunnington and son and Billy Johnson camped out over the holidays at the sulphur springs on Yale creek.

• Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reed moved out to Whisky peak, where Mr. Reed will be employed by the government.

• Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kenney and son of Jacksonville spent the Fourth on Yale creek.

• Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Holbrook of Salt Lake City visited Mrs. Combest Wednesday. Mrs. Holbrook is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cameron.

• Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morrison of Jacksonville are the parents of a baby boy born at the Sacred Heart hospital.

• Mr. and Mrs. Arthur West and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. George Wendt of this city.

• Jacksonville Grange held a picnic upon the banks of Rogue river the afternoon of the Fourth and a dance in the local courthouse later that evening.

• Clifton Childers is visiting with his parents in this city.

• Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bachelder of Oakland spent the holidays with an aunt, Mrs. Lola Hildreth of this city.

• Mr. and Mrs. John M. Price, Miss McCully, Robert Cameron and John Sullivan drove to Crescent City the Fourth and returned to Jacksonville the following day.

• Mr. and Mrs. George Kaul of Bellingham, Wash., and Mrs. J. D. Hoffman of Aberdeen spent the latter part of the week visiting relatives in Jacksonville.

• The Ladies Aid society of the local church will hold an annual picnic in the churchyard July 29. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon and all women of the congregation are invited to attend.

• Robert Sweeney of Yreka has been visiting at the Oscar Lewis home here.

• Mrs. V. J. Beach, local school clerk, was spending the holidays with relatives in Portland.

• Mrs. Ray Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Hubert De Haas, drove to Camp Applegate Tuesday with Wallace Crank and mother of Medford.

• Vance Butler and son Ray of San Diego, Calif., were guests of Alice Hoefs Sunday in Jacksonville.

• W. J. Nee and Malcolm Jones, both of this city, attended a dinner given in honor of Prof. Herman Clark of Willamette university early this week. Following the dinner guests retired to the home of Emily Brown, where Mr. Clark delivered a lecture and answered questions.

• Mr. and Mrs. George I. Maxwell moved to Medford last Saturday.

• Miss Grace Moore of Big Applegate has had Miss Lorraine Groves of Medford as a guest during the last two weeks.

• Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Arant and family, who left Little Applegate last spring and moved to Ashland, now are residing at Eugene, where Misses Pearl and Lucille Arant will enter the university this fall. Mr. Arant will be employed at Crater lake during the summer. News of the family was brought here Wednesday by Miss Beryl Cunningham, who, with her aunt, Miss Irene Nye of Prospect, spent the day as a guest of Miss Lola Straube. The two girls were accompanied to the Applegate by Floyd Cunningham and Mr. Nye, who spent the day prospecting.

• Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Horton of Junction City returned to their home town Saturday after spending a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kubli on Gauls creek. Mrs. Kubli is a daughter of Mr. Horton.

Along the Concrete

• Mrs. O. W. Mayfield and niece, Miss Thelma Noel, of Seattle, came to the Applegate a few days ago, where they joined Mr. Mayfield, who is mining on Palmer creek. Miss Noel is an accomplished violinist, and her musical contributions at community gatherings are much appreciated.

• Durward Porter of Medford is spending the week as a guest of Bobbie Fletcher on Big Applegate.

• Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Buck had as guests over the holiday week-end Mr. and Mrs. William Heckman and family of Modoc Point, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Buck of Colusa, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Buck of Hackamore, Calif. During their visit here the group motored to Camp Applegate, where Ernest Buck, who is supervisor of the reforestation camp at Hackamore, conferred with officials.

• Mr. and Mrs. Bill Head of Klamath county spent the Fourth visiting the former's parents on lower Applegate.

• Mr. and Mrs. Lester Finley and little granddaughter, Joan Tracy, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Ella Abbott of Talent returned Tuesday to their homes, having spent the Fourth and a preceding week-end as guests of Mrs. Victor Anderson and brother, Ed Finley. Lester Anderson returned to Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Finley for a month's visit.

• Misses Mary Davies and Lottie Black, who are attending the state university in Eugene, spent the Fourth at their home on Forest creek. Harley McDonald of Eugene also was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Black during the holiday.

• Having spent two weeks visiting southern Oregon relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson and son Bernard and Miss Florence McKee, all of San Jose, and Mrs. Emmett O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Foley of Richmond expected to leave for their homes Thursday. While here the Californians visited Crater lake and Mr. and Mrs. Foley spent a short time in Portland. Miss Florence McKee and Bernard Watson also were the inspiration for a dancing party at the home of Miss Leah McKee Saturday evening, which was attended by 15 young people of the Beaver district. The earlier part of the evening was devoted to games and at the close of the evening refreshments were served.

• Miss Alice Madsen of Forest creek was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Culy, on Big Applegate.

• Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kubli entertained a number of friends and relatives with a dinner party at their home on July 4. Tables were set on the lawn under the shade trees and the afternoon was spent with cards and other amusements.

• One of the unusual events of the neighborhood over the Fourth was a barbecue on Beaver creek near the Beaver ranch in which a number of families participated. All report a glorious outing, with special stress laid on the fine quality of the meat for dinner which was barbecued by Sid Hansen.

Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Yocum of Medford, and the following from Applegate: Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hansen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyal Hards and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube and family and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMullen of Glendale, William Coffin and son Harry and D. Stafford.

• Among the many people spending the Fourth at Squaw lake were Fred Lofland and Harold Smith and Misses Vera and Wilma Hood, all of Central Point. A broken axle on their car climaxed the day's activities and the young folks were taken to their homes by friends.

• Mr. and Mrs. T. V. McDaniels of Vacaville, Calif., motored to the Applegate to spend the holiday vacation with the latter's father and brother, William and Gerald Buck. They were accompanied by their daughter and niece, who, with Mrs. McDaniels, will remain here for an extended visit.

• Miss Babe Demmer of Portland is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sophia Demmer of Jacksonville hill.

• A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. George Demmer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Demmer and Miss Babe Demmer from Jacksonville hill, attended the C. C. C. Fourth of July picnic and dance on upper Applegate while Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demmer and Miss Thelma Martin enjoyed the afternoon in Ashland.

PROVOCATIVE STORY COMES TO RIALTO IN SUNDAY SHOW

Wanted:

A man who has been faithful to his wife for 20 years, and—

A girl who has reached the age of 20 without having had a love affair.

"There are no such animals," cry the people at the treasure hunt party given by the Countess in "Christopher Strong," at the Rialto theater Sunday and Monday.

This is the provocative start of the strange romance between Christopher, who has been happy with and faithful to his wife for 20 years and the aviatrix who has been so busy breaking air records that she has never really noticed that there are men in the world.

Colin Clive plays Christopher, Katharine Hepburn is the aviatrix and Billie Burke has the role of the wife.

It's okeh by us for crooners, jazzsters, gagsters, cowboy songs—
