

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Bob Rice and Fritz Hass of Medford spent several days last week on Applegate as guests of Robert Fletcher Jr.

● Miss Lorna Kubli of Medford visited recently at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Maud Kubli, of Applegate.

● Mrs. L. C. Port had as guests recently her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachey of Ashland and her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Bish and daughters Ruth and Alice of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Peachey had just returned from a brief visit with relatives in Portland, and expect to go to San Francisco soon to visit their son, Dr. Robert Peachey.

● Art Linbeck and Jack Lee of Central Point, accompanied by three friends, are spending the week camping on Big Applegate.

● Theron Applebaker and Jimmy Gwin left Tuesday for Applegate, where they will spend a couple weeks vacationing and prospecting near the California line.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● Alex Schichtl added his name to the list of Miner subscribers previous to his jaunt to Dutchman's peak Tuesday for the summer's fire vigil. Mr. Schichtl said he wanted to know the local news while on the mountain, and even though his papers will not reach him right off the press, he says he will enjoy them just the same.

● Lee Port Jr., who has returned to Applegate after completing his freshman year at Oregon State college, has accepted employment for the summer in blister rust control work in the Prospect area. Leo Hoffman has returned from the Sacramento Junior college, George Brown from college at Glendale, Calif., and Louis Buckley from Oregon State college.

● Mrs. Harold Smith and very young daughter, Beverly Ann, returned to their home at Ruch Wednesday following a brief stay in Medford.

● Camp Applegate baseball nine defeated Talent by a score of 9-7 in a game on the Palmer creek grounds Sunday. Next Sunday the Brush Marines will play the Medford Christian Endeavor on the same diamond.

● Miss Leah McKee and Bobbie Holmes of Medford are spending two weeks at the former's home on Big Applegate. Miss McKee, who has completed her freshman year in the Medford high school, will continue employment during the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cole Holmes at Medford.

● Mrs. Martha Mitchell and sister, Mrs. Virginia Purcell and son Kenneth of Jacksonville visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Buckley. Kenneth remained at the Buckley home for a short visit.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gabriel of Salem spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bonney at Dividend Bar. Their two sons, Charles and Tom, remained here and will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Bonney.

● Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rose and young son of Hill, accompanied by Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. Fred Wolfe, and two sons from Willow Springs motored here a few days ago and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Skinner of Seattle, who mined and prospected on the Applegate in the vicinity of Ruch last year, have returned to resume that work this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wessen, also of Seattle, are prospecting on Little Applegate.

● Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schneider of Lakeside, Ore., residents of Big Applegate six years ago, were visiting friends here Tuesday. They are spending some time with relatives in the Rogue river valley, and plan to remain in southern Oregon providing Mr. Schneider can get employment. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider recently became grandparents, a son named Grant Edward having been born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cochran of Lakeside on May 29. Mrs. Cochran will be remembered as Miss Alice Schneider.

● Mrs. Rita Tester of Portland is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Smith, where she is visiting her sons, Billy and Bobby Hyde.

● William Holta of Central Point is spending several days here as a guest of an old friend, J. A. West.

● Mr. and Mrs. Giles Stivfa and children, Gertrude and Junior, of San Francisco are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walker on Big Applegate. The Californians hope to locate here.

● Miss Jeanette McKee of Klamath Falls is spending two weeks here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos McKee.

● Clayton Smith of Ruch went to Missouri Flat section a few days ago, where he is employed in a hopyard owned by George Truax.

● Climbing a tree to catch a pine squirrel proved unprofitable for Selmar Lewis, who fell from the tree and broke his arm Friday. Selmar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Lewis, fractured both bones in his right arm.

● Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feige and daughter, Miss Mabel Swett, of Grants Pass vicinity, were guests of Mrs. Feige's aunt, Mrs. Lilla Huskins, Sunday.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foote of Medford called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Throckmorton Sunday.

● Courteous service at the Nugget.

● Claus Kleinhammer was among the 30 guests present at the wedding of his cousin, Miss Venita Anderson of Medford, which occurred Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the summer home of Gus Samuels on Wagner creek. Miss Anderson was united in marriage to Edward Goodwin of Fort Jones, Calif., with Rev. W. R. Baird of the First Christian church in Medford performing the ceremony. Following the wedding luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin departed for a brief honeymoon trip, after which they will be at their home in Fort Jones, where Mr. Goodwin operates a garage. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Anderson, formerly of Applegate, is a graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal school and taught two years at the Wagner creek school.

● Misses Frances and Josephine Ginet have returned to their home on Little Applegate from their year's study at St. Mary's academy in Medford. Frances was graduated from the academy last month. Frances Port, also a graduate of the Ashland Junior high school, is spending her vacation at her home here.

● Floyd McKee, who had been undergoing treatment in the veterans' hospital at Roseburg for more than a month, visited his family here a short time ago. Mr. McKee, although very much improved in health, returned to the hospital for further treatment.

● Roland Smith, one of Applegate's industrious young farmers, is engaged in binding grain these days.

● Earl Saltmarsh, daily on the alert for digger squirrels, has added the destruction of a rattlesnake to his list of boyhood accomplishments. Earl, who is spending his vacation with relatives on Applegate, was unable to convince his folks of his brave deed until he produced the evidence.

● Bud Mitchell accompanied Mike Burdell to Buck lake Wednesday and will spend a month with Mike at the Buck Lake lookout station.

● The Nugget for magazines.

● H. J. Hodges, of San Bernardino, Calif., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. Anderson of Jacksonville, and his son, Elton Hodges of Ruch.

● Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hannah of this city left this week for Portland, where Mr. Hannah was to resume medical treatment.

● Walter and Ellis Hartley of Little Applegate, having spent a few weeks with their parents there, have returned to Klamath county, where they have employment.

● Billy Phinney, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phinney of Little Applegate, narrowly escaped drowning in Big Applegate a few evenings ago when he fell in the river as a young friend squirted water in his eyes with a water gun. The boy, unable to swim, had gone down for the second time when a woman, whose name was not learned, rescued him. Billy was with the 4-H club members of the Sterling school, who were having a swimming party.

● Mr. and Mrs. Don Devine of Medford spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cady. They brought with them a most delicious picnic lunch which they invited Mr. and Mrs. Cady and Walter Thurman to share with them.

It was served out in the grove and thoroughly enjoyed by all, as was a most pleasant afternoon.

● Mrs. Helen Anderson has been spending the past week at the home of her brother, Elton Hodges, at Ruch.

● On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newman of Talent and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Daily of the Hillcrest orchards joined Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris and family, Jack Jr., Lucille and Juanita in a picnic dinner on the Applegate. After dinner all who felt so inclined went in swimming, the only casualty being one toe lacerated on a piece of glass. The accident was not serious enough to detract much from the enjoyment of the party.

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● T. M. Kurtz, foreman of the Alaska of Oregon mine, combined business and pleasure on a trip north two weeks ago when he attended the wedding of his son Walter Kurtz at Bellingham, Washington, and looked after business interests in Seattle, Portland and Salem on the return.

● Mrs. R. W. Helenbrook left for San Francisco last Thursday for an indefinite visit with relatives and friends.

● J. L. Groves has become a regular commuter to Phoenix, where he is engaged in preparation for the fruit harvest. J. L. says he expects to cut down his mileage soon by moving to Phoenix for the summer.

● Mrs. Fred Pratt and daughter Bessie of Chula Vista, Calif., and Miss Evelyn Applegate of San Francisco, who have established a summer camp on Williams creek, were shopping in Jacksonville Wednesday of this week.

● Melva Anderson is spending the week-end on Applegate with friends.

● Miss Emma Reed of the Ruch district visited friends here Monday.

● Mrs. Arthur Chase of Wenatchee, Wash., was a visitor at the home of her brother, George Wendt, and family Sunday. She left Sunday evening by plane for her home.
