

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Applegate bridge, although the structure will not be complete for some time. All of the steel has been placed, and with a riveting machine arriving last week, the riveting gang is busy at present. Part of the crew were pouring cement for the approaches Wednesday.

Mrs. Frances Edwards and small son of upper Applegate returned to their home Monday after spending a few days as guests of Mrs. Edwards' brother, Frances Critser, at Leland.

The Nugget for magazines.

Alford Kubil of Applegate, freshman in the Jacksonville high school, was absent from classes for a few days as a result of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer motored to Yreka during the week-end, where they were overnight guests of the former's sister, Miss Ida Kleinhammer. They also motored south as far as Weed, and during their week-end jaunt were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch at Wagner creek.

Miss Lucille Reeder, teacher at the Beaver creek school, spent the week-end with her parents in Ashland.

Mrs. Ben Moore of Big Applegate, sustaining minor injuries to her back a few days ago, is spending a short time in Medford undergoing treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hackert of Jacksonville spent the week-end with relatives at Squaw lake. Several lower Applegate people, combining business and pleasure, also spent the week-end at the lake, including Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kubil, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Offenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hukill.

Mrs. Anna Cater of Medford visited recently at the home of her brother, Frank Cameron.

Brush Marines at Camp Applegate, where a German measles quarantine is being partially enforced, have been enjoying the privilege of trips to Squaw lake, Blue Ledge mine and other local points of interest.

Charles Hamilton, well known philosopher of Ruch, was a Medford visitor recently, and observed spring fashions enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Doc Stevenson of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Green of Jacksonville spent Sunday picnicking on Carbury. Although the trip was designed primarily for fishing, that sport offered no luck. The group repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor for a waffle supper in the evening, which was followed by cards, several additional friends arriving to enjoy the diversion.

Mrs. Victor Anderson, Mrs. C. C. Buck, Mrs. Ross Dickey and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher of Big Applegate were among those attending the School for Parents at the First Christian church at Medford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dickey and family spent Sunday on Reece creek as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Rein.

The Nugget for courteous service.

Jack Monroe, after a few days spent among Prospect friends, turned in the following news of that section which will interest many Miner readers: Lewis brothers' sawmill running full capacity with full crew of 35 men . . . Getz lumber company of Prospect started up a week ago, with both mill and woods employing about 30 men . . . a new mill being built by Mr. Johnson three miles below Prospect is progressing and will be in operation shortly with a crew of 30 men . . . Awful Ted Stevens, formerly of Medford, and Terrible Mike Allen were the main show last Friday night at the puff and grunt club in the Prospect gym, winner to have been matched with Horrible Chet Lewis—all are past middleweights . . . Promoter Mack Lillard has been advised . . . Mr. Kocher, insurance agent, was bothering folks up Prospect way a week ago . . . Jack Monroe of the Home grocery of Medford was seen in and around Prospect till Lew Jenkins drove up . . . the entire personnel of the Medford National bank spent a recent Sunday picnicking at the Lewis brothers' mill . . . Mr. Brush, lumber buyer from Los Angeles, spent the week-end in Prospect recently on both business and pleasure.

The Nugget for cold drinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Littell Jr. and children and Dan'l (Boone) Shuss trekked to the Charlie Terrill place on Little Butte creek where a picnic and 18 nice trout were enjoyed. Of course the Waltonians modestly admitted the fish were caught by the three (3), and Shuss admitted, under pressure, that several of the catch were of decent arm-extending length.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Biggs of Table Rock were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson of this city Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crank Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKnight and son also were Sunday guests of the Wilsons. McKnight is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Miss Thelma Martin spent Friday night in Jacksonville as guest of Mrs. Frances Rumley and while there attending the school opera, "Jack and the Beanstalk."

Emergency drugs at the Nugget.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Steffler and five children, who recently moved from California to Poor Man's creek, have left their temporary home there and moved to a new home near Butte Falls.

Alvin G. Ogden and family have moved from the Griffin creek neighborhood to the Jacksonville hill country and are now living on Poor Man's creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown of lower Applegate moved to Kerby Sunday, where they will remain for the summer. Mr. Brown and Bill Head are employed in cutting logs for Jack Deltaire.

Miss Mattie Matney of Medford is spending the week as guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grieves of Medford were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Taylor Sunday.

Stop at the Nugget.

Mrs. Mark Winningham returned to her home at Copper a few days ago, having spent the last two months with her daughter, Mrs. James Winningham, at Jacksonville, where she received medical treatment.

The Grange dance scheduled for Saturday night at the Applegate hall has been postponed, due to the death Thursday of Fremont Jordan of Thompson creek. Mr. Jordan had been thought improving from an attack of the flu, with which he had suffered the past two weeks.

SPORTS CONTESTS FEATURE OF JUNE JUBILEE, IS PLAN

A statewide tennis tournament was announced this week as one of the features of Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration in Medford, June 3 to 9. The tourney will cover four days beginning with the first day of the celebration, with handsome loving cups offered to the champions of the doubles and singles divisions.

Quite a number of entrants have already made themselves known, and more are expected from all parts of the state. A committee is now working to complete details.

Preparations are also underway for a trap-shooting contest, open to contestants from the Pacific coast at large. Numerous worthwhile prizes will be offered for this event, attracting some of the best shooters in the west. Plans are nearing completion for a fly-casting tourney during the celebration, with quite a number of entrants expected.

A golf tournament is attracting interest throughout the northwest, and will offer spirited competition for several days. Loving cups will be awarded winning teams and winners of different handicap classes. A committee has been devoting considerable time to assure the success of this outstanding feature of jubilee week.

DR. H. P. COLEMAN SEES 17TH YEAR AS ELECTRO-THERAPIST IN MEDFORD

Fourteen years work in electrotherapy in the same town, in the same building and in the same office is the record of Dr. H. P. Coleman, Medford chiropractor with offices in the Medford building.

Dr. Coleman, member of American and Oregon Chiropractic associations, possesses both Oregon and California licenses to practice his profession, while his work in food science and natural methods have made him outstanding in southern Oregon.

Dr. Coleman, as well as being this section's foremost electrotherapist, is official boxing commission chiropractor for Medford.

EDDIE HOWBROOK OFF TO ATLANTIC COAST AS SAILOR

Friends will be interested in knowing that Edward Howbrook, formerly of this vicinity, who enlisted in the navy a few months ago, expected to leave Monday with the U. S. fleet on a year's cruise to the Atlantic coast, according to a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer.

Mr. Howbrook had been stationed at San Diego, and is going on the destroyer Noa as a mechanic's mate.

WHAT, NO BEER?

Just another feminine paradox. Dorothea Weick, Paramount's newest star, who makes her first American appearance as the star of "Cradle Song," coming Sunday to the Roxy, landed in America the day beer was legalized.

One of the first things she asked for was an ice cream soda.

MEDFORD SCHOOL BEAUTY CULTURE OPENING IS SET

Announcement was made this week of the opening of the Medford School of Beauty Culture by officials of the new institution, which has opened in quarters over Dreamland dance hall in Medford, across from the Roxy theater.

The school offers courses in beauty culture, as well as beauty work for the public, it was said. First class of a dozen students already has been started, and other students are welcomed to join classes, school officials stated.
