

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott, accompanied by the latter's brother, Norman Jensen, and a friend, James Griffin, returned to their homes at Oakland Friday, following a business trip to the Applegate. While here the Californians also visited A. W. Mercer at Copper.

● Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Peckham of Williams creek were Jacksonville visitors Monday.

● Mrs. "Steve" Stevens of lower Applegate left Friday for Washington, where she is visiting relatives.

● Mrs. J. A. West left Sunday for Lebanon, Oregon, where she will spend a short time visiting relatives.

● Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher over the Labor day week-end were Mrs. Offenbacher's nephew, Walter Wendt of Canby, now employed at Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Hale Wheeler of Medford.

● Tom Lovel, employed at the Kleinhammer ranch, motored to Williams creek Monday, where he visited his father, J. T. Lovel.

● Jacksonville Odd Fellows will journey to Gold Hill lodge next Tuesday night for first degree work on three candidates, who already have completed initiatory work here, Jim Littell Jr., Ike Coffman and George Brownlee.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown had as guests last week their grandsons, Tom, Dick and Ted Fish of Phoenix.

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● George Crippen, resident of Ruch 40 years ago, where he was a miner, has returned to this section, and is camping near the Applegate store. Mr. Crippen is a member of the G.A.R. and even though he is 86 years old, friends have commented upon the lively manner in which he gets around. Mr. Crippen, who hopes to mine on the Applegate again, is from Tacoma and is accompanied by his daughter, grandson and grandnephew. The group has enjoyed visiting old friends, including Mr. and Mrs. A. Throckmorton and Mrs. Louisa Ray and family.

● Mrs. S. E. North and two little daughters from Fresno arrived Monday, and are guests of Mrs. North's sister, Mrs. J. C. McCowan of Big Applegate.

● Mrs. Dora Saltmarsh is spending this week at Oak Grove as a guest of Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh.

● Mrs. Jess Taylor and daughter Lucille, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Frances and daughters of Klamath Falls, are spending this week at Gold Beach and other coast points.

● Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson left Wednesday for their new home near Los Angeles, having traded their Thompson creek home for California property. Mr. Johnson has served as Grange lecturer during the last year.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor were Mr. and Mrs. Langley Shoemaker of Palo Alto and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Dunford of Jacksonville vicinity.

● Mr. and Mrs. Vern Buck and two friends of Colusa, Calif., spent the week-end here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Buck. Sunday the group spent the day at Crater Lake.

● A group spending Sunday swimming on Applegate included Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hotchkiss and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamilton of Talent, and Mr. and Mrs. Loys Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Medford. Part of the group called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh while here.

● The Huntington quartz mill formerly located on the Reed and Fletcher mine near Ruch has been sold to Mr. King of Phoenix. Mr. King, who is showing some mighty nice specimen rock, plans to install the mill on a mine in the Siskiyou mountains.

● Mrs. Ella Milligan and daughter Alberta of Tucson, Arizona, spent a few days visiting the former's brother, T. S. Cady and family, of Jacksonville hill, departing for their home Sunday. Mrs. Milligan and daughter included the Jacksonville district in their tour of several northwestern states.

● Justice of the Peace Ray Coleman Sunday splattered 99 out of a possible hundred clay birds at range of the Medford gun club in competition with trapshooters from Salem. Coleman also was high man in the 50 handicap from 21 yards by dividing 49 of the earthen missiles. Ray and his scatter-gun are natives of Jacksonville.

● The Nugget for magazines.

● Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blitch and son Charley of this city motored to Diamond and Crater lakes Sunday in Charley's new car, in which Charlie looks and acts like a millionaire as he drives up the main stem, according to Reporter Bill Johnson.

● George (Peewee) Van Galder and Si Johnson, local big-shot baseball players, have a hole in the ground (they call it a mine) in the back yard of Peewee's home. They haven't gotten any yellow stuff yet, the only reason being they don't work hard enough to raise a sweat.

● Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Laah and son Donald, who moved to this city from Medford about a month ago, left Wednesday afternoon for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will make their home.

● Hubert (Horse) DeHaas, son-in-law of Ray Wilson, proprietor of the Nugget confectionery, is employed in Medford in the barber business by Mr. Stroud, who owns a shop across from the Roky theater.

● Noel Pence, formerly of Jacksonville now residing in Ruch, made a short visit to this city Wednesday.

● Larry Howe, formerly of Seattle now mining in this city, left Saturday for Portland, where he will spend a short vacation with his wife.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● Two-year-old Delores Pence of Ruch mistook coal oil for drinking water Tuesday evening, drinking approximately two tablespoons of the oily liquid, and was taken to a doctor early Wednesday morning. Nothing serious resulted from the accident.

● No gold has been taken out of the Bull Frog mine and the bull frogs must be hibernating for the winter as Fred Combest and Charley Shannon, proprietors of the hole in the ground, can be seen hanging around the Marble Corner chewing the rag with the rest of the townsmen.
