

Sad Sam, Armory Mat Favorite, Returns to Shows Thursday Nite

"Sad" Sam Lethers, rubber-legged giant from Dallas, Texas, was to appear in Mack Lillard's armory show this Thursday night...

Lethers, who has exhibited more novel and effective holds than any other wrestler of recent months...

Lethers' opponent for this week, Bonny Muir, also has won favor from fans for his clean and orthodox wrestling...

More About the Healing Arts Constitutional Amendment

There is to be one measure on the ballot at the November election that requires careful consideration...

The opponents of this measure are giving out many false and misleading statements. The only reason, apparently, for such misleading statements...

All law should be for the protection and benefit of the people, and not for the encouragement or protection of monopoly.

The present laws relative to the healing arts in Oregon gives a protection to one school of doctors at the expense of other schools of practice...

Each school of practice should be allowed to develop its own theory and practice according to its own system without being impaired or dominated by its economic rival.

This amendment cannot pave way for "diploma mills" as suggested by the opponents of the measure. In fact, if the people adopt this measure...

Under the provisions of this measure, it would be impossible for the drugless doctors, not so licensed, to practice major surgery. Those who intimate that they would, certainly know that such is NOT true.

The impression that all hospitals would be compelled to open their doors to "any doctor, however incompetent" is so absurd as to be ridiculous.

The chain of five and 10-cent stores opened in the Soviet Union ought to do a Russian business.

REPORT CARD TIME AGAIN

Report cards are again circulating. A student passing down the corridor will hear many groans and, we hope, more jubilant cries.

Underneath it all every student knows that it was in him to do better, and many private resolutions are made for the coming six weeks, none of them are broadcast.

The first few days of the next period show increased effort. Day by day students fall behind. Others remain in the race maybe to drop out the next day, but holding on a bit longer.

Each day is a new beginning and usually means that a person, not necessarily a student, starts out to accomplish more, to do better, than the day before.

The party also was a success, due to the good will of the freshmen. Like good sports they carried out the sophomores' various requests...

HEAR NAVY DAY TALK

Saturday, October 27, the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, has been designated as Naval day.

C. E. Young, chief torpedoman, spoke to high school students about the history of our navy and the interest of Theodore Roosevelt in the navy.

The purpose of these talks given by Mr. Young of the Medford district is to make the interior of the United States navy conscious.
