

Dance, Not Water, Taps Busy 'Gate's Amateur Hoofers

A new diversion has made its way into the Applegate community and local people are stepping lively these days after the fashion of the tap dance. Wm. Ludwig, upper grade teacher at the Applegate school, opened a class in gymnastic tapping last week, students meeting two evenings in the week at the community hall.

The class consists of 18 adults and is proving popular among the grown people. Most of the children in the school there receive the same type of lessons during the school period. The evening classes are open to all who wish to learn the steps and everybody is welcome. Mr. Ludwig, who spent the summer in the east, took a course in tap dancing at the University of Illinois.

Burns-Krause Wed to Surprise Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krause of lower Applegate are expected to return soon from their honeymoon trip to Lakeview, for which place they left immediately following their wedding in Medford Wednesday, October 10. Surprising their many friends, Mr. Krause and Miss Myrtle Burns were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Rev. W. R. Baird performing the ceremony. The couple were accompanied by Mrs. A. N. Krause and Miss Enid Funk of Medford, mother and aunt of the groom.

Mrs. Krause attended the Jacksonville school last year. The young couple will make their home on Applegate.

Krause, King Kong to Tangle at Armory on Thursday Night Card

King Kong Cox, seen here before, and Broccoli Bob Krause were scheduled to meet this Thursday night on Mack Lillard's Medford armory weekly program, which starts at 8:30. King Kong, of Lodi, Calif., is a beefy man-mountain who slugs 'em and makes 'em like it, while Krause's capers are well known to southern Oregon fans, and furnish an able complement to any man's unorthodox efforts.

In the first half of a double main event program Fireman Ray Frisbie will open his robe to Pat McGee of Los Angeles for an hour of what is anticipated as actual wrestling sans teeth-marks and bruised knuckles. Frisbie has spent some time as third man in the ring lately and has been observing some clever performers, whose wares he may have added to his present stock of fast "bolts."

Last week Bonny Muir of Australia succumbed to two falls at the hands of Pete Belcastro, Sacramento bad boy who beats 'em bad. Muir has been angling for a return match with the intemperate Italian, claiming he can throw Belcastro nine times out of 10. Pete waylaid his adversary with drop-kicks, first one coming in 10 seconds, when they met last Thursday night before a packed house.

Timekeeper Viv Beach reasserted his intention yesterday of banging starting bell at the good old 8:30 o'clock, and advised fans who like to sit while they watch to start their armory trek early.

We have no patience with any new calendar scheme that fails to abolish the first of the month. The fact that China is "all for peace" does not, apparently, safeguard her from losing an occasional piece to Japan.—Weston Leader.
