

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Attorney James Watson of Roseburg arrived here over the week-end, and is a guest of Mrs. Maud Kubli, Jack Harding, also of Roseburg, accompanied Mr. Watson here, and was an overnight guest of Mrs. Kubli before his return north.

● Mr. and Mrs. John Maulle and daughters Mildred and Helen of Shelton, Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube a few days ago. Mr. Maulle and his family, who visited his sister, Miss Eleanor Maulle, of Portland, while enroute here, spent a week visiting Medford friends.

● Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins, who are spending the summer in southern Oregon from Peikin, Illinois, were guests of Mrs. Lilla Haskins recently. Mrs. Haskins, having completed her term of summer school at Southern Oregon Normal, had just returned with her husband from a trip to Bend and Oregon Caves.

● Robert Cunningham of Ruch district is in the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford recovering from a major operation performed Friday. Although Mr. Cunningham's condition had been serious, he was said to be improving early this week.

● Mrs. A. Throckmorton has received word of the death of her youngest sister, Mrs. Sophia Cramer, which occurred at Knight's Landing, Calif., July 30. Mrs. Cramer, who was 74, had been in poor health for some time, death resulting at her California home from heart trouble. A private funeral was held at Knight's Landing.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reece and daughters Althea and Maude of Los Angeles spent Sunday on the Applegate visiting Mrs. Reece's uncles, M. R. Buck and Miles Cantrall. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cantrall of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Reece are spending a month's vacation visiting southern Oregon relatives, among whom are Mrs. Reece's father, James Cantrall of this city.

● Jimmy Hunt, famous "anywho" and crooner by inspiration of the Brush Marine contingent at Star Ranger station, was observed working after hours far into the dusky twilight recently, afterward indulging in chocolate cake. Mr. Hunt, winner of fourth prize in fancy dancing in Portland, has adopted as his personal slogan, "I can kid all of the people some of the time, some of the people all the time, but not all the people all the time."

● Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown motored to Mt. Shasta Sunday, where they visited Mr. Brown's uncle.

● Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump enjoyed motoring to Crater Lake Sunday.

● Palmer Creek Hillbillies continue to play baseball, and defeated the Medford Christian Endeavor players Sunday by a 5 to 7 score.

● Mr. and Mrs. James Frances of Klamath, accompanied by their two little daughters, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Taylor.

● O. S. Blackford and daughter Vesta of Willow Springs were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube Sunday.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown returned Tuesday from a week-end trip to Diamond lake, where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, who have camped at the resort for the last three weeks, while spending their summer vacation here from Glendale, Calif.

● Mr. and Mrs. Hale Wheeler of Medford were recent guests of Mrs. Wheeler's father, Fred Offenbacher.

● Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith of San Bernardino are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, at Ruch.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● James Forbes of Eagle Point was a visitor in Jacksonville Monday.

● Archie C. Bell of Wood River mining district, Idaho, has been employed at Pacific States mine in Jacksonville for several weeks on night shift, and plans to make his home here, he stated yesterday while visiting Miner office.

● One of Applegate's most independent figures has been seen lately trudging along forest trails of that section leading a burro and pushing a bicycle, but resolutely walking between the two modes of conveyance nevertheless. He is none other than Bill Fruit of Ruch, who is employed logging miles of government fire roads and trails, and is accompanied by his burro as supply train, preceded by the "bicycle," which has a dingbat mounted to measure distance. It is thought, however, that Bill fears to trust his weight to either of the ornery conveyances.

● Printer's Devil Bill Johnson, with the aid of Bud Reinking, took advantage of his boss' absence to plunge into type cases and ink, to emerge with a printed card which reads, "Bill Johnson, Assistant Editor, The Jacksonville Miner." With characteristic modesty, Devil Bill pasted windows of the office with the placards.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● Judge C. B. Forbes of Kellogg, Idaho, enroute home from California points, stopped in Jacksonville late last week for a visit with his old friend and former townsman, Lem Wilson, and Mrs. Wilson. Judge Forbes, United States commissioner at Kellogg, stated things have been unusually quiet in his office since Lem left some years ago.

● A miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. Ted Cunningham, nee Marian Winningham, was given by Mrs. Harold Reed at her home in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon, when many beautiful gifts were received by the bride, who was united in marriage in Medford last Saturday. Those attending the shower were Lucile Flitcroft, Dorothy Hilton, Mrs. Oscar Pence, Mrs. Emma Pence, Mrs. Hardir and son of Hawthorne, Calif., Clara Smith, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Cathrine Smith, Mrs. Helen McIntyre and daughter Luella, Mrs. W. E. Finley, Mrs. Claspell, Mrs. Applebaker, Geneva Davies, Mrs. O. C. Dorothy and daughter Carmen, Eleanor Clark, Mrs. John Winningham and daughter Grace, Mrs. Lottie Bowman and daughter Ida, Miss Elizabeth White, Mrs. Hamaker and daughter Betty, Mrs. Edward Garner and Burdette Dunnington.
