

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riddle, who have resided at Klamath orchards on the Jacksonville-Phoenix road, where Mr. Riddle has served as foreman for several years, recently purchased a 120-acre ranch in the Bellview district above Ashland and will move there soon. Mrs. Riddle is a sister of Mrs. Hattie Logan and Mrs. Alice Ulrich of this city.

● A daughter weighing six and one-half pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Ruch Friday, June 8. The young lady arrived at Medford, and has been named Beverly Ann. Mrs. Myrtle Smith, mother of Mr. Smith, tells friends that grand-parenthood makes her feel younger.

● Charles Elmore is attending the state Grange convention at Roseburg this week as delegate from the Applegate Grange, in which he is assistant steward. Mr. Elmore accompanied a group of Jacksonville Grangers to the convention.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith have received word that their son, Everett, and his wife will arrive about July 15 from San Bernardino on their annual vacation. Mr. Smith has been employed in the state highway office at San Bernardino for several years.

● Eddie Daily of Hill motored to Applegate Sunday, where he visited friends.

● Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knutzen and daughters Margaret and Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig and two children of Applegate are off to see the world's fair and otherwise enjoy themselves until August or later. The group left by motor Monday, and after reaching Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Knutzen will continue by train to New York City to visit Mrs. Knutzen's parents and other relatives. Mr. Ludwig, employed to teach the upper grades at Applegate next term, will attend summer school in Illinois, where both will visit relatives. Ernest McVain, high school student, is employed to care for Mr. Knutzen's ranch during his absence.

● Of interest to local people is the marriage at Medford last Saturday of Miss Gail Cantrall and John Langston, both of Medford. Miss Cantrall, a graduate of the Medford high school this year, is a granddaughter of Mrs. Sarah Cantrall of this city and Mrs. Dora Saltmarsh of Applegate. The young couple are making their home at Medford.
