

PERSONAL NEWS NOTES
Both from Jacksonville and Over the Hill

● Mrs. D. M. Cleveland of Butte Falls spent the week-end in Jacksonville visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nee.

● Through the courtesy of Mr. E. E. Marsh, manager of the Holly theater, Miss Ruth Currin, commercial teacher, gave a theater party for the faculty of both the grade and high schools last Saturday evening.

● Margaret Norvell has been elected president of the Girls' league of Ashland Normal school. Her election was a pleasant surprise to her many friends here.

● Mrs. Una Inch, the rural school supervisor of Jackson county, visited the Jacksonville school Tuesday.

● Miss Doris Clark, who is employed in Medford, is spending a few days at her home here. She will return to Medford Sunday.

● Misses Maxine Vaughn and Lois Hill of Medford visited with friends in Jacksonville Tuesday.

● Ray Lewis and Margaret Norvell spent last week-end at the homes of their parents in this city.

● Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Boye and

Barbara Norvell, who have been ill with typhoid fever, are improving rapidly after several weeks of confinement.

● Mrs. George Miller and daughter, Orle, of Eagle Point spent last week-end with Mrs. Lola Hildreth. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

● Jean Robinson, who has been visiting her father in Jacksonville, returned to Portland, taking her small brother, Lewis, with her. He will attend school there.

● Walter Anderson and Lawrence Hodges have returned from San Bernardino, Calif., where they took Mr. and Mrs. Hodges and Alice Hodges, who have made their home in that city.

● Mrs. Lola Hildreth received a surprise Sunday when her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bachellor of Oakland, Calif., stopped in for a few days while en route to Portland.

● Mary Wetterer, Mrs. Paul Godward and Mrs. C. B. Dunnington went to Medford last week to visit the new Puhl baby and mother in Community hospital.

● Mr. and Mrs. John Price have moved into the residence of Mrs. Fred Lewis. Mr. Price is engineer for the Pacific States Mines, Inc.

● Mrs. O. T. Filtcroft is employed at the Jacksonville Sanitarium during the absence of Mrs. Wickham.

● Mrs. Arthur Singler of Medford spent Tuesday afternoon visiting with Miss Elizabeth Renter.

● Theron Babb of the Applegate CCC camp spent a few days in Jacksonville this week.

● Russell Combost of Bonanza visited last week with Grandmother and Wayne Combost.

● Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laughhead, Kettleman Hills, Calif., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Laughhead of this city.

● Punk Dunnington, Sam Reynolds and Joe Laughhead spent Sunday at Clifford Dunnington's ranch on Wolf gulch.

● The Eastern Star benefit dance given Friday of last week was a success both in attendance and in social enjoyment.

● Mrs. Ingrid Homes of Medford spent Sunday as a guest of Mrs. Harlan Cantrall. Mrs. Homes returned recently from an extended trip to California, where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, formerly of Jacksonville.

● Selmar Lewis and Mr. Randall of Little Applegate left last week for Klamath county, where they are employed in the potato harvest.

● Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maule and little daughter of Portland visited last week at the home of Mrs. Maul's sister, Mrs. Jack Peebler, at Ruch. They also were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube, where they visited Mr. Maul's sister, Miss Eleanor Maule.

● Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jones of Little Applegate had as week-end guests their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Arthur Sullivan and daughter Cecil of Medford.

● Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wertz, who have spent the summer at the home of their son, Vester Wertz, near Ruch, have departed for their home at Anderson, Calif., after spending a week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wertz at Climax.

● home of his brother, Roy Brown, while attending junior college. Billy Townsend of upper Applegate also has enrolled in the Medford junior high school for his sophomore year.

● Ben Moore, CCC worker, is enjoying a month's vacation with his family on Big Applegate, having earned his leisure by working overtime.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Copple motored to Murphy Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Copple.

● The first cold of the season has hit the Applegate, and is a harbinger of winter even though there is an Indian summer on. The malady is progressing admirably, although its victim is showing a good fight.

● Truman Lewis, in charge of the CCC spike camp in the head of Beaver creek during the summer, has been transferred to a camp on Ashland creek, where he has been given charge. Mr. Lewis, who left for Ashland Wednesday, recently received word that he had passed an examination taken in the spring, which places him in a position to receive a salary as foreman of road and trail construction work.

● Mrs. Vern Buck and father, W. S. Turpin, of Colusa, Calif., left Monday for their home after spending a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Buck on Little Applegate. The evergreen blackberries, for which the Applegate has been famous, were the incentive for the trip to Oregon.

● John Wilkinson and John Orth of Medford were among the hunters on Applegate Sunday, being joined on their expedition by Herman Walters of this community.

● To obtain funds for playground equipment at the Applegate school, the ladies of the district are making a quilt on which chances are being sold. Sixteen women met at the schoolhouse Tuesday and spent the day quilting. Another afternoon's work will complete the quilt, which consists of basket design blocks.

● Mrs. Alice Hamlet and brother, Lewis Carson of Murphy, accompanied by the former's nephew, Mr. Anderson, superintendent of the gas plant at Grants Pass, were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Cantrall. Mrs. Hamlet plans to leave on October 14 for Atlanta, Ga., where she will spend several months visiting her children.
