FOUND IN THE DIGGIN'S
The boys must have got a "bang" out of throwing paper aeroplanes Friday. It's funny why it takes so long for a senior to grow up.
A couple of boys attracting inquisitive students. I'll bet you know they could make music; we didn't.
From all of the "pretty romances" you would think it was the spring of the year. Is it for show or could it possibly be nature?
General Accident—Someone lost their footing on the stairway.
A student doing his bookkeeping in red ink which turned out to be mercurochrome.
A cartoonist posting pictures on the bulletin board.
Freshman showing his talent for music before the assembly.

'SETH PARKER' IMPERSONATION AT SCHOOL
That famous author of radio-land, Seth Parker, impersonated by John Howard, was seen and heard in the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening. Mr. Howard, supported by a local cast, gave an excellent performance, which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.
Costumes were of the old-fashioned type and many laughs arose
