

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● W. H. McDaniel, who went to Yakima last week on account of the death of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Glenn McDaniel, which resulted from scarlet fever, will remain north two weeks longer, he has written his family here. He is awaiting the possible illness of his son, who is in quarantine.

● Mrs. Will Copple of Murphy and daughter, Mrs. Avanelle Johnson, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Jones here. Mrs. Johnson is employed at the What-Not in Medford.

● Ed Saltmarsh, pioneer cowboy of the Applegate country, observed his birthday anniversary Wednesday which, members of his household say, accounts for his unusual perusal of the calendar since the first of the year.

● The Nugget for cold drinks.

● Mrs. Joe Morcum of Corvallis arrived in Medford Tuesday and will be a guest here this week of her sister, Mrs. Jess Taylor.

● H. H. Farley of the Little Applegate has just equipped his house with a new radio set, which friends say not only has made his home the evening social center of the neighborhood, but brings forth frequent morning yawns as well. Also having subscribed for The Jacksonville Miner recently, Mr. Farley will be one of the best posted residents of the valley.

● Mrs. Aris Throckmorton of Ruch is inconvenienced somewhat at the present, having sustained a sprained wrist when she fell at her home late last week.

● Fred Dorn has returned to his home on upper Applegate from the Sacred heart hospital, where he had his thumb amputated at the second joint from the nail Sunday. Mr. Dorn, son of Mrs. Anna Dorn of this city, was splitting wood at his home Sunday morning, when his thumb was cut severely as a result of his axe handle catching in the jumper he was wearing. He was taken to the hospital upon the advice of Dr. Harold Gillis, physician at Camp Applegate.

● Stop at the Nugget.

● Haate makes waste, according to observations of a city official of Ruch who reports that Glenn Smith, prominent young rancher there, in making as much speed as possible in his regular visit to the neighbors, failed to see a wire fence east of the service station in time to prevent being thrown on the ground by the impact. It is said that Mr. Smith ordinarily climbs the fence in his great hurry, which is speedier than crossing the stile a few yards away.

● Dave L. Jones and Walt Zeidler of Little Applegate returned a few days ago from a four-day business and pleasure trip to Scotts Valley in northern California. They were accompanied by Wm. Merritt, also of Little Applegate, who continued to Seattle, returning four days later.

● Believing that the week-end snow storm might result in snow-bound conditions at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kubli of the Gold Standard mine on Gauls creek near Gold Hill came to the Applegate a few days ago, where they are remaining with relatives until weather conditions improve.

● Mrs. Lee Port, chairman of the Jackson County Executive committee, met with other members of the committee at the courthouse auditorium at Medford Tuesday, when the group, with Mrs. Mabel Mack, entertained the chairmen of the extension units over the county. A delightful day's program was enjoyed, with a luncheon at noon, the highlight of the day's events coming in the lecture by Miss Claribel Nye of Corvallis, state leader of home economics, who spoke of the experiences she encountered in her recent work at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Port gave a history of the executive committee. Mrs. A. N. Krouse, chairman of the Applegate unit, was unable to attend the meeting on account of illness.

● Courteous service at the Nugget. Jimmy Hunt, local CCC recruit stationed at Star ranger station or the last six months, left the first of the week for Portland, having joined the navy. Mr. Hunt passed naval examinations some time ago in Portland, where his home is located.

● Jess Caldwell of Big Applegate is among the numerous people of the community recovering from the flu.

● Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hansen of Medford, accompanied by Miss Irma Thomas, spent Tuesday with relatives at Ruch.

● Mr. and Mrs. Lee Port and daughter spent Sunday in Ashland at the home of Mrs. Port's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachey, who celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary at that time, as well as the 82nd birthday anniversary of Mr. Peachey. Twenty-one relatives, all of southern Oregon, were present for the occasion.

● Claus Kleinhammer and Carl Ayres of Little Applegate were business visitors in Medford Tuesday evening.

● Mrs. Alice Hedburg returned Tuesday from Portland, where she had remained during the last two weeks, following the death of her father, Wm. Newman, which resulted from an automobile accident.

● T. S. Cady made a business trip to Ashland Tuesday, finding that city with no snow and streets dry and in good shape—more than can be said for the top of Jacksonville hill just now.

● J. F. Morley and two partners who are prospecting among the Jacksonville hills, have taken up their abode in one of T. S. Cady's cabins for the present. They propose to stay until the ground becomes visible again.

● H. R. Reichman of Wilsall, Montana, arrived Tuesday for a visit with his brother-in-law and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cady of the Summit Service station. Mr. Reichman has been visiting his sisters and other relatives in Los Angeles and vicinity and is now on his way home to Montana. His comment on our recent fall of "the beautiful" was, "This looks like home to me."

● Mrs. Nellie Mytimise, Mrs. S. H. Jones and Miss Margaret Hart attended the executive meeting of the Southwest Oregon Presbyterian society Monday.

● Mrs. Smetz, Mrs. Archie Bowman and Mrs. G. O. Sanden attended the meeting of the county P-TA held in the junior high school in Medford recently.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crumley of Butte Falls visited relatives here Saturday evening.

● Miss Patricia Hogan of Thompson creek was a week-end guest of Mrs. Anna Dorn.

● The Nugget for magazines.

● Carrol Lewis of Medford visited Tommy Dunnington Thursday.

● Mrs. M. J. Young of Canyonville visited over the week-end at the B. A. Gaddy home.

● An electric range has been purchased for the soup kitchen at the Jacksonville school.

● Miss Dorothy Gaddy is visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duran Gaddy at San Bernardino, Calif.

● Mrs. G. O. Sanden spent Thursday of last week in Ashland at an all-day meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary national association. They made six sheets for relief work.

● Dwane Childs of Griffin creek spent the week-end visiting at the Ed Vogel home.

● Mrs. George Tranta of Butte Falls was a week-end visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Butcher.

● Mrs. W. A. Childers of this city underwent a major operation at a Medford hospital Wednesday, January 16.

● Mr. and Mrs. Mefford have returned to their home at Corvallis, after spending several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Anna Knowlton.

● Ray Johnson left Tuesday for Bremerton, Wash., for an indefinite visit.

● Harry Duggan of Trail CCC camp spent Friday and Saturday in Jacksonville.

● John Dunnington of Klamath Falls is visiting at the home of his brother, Tom Dunnington, of this city.

● Mrs. Jack Green and Mrs. Stel Zigler of this city were Medford shoppers Saturday.

● The Jacksonville board of Masons club held a meeting Monday afternoon in the Masonic hall and were entertained by Mrs. Annie Cater of Medford.

● Mrs. Fred Fick of Medford called on friends in Jacksonville Monday.

● Jack Green has been ill with flu and confined to his home for the past several days. Medical treatment was administered by Dr. Finley of Medford.

● Fred Offenbacher of Applegate was a business visitor in this city Wednesday.

● Mrs. Jean Gillis, who had been suffering from the flu, is able to wait on customers at the local Chitwood's, which she now manages. Mrs. Gillis spent Monday afternoon in Medford shopping.

● Lee Port of Star ranger station was a visitor here Wednesday afternoon.

● Dr. Harold B. Gillis of Trail CCC camp was on a short business call in Jacksonville Wednesday afternoon.

● A nine-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Art Davies of Forest creek Wednesday evening at Community hospital in Medford. The young lady arrived at about 5 o'clock, when her first address was delivered, although it was quite difficult to understand, it was said by Papa Davies to mean "Hello, Mom, hello, Pop, hello, world!"

● GOATS for sale or trade for wood. Anna Knowlton, Jacksonville.

COURTESY

(An Editorial)
 With "Excuse me" and "If you please," the first graders start their knowledge of courtesy. Later comes "Thank you," and various others follow which mark the youngster as thoughtful. By the time high school is reached these small acts of thoughtfulness should have become a habit, but often they are "snowed under" by the hurry and bustle of school life, and they drop from one with such a slight tinkle they go unnoticed.

A door is slammed and there is not even an apologizing look, let alone "Excuse me" or "I'm sorry." Students often get in the way of others, but they never think until brought to task by such words as "Scram," "Get out," and "Move!"

Often students interrupt the other fellow when he may be saying something of value.

These few marks of discourtesy are not made intentionally, but they are slips that PASS in the night—but don't get BY!

NEW ROOM

A new cafeteria room is being made in one corner of the basement of the school building. It has two doorways, and is ceiled with veneer wood. There will be three 18-foot tables.

Now, and for three weeks, members of the P-TA have been serving a hot dish for each and every student wishing it with his lunch. They will continue when the new room is completed until warm weather starts again.

Each day a new committee of two ladies from the P-TA prepares the food.

MISCELLANEOUS

Charlotte Forbes is a new student from Merrill, Oregon, and enrolled in the first grade.

All of the students are working hard for the county tests and exams coming at the end of the first semester. Students of the third grade have had their arithmetic and reading tests and the fourth graders have taken arithmetic tests.

double cast was chosen as follows:
 Senor Dictorio, Paul Hess and Herbert Myers.
 Juanita, Madeleine Metzger and Ethel Caulkins.
 Benita, Shirley Cantrall and Frances Haight.
 Juan, Wayne Martin and Gail Lusk.
 Pablo, Frank Mee and Gage Sanden.
 Delores, Alice Walton and Mary Branam.
 Maria, June Wilkinson and Marcella Mitchell.
 Senor Swateo, Bud Mitchell and Bill Lorton.
 Senor Wackeo, Henry Head and Gail Lusk.
 Maxine Hill, high school student who played for the Christmas program, will again accompany the operetta.

J'VILLE LOSES FIRST GAME

In contest with the strong Central Point team last Tuesday, the Jacksonville quintets lost their first games.

In a fast game the Central Point A team won over the home-town team with the score 36-21.

On the J'ville team Bostwick and Backes, forwards, were the high players, each scoring six points. On the Central Point team Russell was high point man with 12.

As a preliminary to the A team game, the B strings played. In this conference game the Central Point boys won by the lopsided score of 23-3.

Lineups were as follows: J'ville A team—Backes, Bostwick, forwards; Littell, center; Mitchell, Ayers, guards. Substitutes: Combest, Johnson, Central Point A team—Russell, Virtue, forwards; Culbertson, center; Ayers, Conrad, guards.

FOUND IN THE DIGGIN'S

Members of the girls basketball team complaining of stiff joints after only one night's practice.

Some of the students really getting industrious as the mid-year final exams approach.

Snow causing a number of students to come to school with cold feet.

P. S.: The girls basketball team won a game from the eighth grade. Isn't it wonderful?

Someone heard asking this question: "How much rain fell during the reign of Queen Elizabeth?"

Madeleine whispering above a talk. Elliott seen taking a lot of interest in English class.

The boys basketball squad feeling pretty good over their win from Phoenix. We can't blame them.

Valerie and Alice imitating a pair of lovebirds. I think they were little doves.

OLD MOTHER HUBBARD, 1935

By FRED M. LAW

Old Mother Hubbard looked in the cupboard
 As long as her dear eyes could see
 For a bone or some meat, or something to eat,
 To stop her poor dog's misery.

The old dog sat beside her
 As thin as a spider;
 He gave forth a whine and a groan
 And old Mother Hubbard just looked, and she rubbed just
 To find the old dog a bone.

Now old Mother Hubbard just stewed and she blubbered
 And says "I can't hardly see
 How the dog can get strong, or even live long,
 If I can't stop his great misery."

So old Mother Hubbard, she gave up the cupboard
 And sat herself down in despair.
 The old dog, he lay down,
 Or at least touched the ground with bones, hide and hair.

At last a thought struck her:
 She gave him some supper
 And the old doggie howled a deep tone;
 She'd chopped off his tail, cooked it up in a pail
 And fed the old dog his bone.

100% SALES TAX NEEDED TO PAY TOWNSEND PLAN

Noting that the bureau of the census gives the total of retail business in the nation for 1933 as slightly over 24 billion dollars, the editor of the Grants Pass Bulletin suggests that as the Townsend plan calls for a payment of about the same amount, based on $200 a month to each of the 10 million people over 60, it would require nearly a 100 per cent sales tax, rather than the claimed two per cent.—Newberg (Ore.) Scribe.
