

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Miss Betty Lawrence of Portland is making an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Knutzen.

● Marcus Smith of Hubbard, Ore., is spending several days here with Abe Kromling, where the two are enjoying hunting.

● Jack Crump was elected director in the Forest creek school at a recent board meeting, succeeding Mr. Ayres, who moved to Jacksonville a short time ago.

● Mrs. E. A. Kruse and son Clifton of Roseburg are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dawson, having arrived late last week. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Schmieding of Eugene also were recent guests at the Dawson home, having come to that section to spend the week-end with their son, William Schmieding, who owns a mining claim there.

● Otis Buck is at his home on Little Applegate for a three weeks vacation from duties as foreman at a CCC camp at Hackamore, Calif.

● Miss Helen Dunn of Ashland spent the week-end on Applegate as a guest of her cousin, Miss Frances Port.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Mr. and Mrs. Lester Throckmorton of Eagle Point were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher. Miss Eleanor Throckmorton and brother, Dale, spent the day with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Throckmorton at Ruch.

● Mrs. Ethel Ludwig, primary teacher at Applegate, went to Ashland Tuesday, where she attended the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Casebeer.

● Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thorpe and daughter Vivian and Ralph Rosen of Tolo spent the week-end hunting in Steamboat vicinity, being overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dawson. Walter Dickey and Floyd Hendrickson of Phoenix also are completing the hunting season at Steamboat, and are guests at the Dawson home.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Rhinabarger and two children of Medford.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Putnam at Medford.

● Vernon Taylor, accompanied by Marvin Stark of Central Point, is making an extended trip to California points. The two visited a short time at Sacramento, and expected to continue to Porterville to engage in orange picking. Mr. Taylor also is considering attending a diesel engineering school in Oakland.

● The community basketball team of the lower Applegate section expected to hold their first practice at the hall Tuesday evening. As yet no games have been scheduled.

● Courteous service at the Nugget

● Suffering from a severe case of poison oak, Lee Brown of Applegate is unable to attend his classes at the local high school this week. Miss Jessie Smith expected to return to school in Jacksonville Thursday, having been absent for several days due to injuring her back when she fell on the newly varnished steps in the school building.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Noe have returned to their mine on Brush creek in the Steamboat district for the winter, having been absent since June. Mrs. Noe spent the summer in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. William Raybould, while Mr. Noe spent most of the time in Utah.

● With the return of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Krause Thursday from their honeymoon trip to Lakeview, a group of 25 friends gathered Saturday evening to charivari the young couple. Mrs. A. N. Krause was hostess to the group.

● Remembering that Monday was a favorite friend's birthday, a number of people presented Mrs. A. Throckmorton with gifts on that day, observing the 79th anniversary of her birth. Last May Mrs. Throckmorton and her husband celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

● Herbert (Slim) Pennings, member of the CCC force at the Star Ranger station, spent the week-end in Medford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pyle, where he visited his sister, Miss Elizabeth Pennings, of Portland. Mr. Pennings expected to return to Portland with his sister this week to remain for a short vacation.

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● The Applegate Grange will celebrate its fourth birthday anniversary tonight. An interesting lecturer's program has been prepared for the event, which will include brief reviews of the four years' accomplishments by Past Masters Sid Hansen, Aubrey Edwards and Frank Knutzen. Third and fourth degree work will be conferred tonight, and a pot-luck supper is included in the program. The Grange has been invited to take the Jacksonville chairs November 9, conferring the first and second degrees.

● Mrs. John Matney entertained several guests with a dinner at her home Thursday, honoring her husband's birthday anniversary.

● Fred Law and Jesse Wilson of Sacramento came to the Applegate recently, where they expect to spend the winter mining. The men are residing at the Cliff Smith home.

● Harry Helms, French gulch resident, went on a hunting trip to eastern Oregon recently.

● Frank Webber and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis have moved into the place known as the old Wright home on Jacksonville hill. It is said the property is being purchased as a home.

● The Nugget for magazines.

● Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tribble, who have been living in one of T. S. Cady's cabins lately, left for Salem Tuesday. Mrs. Tribble, who is in very poor health, found the location too high for her, causing so much distress she was forced to move to a lower altitude.

● The new crossroad from the old highway to the new one on Jacksonville hill is doing good service now and is greatly appreciated by those using it. The rain has settled dust and prepared the road for a coat of gravel which is expected in the near future, which will make an all-weather road of the new strip.

● Elton Hodges of Beaver creek spent Tuesday at the Earl Bryant home in this city.

● E. A. Gaddy of Jacksonville has entered the lumber business at Beaver creek.

● Mrs. Anna Dorn, who has been visiting her son Ernest in Portland, returned to her home here Monday.

● Mrs. Alfred Miller of Medford and Mrs. Joe Pelton of Klamath Falls called on friends here Monday.

● Among those to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kate Hoffman Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Charles Hardy of Eugene, B. B. Beckman of Portland, Mrs. Earl Vining and sister, Mrs. Kate Granger, of Medford, Evan Reames of Medford and Ann Kater of Medford. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church under direction of the Rev. S. H. Jones, with interment in Jacksonville cemetery.

● Mrs. Dora Saltmarsh of Applegate is visiting Mrs. Alice Ulrich of this city.

● Fred Pick and daughter Virginia of Medford called on friends here Sunday.

● Woorden Ennis of Portland, youngest son of the Reverend Ennis, called on friends here Wednesday while on a deer hunting expedition. He returned to Portland with a fine specimen.

● Dr. and Mrs. Harold B. Gillis of Union Creek CCC camp called on Jacksonville friends Tuesday.

● Western Union at the Nugget.

● An invitation to attend services in the M. E. church building in Jacksonville was extended this week in the following: "Dear Friends—We have much pleasure in inviting you to some evangelistic services to be held in the above building, beginning Wednesday, October 24, at 7:40 o'clock, each evening except Monday and Saturday. There is nothing sensational or extreme in these meetings. We teach no new doctrine. 'Jesus, the same yesterday, today and forever.' These services are given free—no collections will be taken. We are giving our lives gladly and freely in preaching the Gospel and will welcome your interest. Your servants for Jesus' sake, Miss K. Hutchins, Miss R. Roach."

● Mrs. Lois McKee and daughters Marcine and Enid of Big Applegate spent the week-end at the W. A. Childers home here.

● Dell Hildreth of Oakland, Calif., visited in Jacksonville Saturday, enroute to Butte Falls, where he will visit his brother, Al Hildreth.

● Miss Elmira Hulise of Sterling is visiting at the Archie Bowman home.

● Walter Anderson of the South Fork CCC camp spent the week-end at his home here.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yocum, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shepherd of Medford were visitors at the George Hilton home Monday evening.

● Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hulise and Charley Williams were visiting Sunday on Sterling at the P. A. Hulise home.

● Mrs. Minnie Anderson of Medford visited at the B. A. Gaddy home Sunday.

● Mrs. H. L. Noblit of Medford and Mrs. Chester Pursell of Jacksonville were callers on Applegate Tuesday.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ike Coffman and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Knight recently were camping on Star gulch.

● Marion Hulise and Charley Williams were business visitors in Medford Tuesday.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Knowlton and Mrs. Kate Bonin were Medford callers Monday.

● Mrs. Beattie Garrett of Grants Pass was a recent visitor at the Ruel Knowlton home here.

● Mrs. George Tranta and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pankey of Butte

Falls were visitors at the Fred Butcher home Wednesday.

● James Heldon Smith of Jacksonville and Mary Enders of Medford were married Monday, October 22. They left immediately for New York, where they will make their home.

● Miss Valera Winningham of Hutton Guard station is visiting friends and relatives here.

● Miss Edna Lontz of Seattle, granddaughter of Mrs. Zetta Lontz and niece of Homer Lontz of this city, has been visiting here for the past week enroute home from an extended tour of the United States which included Yellowstone national park, the Chicago fair, Niagara Falls, New York city, Washington, D. C., Mt. Vernon, southern California points and Tia Juana.

● WILL PAY CASH—For good used piano; must be priced right. See Sally Cole at the Marble Corner immediately.

● FOR SALE—Model T pickup truck, $15. Phone 112.

● FOR RENT—Floor sanding machine. See Economy Lumber company, North Riverside at Court, or phone 594, Medford.

FIRST WHITE CHILD OF DOWNIEVILLE TREASURES FORMER LOCAL CONTACTS

Wishing to learn again of the doings of southern Oregon folks, Mrs. Katherine Byrne of Pinole,

If you go East this winter, why not go through California and Southern Arizona? Ride our famous Sunset Limited or Golden State Limited through America's sunniest winter region. Stopover anywhere.

For details, see your local agent or write J. A. Ormandy, General Passenger Agent, 705 Pacific Building, Portland, Ore.

Southern Pacific

Calif., mother of John Byrne, well-known fire guard here, placed a renewal subscription with The Miner this week.

Mrs. Byrne left the Applegate 18 years ago to return to her native state. She was the first white girl born at Downieville, her maiden name also being "Byrne." A peculiar coincidence occurs in the fact that Mrs. Byrne and Mrs. Anna Dorn of this city are the same age lacking one day, both having been 80 last March.

A sigh is what us country editors cannot suppress when reading that the mints are "coining money" as never before.—Weston Leader.

Medford Cycle and Repair Shop
GUNSMITH—LOCKSMITH
Lawn Mower Service
Phone 261 23 North Fir

RETAIN

Earl B. Day

for County Judge

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE

Nominated for Representative in the State Legislature in 1931 by BOTH the Republican and Democratic parties . . . served two sessions in that capacity and established a record of efficiency in representing this county which, with his record for an economic and business-like administration of county affairs as county judge, entitles him to reelection.

(Paid Advertisement)

Learn Millinery

Classes in Designing and Remodeling are now being formed. Complete instruction on this interesting and most practical art by an accomplished millinery expert now available. For complete information call or write—

Hats Like These Made With Ease—If You Know How!

Adel Lee Millinery
M. M. Department Store, Medford

Plan as You Will, You'll Never Know What Tomorrow May Bring...

Protect your property and your family by making a Will naming us as your executor and trustee . . . leave nothing to chance when providing for your family's future!

The First National Bank

"A Departmentized Institution"
MEDFORD

Are You Ready for Stormy Weather?

When cold rains fall and the wind starts to blow, it's time to quit dodging the weather and begin to think of your new winter overcoats. That's why we are announcing our—

ROUGH WEATHER OVERCOAT EVENT

Overcoats - Overcoats

A tailored dark blue coat suitable for every occasion—in a true man's model—dressy, neat, practical—Here's the price, $16.50 believe it or not.

No matter what style coat you're looking for, you will find it in our stock—single breasted, Balmaacan's, Balmo's, with half-belts or no belts—in solid colors or in patterns—you will have no trouble in finding one which will fit in your fall ensemble. Priced from

$22.50 to $30.00

This overcoat situation is not as serious as you may think . . . you can buy a fine, well-tailored overcoat within any price range you may choose. You will be convinced when you see those new mixtures and patterns selling at

$19.75

A $5 deposit will hold any coat for 15 days. Make your selection now—don't wait till they are gone!

The Foggery

WHERE EVERY DOLLAR DOES ITS DUTY