

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Mr. and Mrs. William Coppel of Murphy were guests of Mr. Coppel's sister, Mrs. Dave L. Jones, on Little Applegate Sunday.

● A large crew of men is employed in resurfacing and oiling the Applegate highway between Ruch and Provoit this week. Bryant Hamilton is among local men employed.

● A group visiting Oregon Caves Sunday included the following people: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culy and son Omar of Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McIntyre of Jacksonville, Miss Leora Culy of Medford, and Loren Sewell and sister of Ashland.

● Floyd Steel, Seattle mining man formerly associated with mines on the Applegate, has been here in the interest of mining during the last few days.

● Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bostwick of Bellview motored to Applegate Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher.

● Joe Morcom of Corvallis is spending a few days visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jess Taylor, and also friends at Medford.

● Earl Bigelow of Ruch was without the use of his car for a short time last week when two Medford men, mistaking the vehicle for their own, removed it from a parking space in Medford. The car was recovered the following day.

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● Stories of picnicing on the Hudson river have been received by friends here from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knutzen, who are spending the summer with the latter's mother and other relatives in New York. Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig, who accompanied the Knutzens as far as Illinois, are attending summer school there, and will visit the fair at Chicago before returning home. Although all are having a glorious time, part of the group have confessed a feeling of homesickness.

● Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips entertained the following guests at dinner at their home Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins and Newton Haskins, who are visiting here from Pekin, Ill.; Mrs. Jeanette Finley and brother, William Haskins, of Alsea, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKee and daughters, Mrs. Amos McKee, and Mrs. John Byrne and family, all of Applegate.

● Miss Frieda Young of Willow Springs is spending this week as a guest of Miss Lola Straube.

● Joe McDaniel of San Diego arrived Saturday to spend several days here with his brother, W. H. McDaniel, while enroute to his home from Salem and Seattle.

● Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer visited recently at the home of her sister-in-law, Miss Ida Kleinhammer, at Yreka. Miss Kleinhammer left a few days ago for a few weeks stay in San Francisco.

● James Watson, Roseburg attorney, visited for a short time last week at the home of Mrs. Maud Kubli.

● Mr. and Mrs. Harley Mansfield, residents of Phoenix, Arizona, for the last seven years, have returned to the Applegate for a two months visit with friends and relatives, among whom are Mrs. Mansfield's brother, Fred Benedict, and Mr. Mansfield's brother, Robert, at Missouri Flat. Mrs. Ed Weisenborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield, and her husband, will arrive here early in September for a short visit, completing their trip to the world's fair and Canada.

● Mrs. William Davis of Sterling section is having as guests this week her nephews, Lloyd and Raymond Valiquett of Spokane.

● Sherman Baker and son Clarence, having spent some time in Klamath county, have returned to Ruch, where they are mining.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● Miss Alice Walton of Jacksonville, has been spending the past week visiting her friend, Miss Valera Winningham, on upper Applegate. The young ladies spent Wednesday evening visiting with Jacksonville friends.

● Mrs. John Matney expected to return to her home at Ruch Wednesday, having spent several days in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. Onie Wimer, who had been ill.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holbrook of San Francisco are spending the final two weeks of their month's vacation here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cameron. They enjoyed an overnight trip to Diamond lake Monday. Previous to their journey here, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook enjoyed a motor trip through southern California.

● Mrs. F. J. Rippey planned to leave early this week for San Francisco, having received word of the death of her mother there Monday evening.

● Mr. and Mrs. Owen Womnack and family of Medford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Art Palmer near Ruch.

● Among local people employed in Medford packing houses are Omar Culy and Mrs. Leonard McKee.

● The Nugget for magazines.

● Robert Hughes of Ruch, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Mary Hughes, attended the wedding of his niece, Miss Mary Sellers, which occurred at the First Christian church in Medford Thursday evening of last week. Miss Sellers was united in marriage to Harold Sargent, recently from the south, Rev. W. R. Baird performing the ceremony. The bride is well known on the Applegate, where she resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Sellers, for a number of years. Miss Sellers has resided in Medford since graduation from the normal school at Ashland two years ago, and the young couple will continue their residence there for the summer.

● Lloyd Hanscom of Little Applegate is recovering from an emergency appendicitis operation performed at the Community hospital in Medford Friday evening.

● Bobbie, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnston of Ruch, sustained a broken arm late last week while playing at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Hamilton.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. York and daughters Ethel and Carol and son Lyman of Los Angeles are guests at the home of Mr. York's sister, Mrs. James Arnold of upper Applegate. The family is accompanied by Mrs. Lillian York, also of Los Angeles, mother of Mr. York and Mrs. Arnold. The young people of the group sponsored community singing at the Watkins school house Sunday, which was enjoyed by a large number of residents. Miss Ethel York acted as pianist.

● Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Smith and family of Compton, Calif., who spend the summer at their cabin at Squaw lake, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hovey of California.

● Mrs. A. D. Hall is spending a few days with her son, Florence Hall, at his cabin above Squaw lake.

● Mr. and Mrs. Hester Knutzen and Bill Knutzen returned recently from a trip to Nevada.

● Mr. and Mrs. Vern Morgus of Portland are spending three days visiting Mrs. Morgus' sister, Mrs. Ora Phillips.

● Courtesy service at the Nugget.

● A group of more than 30 friends gathered Sunday evening at the home of Miss Lois Mathene, who was celebrating her birthday anniversary on that date.

● Bill Fruit, equipped with a pack donkey and a cyclometer, is employed by the forest service in logging (measuring) the government trails through the Applegate mountains. Mr. Fruit traverses the trails by day, placing marking at one-mile intervals, and makes camp whenever nightfall approaches.

● Attorney and Mrs. Gus Newbury of Medford and Terry, the French poodle, motored to Beaver ranch Sunday over the new Silver Fork road. Terry, exultant over the outing, is a ball player and has been officially photographed in one of the new airflow cars, the attorney said.

● Receiving word of probable settlement of the San Francisco strike, Mr. and Mrs. Merriam Worthington and daughter Dianne returned to the Bay City late last week, having spent two days here with Mrs. Worthington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer. Mr. Worthington is a member of a broadcasting orchestra.

● Miss Ruth Ziebarth and mother and Robert Hughes, all of Ruch, planned to motor to Crescent City Wednesday.

● Miss Frances Port spent the week-end in Ashland as a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachey.

● Something of the tang of the salt sea was expressed in conversation Sunday when Glenn Smith spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Aris Throckmorton. Mr. Smith, who returned four years ago after a four-year period of enlistment with the U. S. navy, enjoyed comparing sailor's tales with his gray-haired neighbor, who sailed the seas in his younger days.

● Edwin Taylor, member of the non-high school board, attended a meeting of the board at the county school superintendent's office at Medford a few evenings ago.

● N. C. White of the Medford forestry office spent Tuesday and Wednesday on an inspection trip to Applegate lookouts and guard stations.

● Mr. and Mrs. Charley Mee left this week for Dead Indian, where they will spend a few weeks camping while Mr. Mee is engaged in building a lookout house in that section.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Dan Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. John Croison of Salem are spending some time camping at Squaw lake. They also will visit Mr. Wagner's son, James, at Dividend Bar.

● Jake Knutzen, who sustained a broken leg while employed at Camp Applegate two months ago, has returned here from a Roseburg hospital. Mr. Knutzen continues to walk with crutches.

● Dan'l (Boone) Shuss, who has been logging on Dead Indian this summer, has taken the week off to rest at his home here.

● George Merritt of this city, who recently recovered from a prolonged illness, started employment at the Pinnacle Packing house in Medford early this week.

● Leaving Jacksonville early Tuesday morning, H. H. Lusk and family made a one-day round trip to Redding, Calif.

● Motoring here from Brewerton, N. Y., Adelbert R. Merritt and party visited George Merritt and Miss Issie McCully of this city during the week. The New Yorker is an uncle of George Merritt, and formerly resided in southern Oregon, at Central Point and Gold Hill, where he operated a hardware store years ago.

● Albert McCready, formerly of Portland and now visiting Arthur Van Galder and family of Jacksonville, received a conspicuous black eye Saturday when a foul ball from Elliott Rhoten's bat found its way to expanse between his eyes.

● Mr. and Mrs. William Winningham of Klamath Falls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pence of Jacksonville Monday.

● Special news flash: Will the borrower of Charlie Dorothy's stepladder please bring it home?

● Donald Dorothy, who has been employed in a CCC camp east of Lakview, returned to his home here Tuesday evening for a few days visit.

● Mrs. Larry Howe of Seattle has been visiting with her husband in Jacksonville this week.

● Le Von Dunford, Doris Clark, Frances Wakefield, Jessie Clark, Mrs. O. W. Dunford, Marian Smith and Ray Lewis of Jacksonville and vicinity motored to Crescent City over the week-end.

● Les Weiss, well-known referee and electric welder of Medford, passed through Jacksonville Wednesday evening while enroute to Applegate for a few days outing.

● Miss Alice Walton of Jacksonville was a house guest of Miss Maxine Vaughn and Miss Lois Hill of Medford for a few days last week.

● Mr. and Mrs. John R. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lewis and son Ray, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Beach and sons Joe and Robert, Miss Alice Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coleman, all of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Ethel Jones and Mrs. Edgar Price of Medford motored to Dead Indian last Sunday.

● Miss Doris Clark, Miss Frances

DANCE

Saturday till

2

Jacksonville

SALAD DRESSING

SPECIALS July 28th to August 3rd

2½ Size Can IGA PINEAPPLE and IGA SALAD DRESSING, quart jar—	52c
Both for
2½ Size Can IGA PEARS and IGA SALAD DRESSING, quart jar—	49c
Both for
SALAD DRESSING, IGA, Quart jar	29c
MAYONNAISE, IGA, Pint jar	25c
ITALIAN OLIVE OIL, imported, Pint	50c
B & M RED KIDNEY BEANS, No. 2 can	13c
TILLAMOOK CHEESE, Per pound	19c
SARDINES, in pure olive oil, Can	9c
OLIVES, Golden Feather, 9-ounce can	14c
DILL PICKLES, IGA, Pint jar	19c
FRUITS FOR SALAD, No. 1 tall Royal Club, and IGA SALAD DRESSING, quart size, Both for	45c
JELLO, 3 packages	15c

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY ONLY

LETTUCE, solid heads, 2 heads	9c
ORANGES, 288 size fancy, 2 dozen	39c
LEMONS, Sunkist, 360 size, Per dozen	23c
WATERMELON, Per pound	1½c

Godward Mercantile Co.

"Where the Miners Bring Their Gold and Where the Gold Brings the Bargains"

PHONE 74—WE DELIVER JACKSONVILLE

Dr. H. P. Coleman
Chiropractic - Physiotherapy
Oregon License 264
California License 3029
14 Years in Medford, Oregon

CINDERELLA SHOP'S

AUGUST FINAL Clearance

On All Spring and Summer

Ready-to-Wear

AT

HALF PRICE

and Less

This clearance includes Dresses, Coats, Suits, Hats and Sportswear . . .

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

July 26, 27, and 28

Special Bargain Table of Odds and Ends..... 50c to $1

SAVE YOUR DOLLARS AT

All Sales Final—No Approvals, No Charges, No Exchanges

Don't Be Sorry When Winter Comes!

attend

PENNEY'S MID-SUMMER BLANKET EVENT

Select as many blankets as you desire—

USE OUR LAY-AWAY PLAN

THESE PRICES REMAIN IN FORCE ONLY WHILE PRESENT STOCKS LAST

J. C. PENNEY CO. - Medford

WE KNOW HOW!

It's GOOD judgment to use this finer laundry service, because the cost is no more than you pay for ordinary washing.

Your most delicately colored garments or heaviest white linens can be safely entrusted to our tested washing methods.

OUR FOUR DISTINCT LAUNDRY SERVICES

Rough Dry, pound.....	9c
Thrifty Wash, pound.....	7c
Dry Wash, pound.....	8c
Wet Wash, pound.....	4c

MEDFORD DOMESTIC LAUNDRY

30 North Riverside Phone 166