

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Judge F. L. TouVelle, accompanied by Ernest and Albert Olsen, left for a short tour to San Francisco, where they planned to "drive over the new bay bridge."

● Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyd of Los Angeles are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Ike Dunford, at the Dunford home near Griffin creek. Ike, well-known throughout southern Oregon, has been employed at the Home grocery in Medford for some time.

● Miss Hazel Davies of Forest creek section, accompanied by several friends, was a Medford visitor Saturday, where a matinee was enjoyed.

● Edmund O. Sawyer, advertising representative of Western Advertising, of San Francisco, was a Miner visitor Monday afternoon. Sawyer at one time was editor of the Portland News, and later worked on the editorial desk of the Seattle Star. He evinced much interest in the pink sheet, and spent some time looking over old land marks. Sawyer confessed a hobby of collecting old stamps and envelopes, and displayed one letter, of early date, sent from Jacksonville to Salem. He said he had another letter in his possession which was postmarked "Beckman's Express" in the 50's, as well as bills of lading for freight sent by water to Crescent City, and packed here on burros.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher of Ruch had as a week-end guest the former's mother, Mrs. Mamie Venable of Ashland vicinity.

● Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moran arrived on Applegate from San Francisco a few days ago, where Mrs. Moran and her children will spend the summer. The Californians were complimented with a housewarming Tuesday evening, having just moved into their new home on Thompson creek which had been built by a brother-in-law, "Shorty" Coffeen.

● Mrs. Charles Hamilton is recovering at her home near Ruch from a brief illness, although she is not allowed company at present. Dr. A. E. Dodson of Medford was called to see Mrs. Hamilton a few days ago.

● Workmen at the Slottick mine on Wards fork in the heart of the Siskiyou suffered from pangs of disappointment two weeks ago when a slide covered the bedrock which they had cleaned preparatory to mining. Since that time they have been engaged in removing the dirt, reports from that section say.

● Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of Glendale, Calif., arrived on Applegate a few days ago to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown. The couple will spend most of the summer vacationing in southern Oregon with a possible trip to British Columbia. Mr. Brown, an instructor in the Glendale high school, also owns a 10-acre date farm in the edge of the Imperial valley, and has five acres planted to grapefruit.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● "Slick" Sleeth, resident of the Muddy country on Little Applegate, sustained severe injuries to his finger the first of the week when he came in contact with a cable while hauling hay at the

F. C. Preston ranch. Mr. Sleeth obtained the services of a physician in Medford.

● Miss Connie Price of Seattle is spending the summer here as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Herriott.

● Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gray and two children of San Francisco were guests last week at the home of Miss Mollie Ray. Mrs. Gray is a great granddaughter of Mrs. Louisa Ray.

● Two pieces of platinum the size of a match head were discovered recently along the Big Applegate river by Captain J. K. (Heinie) Snyder of Seattle who, with Mrs. Snyder, has remained in the community since last winter. While prospecting for gold, Captain Snyder has found smaller pieces in the same locality and also near the Applegate store.

● Mrs. Mary Purcel spent a few days last week as a guest of her laughter-in-law, Mrs. Edna Purcel, at Medford.

● Miss Jeanette McKee, who returned Sunday to her home in Klamath Falls, and Miss Leah McKee, who returned to the Cole Holmes residence at Medford on the same day, were honored with a farewell party Thursday evening of last week after spending two weeks vacation with relatives on Big Applegate. The party was given at the home of Mrs. Floyd McKee, where dancing and games proved a popular diversion. Singing with banjo accompaniment by Miss Gladys Byrne also was a popular feature. After partners for luncheon had been chosen by matching advertising slogans with their products, refreshments were served to the following young people at midnight: Misses Jeanette McKee, Leah McKee, Gladys Byrne, Frances Port, Vernetta Ruprecht and Lola Straube. Billy Townsend, Bill Dorn, Bill Straube, Maurice Byrne, Clifton Childers and Omar Culy.

● Mrs. J. F. Lawrence of Medford motored here Sunday, where she visited Mrs. Loren Scott, who was returning that day to her home at Madera, Calif., after spending two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Maud Kubil.

● Courteous service at the Nugget

● Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins, accompanied by the former's father, Newton Haskins, arrived from Pekin, Illinois, a few days ago, and will spend the summer in southern Oregon. Mrs. Haskins will reside in Ashland while attending the summer session of the Normal school, and her husband will vacation in the hills. The easterners are former residents of Applegate, and called at the home of Mrs. Lilla Haskins at Ruch shortly after their arrival here.

● Mrs. T. R. Pittock and daughters Gloria and Regina and sons Tom and Bill arrived recently from San Diego to join Mr. Pittock at their former home on lower Applegate. The family will remain here this summer. Mr. Pittock having been here for several months.
