

About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

● The engagement of Miss June Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of this city, to Mr. Richard Mann of Medford, was received with much interest by many friends. Miss Hall and Mr. Mann were both graduates of Medford high school a few years ago. The wedding date has been set for Sunday, February 2. The bride was given a linen shower at the home of fiance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mann, at which time she received many beautiful and useful gifts.

● Miss Silvia Provost, who is a student nurse at Stanford Hospital in San Francisco, arrived in Ashland Tuesday, January 29, to stay two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost, on Meade street.

● Attending the ski meet at Snowman's Hill near Mount Shasta Sunday were Fred Taylor, H. L. Claycomb, Dom Provost, P. R. Burke and H. Lyman.

● Mrs. Marcia Ross entertained at a salad bridge on Saturday at 1:30 for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Ross, who had been spending a few days with Mrs. Ross before her departure for her new home in Tacoma, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Ross and their young son returned to Tacoma on Tuesday. Mrs. Ross had the rooms of her lovely home on North Main attractively decorated in pink and green, with green candles shedding a mellow light over the guests. High score prizes for each table went to Mrs. H. G. Enders, Mrs. Roy Frazier and Mrs. W. E. Bartlett. The beautiful guest gift was presented to Mrs. George Ross. Guests included Mesdames Ward V. Croft, C. A. Haines, Ed Miller

Jr., H. L. Claycomb, P. R. Hardy, G. M. Green, Howard Hobson, W. E. Bartlett, Otis Hobson, Edwin Dunn, Dom Provost, Gerald Wenner, C. W. Fortmiller, Melvin Kaegi, R. L. Burdic and the honored guest, Mrs. George Ross. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ross will be sorry to see them leave the city as they both were very well liked in the business and social circles.

● Arthur Abbott of Liberty street has been ill for the last several days, but is improving.

● Under doctor's orders, Dan Kay of the Automotive shop will take a month's vacation. Mr. Kay has been ill for the past few weeks, but hopes to be entirely recovered at the end of his rest period.

● Mrs. George Walls entertained on Tuesday afternoon, January 29, at a bridge luncheon held on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Lithia. The guests enjoyed six tables of contract bridge, and a very attractive and delightful luncheon was served.

● Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Anne E. Harris of Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Harris was the mother of Mrs. Etta O'Brien and Mr. James Harris, and grandmother of Bill and Betty O'Brien, and Jim Bush, state police officer, all of Ashland.

● Among the many shoppers to be in Ashland Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCoy of Talent.

● When Wimpy returns to Ashland he will find a new coat of paint adorning his favorite lunch stand, Sherm's Hamburger shop, on East Main.

● You may be able to find an honest man with a lantern, but J. H. Carter of Carter's service station on the boulevard would like to find a dishonest man or men with electric light globes. Sunday night thieves appropriated all the globes from his gas dispensary and Carter is still in the dark about who the culprits might be.

● Mrs. J. M. Hughes of 264 Oak street entertained eight friends with two tables of bridge Wednesday evening.

● Dr. C. A. Haines, who went to Portland last Wednesday on a business trip, returned to the city on Sunday morning.

● Mrs. P. R. Hardy, who underwent a major operation at the Community hospital last week, is doing as well as can be expected, and hopes to return home by the end of this week.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Starr spent the week-end in Ashland with Mr. Starr's mother, Mrs. F. B. Kenney of B street. Mr. and Mrs. Starr recently made their home in Grants Pass, where Mr. Starr holds a position under the State Highway commission.

● Mr. George Walls of the Lithia hotel returned to Ashland Wednesday after spending a week in Salem and Portland on a business trip.

● On Wednesday, February 6, the Civic club will have a covered dish dinner at the Civic clubhouse, honoring the Mayor, Mr. Thomson Wiley, city official's and the Service club. Members are requested to bring their husbands or a friend.

● The Sons were complimented by the faculty on their excellent mixer given by the Art club of the school. The club followed the theme of "Winter in Greenwich" throughout the evening. Music was furnished by the Whipple orchestra and seemed to be appreciated by the student body.

● The Alpha Tauri dramatic society of the Southern Oregon Normal school held their quarterly initiation and banquet Sunday at the summit of the Siskiyou. The party skidded until 7 o'clock and then attended the banquet. Later in the evening four of the neophytes presented a take-off from a recent popular play. Then Mr. Angus Bowmer showed some of the moving pictures that he had taken at the Sons-Monmouth game and at the pageant which he directed for the Diamond Jubilee last summer. Members of the O-year-un-gon cast who appeared in the pageant recorded excellent imitations of some of the Hollywood and Broadway celebrities, and at 10:30 the party came back to Ashland.

● Mrs. Erford Poole, who underwent an appendicitis operation at the Community hospital Monday morning, expects to return home by the end of the week.

● Mr. and Mrs. Wren Newhouse and son and daughter, Buster and Cora, have sold their ranch on Route 1 and are planning to live in Ashland.

● Miss Ruth Severance of Jacksonville, who has been teaching in the local high school for the past year and a half, has resigned her position and returned home. From there she plans to go back to Hawaii very soon.

● The semi-annual violin recital of pupils of Lawrence Hubert has been set tentatively for February 8, at the Lithia hotel.

● With over 30 young Ashland violinists appearing on the program, almost every type of violin music will be presented. The pupils range from elementary to very advanced players, and it is expected that as usual the recital hall will be crowded with Ashland music lovers who are invited to attend. A complete program will be printed later.

● Miss Nellie Dickey left for Los Angeles on Tuesday to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Kervin. She intends to remain in the south for at least a week or 10 days.

● Herman McFarland, who was recently injured while working in the woods for the CCC and who has been in Sacramento for treatment, sent word to his mother, Mrs. Lillian McFarland, that he was rapidly improving.

● Mrs. M. M. Brower entertained the Fortnightly Study club on Monday afternoon. A short topic, "Kansas on the Carib," presented by Mrs. Ruth Newby, was very interesting. Mrs. G. A. Briscoe gave a book review of "A Child Went Forth." These topics followed the regular business meeting. At the close of the program, dainty and attractive refreshments were served.

● Dr. Walter Redford, president of the Southern Oregon Normal school, returned home Tuesday, after being in Corvallis for a short time. Dr. Redford went to Corvallis to attend a meeting of the presidents of the normal schools of Oregon. The meeting was for the purpose of ascertaining the rating of the school faculties.

● Miss Ruby Howell and Lathan Stevens were married on Wednesday, January 16, at Medford. Mrs. Stevens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garle of Valley View. She was a graduate of Ashland high school in 1933. Mr. Stevens is the son of Mr. L. Stevens of Central Point, where the young couple have been staying since their marriage. All of their many friends wish them the best happiness and good luck.

● Mr. W. R. Clapp, father of Mrs. Ves Hood, left for Portland on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Hood will undergo a major operation there today.

Ashland Music Club Presents Thursday Evening Program

Ashland Music Study Club presented an enjoyable program on Thursday evening, January 31 at the Civic Club house at 7:45 o'clock. The program was based on what is known as "Chamber Music." The opening number was followed by a discussion and definition of Chamber Music. This was very creditably handled by Mrs. W. E. Kissinger.

A piano duet by Marjorie Freeman and Cleone Stoner followed, "Anitra's Dance" by Grieg.

Vivian Freeman, accomplished violinist, presented three numbers, "Rondino," "Kreisler," and selections from "Il Trovatore," accompanied by Sebastian Apollo, of Medford.

A featured attraction of the evening was a string quartet of local people, Dr. Harvey A. Woods, violin, J. G. Anderson, violin, Chester Woods, cello, and Ruth Hardy, violin.

The fourth number by Miss Dolores Rodriguez of Medford, included a group of Spanish songs, "Bizet and Clavelitos," sung in Spanish, "To the Sun," in English, and "Habanera," in English.

The fifth, and concluding number, was played by Sebastian Apollo of Medford, "Tarantella" and Sherzo.

The committee who arranged this program, A. Bert Freeman, Mrs. Paul Byers, and Mrs. C. D. Elhart, are to be complimented for the excellent entertainment they presented.

'Gate Endeavorites Try' Church for Charge of Russians

Since "The Church" was the Christian Endeavor topic for last Sunday, that subject found an unusual method of treatment in the Upper Applegate Endeavor circle which convened in the evening at Camp Applegate. Assuming a charge based on the popular opinion of Russians that "the church is an opiate of the people," the society directed study of the topic in the form of a trial by jury and tried the church on the Russian charge.

Linden McCullough, educational advisor at Camp Applegate, acted as judge. The prosecution was represented by Nicholas Dyingoff, with Ren McCloy serving as defense counsel. The jury box was filled with CCC youths who rendered a verdict of acquittal of the church, 10-2.

The Endeavor period was preceeded by a 5 o'clock dinner served by the Camp Applegate personnel to which the Christian workers and the immediate community were invited. The Christian Endeavor society will meet henceforth at the regular hour of 10:30 a. m.
