EAGLES FEED IS ENJOYED BY 75

Tuesday night aerie No. 2147, Ashland Eagles, were hosts to about 75 members and representative businessmen at a stag banquet at their hall at 135 East Main street. Special guest speakers and a chicken dinner rounded out an evening declared a success by officers of the lodge.

Chief speaker of the evening was A. H. Banwell, worthy president of the Medford FOE., who outlined a brief history of the Eagle order from its beginning 37 years ago till today, now boasting three-quarters of a million members; of its accomplishments and plans. He also explained the Medford aerie's boys club, organized to promote boys' interests in hobbies and sports which will tend to keep them off the streets and out of mischief.

Other speakers of the evening were Dr. S. H. Kresse, Frank Shaeffer, Jack Huston, Virgil Gillette, George Tucker and Sheriff Syd I. Brown, all of Medford. Among the most prominent guests from this city were Mayor Thornton Wiley, Councilman Guy Applewhite, Fire Chief Clint Baughman, J. W. McCoy, Sam McNair, Paul McDonald, Oscar Silver, Scott Hastings and Ben Gibson.

Music for the evening was furnished by the Ashland Eagles orchestra.

Special mention was made to all Eagles of district gathering of all lodges in southern Oregon at Medford Saturday, February 9, at which time the Grand Worthy President will be in attendance.

HIGH TRIAL COST $878.38

Cost for ferreting out guilt in the Robert N. (Babe) High barn burning case was set at $878.38 Tuesday by the district attorney's office in a cost bill filed with the county clerk. The costs were assessed to the High brothers, who were recently found guilty of burning the Balfour Guthrie barn near Ashland January 4, 1933. The brothers are at liberty on $2500 bonds pending an appeal to the state supreme court.

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

- Wallace Haskins, who had been receiving treatment at the Veterans' hospital at Roseburg during the last two months, was transferred recently to the Portland Veterans' hospital, according to word received by Applegate relatives. Mr. Haskins, who had been in ill health for some time, returned to the Applegate last summer from Pekin, Illinois, where he had made his home for several years.
- Miss Faye Perkins of Cortez, Colorado, is spending the week as a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Hanscam, of Little Applegate. Miss Perkins has been in Oregon for the last month, expecting to remain here for some time.
- Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wise of Gold Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer Sunday. Mrs. Wise will be remembered locally as the former Celia Combest.
- Henry A. Schneider, local CCC boy, underwent a tonsil operation Saturday. Dr. D. H. Findley of Medford was the attending physician.
- Mrs. Louisa Ray, pioneer of the Applegate, is critically ill at her home, following a paralytic stroke late last week. Mrs. Ray is under the care of Miss Katherine Buckley, local nurse.
- Western Union at the Nugget. W. H. McDaniel has returned to his home on Applegate after spending three weeks at Yakima with his son, Glenn McDaniel, who also returned here with his father. The younger Mr. McDaniel will remain here with his parents for some time, while recuperating from head injuries sustained in an automobile wreck in the north last summer.
- Mr. and Mrs. John Matney entertained 25 local guests with a party at their home near Ruch Saturday evening, when dancing and games were enjoyed. Mrs. Harry Brown also was hostess to the whist players of her community on the same evening. High score was held by Miss Mary Beatty and Orr Brown and low by Mrs. Harry Brown and Jack O'Brien. The unusual luck of Miss Beatty and Harry Brown proved to be the highlight of the evening's playing, that couple maintaining their place at the head table throughout the entire succession of games.
- Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bostwick and family of Bellview spent the weekend on Applegate as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Offenbacher.
- Mrs. Emmett Phillips of Squaw Lake is spending a few weeks with Big Applegate relatives, being a guest at present of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Culy.
- Having resided near Table Rock for several months, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker returned Tuesday to their former home near Ruch.
- Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer went to Jacksonville late last week, where she attended the regular meeting of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, which was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Jones. A covered dish luncheon was served to the 16 ladies in attendance.
- Stop at the Nugget. Members of the Ruch sewing circle met for an interesting session at the school house there Wednesday. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Dick Kerr and Mrs. Ivan McDonough.
- Playground equipment has been installed recently at the Ruch school, including swings, teeters, and a jumping pit.
- A wedding which came as a surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Mabel Roberts of Missouri Flat and Dick Head of the Applegate, which occurred Tuesday at Grants Pass. The newlyweds are remaining at Grants Pass for the present.
- Courteous service at the Nugget. Having ceased activity for several weeks owing to snow and freezing weather, the Aurora Mining company of Little Applegate is operating again under charge of J. F. Mathews. Three shifts are being maintained daily.
- The School Improvement club of the Applegate school district is making preparations to present a three-act play in March. Selection of the play will be completed soon.
- An unusually fine evening was reported by Applegate Grangers who met for their regular meeting Friday. The first and second obligation was taken by Mrs. Beatrice Sullivan, while Wm. Clute received the third and fourth. An interesting lecturer's program was presented, followed by musical numbers and a grand march during which members were pleasantly surprised with presentation of a large box of pop corn balls by Mrs. F. L. Johnson. About 45 Grangers were in attendance, including all officers. A combination radio-phonograph, being tried out with a view to purchasing, was enjoyed during the evening.
- Mrs. Carriger and Mrs. Harry Whitney were recent all-day visitors in Medford, Mrs. Whitney spending the day visiting at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith.
- The Nugget for cold drinks. Miss Violet Olson, accompanied by a friend, Medford high school student, visited the Jacksonville high school Tuesday of the past week. Miss Olson is a former Jacksonville girl. A group of six Medford school girls also visited the local school the latter part of the week.
- Mrs. Rickstein and mother of Medford visited at the home of - Mrs. Anna Knowlton and mother, Mrs. Kate Bonin, recently.

- Dr. D. A. Forbes and Mrs. Mae Forbes of Eagle Point were callers in Jacksonville recently.
- Mrs. Jim Winingham and daughter of Forest Creek called on relatives here one day last week.
- Guy Watkins of Copper entered high school here January 21.
- Mr. and Mrs. Elton Hodges of Spencer Guich visited at the James Anderson home here recently.
- Mr. and Mrs. George Wells and small son of Yucca, Ariz., have returned to their home there. They came here about two months ago and Mr. Wells worked at the Theide mine.
- Mrs. G. O. Sanden journeyed to Ashland January 20 and attended an evening program of the Presbyterian church.
- Mr. and Mrs. Vroman and family of Medford visited at the S. E. Dunnington home Sunday.
- The Nugget for magazines.
- Mr. and Mrs. Callis Lyons and family, who came here from Idaho last fall, have moved into the Howard Lewis home.
- Dorothy and Walter Cadwalder of Medford, spent the week-end visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Flitcroft.
- Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yocum of Medford visited at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hilton, Sunday.

Are YOU HAPPY After Meals
Or Do Gas on Stomach and Sour Stomach make you Miserable?
Too much food, or the wrong kind of food, too much smoking, too much beer, make your body over-acid. Then you have distress after eating, gas on stomach, heartburn, sour stomach.
ALKA - SELTZER relieves these troubles promptly, effectively, harmlessly.
Use Alka-Seltzer for Headache, Colds, Fatigue, "Morning After Feeling," Muscular, Sciatic and Rheumatic Pains.
Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline drink. As it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.
Alka-Seltzer tastes like carbonated mineral spring water—works like magic. Contains no dangerous drugs....does not depress the heart....is not laxative.
Get a drink at your Drug Store Soda Fountain. Keep a package in your home medicine cabinet.
