

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Mrs. Edna Purcell and brother, Art Putney of Medford, motored to Little Applegate Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Mary Purcell.

● Local Grangers motoring to Bellview Saturday to attend the Pomona Grange meeting there were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mee, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig. Election of Pomona officers was held, Mr. Taylor, master of Applegate Grange, being elected as gatekeeper.

● Sustaining a cut in the abdomen when he fell on a knife Friday, Joseph Ginet, six-year-old son of Mrs. William Davis of Little Applegate, is receiving treatment in the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford. The youngster was running down hill with a knife in his hand when he fell. The wound was not considered serious.

● Earl Bostwick has discontinued employment as driver for a Medford cream truck which made regular trips to the Applegate. With a herd of 40 dairy cows to care for at his ranch at Bellview, in addition to 1800 turkeys, Mr. Bostwick believed his ranch would keep him sufficiently occupied.

● Mrs. Alice Hedburg of Applegate returned Tuesday from Klamath Falls, where she had visited friends since Sunday.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Lee Port Jr., sophomore at Oregon State college, spent the weekend at his home here. Mr. Port reports almost continuous rain at Corvallis, and a snow storm there shortly before he left.

● Vernon Taylor and Marvin Stark of Central Point have returned from a few weeks sojourn to California cities, which included a trip to Tia Juana.

● Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown have included Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fish and three sons of Phoenix, Hugh Brown of Murphy, and John Miller of Kerby.

● Mrs. Ed Dutton of Eagle Point is spending the week as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Taylor.

● Among Applegate men bringing home deer during the final days of the season are Albert Hartley, Harold Crump, Martin McDonough and Charley Dunford. All were killed in the Applegate district, Mr. McDonough's weighing 160 pounds.

● Shorty Farnsworth, well-known four-foot dwarf of Squaw lake region, who tips the scales at 75 pounds, was a Medford visitor early this week. Among other shoppers from the Applegate were Jess Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Emmett Phillips, Lincoln Gray, Henry Harthorn, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Pool and daughter Maude.

● Courteous service at the Nugget

● Mrs. Louise Kilham of Portland spent a few days last week as a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maud Kubli, of Applegate. Mrs. Kilham also is visiting at the J. Opp home here, expecting to return to Portland in a short time.

● Members of the School Improvement club of the Applegate school devoted Sunday to planting shrubbery on the school grounds. Additional items of play equipment also were erected.

● Mrs. Ella Herriott of Medford, who has been ill during the last three months, came to the Applegate recently, and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Herriott. Mrs. Herriott, whose condition is improved, will remain here until she is in better health. Before coming here she had remained with Mrs. Maud Stickle.

● A demonstration on killing and dressing turkeys was held for the Applegate district Tuesday afternoon at the E. J. Brown ranch by McKinley Huntington of Yoncalla, the demonstration having been one of a series arranged for the county by R. G. Fowler, county agent. A large group of local turkey raisers attended and report the meeting to be well worth while.

● Local people who have never viewed a black widow spider may see a live specimen now in captivity at the Sunnyside service station at Ruch. The widow was captured on the shrubbery at the station and seems to be existing on a grasshopper set before her. The spider is said not to eat very frequently, although she immediately "tied the grasshopper up."

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● Friends are advised that services are being continued in the M. E. church building in Jacksonville every evening except Saturday and Monday, at 7:45. Services are given freely, no collections will be taken, said Miss K. Hutchings and Miss R. Roach, who are conducting the meetings.

● "That boy must know how to handle a gun," said onlookers as Jack Green returned from Baker with meat.

● Mrs. Julia Williams, Mrs. Lula Saulsbury and son John, all of this city, attended a theater in Medford Saturday.

● Mrs. Fred Fick of Medford attended church services here Sunday.

● Mrs. Leila McKee of Jacksonville is spending this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Culy, on Big Applegate.

● Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McDaniel returned to their home at Yakima, Wash., early this week, having spent the last month with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDaniel.

● Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clark of Medford were week-end guests of Mr. Clark's sister, Mrs. Fred Straube.

A House Without

A GOOD ROOF

Can Never Be A Good Home

Home—the cornerstone of America—can only be as good as the roof over it . . . President Roosevelt, through the Federal Housing Act, seeks to encourage and make lighter the responsibilities of home owning through long-term loans at unusually low rates of interest, which enable the person in need of improvement, especially to a roof at this time of year, a live-saving aid at low cost. Phone, write or call in person and we will be glad to explain benefits of the Federal Housing Act, and aid you in filling your needs.
